DR. DARIUS HAM'S

AROMATIC INVIGORATING SPIRIT.

This medicine has been used by the public for six years, with increasing favor. It is commended to cure Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Heartburn, Colic Pains, Wind in the Stomach, or Pains in the Bowels, Headache, Drowsiness, Kidney Complaints, Low Spirits, Delirium Tremens, Intemperance. It Stimulates, Exhilarates, Invigorates, but will not Intoxicate or Stupefy.

As a Medicine, it is quick and effectual, curing the most aggravated cases of Dyspepsia, Kidney Complaints, and all other derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, in a speedy manner.

It will instantly revive the most melancholy and drooping spirits, and restore the weak, nervous and sickly to health, strength and vigor.

Persons who from the injudicious use of liquors, have become dejected, and their nervous systems shattered, constitutions broken down, and subject to that horrible curse to humanity, the Delirium Tremens, will, almost immediately, feel the happy and invigorating efficacy of Dr. Ham's Invigorating Spirit.

What it will do!

DOSE.—1 wine glass full as often as necessary.
One dose will remove all Bad Spirits.
One dose will cure Heartburn.
Three doses will cure Indigestion.
One dose will give you a good appetite.
One dose will stop the distressing pains of Dyspepsia.

One dose will remove the distressing and disagreeable effects of Wind or Flatulence, and as soon as the Stomach receives the Invigorating Spirit, the distressing load and all painful feelings will be removed.

One dose will remove the most distressing pains of Colic, either in the stomach or bowels.

A few doses will remove all obstructions in the Kidney, Bladder or Urinary Organs.

Persons who are seriously afflicted with any Kidney Complaints, are assured speedy relief by a dose or two, and a radical cure by the use of one or two bottles.

NIGHTLY DISSIPATION.

Persons who, from dissipating too much over night, and feel the evil effects of poisonous liquors, in violent headaches, sickness at stomach weakness, giddiness &c., will find one dose will remove all bad feelings.

Ladies of weak and sickly constitutions, should take the Invigorating Spirit three times a day; it will make them strong, healthy, and happy, remove all obstructions and irregularities from the menstrual organs, and restore the bloom of health and beauty to the careworn face.

During pregnancy it will be found an invaluable medicine to remove disagreeable sensations at the stomach.

All the proprietor asks, is a trial, and to induce this, he has put up the INVIGORATING SPIRIT in pint bottles, at 50 cents, qts $1.

DR. MOTT'S
PILLS & IRON

An aperient and Stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Humorous in all maladies in which it has been tried—it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

IN DEBILITY, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, EMACIATIONS, CONSTIPATION, DIARRHŒA, DYSPEPSIA, DYSENTERY, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, SALT RHEUM, MISMENSTRUATION, WHITES, CHLOROSIS, RHEUMATISM, INTERMITTENT FEVERS, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, &c.

In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of acute disease or of the continued elimination of nervous and mental energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if returned from protracted travel in distant lands. Some very signal instances of this kind are at hand of female sufferers, emaciated victims or apparent martyrs, suspicion, consumption, hysterical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.

In NERVOUS AFFECTIONS of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old oxides, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and alive to nervous, and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a cure for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency, which forms them.

In DYSPEPSIA, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has been sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In unchecked DIARRHŒA, even when advanced to DYSENTERY, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent hectic, which so early indicate INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most carefully balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well-known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In RHEUMATISM, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, in particular, accidentally—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints.

In INTERMITTENT FEVERS it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has ever been discovered, in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects, in cases of impaired appetite, rapid acquisition of strength, with an natural disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow the use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by Druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to SHAKER FARMING.—The publisher of the New Hampshire Journal of Agriculture, has lately taken a drive in Canterbury, of which he says:—We passed through the village of the Shakers. Their buildings presented a fine appearance, as did also some of their fields. But from what we saw and heard, could not avoid the conclusion that they are not what we supposed them to be—model farmers. They excel in the quality of their manufactures, and in raising seeds and herbs; but beyond these they are behind the "world's people." Their new barn is a fine structure to look and or talk about, but whether it shall prove a monument of their folly or wisdom, remains to be seen. Of its convenience there can be no question; but there are reasons why we should prefer several smaller barns, were as many needed. Among them we may mention an exposure to total destruction by fire, and the danger from a more rapid spread of any contagion that might break out in the herd of cattle.

The number of Shakers in Canterbury is about 200. The laborers, having no aspirations, or ambition to excel,—looking for no reward but the supply of their bodily wants, peform their task in a slothful and slovenly manner, not unlike, perhaps, the slave of the south. Especially is this manifest in their field operations, where we saw the weeds towering high above the grain, and standing almost as thick, and where the mowers had passed, leaving half the value of the grass standing. On the whole, we were very unfavorably impressed with the Shakers, as farmers; but perhaps a closer observation might lead to different conclusions.

"All is not gold that glitters," says the old proverb, and verily it is as true now as ever.

A correspondent of the New Hampshire Journal of Agriculture, writing from Adams, Mass., says:—

I came through Lynn, Boston, &c., to the little manufacturing village, called N. E. Village, and learned something about making bogus jewelry with which the country is flooded, either by peddlers or gift-book enterprises. One company is making eardrops of a composition called oreide, which will sell for gold, but is not worth so much as brass. The other company is manufacturing gold chains, out of German silver, brass, or oreide. The process of making was interesting to me, and may be to others. I'll give it.

The links are cut from wire or plate, according to the kind of the chain; sometimes soldered before putting into a chain, and sometimes afterwards. After it is linked it is drawn through a machine to even it—boiled in vitriol water to take off the scales caused by heating—drawn through a limbering machine, and dipped in acid to clean it, after which it is dipped in a solution of pure silver, and finally dipped in a gold coloring,—making a chain which they sell at the rate of $12 to $18 a dozen. This is gift-enterprise jewelry, which is marked, "Lady's splendid gold chain, $12; "Gent's guard chain, $8," or "$10," &c. The eardrops cost less, and are often marked higher.

CULTIVATE CHEERFULNESS.—An anxious, restless temper, that runs to meet care on its way, that regrets lost opportunities too much, and that is over-painstaking in contrivances for happiness, is foolish, and should not be indulged. If you cannot be happy in one way, be happy in another, and this facility of disposition wants but little aid from philosophy, for good health and good humor are almost the whole affair. Many run about after felicity, like an absent-minded man hunting for his hat, when it is on his head, or in his hand.—Though sometimes small evils, like invisible insects, inflict great pain, and a single hair may stop a vast machine; yet the chief secret of comfort lies in not suffering trifles to vex one, and in prudently cultivating an undergrowth of small pleasures, since very few great ones, alas! are let on long leases.
—Richard Sharp.

ABOUT THIRTY.—Mr. Charles Cist, who took the census of the city in 1840, and is taking the census of the Fifth Ward this year, tells a good anecdote of a conversation between himself and a married lady, which will bear repeating:—

"Madam, what age shall I put you down? [No direct answer.] How old is your husband?"

"Sixty-one."

"And your eldest son?"

"Twenty-seven."

"And the next?"

"Twenty-one."

"And how old did you call yourself?"

"I do not know my age exactly, but it is about thirty!"

"Did I understand you, madam, that your eldest son was twenty-seven?"

"Yes."

"You must surely, then, be more than thirty!"

"Well, sir, [quite snappishly,] I told you about thirty. I can't tell exactly; it may be thirty-one or two, but I am positive not over that!"—Cincinnati Gazette.

"Father," said a sporting youth to his parent, "they say that trout will bite now." "Well, well," was the consoling reply, "mind your work, and they won't bite you."

APPLEDORE HOUSE,
ISLES OF SHOALS.

This favorite resort for the man of leisure and the invalid is now open. Since last year many alterations and additions have been made, increasing its capacity. Billiard and Bowling Saloons are provided, and every measure taken to secure the comfort and amusement of its guests. An abundance of sweet cream and milk is supplied from healthy cows kept on the Island. The table is faultless. The facilities for fishing have been increased by the addition of new boats and experienced skippers.

When to all these advantages are added the purity of the air—the delicious coolness of the ocean breeze, its invigorating and appetizing power—the loveliness of the scenery—the glory of its sunsets—the cleanliness of its walks—its freeness from dust, mud, and all other annoyances of the kind—it may truly be said to possess advantages and attractions which no other watering place in New England can attain. The equability of the temperature is a natural advantage over the coast or the mountains, which invalids can fully appreciate.

A daily Packet, the SIBYL, Capt. Preble, runs direct to Appledore from Portsmouth, leaving Pier 1 Portland at the arrival of the morning train from Boston, and returns in the afternoon. The Sibyl has every accommodation for the comfort of passengers which a Packet requires.

THE ONLY PREPARATION
Having Proof so Strong and Direct
as to
Expel the Doubts of All.

For Statesmen, Judges, Editors, Physicians of the oldest schools as well as new, give it their unqualified sanction, and recommend it for all cases of eruptions, and diseases of the scalp and brain; but all woo have used it, unite in testifying that it will preserve the hair from being gray, and from falling to any age, as well as restore.—Read the following:—

Oak Grove, S. C., June 24, 1859.

Prof. O. J. Wood:—Dear:—Your Hair Restorative is rapidly gaining popularity in this community. I have had occasion to lay prejudice aside, and give your Hair Restorative a perfect test:—

During the year 1854, I was so unfortunate as to be thrown from my saiky against a rock near the roadside, from which my head received a most terrible blow; causing a great deal of irritation, which communicated to the brain and external surface of the head, from the effects of which my hair was entirely destroyed. From the time I first discovered its dropping, however, up to the time of its total disappearance, I employed everything I could think of, being a professional man myself, and as I thought, understanding the nature of the disease, but was finally defeated in every prescription advanced.

These and no other circumstances induced me to resort to your valuable "Hair Restorative," which I have every reason to believe, produced a very happy result: two months after the first application, I had as beautiful a head of young hair as I ever saw, for which I certainly owe you my sincere thanks. Rest assured, dear sir, I shall recommend your remedy to all my friends; moreover, I shall use my influence, which I flatter myself to say, is not a little.

You can publish this if you think proper.

Yours, very respectfully,
M. J. WRIGHT, M. D.

Jeffersonian Office, Phillipi, Va., Dec. 12, 1859.

Professor O. J. Wood:—Dear Sir: I feel it my duty as well as my pleasure, to state to you the following circumstance, which you can use as you think proper. A gentleman of this place, (a lawyer,) has been bald ever since his early youth; so much so, that he was compelled to wear a wig. He was induced to see a bottle of your "Hair Restorative," which he liked very much; and after using some two or three bottles his hair grew out quite luxuriantly, and he now has a handsome head of hair. The gentleman's name is Bradford, and as he is very well known in our adjoining counties, many persons can testify to the truth of this statement. I give this to you at the request of Mr. Bradford. You can sell a great deal of your Hair Restorative in this and the adjoining counties.

Yours, &c.,
THOMPSON SURGHNOR.

Dr. Wood—Dear Sir—Permit me to express the obligations I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color; about the time of my arrival in the United States it was rapidly becoming gray, but upon the application of your Hair Restorative it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative as a very wonderful invention, quite efficacious as well as agreeable.

S. THALBERG.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds about twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 29, 1860.

THE TEXAS TROUBLES.—The Boston Post of Monday says,—The destruction of the larger part of the town of Henderson, Texas, by an incendiary fire, is confirmed. The principal hotel and all but one of the business houses were destroyed. The loss is estimated at from $175,000 to $250,000; $50,000 worth of goods were burnt in the street after removal from stores. All the supplies of groceries, etc., for the town and neighborhood were burned, leaving many families reduced to want. A negro woman belonging to a man named Herndon, a small tavern keeper, confessed to having started the fire. The master and his brother are under arrest as being concerned in the affair. Herndon was already accused of having dealt with slaves for stolen goods. The committee were investigating the affair, and many negroes confessed to a knowledge of a general plot for incendiarism and murder. In Galveston ten attempts at incendiarism were made in a single week. The female portion of the communities are considerably agitated by the frequently recurring fires. The woods around Bastrop seemed to be alive with runaway slaves. Not less than six have been confined in the county jail within a week or ten days. Some of them bail from a long way off, and declare their intention was to enter Mexican territory, where they expected to be free. A letter written by Col. Nat Terry, dated Fort Worth, July 24th, says—"We are in an intense excitement, growing out of these organized burnings that have been going on. Some seven white men have been hung, and I expect before it is over, not less than fifty negroes will be hung. We have discovered an extensive plan for an insurrection, instigated by abolition emissaries.

☞ New England gold has often been found in the States of Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, and Massachusetts,—creating some temporary excitement, but not in such abundance as would reward the miners. Several gold discoveries have been recently made in New Hampshire. A miner from California, in the town of Lebanon, some two weeks since, thought from the appearance of the soil about, that gold might be found in the Hinckley Brook, as it is called, that rises in the Grantham Mountains, and running north through Plainfield, empties into the Connecticut river at Lebanon. He took a pan of dirt from the banks, and immediately found the gold coloring. Since then a few persons have built a flume and intend to test the matter, though on account of the late rains and the rise of the streams they have not made much progress. They have taken a few ounces of gold, mostly small scales, and the largest piece the size of a pea, but all of remarkable purity. Mr. W. O. Haskell of Boston, who has a chair factory in Lebanon, was there last week, and washed out some specimens himself.

OUT WEST.—In travelling with this unnatural (railroad) rapidity toward sundown, I must not forget to record the difficulty I found in keeping the time of day. Between New York and St. Louis, of course, we were to gain an hour and ten minutes on the clock.

Another startling variation of standard is in the scale of labor as you go out West. It is thus briefly stated in a Report to the Historical Society by Hon. T. O. Edwards:—"Fifty years' labor in New England, twenty years in Ohio, and five years in Wisconsin, produce about the same agricultural result." When we add to this that the amount of legal interest in Wisconsin is twelve per cent., it will easily be understood how life at the West seems altogether faster and more fruitful—not measurable, in fact, by any such chronology or arithmetic as taught us in the school-books of the East.—N. P. Willis.

Yes, and the mushroon West is continually skinning the much-despised East by draining off laborers and hiring her capital at great rates of interest, and never returning the principal—thus cramping the East doubly, by keeping funds out of the reach of the business men who remain at home.

☞ In regard to the insult to our flag at Rio Hache, New Granada, a Baranquilla correspondent of the N. Y. Herald says it amounts to nothing. The flag was pulled down by some soldiers who had got into a quarrel with a servant of the Consul, while the latter was in the act of hoisting it. It appears further that there is no American in the place, and that Mr. Davis, the Consul, is a Dutchman—an old resident who mixes himself up considerably in local political affairs, and is said to be wholly ignorant of American interests.

A PREVENTIVE.—The Prussian Government has issued a proclamation in which it humanely recommends all sailors employed in the Prussian navy to take, before going to sea, five to six drops of chloroform, in a wine-glass-full of barley water, as it is considered an admirable preventive against the horrors of sea-sickness.

Corkscrews have sunk more people than cork jackets will ever keep up.

☞ Mr. Edson C. Eastman, of Concord, has just published, in a volume of near 300 pages, "The Sisters of Soleure: a Tale of the Sixteenth Century. By C. S. W."

The tale is a romantic and stirring story; the scene laid in Switzerland, three hundred years ago; and the heroines two sisters, the daughters of a Protestant mother and Roman Catholic father. Their fortunes and misfortunes are interwoven with the religious contests and controversies of that day, investing the whole with absorbing interest, to the lovers of romance. The book is for sale in Portsmouth by J. H. Foster.

A MAD HORSE.—A horse belong to Michael Dolan, of Roxbury, which had been unwell for some days, was turned into a pasture, whence he entered the premises of Thomas Groom. Here he bit a horse attached to a carriage. The bitten horse leaped over a gate, and clearing the vehicle, ran away. Dolan's horse next visited the stable of James Glover, on the same street, in which Albert Glover was standing. The infuriated animal rushed upon him and seized his cap. Mr. Glover escaped through a side door, leaving the Dolan horse, which immediately commenced an attack upon a horse belong to Mr. Glover, which was severely bitten. During the attack the mad horse slipped and fell to the floor. Mr. Glover, who was watching his movements, sprang out, and seizing him by the head, held him until assistance arrived, when he was killed. The horse had lately been purchased by Mr. Dolan.

☞ The New York correspondent of the Charleston Mercury does not seem to be very hopeful over the fusion prospects in his State. He says:

"There is now no doubt that the Breckinridge men of New York will unite with the Douglas and Bell-Everett parties in an attempt to defeat Lincoln. All conservative people here favor this plan, and are in a hurry to have it consummated, as no time should be lost in drilling the odds and ends into a compact and efficient mass. The Douglas and Breckinridge affiliation will be a very easy matter, but the zealous co-operation of the Bell-Everett folks is not so surely counted on. They lean, by instinct and sympathy, to Lincoln, and should they suspect that their leaders intend to sell them out to Douglas, they will certainly vote the Lincoln electoral ticket instead of the fusion one. No one can guess where the votes are to come from which will conquer Lincoln in this State."

"The Douglas men are very exultant at the defeat of fusion in Pennsylvania. In Virginia it is plain that the Douglas men will, as in Maryland, do all they can to prevent Breckinridge from obtaining the electoral votes of that State, and the result is regarded as doubtful. But it is gross absurdity on the part of the Douglas Staunton Convention to claim Virginia for Douglas and Johnson. That ticket will not obtain more than ten thousand votes in Virginia, probably not eight."

☞ The New York Times states on the best authority that the Mexican question is on the point of being peremptorily settled by decisive intervention on part of France, England, Spain and Prussia, who have signed a convention for the pacification of Mexico, to which they propose to obtain the adhesion of the United States, but which they will carry into effect without, if it be refused.

ST. LOUIS, August 27.—There is considerable excitement in Hancock county, Illinois, relative to a rumor that the Mormons mean to return and settle at Nauvoo, under the lead of Joe Smith, Jr. A mass meeting of citizens at Carthage declared they would not allow it.

AFRICAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY BROKEN UP.—Late advices from Sierra Leone report that the Church Missionary station, at Maybell, had been wantonly destroyed and plundered by a party of Kissos, the missionaries only escaping with their lives.

FALL OF CHURCH WALLS.—Bristol, R. I., Aug. 27.—At half-past four this morning the roof and clear story walls of the Episcopal Church, in the course of erection here, fell with a great noise. The end and side walls are considerably damaged.—Cause, defective columns. No one injured.

☞ A gig—a veritable "one-horse shay"—once the property of Stephen Girard, was sold in Philadelphia recently for $16.50. Some dealer in old iron, or it may have been an admirer of the former owner of the vehicle, immediately offered the purchaser $3.50 for his bargain. He was at once taken up.

Horse Peddler.—I ask three hundred and fifty dollars for that horse, and he is dog cheap at that price. Buyer.—Well, he may be, but I will give you just fifty dollars for him, and not a cent more. Horse Peddler. You can take him, but it is the biggest discount that ever I did make on one horse.

☞ The number of Christians killed in Syria is 15,000 at least. In Damascus, 8000 were slain. It is stated that 3000 Christian women were sold for a little more than a dollar a head. The sum paid was 25 piastres for each woman, and the Turkish piastre is worth about half a dime.

It is thought that Mr. Martin, the wherry man, will be arrested for being engaged in the slave trade, he having made such a slave of himself.

PORTSMOUTH AND ITS ENVIRONS;

A PROGRAMME FOR PLEASURE SEEKERS.

BY J. H. H.—NO. IV.

We pass out from the city's feverish hum,
To find refreshment in the silent woods,
And nature, that is beautiful and dumb,
Like a cool sleep upon the pulses broods—
Yet, even there, a restless thought will steal
To teach the indolent heart it still must feel.
—Willis.

HIGHLAND COTTAGE.—When berries are ripe, it is the time to visit this popular retreat. The road is one of the finest to drive over, and the scenery beautiful. On arriving at the Cottage, you will first indulge in strawberries and cream, then take a stroll through the gardens, which are laid out in beds of every conceivable form, and filled with choice flowers. You cannot help purchasing one or more of the pretty bouquets so tastefully arranged.

A short drive brings you to Stratham Hill. Fastening your horse at the base, you make the ascent. You may feel a trifle weary, but it is fine exercise, and when once at the summit you will not regret that you started. At your feet, stretched out like a large mirror, glistening and sparkling in the sunlight, are the waters of Great Bay. Spread before you are beautiful valleys, green as a velvet carpet, studded with buildings and villages—that look like dots in the distance—and embraced on all sides by hills, of which those nearest in the prospect reveal their rocks, pine trees and foliage. The next in the receding distance are fainter, and of a purplish green; the next, of a darker hue; while far in the fading view the summits of the White Hills rise up like an exhalation.

The afternoon sun was throwing its level beams through those many-colored ranges, and on one of them an aged oak, with heavy trunk and gnarled limbs, stood picturesquely prominent. After getting a surfeit of this fine panorama, we again started on the road, in search of new scenes. It was a bright day in haying time, the birds sang merrily, and everything looked cheerful. Men, women and children, all were in the fields; and in one hay-field I saw the baby's cradle.

But soon our attention was drawn in another direction. Darker thunder clouds began to heave up in the western horizon, and the low, mysterious wailing in distance gave us warning that a storm was approaching. Leaving the hay-makers to take care of their hay, we passed on to the Greenland House. But the storm, which at first seemed exceedingly remote, now drew gradually near. The wind arose in fitful sighings and sobbings—then in low, smothered roarings. Anon came flashes of lightning, rattling hail and driving rain, succeeded by bursts of storm.

We arrived at the hotel just in time to escape a shower bath, and were detained there an hour. The storm soon died away in faint murmurs, and in the sky was seen the beautiful rainbow; after watching the changes of this grand phenomenon of the heavens, we took a stroll out on the lawn.—The trees glistened and sparkled with rain drops, and the air, now cooled by the showers, was more comfortable and refreshing. The calm stillness of the afternoon, the seclusion of the whole place, the silence, only broken by the singing of birds, the ancient church, the pleasant and attractive residences, the sunshine and the tree shadows, all seem to mingle together in a kind of hazy dream of peacefulness and rest.

How natural it is to say of some place, sheltered, simple, cool and retired, "Here one might find peace,"—as if peace came from without, and not from within. In the shadiest and stillest places may be the most turbulent hearts; and there are hearts which, through the busiest scenes, carry with them unchanging peace.

As we walked back, we passed many pretty cottages. I noticed with particular pleasure the invariable flower garden attached to each. The sun was fast sinking behind the distant hill tops as we entered our carriage and drove off towards Breakfast Hill. Many fine residences attracted our attention on the way, most of which were surrounded with charming gardens, laid out with exquisite taste, and all glowing and fragrant with verbena, heliotropes, mignonette and pansies, while occasionally a row of hot-house flowers, set under the shelter of neatly-trimmed hedges, gave brightness to the scene. Arriving at the hill, we fastened our horse, and wandered for an hour among the rocks and woods, which years ago rang with the war-whoop of the retreating savages, and the shout of the advancing settlers. A charming ride home in the glow of the twilight completed our day's adventure.

☞ Miss Annie Hutchinson, of Milford, N. H., committee suicide at the house of a Mr. Gray, at Wilton, on Thursday night of last week, by means of a rope attached to a hook in the attic. She was 23 years old.

☞ Miss Delia J. Roby of Manchester, N. H., committed suicide, on Thursday, by hanging herself. She was 22 years old, and had been an invalid for some time.

At what period of life does a young lady devote herself to arithmetic? When she begins to sigh for (cypher) a lover.

☞ On the 18th inst. a man was run over and killed on the Eastern Railroad near Parker River bridge. The New Bedford Mercury says he was beyond a doubt Mr. John Tucker of Newburyport, about 27 years of age, who sailed from New Bedford in 1857, but during the voyage became wholly deaf, and arrived home about two weeks since. He undoubtedly lost his life in consequence of his deafness. The body has been identified by a shirt given the deceased in New Bedford.

☞ A writer from Saratoga says:

The dresses of the ladies are very sumptuous this season. Much jewelry, gold belts, bracelets and other flashy ornaments are worn. The ladies paint much; but this year they do not have it all to themselves. Young exquisites do even resort to the white and red paint, and the indignation of ladies at this entrenchment on their domain is vehement.

CLIPPER PLOWS

Are manufactured only by the subscribers, the inventors and owners of them to the agricultural interest after they have been

THOROUGHLY TESTED

by experienced Plowmen, who pronounce them

The Best in the Market!

These Plows embrace NINE DIFFERENT SIZES, the largest of which is much in advance of anything in the United States, as regards size, and, like the other sizes of this celebrated Plow, is drawn easily by a team much smaller than is absolutely requisite to draw a Plow of less size, of any other make than the Clipper.

We also share our Farming friends that as we have hitherto endeavored to make our Plows superior to all others in those points which especially interest Plowmen, we are still endeavoring by unceasing exertions, to improve—if this be possible—upon our former successes, although those who are best acquainted in these matters say, "It cannot be done."

Notwithstanding the immense advantages which these Plows possess over all others, we offer them at THE SAME PRICES as are charged for common grades, satisfied that their great superiority will induce so large a sale, that our aggregate profits will make our business sufficiently remunerative.

Humphreys' Homeopathic Specifics

CURE PROMPTLY and safely all the more common diseases and ailments to which families are subject. In all acute diseases, such as fevers, inflammations, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Rheumatism, Croup, and such eruptive diseases as Scarlet Fever, Measles, and Erysipelas, the advantage of giving the proper remedies promptly is obvious, and in all such cases the specifics act like a charm. The entire disease is often arrested at once, and in all cases the violence of the attack is moderated, the disease shortened, and rendered less dangerous.

Coughs and Colds, which are of such frequent occurrence, and which so often lay the foundation of diseased lungs, Bronchitis and Consumption, may all be at once cured by the Fever and Cough Pills.

In all chronic diseases, such as Dyspepsia, Constipation, Weak Stomach, Liver Complaint, Piles Female Debility and Irregularities, old Headaches, Sore or Weak Eyes, Catarrh, Salt Rheum and other old eruptions, the case has specifics whose proper application will afford a cure in almost every instance. Often the cure of a single chronic difficulty, such as Dyspepsia, Piles or Catarrh, Headache or Female Weakness, has more than paid for the case ten times over.

NAVAL.—Paymaster Geo. F. Cutter, U. S. N., has been ordered from service at this station to the steamer Richmond, at Norfolk, fitting as the flag-ship of the Mediterranean squadron.

Paymaster John Van B. Bleeker, (who arrived here in the Macedonian,) has been ordered to this station to succeed Paymaster Cutter.

☞ Com. Smith, Chief of the Bureau of Yards and Docks, visited our Navy Yard on Tuesday morning, receiving a salute of thirteen guns.

BOY DROWNED.—A little boy named James Devoll, aged nine years, son of a marine quartered at this naval station, was drowned on Monday afternoon, while bathing near the Navy Yard bridge, in Kittery. A little companion, who first supposed that his struggles were feigned, at last called for assistance, on the arrival of which, life was found to be extinct.

THE FAIR.

Life Members of the County Agricultural Society, and all citizens interested in the success of the Rockingham Fair, are invited to meet at the Com. Council Room, on Friday evening, Aug. 31, at half-past 7, for the choice of a Committee of Arrangements, and to take any other measures deemed advisable to promote the success of the Fair.

☞ It is really cheering, inspiriting, to hear the lively music of the Portsmouth Cornet Band, as they now pass through the streets daily or oftener, to add to the attractions of the excursions to the Shoals and elsewhere, in the barge Comfort—a most comfortable and safe way of getting to those "gems of the ocean," by the way.

☞ We notice in the list of deaths in the newspapers, the decease, at Portland, Aug. 21, of Mr. Richard P. Morse, aged 48 years, son of the late Rev. Dr. James Morse of Newburyport. Mr. Morse was once a resident of Portsmouth, in the capacity of clerk in a dry goods store. He was a young man of great worth, and of uncommon modesty in estimating himself. He was a very pleasant singer, as some attendants of St. John's Church may remember, and was an ardent lover of beautiful church music. He became an organ builder, and in the North Church in Portsmouth stands as a monument of his taste and skill, one of the best organs, of its size, to be found almost anywhere; for sweetness of tone, we hardly know its equal and do not know its superior. Nor do we remember many young men of his associates with more pleasure of memory, than his name calls up.

☞ We notice by the Illinois papers that Samuel Storer Esq., formerly of this city, and a son of Com. Geo. W. Storer, U. S. N. has been nominated by the Republicans of Will county, Illinois, as a candidate for Representative to the State Legislature. In Illinois there are seventy-five members of the House of Representatives and twenty-five Senators. The Representatives are chosen every two years. The sessions of the Legislature are biennial. The next session commences in January, 1861.

The Joliet True Democrat, in speaking of the candidate for Representative says:—

"Mr. Storer, the nominee for this county, is a gentleman eminently fitted for the post. Although originally a lawyer by profession, since he came to this county he has devoted himself to agricultural pursuits, and is one of our most successful farmers. He is an accomplished scholar, a good business man, possessed of a pleasing address, and above all an honest man and a good Republican.

DIED.—In Oxford, Ohio, Aug. 15th, Mr. George Booth, in the 55th year of his age. Mr. B. was a trader in Portsmouth for several years, left in 1844, and has been a resident of Oxford for some years past. He was a devoted husband and father, and a strong friend.

☞ Extra accommodations have been made by the Concord Railroad for those wishing to visit the Methodist Camp Meeting now in session at Newmarket Junction.

☞ Miss Kimberly's Troupe is playing the "Octoroon" at the Temple, to good houses, and giving good satisfaction.

SEA-SIDE WIT.—A friend, visiting —— Beach, was asked how he spent Sunday. "Well," said he, "among the Sabbath-breakers."

BRISTOL BILL.—The notorious English burglar and cracksman, William Warburton alias Bristol Bill, a little more than a year since was released from the Vermont State Prison, where he was confined under a ten years' sentence. Shortly after Bill was arrested in Providence for shop-breaking and larceny, and through the agency of some of his old associates and companions in crime, obtained bail, but failed to be forthcoming on the day assigned for trial; his bondsmen arrested him Saturday at the Eastern depot in Boston.

☞ The Prince of Wales has decided to visit Boston—probably about Oct. 14th, to remain not more than two days.

ONE DAY LATER FROM EUROPE.

By steamship Nova Scotia, from Liverpool 16th, via Londonderry 17th.

The Paris correspondent of the Allemaine Zeitung of the 10th says the Pope has written a most melancholy letter to the Cardinal in France. He looks upon all as lost, and although convinced that he shall die by the bullet of the assassin, he declares he will not leave Rome under any condition or at any price.

Advices from Damascus of the 5th state that Fuad Pasha had surrounded Lebanon with troops, and had threatened to put the Druses to the sword if the sheiks did not surrender in two days. Twenty had already been taken, and eight hundred other important arrests made.

One thousand camel-loads of plundered property had been recovered.

The Sultan visited the Porte on Thursday and delivered a speech to the Ministers, expressing his resolution to punish the Syrian offenders most severely, and his intention to reduce the vast list of high functionaries, and to effect a thorough economical revolution generally.

Paper money is to remain in circulation until the 1st of July next.

The Sultan is about to address another autograph letter to Queen Victoria and the Emperor Napoleon on the subject of Syria, and expressing a desire to have the sole punishment of the offenders.

The news of the massacres at Balbeo is confirmed. No details.

The Times city article of Thursday evening says that the disappointment of the expectations of a change in the weather, and the threatened political contingencies on the continent, have led to a further decline in the English funds. American securities show a greater firmness, owing to an anticipation of active business in breadstuffs and transportation over the principal lines of railway.

DOUGLAS ON SOUTHERN SECESSION.—New York, Aug. 27.—Mr. Douglas has had an enthusiastic reception in Norfolk. he spoke in the presence of 6000 people. In the middle of his address a slip from the Norfolk Argus, containing two questions, was handed to him. The first was, "Would the Southern States be justified in seceding from the Union in case of Lincoln's election?" To which Mr. Douglas emphatically answered, "No." The second question was: "If the Southern States should secede upon Lincoln's inauguration before he commits any overt act against the Constitutional rights of the South, would he (Douglas) advise or indicate resistance by force to their secession?" Mr. Douglas answered emphatically that it was the duty of the President and all others in authority under him, to enforce the laws passed by Congress, and as the Courts expound them, and he would do all in his power to aid the Government of the United States in maintaining the laws against all resistance to them, come from what quarter it might.—In other words, the President should treat all attempt to break up the Union as Old Hickory treated the Nullifiers in 1832.

BRUNSWICK, Me., Aug. 27.—The largest assembly of people that ever met in this town at a political meeting, listened to addresses from Hon. Anson P. Burlingame and J. G. Blaine, Esq., this evening. The Bath Wide Awakes were present, and paraded the streets with their torch lights, under the escort of the Brunswick Wide Awakes. There was great enthusiasm.

PETERSBURG, Va., Aug. 27.—Mr Douglas arrived here this evening. He was received by from 3000 to 4000 people, with a band of music, and escorted to his hotel.

LYMAN'S
Improved Patent Metallic Soles.
PATENTED JUNE 7, 1859.

The nature of this invention consists of a metallic sole for Boots and Shoes, which has been tested and operates admirably. No dampness penetrates through to the inside sole. This is the only device that will operate well between two soles, and is made so thin as not to interfere with the most delicately finished work. The necessity of such a device to fully accomplish the much desired object, and the direful effects arising from damp feet, are too well understood to require any comment.

It is obvious to every one that sole leather is porous, absorbing water, and that the soles of boots and shoes are often damp when they appear dry, causing cold feet, chills, neuralgia, rheumatism, consumption, &c.

Physicians of eminence have pronounced this Metallic Sole an invaluable discovery, and state that, if generally used, it will cause an immense saving of human life.

The right to manufacture and sell the above Improved Metallic Sole for the County of Rockingham has been purchased by the subscriber.

Boot and shoe manufacturers and dealers in Rockingham County furnished with the soles, with right to use, at No. 24 Market Street, Portsmouth, N. H. J. C. CARR.

Morning Chronicle.

THE IMPORTANCE OF STUDY.—In noticing the presence of Gov. Banks at the several college commencements this year, and the high character of his speeches on these occasions, the Worcester Transcript says:

"That Gov. Banks, who has never studied at college, should have so much command of the English language as Presidents Felton, Hopkins and Stearns, would seem to indicate the absence of any necessity for collegiate study. But very few among us have either the ability or the disposition of Gov. Banks for study. Amid all the demand of rising office on his time, he has found means to acquaint himself thoroughly with the condition of Massachusetts, and the idioms of the English language. He must be a man of great industry; and though some of us may heartily dissent from him in politics, we must all admit that the 'Bobbin Boy of Waltham' has proved himself the equal of our first scholars in his use of the English language."

Mr. Lincoln is troubled with letters, but he don't answer any of them, writing not even a single letter, from A to Z, but treating the whole alphabet with the highest consideration. It wouldn't answer for him to answer letters. He believes that "the pen is mightier than the sword" in the way of destroying public men, and he'll have nothing to do with it until after the 6th of November. He'll split rails, but not quills.—Traveller.

The Animals will be performed by "OLD ADAMS" himself, every afternoon and evening, in connection with the Circus.
OLD ADAMS, GRIZZLY ADAMS,
—OR THE—
WILD ZANBEE HUNTER,
as he is familiarly termed, has long been known as
The California Trapper of '49.
The history of his exploits and hair-breadth escapes, his terrific encounters with GRIZZLY BEARS and other wild animals by which he has been nearly torn in pieces, and is now covered with scars from head to foot, has been extensively published, and it proves him to be, beyond dispute, the most FEARLESS AND INTREPID HUNTER that ever shouldered a rifle, distancing by far the renowned French Hunter GERARD, or the celebrated Lion Slayer GORDON CUMMING, so far as reckless daring is concerned.
"OLD ADAMS" in fact is considered quite as much of a curiosity as any of his animals. He SLEEPS with his Bears, Eats with his Bears, and seems always most happy when surrounded by Bears. "Old Adams" spent all of his time for years, in the Mountains and Wilds of California and the Far West, in capturing, taming, and training this unequaled
Wonderful Menagerie,
the exhibition of which shows the extraordinary power of man over the most savage beasts, and their entire subjection to his will—Mr. Adams controlling them with as much ease and certainty as any lady would her pet dog.
This truly great Combination of Talent may be relied upon by the public as worthy of the most extensive patronage, and is the only company with any right to the well-earned fame of Niblo's, N. Y. It will appear at the following places, upon the following dates:

Humphreys' Homeopathic Specific Remedies for the People

THE Remedies are carefully prepared under the direct personal supervision of DR. HUMPHREYS, in order to meet that great and long realized want of the public, namely, remedies for all the more common and simple ailments of life.
A moment's reflection will show that a vast majority of diseases from which we suffer and die, were, at their commencement, simple and trifling. A mere cold, a slight diarrhea, a pain in the side, or a headache, or hoarseness, at first easily cured and subdued, in time become a consumption, a fever, a dangerous Colic, Croup or other disease, which all the powers of medicine fail to arrest.
Herein these remedies supply a great public want. Being on hand, they are ready at once what to take—pleasant, so as to cause no repugnance—safe, and hence occasioning no risk, while the curative effects are positive and certain, they are taken, and at once the spell is broken and the danger allayed.
Experience has amply confirmed the merit of these remedies for families and private persons, as being THE BEST IN USE, THE MOST SIMPLE AND CONVENIENT, THE MOST PROMPT AND RELIABLE.
The remedies have been in use for some five years past, in every section of the country, with almost invariable success. This medicine has been used by the public for six years, with increasing favor. It is recommended to cure Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Heartburn, Colic Pains, Wind in the Stomach, or Pains in the Bowels, Headache, Drowsiness, Kidney Complaints, Low Spirits, Delirium Tremens, Intemperance. It Stimulates, Exhilarates, Invigorates, but will not Intoxicate or Stupefy.
As a Medicine, it is quick and effectual, curing the most aggravated cases of Dyspepsia, Kidney Complaints, and all other derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, in a speedy manner.
It will instantly revive the most melancholy and drooping spirits, and restore the weak, nervous and sickly to health, strength and vigor.
Persons who from the injudicious use of liquors, have become dejected, and their nervous systems shattered, constitutions broken down, and subject to that horrible curse to humanity, the Delirium Tremens, will, almost immediately, feel the happy and invigorating efficacy of Dr. Ham's Invigorating Spirit.

What it will do!

DOSE.—1 wine glass full as often as necessary.
One dose will relieve Colic Pains.
One dose will cure Heartburn.
Three doses will cure Indigestion.
One dose will give you a good appetite.
One dose will stop the distressing pains of Dyspepsia.
One dose will remove the distressing and disagreeable effects of Wind or Flatulence, and as soon as the Stomach receives the Invigorating Spirit, the distressing load and all painful feelings will be removed.
One dose will remove the most distressing pains of Colic, either in the stomach or bowels.
A few doses will remove all obstructions in the Kidney, Bladder or Urinary Organs.
Persons who are seriously afflicted with any Kidney Complaints, are assured speedy relief by a dose or two, and a radical cure by the use of one or two bottles.
NIGHTLY DISSIPATION.
Persons who, from dissipating too much over night, and feel the evil effects of poisonous liquors, in violent headaches, sickness at stomach, weakness, giddiness &c., will find one dose will remove all bad feelings.
Ladies of weak and sickly constitutions, should take the Invigorating Spirit three times a day; it will make them strong, healthy, and happy, remove all obstructions and irregularities from the menstrual organs, and restore the bloom of health and beauty to the careworn face.
During pregnancy it will be found an invaluable medicine to remove disagreeable sensations at the stomach.
All the proprietor asks, is a trial, and to induce this, he has put up the INVIGORATING SPIRIT in pint bottles, at 50 cents, qts $1.

D. MOTT'S
PILLS & IRON.

An aperient and Stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States and prescribed in their practice.
The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Innoxious in all maladies in which it has been used—it has proved invariably curative in each of the following complaints, viz:
In DEBILITY, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, EMACIATION, CONSTIPATION, DIARRHEA, DYSPEPSIA, DYSENTERY, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, SALT RHEUM, MISMENSTRUATION, WHITES, CHLOROSIS, RHEUMATISM, INTERMITTENT FEVERS, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, &c.
In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of acute disease or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaint, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed ridden as to have been forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Instances are numerous of persons who have attested of female sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.
In NERVOUS AFFECTIONS of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old oxides, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and over-heating; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.
It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency, which forms them.
In DYSPEPSIA, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.
In unchecked DIARRHŒA, even when advanced to DYSENTERY, exceedingly emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.
In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent hectic, which generally indicate INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.
In SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, this medicated iron had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well-known liabilities.
The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in cases peculiarly affecting complexion.
In RHEUMATISM, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported of, as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.
In INTERMITTENT FEVERS it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.
No remedy has ever been discovered, in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects.—Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.
Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by Druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to SHOCKING BRUTALITY.—An instance of the degradation to which rum will bring a human being, says the Newark Advertiser, was furnished recently. A young man, only 30 years old, named John Roaleff had gone to his employer and received $5 advance wages, to be used to bury his child. Instead of appropriating it to that purpose, he used it to buy liquor and came home drunk, and with but little money, and no grave clothes, coffin, &c. He refused to do anything towards the burial of the child, would not give up the permit, or allow the body to be cared for by the friends. Officer Burt was finally called in, and succeeded in getting the permit and balance of the money. He then removed Roaleff to the police station, where he was kept over night, and the next morning released by his sister paying his fine. In the meanwhile the mother of the child and the friends buried it.

COAL TRADE.—The Philadelphia Ledger of Saturday says:

The coal tonnage from the Schuykill region last week was very heavy, being 6596 tons greater than the tonnage of the previous week. The falling off in the tonnage, as compared with that of the week ending on the 11th inst. is said to be in consequence of high water in the Lehigh canal, which interfered with the loading of boats. The mining operations throughout the whole region are carried forward with unusual energy and generally with marked success. There is scarcely a mine in working condition that is not driven with all the force that can be made available, and what is even more satisfactory, there is a ready market for every ton mined. We are informed that there is less coal piled up than almost ever before known—indeed there is scarcely a ton piled up for want of buyers. The little that is done in that way is from some other cause. Of course prices are firm. It will be seen that already the sources of supply named have sent forward nearly five millions of tons, being an increase of six hundred and fifty thousand tons, by the same companies to the same time last year.

A LITTLE SCENE.—Yesterday, a sight seldom witnessed was presented to the patrons of one of the city railroads. In one of the cars there were three pair of twins, each representing a nationality. First an American mother with two fine boys. Second, a Scotch mother, with a boy and a girl; these had rather a meagre look, but the mother stated that they were very healthy. Third were two boys of Irish parents; they were fair samples of the children belonging to that class. On the opposite side of the car sat a mother who had an interesting set of triplets. These were seven months old, and were looking finely. While the attention of the passengers were taken up with these little ones, two ladies entered the car, and to add to the astonishment of the passengers they were twins also. The ladies were about twenty-three years of age, while those of the babies were four, seven and nine months. One of the mothers, who had, including the twins, four children with her, stated that she had five more children at home.—N. Y. Com. Advertiser.

A FAITHFUL AGENT.—The Rochester Review, in a notice of the late Mr. Burleigh, agent of the Great Falls Manufacturing Company, says of him,—For 22 years, during which period the company changed its Treasurer five times, Mr. Burleigh managed its business so successfully that the original stockholders, having before that time seen their shares which cost $1000 each, dwindle in value to $135 a share, have long since received back in dividends, the amount of their original investment, with compound interest.

WHY ARE THE PRARIES TREELESS?—The Westerners, when they speculate on geology, answer this question by affirming that the prarie fires have burnt them off—that they have been frightened out of existence by the fires of the Indians. At other times they vary their theory by affirming that the absence of trees is due to the deficiency of rain; but neither does this stand examination, for the maps for the distribution of rain show that the fall on the praries about equals that in other regions. Mr. Whitney in his paper on the Origin of the Praries, read before the Scientific Congress, shows that the real cause of absence of aborescent vegetation lies in certain mechanical conditions of the soil, and its extreme fineness.

WHYS AND WHATS.—Why is the letter D like a sailor?—Because it follows the C. What is the difference between an auction and sea-sickness?—One is the sale of effects, and the other is the effect of the sail. Why does the cook make more noise than the bell?—Because one makes a din, but the other a dinner.

AUSTRIA AND NAPLES.—The Paris correspondent of the N. Y. Times says Austria has 25,000 men in Venetia, and also that the King of Naples had decided to postpone the Parliamentary elections, which, in the eyes of the Neapolitans, being equivalent to an abrogation of the new constitution, will only hasten the fermentation he wishes to avoid.

APPLEDORE HOUSE,
ISLES OF SHOALS.
This favorite resort for the man of leisure and the invalid is now open. Since last year many alterations and additions have been made, increasing its capacity. Billiard and Bowling Saloons are provided, and every measure taken to secure the comfort and amusement of its guests. An abundance of sweet cream and milk is supplied from healthy cows kept on the Island. The table is faultless. The facilities for fishing have been increased by the addition of new boats and experienced skippers.
When to all these advantages are added the purity of the air—the delicious coolness of the ocean breeze, its invigorating and appetizing power—the loveliness of the scenery—the glory of its sunsets—the cleanliness of its walks—its freeness from dust, mud, and all other annoyances of the kind—it may truly be said to possess advantages and attractions which no other watering place in New England can attain. The equability of the temperature is a natural advantage over the coast or the mountains, which invalids can fully appreciate.
A daily Packet, the SIBYL, Capt. Preble, runs direct to Appledore from Portsmouth, leaving Pier Wharf on the arrival of the morning train from Boston, and returns in the afternoon. The Sibyl has every accommodation for the comfort of passengers which a Packet requires.

THE ONLY PREPARATION
Having Proof so Strong and Direct
as to
Expel the Doubts of All.
For Statesmen, Judges, Editors, Physicians of the oldest schools as well as new, give it their unqualified sanction, and recommend it for all cases of eruptions, and diseases of the scalp and brain; but all woo have used it, unite in testifying that it will preserve the hair from being gray, stop from falling to any age, as well as restore.—Read the following:—
Oak Grove, S. C., June 24, 1859.
Prof. O. J. Wood:—Dear:—Your Hair Restorative is rapidly gaining popularity in this community. I have had occasion to lay prejudice aside, and give your Hair Restorative a perfect test.—
During the year 1854, I was so unfortunate as to be thrown from my saiky against a rock near the roadside, from which my head received a most terrible blow; causing a great deal of irritation, which communicated to the brain and external surface of the head, from the effects of which my hair was entirely destroyed. From the time I first discovered its dropping, however, up to the time of its total disappearance, I employed everything I could think of, being a professional man myself, and as I thought, understanding the nature of the disease, but was finally defeated in every prescription advanced.
These and no other circumstances induced me to resort to your worthy "Hair Restorative," which I have every reason to believe, produced a very happy result: two months after the first application, I had as beautiful a head of young hair as I ever saw, for which I certainly owe you my sincere thanks. Rest assured, dear sir, I shall recommend your remedy to all inquirers; moreover, I shall use my influence, which I flatter myself to say, is not a little.
You can publish this if you think proper.
Yours, very respectfully,
M. J. WRIGHT, M. D.
Jeffersonian Office, Phillipi, Va., Dec. 12, 1859.
Professor O. J. Wood:—Dear Sir: I feel it my duty as well as my pleasure, to state to you the following circumstance, which you can use as you think proper. A gentleman of this place, (a lawyer,) has been bald ever since his early youth; so much so, that he was compelled to wear a wig. He was induced to use a bottle of your "Hair Restorative," which he liked very much; and after using some two or three bottles his hair grew out quite luxuriantly, and he now has a handsome head of hair. The gentleman's name is Bradford, and as he is very well known in our adjoining counties, many persons can testify to the truth of this statement; I give this to you at the request of Mr. Bradford. You can sell a great deal of your Hair Restorative in this and the adjoining counties if you have the proper agents. Yours, &c.,
THOMPSON SURGHNOR.
Dr. Wood—Dear Sir—Permit me to express the obligations I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color; about the time of my arrival in the United States it was rapidly becoming gray, but upon the application of your Hair Restorative it has recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative as a very wonderful invention, quite efficacious as well as agreeable. S. THALBERG.
The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 30, 1860.

YOUNG AND OLD MOTHERS.—In the Portland Advertiser is an item stating that while the census-taker was collecting his statistics in Searsmont, he found a very young woman, only thirteen years old, who was the mother of a child of ten months.

On the other extreme, the Cincinnati Press mentions that a lady of that city, Mrs. Alice W., resident in Seventh street, is over 57 years of age, having been born in April, 1803. At the age of 26 she was married, and since that time her domestic peace has been uninterrupted by sickness of any kind, and she till now never had any children. Mr. W. is nearly five years the junior of his wife, and has been during his life extremely healthy, and is now quite as vigorous as many who have not yet reached the age of five and thirty. About a week ago, Mrs. W. gave birth to a pair of boy-twins, both of whom are large, healthy, rosy, plump and pretty, as babies ever are, and from present appearances likely to live a hundred years. The gray-haired mother is doing well, and enjoys her new relation as much apparently as any mother could.

☞ The Illinois Central Railroad, the management of which Gov. Banks has consented to assume, is the largest railway property on this continent, representing a capital of over $30,000,000, covering a territory larger than the State of Connecticut, and furnishing daily employment to between three and four thousand men.

Gov. Banks' chances of being President, some day, will not be in the least diminished by his going West. The man who could keep a coalition House in order in Boston, who could preside over a still stormier House in Washington, regulate Massachusetts finances, and manage a big railroad, can surely keep the People's Hotel, alias White House.

A FORTUNE FROM A SHEEP.—In 1792, Mr. Bidwell, a law student in Stockbridge, Mass., told a poor lad that if he would catch and turn out his horse, he might have it to ride home to keep Thanksgiving. The boy accepted the offer; and the day before Thanksgiving, as he was mounted on the horse, ready to start for home, Mr. Bidwell handed him a silver dollar, the first dollar he ever had. Instead of spending it for personal gratification, he bought a sheep with it. From that sheep he had in 1832 a flock of 1064 sheep, which he sold for $1596. This money he invested in up-town lots in New York, purchasing ten lots for $2500, which he sold, in two years, for $12,000.—This was the beginning of the fortune of Nathan Jackson, Esq., distinguished for his generous and munificent donations at various times to Williams College, Mass.

A GREAT TROT, between Flora Temple and Geo. N. Patchen, took place at Franklin Course, Chelsea, Mass., Tuesday. Four heats were trotted, the mare winning every heat except the second, which was declared a dead heat by the judges. Time—2:28 1-2, 2:28 1-2, 2:28 1-4, 2:28 1-2. The trot was for a purse of $1500.

About twenty thousand people were on the track. Such another scene was never witnessed in the vicinity of Boston before. Every vehicle that could be procured in a circle of twenty miles' radius, was brought into requisition. The gaming fraternity were on the grounds in large numbers. Faro, roulette, dice, sweat-cloth, and other depletory arrangements, were in full operation. Refreshments, nicknacks and fights were plentiful.

STARS AT NOON-DAY.—The New Haven Palladium says quite an excitement prevailed in that city on Monday, caused by the discovery that a bright star was visible high in the heavens and comparatively near the sun, between 11 and 1 o'clock. The New Haven people all became star-gazers, and in every street there were people pointing out the phenomenon. It was very plainly seen, when once the eye had the right direction, and was so bright as to astonish everybody. It was seen at an elevation of 40 or 50 degrees, and in a southeast direction.

A LONG RIDE BY RAIL.—There is now a continuous chain of railroads from Bangor to New Orleans, composed of eighteen independent roads, costing in the aggregate, for 2344 miles of road, 2,294,084, or nearly one-tenth of the whole railway system in the United States.

☞ The fruit crop in Massachusetts, the present year, will be one of the largest ever gathered. The apple and pear trees are literally loaded down with fruit, and in many cases where supports have not been placed under the bending limbs, they have been broken off.

☞ It is stated that Hon. Eli Thayer is to start a new daily paper in Worcester, with a view to the advocacy of his re-election to Congress.

THE TEXAS TEMPEST.—It is a singular fact, (says the Boston Journal,) that notwithstanding the alleged widespread "plot" of the negroes and abolitionists in Texas to murder the whites, no attempt, even, to take the life of a citizen has yet been reported. The murdering is all done by the planters and negrophobists themselves, who have already, if the reports are true, sent to their long homes, without benefit of judge, or jury ten or twelve persons, whom they "suspected" of being abolitionists. The outrages are all committed by excited Texans, who certainly have some crimes to answer for, which the "abolitionists" have not.

☞ In New York Friday afternoon of last week, during the temporary absence of the inmates, two burglars forced their way into a house in Vine street, and stole property valued at $100. As they were leaving the premises, a little son of the occupant saw them, and without saying anything followed in their wake. At the first street corner reached, the thieves separated, taking different directions. The lad was somewhat puzzled at first what to do, but finally followed one of the men until he came across a police officer, to whom he said, "There is a man who robbed my mother's house," and he was at once arrested. Nothing was said about another thief, but it seems that the boy kept his eye open, and soon after espied the companion of the man under arrest, and meeting another officer, he quietly said to him, "There is a man who robbed my mother's house," and he also was arrested. Upon his person the stolen property was found. Both of the prisoners were committed for trial.

☞ Mr. and Mrs. McCann of Nashville, retired to bed one night last week, and while asleep were visited by a streak of lightning. The lady states that to all appearances the lightning entered by the chimney flue, and was attracted to the bed by an iron rod used for the mosquito bar.—The foot of the bed was shattered into a thousand peices, but despite their intimacy with the dangerous element, the occupants of the bed were not injured. The gentleman, however, says that it woke him up, a fact which seems highly probable.

☞ Three years ago Senator Durkee, of Wisconsin, sold his farm of 1200 acres, near Racine, for $25,000 dollars, a bargain which has looked rather tough in the intervening hard times. But this year will bring it all round right. There are sixty hands with eight reapers, at work, and the yield will be 25,000 bushels (a moderate estimate) of wheat and 10,000 of other grain, besides all the other crops. The gross value of the products of the farm this year will be nearly or quite equal to the purchase money.

NEGRO BURNING.—The Augusta (Ga.) Dispatch of the 11th inst. has the following paragraph:

"We learn this morning that a negro boy who had killed a white man was burned at the stake at the above named place. Twelve persons took him from the sheriff's custody, giving bonds for his' redelivery, after which they tried, sentenced and executed the murderer, returning his ashes to the officer."

A POLICE order has been issued in St. Louis for the closing of all dance houses with which the city is infested.

Won't somebody complain that this is unconstitutional, and oppressive? and won't somebody else ask for a law to license these houses?

☞ The Rev. Dr. Kerr of Pittsburg, Pa., now travelling in Scotland, in a letter to the United Presbyterian, says the worst feature witnessed in the proceedings of the National Assembly of the Scotch Presbyterian Church has been the number of cases of ministerial drunkenness with which it has to deal.

☞ Five generations met at High Ridge, Conn., last Thursday at a family party. They comprised ninety-six individuals belonging to the family of Polly Stevens. A great great grandchild was christened on the occasion.

☞ In South Danvers on Saturday last, the Catholic priest, it is stated, entered a house situated in a part of the town called "Dublin," and spilled two barrels of "the critter." The owner of the liquor was very indignant at the proceeding.

☞ The census-taker in upper Aroostook, Me., reports one family of twenty-seven children, and several more containing from fifteen to twenty children. In one family he found sixteen children, all of whom were living at home, and the mother was only forty years of age.

YANKEE HOUSES FOR EGYPT.—The Cambridge Chronicle states that Messrs. Flint & Tufts, of that city, have contracted to build eleven dwelling houses for the Egyptian Government, at a cost of about $3000 each.

☞ At Highgate, Vt., a mischievous boy undertook to scare some little girls with a hideous mask. One of the girls in her fright, fell off the edge of a bank, and broke one of her legs.

MILLIONAIRES BUILDING AT NEWPORT.—Mr. Bareda, the guano agent at Baltimore, who has made a great fortune by his guano contracts with the Peruvian government, has lately erected a splendid residence at Newport, which cost $200,000. Mr. Belmont, the agent of the Rothschilds in New York, has recently purchased, for $47,000, fourteen acres of land fronting on Bellevue avenue, and extending easterly to "The Cliffs," and it is said he will probably build a villa not inferior to that erected by Mr. Bareda. It is worthy of note that while one of those millionaires has made his money by dealing in gold, the other obtained his by dealing in manure.

INCENDIARY ARRESTED.—Davis Reed of Sterling, has been arrested and held for trial on the charge of having set fire to the Methodist camp meeting building at Sterling Junction. The Worcester Spy says:

"The evidence against him is said to be quite strong, and his arrest created considerable excitement among the citizens of Sterling. This Reed, perhaps our readers may recollect, created a good deal of disturbance at the camp meeting grounds last year, and was then arrested for selling liquor, for which offense he received a sentence of ninety days in the House of Correction, and a fine of $30 and costs; and since then he has not perhaps entertained very pleasant feelings toward the people interested in the property destroyed."

N. Y. AMERICAN STATE COUNCIL.—Schenectady, N. Y., Aug. 28.—The members of the American State Council are here to-day, in pursuance of a call by Mr. Scroggs, its President. There are two classes of delegates, one headed by Brooks, who favors Bell, and the other by Scroggs, who favors Lincoln. The former appointed a committee to request Scroggs to resign the Presidency of the Council, which he positively refused to do.

Second Dispatch.—After a stormy session of the Council, Scroggs was thrown overboard, and Gen. Prescott elected President. A new State Committee was appointed, and the Union Electoral ticket unanimously ratified.

Mr. Scroggs and his friends held a convention. There were sixty-five persons present. Scroggs made a speech, in which he announced his adhesion to Lincoln.—Resolution was adopted repudiating what is called a bargain and sale to Douglas men, and declaring that the Americans of New work are at liberty to vote as their judgement may dictate. Mr. Scroggs was elected President of the State Council. A State committee was appointed.

HARTFORD, Conn., Aug. 29.—The Democratic State Convention for the choice of Presidential Electors meets here to-morrow. The Douglas party will greatly preponderate, but some of the counties are supposed to be about evenly divided. Prominent Breckinridge men threaten an independent ticket if left out in the cold—to which the Douglas men make no objection. The latter manifest a tendency to coalesce with the Bell party. The Breckinridge men have no objection to fusing with the Bell men, if they can share the ticket.

A THOUGHTFUL AMBASSADOR.—While Jefferson was ambassador to France, he travelled in Italy for the sake of ascertaining the cause of the superiority of the Sardinian over the American rice, which he found consisted in the quality of the seed. As the government prohibited the exportation of the seed, he filled all his pockets with the precious grain, which he brought home for the benefit of the South Carolina planters, whose rice is now the best in the world.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 28.—Passmore Williams applied to the Court of Quarter Sessions to-day, for a writ of habeas corpus for the release of a colored woman in the custody of W. T. Conquest, a native of Virginia, now residing here. The case was concluded by the woman's positive refusal to accept of her freedom.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 28.—The Democrats of this State have made the following Congressional nominations: First District—Wm. E. Lehman (Douglas) over Thomas Florence (Breckinridge) there being no split as was expected; Second District—John Brodhead, President of the Camden and Atlantic Railroad; Third District—John Kline (Douglas); Fourth District—William Morgan, (Douglas.)

ANOTHER SLAVER CAPTURED.—Norfolk, Va., Aug. 28.—A slaver, probably the Teuton, the name not having been definitely obtained as yet, was brought into this port to-day under charge of Midshipman Farquhar. She has been chased by a number of English and American vessels of war. She is 41 days from "Leondo."

WASHINGTON, August 28.—The New Orleans Picayune says that the northern Texas papers speak of a bloody fight having taken place in the Choctaw nation, between the abolition and slaveholding parties. Over one hundred persons were killed. Doubtful.

The Pope, says a gossiping letter writer, is, after all, not on terms of decided enmity with Victor Emanuel, for he was lately heard to say that that the Sardinian King was not quite a figlio malledetto of the Church, but only a traviato. So the Bull of Excommunication was only much ado about nothing.

It is ruinous to the young to demand of them more than you are quite sure that they can accomplish with moderate industry; it not only feeds to make their minds superficial, but what is still less thought of, their characters slippery, slip-shod, and slip-slop.

RICHMOND, Va., Aug. 28.—Gov. Letcher has written a letter in which he unhesitatingly avowed himself to be in favor of the election of Mr. Douglas to the Presidency.

☞ Mr. John Lloyd of Gloucester has a litter of chickens, one of which has two heads and another four legs.

WHAT IS A YEAR?

What is a year? 'Tis but a wave
On life's dark rolling stream,
Which is so quickly gone that we
Account it but a dream.
'Tis but a single earnest throb
Of Time's old iron heart,
As tireless now and strong as when
It first with life did start.

What is a year? 'Tis but a turn
Of Time's old brazen wheel—
Or but a page upon the book
Which death must shortly seal.
'Tis but a step upon the road
Which we must travel o'er;
A few more steps, and we shall walk
Life's weary road no more.

What is a year? 'Tis but a breath
From Time's old nostrils blown,
As rushing onward o'er the earth,
We hear his weary moan.
'Tis like the bubble on the wave,
Or dew upon the lawn,
As transient as the mist of morn
Beneath the summer sun.

What is a year? 'Tis but a type
Of life's oft-changing scene;
Youth's happy morn comes gaily on,
With bills and vallies green.
Next, Summer's prime succeeds the
Then Autumn with a tear; [Spring,
Then comes old Winter—death: and all
Must find their level here.

CLIPPER PLOWS

Are manufactured only by the subscribers, the inventors, who offer them to the agricultural interest after they have been

THOROUGHLY TESTED

by experienced Plowmen, who pronounce them

The Best in the Market!

These Plows embrace NINE DIFFERENT SIZES, the largest of which is much in advance of anything in the United States, as regards size, and, like the other sizes of this celebrated Plow, is drawn easily by a team much smaller than is absolutely requisite to draw a Plow of less size, of any other make than the Clipper.

We also assure our Farming friends that as we have hitherto endeavored to make our Plows superior to all others in those points which especially interest Plowmen, we are still endeavoring by unceasing exertions, to improve—if this be possible—upon our former successes, although those who are best acquainted in these matters say, "It cannot be done."

Notwithstanding the immense advantages which these Plows possess over all others, we offer them at THE SAME PRICES as are charged for common grades, satisfied that their great superiority will induce so large a sale, that our aggregate profits will make our business sufficiently remunerative.

A FEW CERTIFICATES OF THE GREAT SUCCESS

—of the—

Grover & Baker's Sewing Machines.

[From the wife of the Hon. Jefferson Davis.]

Mrs. Jefferson Davis presents her compliments to Messrs. Grover & Baker, and takes pleasure in saying that she has used one of their box Sewing Machines for two years, and finds it still in good order—makes a beautiful stitch, and does easily any kind of work.

[From J. G. Harris, Governor of Tennessee.]

My wife has had one of Grover & Baker's Family Sewing Machines for some time, and I am satisfied it is one of the best labor-saving machines that has been invented. I take pleasure in recommending it to the public.

[From the Rev. Jonathan Cross, Agent American Tract Society.]

My wife has been using one of your Sewing Machines for the last three months, and pronounce it faultless. She can sew more on it in one day, than in ten the old way, and without fatigue. The work is beautiful and durable.—She says she would not exchange it for any other one. It is certainly one of the grandest inventions ever made for the relief of woman-kind, and I would recommend every family to get one as soon as possible.

Baltimore, July 14, 1859.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859.

Having tested the merits of the various popular Sewing Machines, in the manufacture of our Capes and Raglans, we unhesitatingly recommend the Grover & Baker, as far superior to all others.

ALLEN & FAINE.

PORTSMOUTH, July 16, 1859.

If you wish to purchase a machine that will do work handsomely and strongly, and will not be liable to get out of repair, call on Mr. Whittemore in Daniel street, see the operation of Grover & Baker's machine, and then place one in your family. They will never consent to part with it, after they understand its operation.

CHARLES W. BREWSTER.

"Zion's Herald," Nov. 10th, 1859, says.—"We would recommend to families and to those about to organize a homestead, to be sure and have a Family Bible, and also one of Grover & Baker's SEWING MACHINES.

☞ Agreeable to the decision of Court, and some subsequent arrangement between the C. & P. Railroad and the Water Company, the Portsmouth Aqueduct Co, is now laying logs along the line of that Railroad, to bring the much-disputed supply of water into their reservoir in Dover street, near Islington. Let who may own that beautiful spring, the water is needed in our city, and more too, and we are glad there is this prospect of a larger supply before another winter; and even without this, there are said to be ample other sources of supplying the city, not far from the Fountain Head, which our citizens have been suffering for altogether too long.

By the way, why would it not be a good plan to bring in, for City use at least, the large and never-failing supply of excellent water, to be had from the pond on the City premises, on the hill near the old barns of the City Farm on Gravelly Ridge Road?

THE FAIR.—Of course all enterprising and public-spirited people in this vicinity will feel it to be for their satisfaction as well as interest, to aid the approaching County Fair in any manner in their power. Business men, and women, will here have an excellent opportunity for thoroughly and deliberately displaying their wares and manufactures, to a larger number of prospective patrons than could be reached in any other manner.

The ladies, and all lovers of "the beautiful" in nature or art, will no doubt present one of the finest displays ever seen in this region. The Tent to be used for their accommodation is the same which is engaged for the Merrimack Co. Fair, at Concord, and such as is used for these displays everywhere; and the richest and most delicate articles can here be exhibited as safely and to much better advantage than in any Hall. The Tent will be finely decorated, and brilliantly lighted in the evening, and the entrance to the Field adorned with a handsomely-ornamented arch.

"OCTOROON" MATINEE.—Miss Kimberly announces the last performance of the "Octoroon" for this (Thursday) afternoon. A gold thimble, massive gold ring, and an elegant silver-mounted pocket-knife are to be given away by lot among the audience. Tickets 25 cents; children under 15 years, 15 cents.

Friday and Saturday evenings, Uncle Tom's Cabin will be performed.

☞ We understand that the Rev. Dr. Peabody will officiate at the monthly lecture to-morrow evening, at the Stone Church;—and that the Lord's Supper will then be celebrated instead of on Sunday next.

☞ The list of Premiums offered at the Rockingham Fair, with the Committees appointed to award the same, will be found in full on our fourth page this morning, with the rules and regulations for the Exhibition. The general Committee of Arrangements, as to the procession, arrangement of tent, &c., is to be appointed from among our citizens on Friday evening.

☞ One of the two new ships (not yet named) now on the stocks, at the yard of Tobey & Littlefield, Noble's Island, is intended to be launched on Saturday next.

☞ There is to be a grand Picnic in a beautiful grove near the Kittery Railroad Depot on Friday afternoon, Aug. 31st. It is especially called in honor of Hon. T. M. Hayes, who will be there to address his friends. Col. E. O. Perrin of Tennessee, Hon. Walter Harriman, A. S. Alexander, Esq., Hon. E. K. Smart and other prominent speakers are expected.

☞ In any place, the men who are most prone to cry "hard times," and decry their own town as "dull" or devoid of entertainments,—are also the very ones to refuse to raise a finger to improve the condition of things, and the last to patronize what there is or might be of amusements.

CAMP MEETING.—The Methodist Camp Meeting at Newmarket this week, has had some fine weather, tho' a little cool o' nights; is largely attended, and is getting along flourishingly. An extra train for the Junction leaves Portsmouth on Thursday and Friday mornings at 8 o'clock—at half fare.

GOOD.—The Alleghanians, (Vocalists and Swiss Bell Ringers) an American company travelling in South America, raised the first American flag ever hoisted in Islay, Peru, where they were sojourning, on the last 4th of July. They gave a concert on the evening of the 4th, and sang "Hail Columbia," "Yankee Doodle," and received nine cheers from a Mr. Lewis, the only American resident there. Mr. Daniel G. Waldron, formerly of Portsmouth, is agent for this widely-ranging company.

☞ Rev. W. P. Colby will preach at Epping next Sunday.

PORTSMOUTH SHIPS—THE LIVERPOOL PACKET.—We are justly proud of our ships, knowing that some of the best vessels afloat have been built here, and we take much pleasure in chronicling anything that is said in their praise. We have heard from the Liverpool Packet, commanded by Capt. Freeman Crosby, which sailed from here for St. John, N. B., and thence to Liverpool, in May last. A private letter received from Liverpool says:—"The Packet has been examined by all the Inspectors here, and they prononce her good. Several ship builders have visited her, all of whom admire her model, and some of them have taken notes. The dock master says she looked nice enough to be placed in the exhibition at London." The Liverpool Packet was built here during the present year by Messrs. Tobey & Littlefield, is 993 tons per register, owned by Messrs. Page, Richardson & Co. of Boston and others, and is one of the best ships in the United States. We spoke of the beauty of her model, and the completeness of her outfit about the time of her sailing, and we are glad to learn that she has fully realized the expectations of her owners and builders, in her sailing and all other qualities.

LYMAN'S
Improved Patent Metallic Soles.
PATENTED JUNE 7, 1859.

The nature of this invention consists of a metallic sole for Boots and Shoes, which has been tested and operates admirably. No dampness penetrates through to the inside sole. This is the only device that will operate well between two soles, and is made so thin as not to interfere with the most delicately finished work. The necessity of such a device to fully accomplish the much desired object, and the direful effects arising from damp feet, are too well understood to require any comment.

It is obvious to every one that sole leather is porous, absorbing water, and that the soles of boots and shoes are often damp when they appear dry, causing cold feet, chills, neuralgia, rheumatism, consumption, &c.

Physicians of eminence have pronounced this Metallic Sole an invaluable discovery, and state that if generally used, it will cause an immense saving of human life.

The right to manufacture and sell the above Improved Metallic Sole for the County of Rockingham has been purchased by the subscriber.

Boot and shoe manufacturers and dealers in Rockingham County furnished with the soles, with right to use, at No. 24 Market Street, Portsmouth, N. H. J. C. CARR.

RULES AND REGULATIONS.

EXHIBITORS must attend to the delivery of their articles, at their own expense. The Society does not hold itself responsible for the safety and preservation of what is on exhibition, nor for any loss or damage that may be sustained by any exhibitor.—But all reasonable care will be taken, and an efficient police will be maintained night and day.

All competitors for premiums, who are not members of the Society, are required to pay $1 at the time of entry—except for plowing, which is $5.

No animal or article to which has been awarded a premium, will be afterwards entitled to the same or a lower premium; and no gratuity will be awarded in any case where a premium is offered.

No highest premium will be awarded in any case, unless the article is of superior quality; and no premium will be awarded merely for want of competition.

All Animals or Articles entered for the Fair must remain in their respective places of assignment until examined by the Judges and otherwise directed by the Field Marshal.

All entries must be made in the name of the owner.

Grain, Fruit, Vegetables, Dairy Products and Domestic Manufactures, must have been raised or made by the exhibitors, and in the County, if entered to compete for the premiums.

Entries from out of the County or State will be received, if previous notice be given to the Secretary.

Every statement required from applicants must be legibly written.

The evidence necessary in any case to entitle an applicant to a premium, will be left entirely with the Judges; and they are requested not to award premiums in any case where the rules are not strictly observed.

Immediately after the arrival of the procession upon the Field, the Judges are requested to assemble at the flag staff, and the Secretary will furnish them with a book containing the entries for premiums.

Notice will then be given at what time the Judges will begin their examination, and the owner of the animal or article entered for premium or his agent, is expected to be present to give the Judges such information as required.

It shall be the duty of the Judges to make a report in their book of entries, stating to whom the premium has been awarded and his residence, detailing as far as practicable the particular improvement or distinguishing quality of the animal or article to which the premium is given, and return the book to the Secretary's office at or before 10 o'clock on the second day of the Fair.

The Secretary will be at his Office, near the entrance to the Field, on and after Monday, the 17th, for the purpose of making entries, &c. No entries will be made after 10 o'clock, Wednesday, the 19th.

PENS will be provided at the Field for the exhibition of the Stock, and posts to which working Oxen may be attached; and the owners are requested to bring chains for that purpose. Pens will be numbered, and the same numbers put on tickets delivered to those who enter Stock at any time between the time of entry and 10 o'clock on the first day of the Show. No person allowed to put stock in any pen except that designated on his ticket. Owners of Bulls must be provided with rings and chains.

Two days' notice being given to the Secretary, provision will be made for keeping, the night previous to the Show, animals which may be driven or transported more than five miles. Hay will be provided for the animals through the exhibition. The Field will be enclosed by a fence.

The Order of Exercises upon the Fair Grounds,—the exhibition of Horses, Oxen, &c., will be announced from time to time by the Marshals.

DR. MOTT'S CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE PILLS OF IRON.

An aperient and Stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen, sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Innoxious in all maladies in which it has been tried—it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

In DEBILITY, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, EMACIATIONS, CONSTIPATION, DIARRHŒA, DYSPEPSIA, DYSENTERY, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, SALT RHEUM, MISMENSTRUATION, WHITES, CHLOROSIS, RHEUMATISM, INTERMITTENT FEVERS, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, &c.

In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of acute disease or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if resuscitated from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, critical wanings and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.

In NERVOUS AFFECTIONS of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of Iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old opiates, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and over-heating; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency, which forms them.

In DYSPEPSIA, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In unchecked DIARRHŒA, even when advanced to DYSENTERY, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the loosal pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent hectic, which generally indicate INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of Iodine, without any of their well-known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In RHEUMATISM, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, as an alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In INTERMITTENT FEVERS it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has ever been discovered, in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects.—Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by Druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to

WHY CHILDREN DIE.—The reason children die, says Hall's Journal of Health, is because they are not taken care of.—From the day of their birth they are stupified with food, choked with physic, sloshed with water, suffocated in hot rooms, steamed in bed clothes. So much for in-door.—When permitted to breath of pure air, once a week in summer, and once or twice during the colder months, only the nose is allowed to peer in daylight. A little later they are sent out with no clothes at all on the parts of the body which most need protection. Bare legs, bare arms, bare neck, girted middles, with an inverted umbrella to collect the air and chill the other parts of the body. A stout, strong man goes out on a cold day with gloves and overcoat, woolen stockens, and thick double-soled boots, with cork between and rubbers over. The same day a child of three years old, an infant of flesh and blood, and bone and constitution, goes out with shoes as thin as paper, cotton socks, legs uncovered to the knees, neck bare; an exposure which would disable the nurse, kill the mother outright and make the father an invalid for weeks. And why? To harden them to a mode of dress which they are never expected to practice. To accustom them to exposure which a dozen years later would be considered downright foolery. To raise children thus for the slaughter pen, and lay it to the Lord, is too bad. We don't think the Almighty had any hand in it. And to draw comfort from the presumption that he had any agency in the death of the child, is a presumption and profanation.

LIFE AT NEWPORT.—Wednesday last, says the Newport News, was "Beach Day,' and thither the great current of fashion bore its resistless sway, literally covering that delightful drive with all descriptions of vehicles, from the jaunty car up to the splendid four horse turnout, with several attendants. From 5 o'clock to 15 minutes before 7 P.M. an accurate count was made, and the whole number of double teams was two hundred and twenty-eight. The number of single teams was one hundred. The whole number of saddle horses was ninety-four, and in addition there was one fine four-horse team.

By adding these together, the total number of horses on the beach at the time indicated will be found to have been six hundred and fifty-four, and the people upon the same locality, within the same time, must have been not less than one thousand and five hundred. Verily, "Beach days" are a great "institution."

This favorite resort for the man of leisure and the invalid is now open. Since last year many alterations and additions have been made, increasing its capacity. Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 31, 1860.

THE UNION DEMOCRAT of Manchester, while carrying the name of Douglas as its candidate, takes exactly opposite ground from Mr. D. on the Disunion question;—Mr. Douglas looking forward to Mr. Lincoln's election, says he does not consider that any ground at all, for disunion,—but the editor of the Democrat says:—

We come now to Lincoln; and it is not less true of him than of Douglas and Bell—that his election will end the slave controversy—with the end of the Union. And is not even this better than a continuance of this angry and demoralizing sectional contention?

And again the editor says he has "no doubt that the managers of the secession at Charleston purposely forced a division of the Democratic party, to secure thereby the election of Lincoln, as the long coveted pretext for disunion. If one result follows, so will the other."

The Union Democrat thus consoles itself:

But Lincoln will not be elected. His friends dare not incur the hazard. They are not disunionists—nor is he. They like the profits of the Union. They like profits of the negro controversy, but they dare not push it to disastrous results. But results, they must remember, are not always within their control. In this case they will be beyond their direction as effectually, the moment Lincoln shall be elected, as at any time after. They rely upon his prudence to avert the threatened danger. They tell us he will administer the government impartially and justly. We presume he would.

There, Mr. Editor, (says Uncle Toby) that will do. If some crazy men somewhere, should bellow disunion, all the Lincoln men will be so frightened as to vote for somebody else, or else flee from the ballot-box, rather than hazard the indignation of the crazy men,—at the election of a man whom the Democrat presumes would administer the goverment impartially and faithfully!

What a man of straw; what a pitiable scare-crow the Union Democrat has got up: but it does not frighten brother Douglas—does not frighten the Black Republicans of New Hampshire—does not frighten anybody but the man who made it, and perhaps he is only shamming: but he certainly talks as if he was alarmed.

But the price of U. S. stock has not fallen in the market.

☞ In Connecticut the Democratic State Convention met at Hartford, Aug. 29, and resulted in the triumph of the friends of Douglas and in the nomination of a clean Douglas Electoral ticket. There were some 400 delegates present. The Breckinridge wing, finding themselves in a minority, manifested some ill-feeling during the proceedings.

The Boston Herald gives the heading, —"The Breckinridge men no where—all attempts at fusion repudiated by the Douglas supporters."

Resolutions were adopted endorsing the Charleston and Baltimore platform, and recommending the same for adoption by the Democrats of Connecticut, and also recognizing Douglas and Johnson as the regularly nominated candidates of the National Democracy.

An effort was made to affix a clause to one of the resolutions, to vote for some other candidate than Douglas in order to defeat Lincoln, but this was rejected—yeas 152, nays 220.

A motion to place on the ticket two Bell Electors was voted down by a large majority.

There will probably be a Breckinridge Convention called, and another ticket nominated.

This action confirms Connecticut as a Black Republican State in November.

SUCH IS LIFE.—A dotter down of doings in Saratoga says that a gentlemen from New York, married and wealthy, visited the Springs last week, with his nephew "Charley"—a bright handsome youth, who attracted the envy of the men and the attention of the ladies. Charley rode, smoked, drank, and did many other fashionable things, and was what might be called "fast." One day he drank too much and in consequence talked too much, stating, among many funny things, that he was a she—and that "Charley" was a woman. This proved to be a fact, and on the developement the married New Yorker and the female Charley left for elsewhere.

☞ In Massachusetts, the Republican State Convention, at Worcester, was one of the largest delegate conventions ever held there, as nearly 1100 votes were thrown.—John A. Andrew of Boston was nominated for Governor, and J. Z. Goodridge for Lt. Governor, both of whom will undoubtedly be elected.

☞ Daniel Burnham, of Meredith, N. H., and a Mr. Fellows, of Richmond, Me., who were confined in Portland jail for debt—not being willing to take the poor debtor's oath—broke out of that institution on Tuesday.

UNIVERSITY OF THE SOUTH.—The grand enterprise of the Episcopal Church in the South begins already to assume a tangible form. Over $600,000 is said to have been subscribed and paid in; ten thousand acres together have been purchased at Sewanee mountain, Tennessee, and ten dioceses are represented in the corporation. The executive committee now advertise in the New Orleans papers for plans for the main building, which must contemplate a central structure, flanked by two wings, the whole to be two stories high.

DEATH FROM EXCESSIVE JOY.—Patrick Finecy, an Irishman, and an employee of the Cambria Iron Company, at Johnstown, Pa., died suddenly from excessive joy last Saturday morning. He had not seen his father for some seven or eight years, and on being informed of his unexpected arrival at that place from Ireland, the son proceeded to put on his coat, preparatory to entering the room where the aged father was awaiting the congratulations of his son; the latter fell dead before gazing on the parent whose arrival was the source of such intense joy as to cause his son's death.

KALLOCH AGAIN.—I. S. Kalloch, of Kansas, widely known in this meridian, who went to Leavenworth from Boston, for the second time, a few months ago, to preach the gospel, and who has been wavering between the Law and the Gospel for four or five years, and who has tried his hand at both within the same time, has at last, as we understand, decided in favor of adopting the former profession as a finality. He is now preaching at Leavenworth, but has decided to resign his pulpit, if he already has not since our information was dispatched from that city. He intends to locate in Kansas, most probably in Leavenworth; and his determination to change his profession, as our informant states, is a matter of deep regret among the lawyers. —Charlestown Advertiser.

BITTEN BY A RAT.—The Charleston Evening News relates the following incident of recent ocurrence in that city:

On last Thursday morning at about 1 o'clock, a lady residing in Church street, next door south of Planter's Hotel, was awoke from sleep by a great noise made in her room by a rat, when she set a small poodle dog that slept at her bedside upon him, which was very soon conquered. The lady anxious to escape the apparently infuriated thing, attempted to jump into bed, and while in the act, the rat quit its hold upon the dog, and flying at her, seized with his teeth the sole of her right foot near the two small toes, and inflicted a severe wound. Simple remedies were used upon the wound, but on Friday morning, there were such strong evidences of Tetanus appearing, that Dr. Fraser was sent for, and under his care she is doing well, though not entirely out of danger yet. Her husband, who is a policeman, came home about the time she was bitten, and with a stick, succeeded after a hard encounter in killing the furious animal, whose body measured 13 inches.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 29.—The Franklin County Democratic Convention, which met yesterday, adopted resolutions endorsing Douglas and Johnson as the regular candidates for President and Vice President.

Hon. Thomas Florence announces his intention of running as an independent candidate for Congress in the First District.

☞ Gen. Houston has declined being a candidate for the Presidency, and earnestly presses a union of all conservative Union men upon one ticket.

A MAMMOTH LOAF OF BREAD.—A novel feature in a recent pic nic of the German Bakers' Association of Washington, was a mammoth loaf of bread, exposed on an open wagon drawn by two horses, the latter led by grooms. The loaf was decorated with flags and festooned with bread, wreath-shaped; and was full as long as the four-wheeled vehicle upon which it rested. It weighed, it was said, about two hundred and fifty pounds.

☞ Garrett, elected to Congress from Arkansas, has been killed in a duel by his opponent, Mitchell. The Nashville Gazette is the authority for the report.

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—James T. Brady accepts the Breckinridge Gubernatorial nomination, with the understanding that he will withdraw in case of a union of the Democracy.

The Douglas State Committee met yesterday to make arrangements for the Presidential campaign. There was nothing done about the fusion with Breckinridge.

DETROIT, Mich., Aug. 29.—The Breckinridge State Convention nominated a full Electoral ticket, and passed resolutions requesting each Congressional district to make nominations, and discountenancing any compromise with the friends of Douglas.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Aug. 29.—The Abolition National Convention nominated Gerritt Smith for President; Samuel M. Farland of Pennsylvania for Vice President, and Frederick Douglass and Charles Hammond for Electors at Large.

CHESTER, VT., Aug. 30.—About half-past one o'clock last night, fire broke out in the back part of the Chester House, entirely destroying the house and all its outbuildings. Most of the furniture was saved in a damaged condition. Insured for $4500.

WHEELING, VA., Aug. 29.—Mrs. Daniel Steenrod was killed, and her son, Hon. Lewis Steenrod, fatally injured, to-day, by being thrown from a carriage down an embankment.

WHEN beggars cease to importune you, it is time to begin to think about purchasing new apparel. Some respects is due to the opinion of others.

PORTSMOUTH AND ITS ENVIRONS;

A PROGRAMME FOR PLEASURE SEEKERS.

BY J. H. H.—NO. V.

Like an azure vein from the heart of the main,
Pulsing with joy forever,
By verdurous isles, with dimpled smiles,
Floweth my native river.

Singing to me as full and free
As it sang to the dusky daughters,
When the light canoe like a sea-bird flew Over its peaceful waters. —Laighton.

A trip to Dover Point by water is one of no little interest to those who are fond of fine scenery and a pleasant sail. Passing under Portsmouth Bridge, the sublime and picturesque beauty of our noble river unfolds itself to view. The bold and precipitous shore, rising majestically on either side, crowned with the dark forest and draped with hanging vines, with here and there a jutting promontory, which serves to shut out for a moment from your sight some new sight—some fairer prospect.

The vallies and declivities of the hills, adorned with fields of grain, and the white cottages scattered along the banks, or perched upon the hills in the midst of the most luxurious verdure and beauty,—the glimmering meadows, receding in airy perspective, and melting in a strip of tenderest azure,—all these beautiful vistas are irrepressibly cheering, and full of bewitching loveliness.

Then comes Boiling Rock, where the river goes foaming and tumbling over its rocky bed, and the Pulpit, and the ruins of the old bridge, and last, but not least, the noble river itself, which rolls on in its rapid sublimity, and is checked not its headlong course even by the icy fetters of the frost king.

The Dover Point House is quite attractive. It is picturesquely situated near the river's bank, and is conducted in a thorough manner. It is patronized mostly by visitors from Dover and other towns at the head of the river, who make this a half-way watering place, in preference to visiting the sea coast. Towards sunset I strolled along the banks of the river, now lying flushed and tranquil in the light of the setting sun.—There is a mournful loveliness, a touching quietude, about this spot,—a relief and a rest after visiting the more fashionable and noisy watering places.

Looking back two centuries, we see the smoke of the Indian wigwams rising from valley and hill-top,—we hear the shouts of victory and the war-dance resounding o'er the waters and through the glades. Up and down these waters skimmed the birch canoe; the arrow and the tomahawk whistled through the forest, arresting the eagle in his flight and startling the wild beasts in their lairs. But how changed the scene!—The white man's axe now rings through the woods; the plough is on the hunting grounds, and the white man's sail skims over the waters. The warriors and the young braves, the sachems and the tribes, the hunters and their kindred, have all passed away.

'Tis like a dream when one awakes—
This vision of the scenes of old;
'Tis like the morning when morning breaks,
'Tis like a tale round watch-fires told.

Then what are we? Then what are we?
Yes, when two hundred years have rolled
O'er our green graves, our names shall be
A morning dream—a tale that's told.

A drive to this neighborhood along the river's bank, is very fine, giving you a most extended view of the surrounding country and of the river, and Great Bay. Arriving at Miss Nancy Drew's house, in Newington, you leave your horse, and if desirable you can be ferried over to the Dover Point House, on the opposite side of the river;—yet remaining on the New Hampshire shore, you will not fail to observe the magnificent scenery which is spread out in every direction.

Leaving this secluded retreat, we drove round through the pleasant town of Newington. Here you pass many fine-looking country residences, noble shade trees, and well-cultivated farms. The scenery is varied and interesting. Shady groves, thro' which the road passes, snug little cottages, with here and there a church surrounded with its grassy lawn,—all combined to make the drive pleasant and fascinating.

IDENTIFIED.—The man who was killed on the Eastern Railroad on Saturday, the 18th, was John Tucker, of Newburyport, aged 27 years. He was the son of George Tucker, a carpenter, who lived in the "Haunted House," the Cross house, near the foot of Federal street, at the time of that excitement. His father now lives in Sandown, N. H. He was identified by the name—T. F. Brownell—on his shirt, the garment having been given him in New Bedford, at which port he recently arrived in the ship "Two Brothers."

☞ One "new branch of business" has recently been started in our midst—an industrious female rag-picker having reaped a rich harvest from the accumulation in our streets. The chiffoniers have made themselves felt as a class, in some parts of the world, ere now.

NEW YORK, Aug. 29.—Steamer Persia sailed to-day for Liverpool with $450,000 in specie.

The firemen decided, to-day, to have a torchlight procession on the arrival of the Prince of Wales. There will also be a military display.

POLICE COURT.

THURSDAY MORNING, Aug. 30.

Before Judge Odell.—Daniel Kane, John Conner, Charles Teal, George Merrill and Dennis Raigin, all boys between 10 and 14 years of age, were arrested for trespassing and larceny from the premises of C. C. Harvey in Deer street on Saturday last. Kane and Conner were sentenced to pay costs and to be imprisoned 30 days in jail, or to be committed to the House of Reformation for juvenile offenders till they were twenty-one years of age. The other boys were discharged, there not being sufficient evidence to convict them.

WORK AND WAGES.—He who won't work, neither should he eat. Everybody who does work will agree with this—especially when the loafers are not "worth" anything, as most of them, of whatever class, really are not. But, seriously, who supports the two hundred able-bodied young men in our city, with their female associates in vice and crime—who never perform a day's or hour's real productive labor, and yet "live" as well or better, (so far as mere outward appearances are concerned,)—at any rate, spend more money on their miserable and worthless selves—than the workers are able to get? When a man or woman has no ostensible employment, and possesses no visible means of support, (though mean enough no doubt,) it is reasonable and fair to presume that they are no better than they should be; and it would seem that the vagrant law should be put in force against the large class of loafers in Portsmouth.

SHARP PRACTICE.—It will be remembered that we mentioned, a few days ago, the arraignment of Ben Watson, in our Police Court, for procuring money from Richard Hilton under false pretences. It appears that Ben and John Watson went into Hilton's saloon, on Islington street, and asked him to exchange $25 of silver for gold. Hilton handed John Watson the gold, when the Watsons asked Hilton to go to the ladies' saloon, (which is up stairs, and reached by going into the street and in at another door,) instead of entering which, they ran off with the money. Ben was afterwards arrested, but John left the city. The penalty for this bare-faced robbery, to so large an amount, is State Prison, we believe.

TOWN TEAMS.—No legitimate business of a County Fair makes more display, or creates greater interest, than the Procession of Town Teams, with the fine strings of handsome and noble oxen, and the tastefully rigged wagons attached. Portsmouth will turn out in good style; and Rye, Greenland, Newington, the Hamptons, and Stratham, are certainly all sufficiently near to "follow suit"—unless, indeed, they can some of them lead, concerning which, there may well be some question, if all take hold earnestly and in season., New Market, Epping, Seabrook, Exeter, Nottingham, and in fact every town in the County, we should like to see enter the lists in this pleasant, harmless, and not unprofitable rivalry.

A FAIR QUESTION.—Would it not be advisable for the city authorities to widen Woodbury street immediately, as the proprietors of land on the south side have generously appropriated one half of the amount of land required for that purpose! It will then be one of the widest and pleasantest streets in our city. When that arrangement is completed, the field belonging to the city on the north side of Woodbury street will be more than doubly increased in value. A small outlay would do all that is required to make the street what it should be, before the time of holding the County Fair.

☞ Mrs. Susan Senter and her son Harrison, aged 20, have been committed to answer the charge of murdering a young girl in Cabot, Vt., named Elmira Wheeler, about three weeks since. The Wheeler girl was about 15 years of age, and it was supposed at the time that she died of fever, but after burial the body was taken up, and an examination by physicians disclosed an internal wound, which was the cause of her death.

☞ At Kittery Point, next Wednesday afternoon, there is to be a Festival, held in one of the most pleasant and elegible Groves in this vicinity,—affording a season of delightful recreation, in a spot where pure air, beautiful prospects, and rich historical associations combine to give the most innocent pleasure. See advertisement.

A HORSE KILLED BY BEES.—On Saturday last, a valuable horse belonging to Capt. Isaac Farnum, of Essex, Mass., was fastened near a number of beehives, and becoming restless, kicked over one of them, when he was soon attacked by the whole swarm of bees, and so badly stung that he died within three hours. The bees clustered upon him in great numbers, almost covering his body, and penetrating his nostrils and ears, causing the horse the utmost torture.—Gloucester Tel.

☞ Rev. J. E. Brown has resigned his charge as pastor of the Baptist Church in Hopkinton.

EXCITING ACCIDENT.—On Sunday last, two gentlemen from Portsmouth were thrown from their wagon in consequence of coming in contact with a stone post near Rye Harbor. The horse took fright and ran to the meeting-house (two miles) before he was stopped. Another carriage, in order to avoid the frightened horse and wreck attached to him, struck the two-horse team belonging to Mr. Tileston of Boston, which was coming from church to the Atlantic House, whereby Mr. T. and his daughter were seriously though not dangerously injured.—Cor. Ballot.

Mr. Tileston was riding in an open two-seated wagon, with his wife and two daughters. The concussion threw him to the ground, but he held to the reins and was dragged some distance, and called to the ladies not to jump out. One of the daughters, however, jumped from behind, and fell on her head and face; and being stunned, and bleeding freely, no little excitement ensued. Two Portsmouth physicians were procured, post haste, and two others boarding in the vicinity soon appeared; but fortunately the young lady was not so badly injured as was at first feared, and was soon restored to consciousness and convalescence.

☞ "Old Ironsides" got a little scratching at Annapolis. On entering the harbor she ran aground, and had not got off on Thursday. She is thought not to be seriously injured, but those in charge of her had better have a care.

☞ Miss Kimberly's Dramatic Company announce the popular play of "Uncle Tom's Cabin" for Friday and Saturday evenings, at the Templo—to close their engagement here.

A good man is almost always a cheerful one. It is fit that bad men should scowl, and look blue, and be melancholy; but he who has God's smile of approbation upon him, should show its radiance in his countenance.

A man, with his wife and two children, in Goffstown, has picked and brought to Manchester market one hundred bushels of blueberries, from which he realized $132. —Manchester American.

BIBLICAL.—"Who discovered Moses in his little cradle in the bulrushes?" asked a clergyman of this city, of a little three year-old girl.—"The Prince of Whales," was her immediate reply.—Newburyport Herald.

My wife has had one of Grover & Baker's Family Sewing Machines for some time, and I am satisfied it is one of the best labor-saving machines that has been invented. I take pleasure in recommending it to the public.

[From the Rev. Jonathan Cross, Agent American Tract Society.]

My wife has been using one of your Sewing Machines for the last three months, and pronounces it faultless. She can sew more in it in one day, than in ten the old way, and without fatigue. The work is beautiful and durable.—She says she would not exchange it for any other one. It is certainly one of the grandest inventions ever made for the relief of woman-kind, and I would recommend every family to get one as soon as possible.

Baltimore, July 14, 1859.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859.

Having tested the merits of the various popular Sewing Machines, in the manufacture of our Capes and Raglans, we unhesitatingly recommend the Grover & Baker, as far superior to all others.

ALLEN & PAINE.

PORTSMOUTH, July 16, 1859.

If you wish to purchase a machine that will do work handsomely and strongly, and will not be liable to get out of repair, call on Mr. Whittemore in Daniel street, see the operation of Grover & Baker's machine, and then place one in your family. They will never consent to part with it, after they understand its operation.

CHARLES W. BREWSTER.

"Zion's Herald," Nov. 10th, 1859, says,—"We would recommend to families and to those about to organize a homestead, to be sure and have a Family Bible, and also use of Grover & Baker's SEWING MACHINES.

LYMAN'S

Improved Patent Metallic Soles.

PATENTED JUNE 7, 1859.

The nature of this invention consists of a metallic sole for Boots and Shoes, which has been tested and operates admirably. No dampness penetrates through to the inside sole. This is the only device that will operate well between two soles, and is made so thin as not to interfere with the most delicately finished work. The necessity of such a device to fully accomplish the much desired object, and the direful effects arising from damp feet, are too well understood to require any comment.

It is obvious to every one that sole leather is porous, absorbing water, and that the soles of boots and shoes are often damp when they appear dry, causing cold feet, chills, neuralgia, rheumatism, consumption, &c.

Physicians of eminence have pronounced this Metallic Sole an invaluable discovery, and state that, if generally used, it will cause an immense saving of human life.

The right to manufacture and sell the above Improved Metallic Sole for the County of Rockingham has been purchased by the subscriber.

Boot and shoe manufacturers and dealers in Rockingham County furnished with the soles, with right to use, at No. 24 Market Street, Portsmouth, N. H. J. C. CARR.

CLIPPER PLOWS

Are manufactured only by the subscribers, the inventors, who offer them to the agricultural interest after they have been

THOROUGHLY TESTED

by experienced Plowmen, who pronounce them

The Best in the Market!

These Plows embrace NINE DIFFERENT SIZES, the largest of which is much in advance of anything in the United States, as regards size, and, like the other sizes of this celebrated Plow, is drawn easily by a team much smaller than is absolutely requisite to draw a Plow of less size, of any other make than the Clipper.

We also assure our Farming friends that as we have hitherto endeavored to make our Plows superior to all others in those points which especially interest Plowmen, we are still endeavoring by unceasing exertions, to improve—if this be possible—upon our former successes, although those who are best acquainted in these matters say, "It cannot be done."

Notwithstanding the immense advantages which these Plows possess over all others, we offer them at THE SAME PRICES as are charged for common grades, satisfied that their great superiority will induce so large a sale, that our aggregate profits will make our business sufficiently remunerative.

FAREWELL.

My fairest child, I have no song to give you;
No lark could pipe to skies so dull and gray;
Yet ere we part, one lesson I can leave you
For every day:

Be good, sweet maid; and let who will, be clever;
Do noble things, not dream them, all day long;
And so make life, death, and that vast forever
One grand, sweet song.

[Charles Kingsley.

as he is familiarly termed, has long been known as

The California Trapper of "Old."

The history of his exploits and hair-breadth escapes, his terrific encounters with GRIZZLY BEARS and other wild animals by which he has been nearly torn in pieces, and is now covered with scars from head to foot, has been extensively published, and it proves him to be, beyond dispute, the most FEARLESS AND INTREPID HUNTER that ever shouldered a rifle, distancing by far the renowned French Hunter GERARD, or the celebrated Lion Slayer GORDON CUMMING, so far as reckless daring is concerned.

"OLD ADAMS" in fact is considered quite as much of a curiosity as any of his animals. He SLEEPS with his Bears, Eats with his Bears, and seems always most happy when surrounded by Bears. "Old Adams" spent all of his time for years, in the Mountains and Wilds of California and the Far West, in capturing, taming, and training this unequalled aggregation.

Wonderful Menagerie,

the exhibition of which shows the extraordinary power of man over the most savage beasts, and their entire subjection to his will—Mr. Adams controlling them with as much ease and certainty as any lady would her pet dog.

This truly great Combination of Talent may be relied upon by the public as worthy of the most extensive patronage, and is the only company with any right to the well-earned fame of Niblo's, N. Y. It will appear at the following places, upon the following dates:

The Remedies are carefully prepared under the direct supervision and business of Dr. HUMPHREYS, in order to meet that urgent and long realized want of the public, namely, remedies for all the more common and simple diseases, at a price

A moment's reflection will show that a vast majority of diseases from which we suffer and die, were, at their commencement, slight and trifling. A mere cold, a slight diarrhœa, a pain in the side, or a headache, or hoarseness, so first easily cured and subdued, in their incipient stages, become, a few, a dangerous dysentery, Croup or other disease, which all the powers of medicine fail to arrest.

Hereto these remedies have had a great public want. Being on hand, simple, as you know at once what to take—pleasant, so as to cause no repugnance—safe, with little consequence to fear, while the curative effects are positive and certain, they are taken, and at once the spell is broken and the danger allayed.

Everything has conspired to make the use of these remedies for families and private persons, as being THE BEST IN USE, THE MOST SIMPLE AND CONVENIENT, THE MOST SAFE AND EFFICACIOUS.

Thousands are and have been using them for some five years past, in every section of the country, with almost invariable success, and are in the of best terms of their simplicity and certainty, and among our hundreds of agents the uniform testimonial is, that they give good satisfaction to their customers.

Dyspepsia Remedy

DR. DARIUS HAM'S

AROMATIC INVIGORATING SPIRIT.

This medicine has been used by the public for five years, with increasing favor. It is recommended to cure Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Heartburn, Colic Pains, Wind in the Stomach, or Pains in the Bowels, Headache, Drowsiness, Kidney Complaints, Low Spirits, Delirum Tremens, Intemperance. It Stimulates, Exhilarates, Invigorates, but will not Intoxicate or Stupefy.

As a Medicine, it is quick and effectual, curing the most aggravated cases of Dyspepsia, Kidney Complaints, and all other derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, in a speedy manner.

It will instantly revive the most melancholy and drooping spirits, and restore the weak, nervous and sickly to health, strength and vigor.

Persons who, from the injudicious use of liquors, have become dejected, and their nervous systems shattered, constitutions broken down, and subject to that horrible curse to humanity, the Delirium Tremens, will, almost immediately, feel the happy and invigorating efficacy of Dr. Ham's Invigorating Spirit.

What it will do!

DOSE.—1 wine glass full as often as necessary.
One dose will remove all Bad Spirits.
One dose will cure Heartburn.
Three doses will cure Indigestion.
One dose will give you a good appetite.
One dose will stop the distressing pains of Dyspepsia.

One dose will remove the distressing and disagreeable effects of Wind or Flatulence, and as soon as the Stomach receives the Invigorating Spirit, the distressing load and all painful feelings will be removed.

One dose will remove the most distressing pains of Colic, either in the stomach or bowels.

A few doses will remove all obstructions in the Kidney, Bladder or Urinary Organs.

Persons who are seriously afflicted with any Kidney Complaints, are assured speedy relief by a dose or two, and a radical cure by the use of one or two bottles.

NIGHTLY DISSIPATION.

Persons who, from dissipating too much over night, and feel the evil effects of poisonous liquors, in violent headaches, sickness at stomach, weakness, giddiness, &c., will find one dose will remove all bad feelings.

Ladies of weak and sickly constitutions, should take the Invigorating Spirit three times a day; it will make them strong, healthy, and happy, remove all obstructions and irregularities from the menstrual organs, and restore the bloom of health and beauty to the careworn face.

During pregnancy it will be found an invaluable medicine to remove disagreeable sensations at the stomach.

All the proprietor asks, is a trial, and to induce this, he has put up the INVIGORATING SPIRIT in pint bottles, at 50 cents, qts $1.

DR. MOTT'S
PILLS OF IRON.

An aperient and Stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Innoxious in all maladies in which it has been tried—it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

In DEBILITY, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, EMACIATIONS, CONSTIPATION, DIARRHŒA, DYSPEPSIA, DYSENTERY, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, SALT RHEUM, MISMENSTRUATION, WHITES, CHLOROSIS, RHEUMATISM, INTERMITTENT FEVERS, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, &c.

In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of acute disease or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed-ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if raised from protracted interment in premature land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.

In NERVOUS AFFECTIONS of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old cobble, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and over-heating; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a direct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency, which forms them.

In DYSPEPSIA, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In unchecked DIARRHŒA, even when advanced to DYSENTERY, confirmed consumptive, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent hectic, which generally indicate INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well-known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In RHEUMATISM, both chronic and inflammatory—the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In INTERMITTENT FEVERS it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

A remedy has ever been discovered, in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects—direct appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by Druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to

WM. B. ASTOR WORTH $40,000,000.—The New York correspondent of the Philadelphia Press writes:—

Some indiscreet individual having ventured to intimate through the papers that Wm. B. Astor is worth only about five and twenty millions of dollars, a friend of Mr. A. repels the injurious slander by stating that he is worth forty millions, at least, and that the value of his real estate is increasing at the rate of three millions per annum. I noticed Mr. A. yesterday, walking rapidly up Broadway, on the shilling side, covered with a six-shilling straw hat, and wearing a suit such as anywhere could be purchased for twenty dollars. Mr. Astor has latterly taken to giving superb dinners.

SLAVERY IN DELAWARE.—The few returns of the census of 1860 which we have published, when compared with the census of 1850, exhibit the fact that slavery continues to recede just as the white population increases and sub-divides the land. Slavery is not profitable on small estates, and just as the country fills up and becomes populated, slaves are removed to less populated regions. In a few years, Delaware will be nominally a free State, as Pennsylvania and New Jersey were for many years. This would have been the case long since, were those who own slaves in Delaware not prohibited by law from selling them out of the State. It is contrary to law to bring slaves into Delaware.—Delaware Gazette.

As Sayers, the pugilist, was recently driving near London, the wheel of his chaise came in contact with that of a cart, whose driver put his whip across Tom's shoulders. This was too much for the champion; he alighted and promptly hauled the carman from his cart. The Jarvey rejoined by felling Tom to the ground. Hereupon the bystanders, recognizing Sayers, shouted:—"Hallo, Tom, you have got hold of another Heenan!" The sound of Tom Sayers' name was enough for the carman, who quickly mounted his vehicle and drove away, evidently conscious that he had "caught a Tartar."

THE Harrisburg, Penn., Telegraph says:

"A lady had the habit of picking her teeth with pins. A trifling humor was the consequence, which terminated in a cancer, and she died. The brass and quick-silver used in making these pins will account for the circumstance. Pins are always poisonous to the teeth, and should never be used for toothpicks."

We laugh heartily to see a whole flock of sheep jump because one does so. Perhaps superior beings laugh at us for exactly the same reason.

APPLEDORE HOUSE,
ISLES OF SHOALS.
This favorite resort for the man of leisure and the invalid is now open. Since last year many alterations and additions have been made, increasing its capacity. Billiard and Bowling Saloons are provided, and every measure taken to secure the comfort and amusement of its guests.
An abundance of sweet cream and milk is supplied from healthy cows kept on the Island. The table is faultless. The facilities for fishing have been increased by the addition of new boats and experienced skippers.
When to all these advantages are added the purity of the air—the delicious coolness of the ocean breeze, its invigorating and appetizing power—the loveliness of the scenery—the glory of its sunsets—the cleanliness of its walks—its freeness from dust, mud, and all other annoyances of the kind—it may truly be said to possess advantages and attractions which no other watering place in New England can attain. The equability of the temperature is a natural advantage over the coast or the mountains, which invalids can fully appreciate.
A daily Packet, the SIBYL, Capt. Preble, runs direct to the Appledore from Portsmouth, leaving Pier Wharf on the arrival of the morning train from Boston, and returns in the afternoon. The Sibyl has every accommodation for the comfort of passengers which a Packet requires.

THE ONLY PREPARATION
Having Proof so Strong and Direct
as to
Expel the Doubts of All.
For Statesmen, Judges, Editors, Physicians of the oldest schools as well as new, give their unqualified sanction, and recommend it for all cases of eruptions, and diseases of the scalp and brain; but all who have used it, unite in testifying that it will preserve the hair from being gray, and from falling to any age, as well as restore.—Read the following:—
Oak Grove, S. C., June 24, 1859.
Prof. O. J. Wood:—Dear Sir:—Your Hair Restorative is rapidly gaining popularity in this community. I have had occasion to lay prejudice aside and give your Hair Restorative a perfect test.
During the year 1854, I was so unfortunate as to be thrown from my saddle against a rock near the roadside, from which my head received a most terrible blow; causing a great deal of irritation, which communicated to the brain and external surface of the head, from the effects of which my hair was entirely destroyed. From the time I first discovered its dropping, however, up to the time of its total disappearance, I employed everything I could think of, being a professional man myself, and as I thought, understanding the nature of the disease, but was finally defeated in every prescription advanced.
These and no other circumstances induced me to resort to your worthy "Hair Restorative," which I have every reason to believe, produced a very happy result: two months after the first application, I had an abundant head of young hair as I ever saw, for which I certainly owe you my sincere thanks. Rest assured, dear sir, I shall recommend your remedy to all inquirers; moreover, I shall use my influence, which I flatter myself to say, is not a little.
You can publish this if you think proper.
Yours, very respectfully,
M. J. WRIGHT, M. D.
Jeffersonton Office, Phillips, Va., Dec. 12, 1859.
Professor O. J. Wood:—Dear Sir:—I feel it my duty as well as my pleasure, to state to you the following circumstance, which you can use as you think proper. A gentleman of this place, (or near,) has been bald from his early youth; so much so, that he was compelled to wear a wig. He was induced to use a bottle of your "Hair Restorative," which pleased him very much; and after using some two or three bottles his hair grew out quite luxuriantly, and he now has a handsome head of hair. The gentleman's name is Bradford, and as he is very well known in our adjoining counties, many persons can testify to the truth of this statement; I give this to you at the request of Mr. Bradford. You can sell a great deal of your Hair Restorative in this and the adjoining counties if you have the proper agents. Yours, &c.,
THOMPSON SURGHNOR.
Dr. Wood—Dear Sir—Permit me to express the obligations I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color; about the time of my arrival in the United States it was rapidly becoming gray; but upon the application of your Hair Restorative it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative as a very wonderful invention, quite efficacious as well as agreeable. S. HALLBERG.
The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds about twenty per cent more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 1, 1860.

☞ The yield of gold in Australia and New Zealand since the mining commenced has been over five hundred million dollars. The American gold regions have yielded more than this in ten years, so that the addition to the world's stock of gold in ten years has been over a thousand million dollars. The reason that this addition has not cheapened the value of gold is found in the increased commerce which has brought it into use. If commerce were on no larger scale than it was fifteen years ago, this enormous quantity of gold would be idly filling up the vaults of banks and of individuals. But business has grown space, and there is no glut of the gold market, no perceptible diminution of its value. The world adapts itself to any new circumstances with surprising facility, and commerce has enlarged its transactions to correspond with its means.

SINGULAR SCENE IN A JURY ROOM.—The Grand Jury of Lebanon county, Pa., returned a true bill against B. R. Hall, charged with forgery and attempting to pass a forged check on the Lebanon Bank. The indictment against him for horse stealing was ignored. A singular occurrence took place in the room while the jury were deliberating on the latter bill. A gentleman appeared before them in regard to the theft, stating that he would be able to recognize the thief if he could see him. Some member of the Grand Jury then asked the witness to look around and state whether the suspected thief was present. He carefully examined every countenance in the room, and swore positively that the horse-thief was sitting behind the table, pointing to a respectable member of the jury. The jurors, knowing the high character for integrity sustained by the gentleman pointed out, who is a respectable and estimable citizen of Lebanon, after recovering from their astonishment, at once discharged the witness and ignored the bill against Hall.—This singular affair caused considerable amusement among the people of Lebanon, at the expense of the very respectable gentleman who was mistaken for a horse-thief.

☞ The Boston Atlas is informed, and knows beyond possibility of doubt, that two agents of that philanthropic institution, the Underground R. R., who reside in Kansas, have recently brought to the free States from Missouri twelve slaves, or colored persons who once were slaves, but are now freemen, safely located and taking care of themselves. Some of them were in Boston a few days since. Among them was a young mulatto woman, quite white, with her little child; and it is said to have been affecting to witness her joy at the prospective future freedom of her child, seeming entirely to forget her own liberty. The agents who did this work are young men, have lived some time in Kansas, and done much labor in this line, encountering many dangers.

☞ Ex-Gov. Wise, of Virginia, strikes boldly for Breckinridge. He says, in a letter to the Jackson Club of Boston, after alluding to Douglas doctrines:—"Nothing could be bluer than the Federalism of this non-intervention doctrine. And does it leave slave-property alone at the mercy of Federal power, concentrated ultimately in an Executive? No, lands, too, are at its mercy! What else, who else, I won't stop to enumerate. For one I will never quietly submit to it. This issue compels me to side with the ticket of your choice. God grant that our efforts be not in vain. I fear they will be—that Black Republicanism is to triumph in the coming election. If so, I mean for one to abide by and in the Union; to fight in it, not out of it—aid in saving the country and its Constitution; but not to submit one moment, or to concede one single item, to a triumph which will degrade me and mine in this Confederacy of free and equal States."

CONNECTICUT.—Under the head of "the Breckinridge Squad in Connecticut excited," the Boston Herald copies the following item of Aug. 30:

The Hartford Times hoists the Breckinridge flag this evening; and it is understood that the New Haven Register, Bridgeport Farmer and Middletown Sentinel will follow suit. The Times denounces the Convention of Wednesday in severe terms. A call for a Mass Convention of the National Democracy of Connecticut also appears in the Times, signed by Wm. A. Eaton, member of the National Democratic Convention for Connecticut, to meet at New Haven, September 12, to nominate a Breckinridge electoral ticket.

Per contra, the Republican Convention at New Haven, Aug. 20, unanimously nominated their whole electoral ticket.

TEXAS ITEMS.—A letter from Henderson, Texas, gives a list of the sufferers by the fire there, making a clear loss of upwards of $260,000 over all insurance.

One hundred and twenty bottles of strychnine have been found in the possession of slaves.

The item about the fire, no doubt, has truth in it, and may be a correct guess.—But the 120 bottles of strychnine among the slaves, will be laughed at in Maine, as an electioneering canard.

PORTSMOUTH AND ITS ENVIRONS;

A PROGRAMME FOR PLEASURE SEEKERS.

BY J. H. H.—NO. VI.

The smiling village with its many charms:
The sheltered cot, the cultivated farms,
The never-failing brook, the busy mill,
The decent church that tops the neighboring hill;
The hawthorn bush, with seats beneath the shade,
For talking age and whispering lovers made.
—Goldsmith.

Kittery Point is not a very popular watering-place, but, nevertheless, there are many objects of interest in that vicinity, and a day can be passed in searching them out, in a very profitable manner. The road winds along the banks of the river, giving you a continual view of perspective scenery, diversified by forests, hills, valleys, the river, islands, villages, the city and the broad expanse of ocean.

Arriving at Kittery Village, you would do well to leave the road for a while, and take a stroll over the Navy Yard. There you will find many things worthy of your attention. Again, on this road, you soon arrive at Kittery Point, where, on Battery Hill, stands Fort McClary.

After an inspection of this military work, you will be much gratified with the surrounding country, as the views from this point are very beautiful. A bird's-eye view of Portsmouth in the distance, Forts Sullivan and Constitution, New Castle, the Navy Yard, and Kittery Point, with its stage road winding along so picturesquely, through the hollows and up the hills,—all make up a grand panorama of nature.

A visit to the old Pepperell and Cutts houses, and the ancient cemetery, should not be omitted; and a ramble on the rocks at the point, when the waves are rolling in, will be quite invigorating to the body and attractive to the eye. There are many other places of interest on this route, which we have not time to mention; but a trip in that direction will unfold to you all its beauties and sacred objects of traditionary lore.

There are many other pleasant spots within an hour's walk of our city, which we have visited, that are rich in reminiscences of olden times, and where the surrounding scenery is, as it were, seemingly linked in with the incidents and hallowing charms of historical or poetic association. Among them is the ancient town of New Castle.—This refreshing walk, where on every side delightful landscapes are unfolded to the sight, has hitherto not been generally enjoyed. It should be more frequented by the lovers of the beautiful.

Fort Constitution, where the first blow for Liberty was struck, is not without its pleasing associations. A peep into the old castle on the hill, a stroll about the ruins of the old Atkinson house, near Jerry's Point, and a look into the old grave-yard, where are seen the grim, uncouth sulptures on the moss-covered stones, and the quaint epitaphs which date back a hundred and fifty years; a visit to the light-house, and a ramble over the rocks and along the beach, are a few of the many interesting features of this pleasant place.

A sail or walk to the Sagamore Creek, Little Harbor, Fort Washington, or a stroll to the Plains or the Pulpit, needs no comment; for each has its programme of diversified scenery and romance, which is imprinted on the minds of the many who daily and weekly pay homage to their beauties.

A sail to the lower harbor, visiting the islands, engaging in the sport of fishing, and acting out the Robinson Crusoe for a day, is pleasant and invigorating. Returning at twilight, you will be much pleased with the charming scenery which surrounds you on all sides. Among the most attractive spots, is that of Lieut. Decatur's cottage, where the spire of the village church is seen peeping up through the trees. Here you will find a sweet echo. Farther on you pass by the delightful residence of Rev. Daniel Austin, so tastefully beautified with its sloping lawns, shrubbery and shade trees; and scattered here and there on the heights are the pretty little white cottages, which look so picturesque with their bright red roofs, green blinds, and trellised door-ways. Still further on, you are attracted by the fine scene at the rear of the Navy Yard, with a sky of crimson and gold for a back-ground, such as you often see at sunset. You will find no spot in this vicinity which is more grand and lovely than this.

Having completed our sketches, we leave the reader to follow in our footsteps, believing that if he sees as we have seen, each exquisite beauty that we have portrayed will sink with peculiar interest into his heart, and will, long after his return to the grave duties of the city, haunt him with the music of the cascade and the rivulet,—and in his mind will be linked with the memory of the pleasant dance acquaintances made within the influence of each spot of loveliness.

Will those whose eyes have been gladdened by these home scenes, deem our eulogy aught but well merited enthusiasm?

☞ Disunion is made the test question for the Legislature in some parts of South Carolina. The editor of the Edgefield Advertiser regrets the movement at this time, as he fears it will be the "signal for dissension," for "South Carolina is much divided" on the question of independent secession.

LOVE AND PEACHES.

BOSTON, Kentucky, Aug. 28.

Kentucky ladies are handsome; Kentucky gentlemen are gallant; and it is proverbial that "the course of true love never runs smooth," although there may be a "will" which very soon finds a "way." Kentuckians are not much behind the rest of mankind in this particular. In fact, Kentuckians love the excitement attendant upon a wedding, most especially an elopement; and they also love peaches.

Many of their most influential and respectable men have secured their admirable ladies only by a departure from the strict rules of conformity enjoyed by popular custom. Is it to be wondered at, then, that sometimes, semi-occasionally, some of the young gentlemen of modern times follow in the foot-steps of their "most illustrious predecessors," and become happy husbands by a clandestine marriage? And besides, the young ladies think it so very romantic, especially when the affair leaks out and into the papers—said young lady being described as a "most dazzlingly beautiful" girl, while her "dear husband" is styled a "perfect brick," by some Jenkins of the press.

But to our mutton! Such an event has come to pass in our community. Mr. Wm. D———, a clever young gentlemen of this place, wooed and won the affections of a young lady both beautiful and accomplished, and of the age of young ladies generally. We will say, however, between 17 and 23, and run the risk. Her father, Dr. R———, a portly, dignified gentleman of the old school, and a government officer withal—made some objection to the match it is said. The intended bridegroom still, however, pressed his suit; and the lady's consent being obtained, a peach party of a selected few was formed, and all arrangements being made, they took their departure one fine morning last week, on the down train of the K. E. Railroad. Their tickets were purchased for Demossville, 7 miles below here,—it being given out that they were to gather peaches there and return by the next train. The cars passed Demossville, without our party taking any preparatory steps for leaving the cars. Demossville was soon left far behind, and the real purpose of the party revealed. Arrived at the Madison House, Cincinnati, the proper authorities soon appeared, and the lovers were soon united in the holy bonds of matrimony. Next day the happy bridegroom with his loving bride returned—the enraged "parient" not having "smelled a mice" till all was o'er!

The cream of the joke is, the unsuspecting "pap" had witnessed their departure the day before without the least suspicion of the ulterior object of the smiling "peach party!"

Yours, G. W. M.

☞ A Pennsylvania aeronaut makes to the citizens of Cleveland, Ohio, a series of exceedingly handsome offers. He will go up in his balloon alone for $200; with a horse, for $300 and his expenses; with a horse and buggy for $400; with two horses and a lady on one of them for $500. He will descend from a height of one mile by a parachute, or will send a lady in his place, for $500. If the citizens desire to have a little animal excitement, they need pay only his lowest price; they will even then be sure of seeing an ascension by a donkey.

☞ The Beloit, Wis., Journal tells of a singular accident by which Miss Alice Foster, a young lady eighteen years of age, lost her life. She was riding on horseback with her brother as an escort, when her horse became frightened and swerving suddenly to one side, unseated her and threw her against a sharp poplar pole with such force that it penetrated her thigh and severed the femoral artery. Her brother immediately conveyed her home, but she died of hemorrhage soon after reaching there.

SAD MISTAKE.—The Hartford Press states that the wife of Michael Quinnan of West Suffield, Ct., on Tuesday visited the fields to select mushrooms for the family to partake. Through mistake toadstools were given them, and two children, six and four years old respectively, have since died; the mother and a child two years old lie dangerously ill, and are not expected to live. The husband was absent at meal time, and did not partake of the poison.

ITEM FOR THE UNION DEMOCRAT.—Senator Pugh, of Ohio, wrote to the Douglas State Convention of Kentucky the following spirited language:

What can be more criminal than this modern habit of betaking ourselves upon every trivial occasion, or even upon solemn occasions, to the jargon of disunion, and secession, and revolution? I am not only opposed to it, but I am tired of it and disgusted with it.

F. R. Elliott says:—"Ripe grapes have cured epidemic dysentery. Physicians have occasionally advised the use of 'cooling acid fruits,' and the earliest writers have directed the sugary ones, as 'figs,' for food in convalescence. Families, where fruits are most plentiful and good, and prized as an article of daily food, are most free from fevers and bowel complaints.—Most fruits aid digestion—some directly and some indirectly—and lessen the desire for alcoholic or stimulating drinks."

Special Notices.

LOTTERIES IN PERU.

In Lima the Lottery draws every Saturday—the prize $1,000. The tickets are hawked about the street by old men. As the ticket is handed to you, the vender gravely asks your name, that of the lady (your sweetheart of course) to whose intercession with the Fates you expect success; and if, unfortunately, you are minus the tender attachment, then the saint whose favor you implore, —all of which he registers in a book, kept for the purpose. The drawing is made, with much ceremony, on a platform erected in the grand plaza. We think the Lotteries of Messrs. Wood, Eddy & Co., of Wilmington, Delaware, and St. Louis, Missouri, a decided improvement upon this; for by enclosing $20, $10, $5, or $3 50, you receive, by return mail, a chance in one of their legalized Lotteries—the capital prize $70,000.

SEWING MACHINES.—Until recently (says the Boston Traveller) good and reliable machines have been held at prices beyond the means of those who most needed them; and accordingly, their use has been limited mostly to the owners of manufacturing establishments, and to families in affluent circumstances; and the tendency was to a serious oppression of the class who had previously depended on the needle for support. To meet this emergency, and to place a really good machine within the reach of the great majority of the families of the industrial and mechanical classes, and of the semptresses themselves, has long been regarded as a social desideratum.—There have been numberless cheap machines, but none which could be relied on for combining cheapness with excellence, durability, simplicity, and non-liability to get out of order, until within a very recent period. This fact, aided by the influence of interested parties, created the impression that a good Family Sewing Machine must cost not less than $75 or $100.

Within the last eighteen months, Mr. Charles W. Williams, a mechanic of fine inventive skill and large experience in building Sewing Machines, has brought out a machine which, in point of excellence, is not surpassed by any machines before the public, while its low price brings it within the means of every family and needlewoman. They are made and extensively sold by Messrs. WILLIAMS & ORVIS, No. 313 Washington street, and are put up in the several styles usual to the Sewing Machine trade, on plain tables, in casket, and in cabinet form. We have examined the several styles of these machines, and have received the highest commendation of them from many who have used them, and feel warranted in directing those who would like a superior Sewing Machine, to examine those of Williams & Orvis, at their salesroom above named. These machines, we understand, are all warranted, and are kept in order one year, by the makers, free of charge.

ART VS. NATURE.—Mr. J. P. Bass, who, it will be remembered, lost a leg at Camp Massachusetts last year, has been supplied with a "Palmer Leg," from that celebrated Artificial Leg Manufactory in Boston. In a letter of gratitude to his benefactors, Mr. Bass says: "I have now worn the excellent artificial leg which you made for me about six months ago, and it has so far exceeded my expectations that I desire to acknowledge the great obligation I owe to you. I am a mechanic by trade, and can, and do perform as much labor as any man in the establishment, numbering upwards of three hundred employees. I can walk as well and as far as ever I could! This may seem strange, but it is nevertheless true. Judging from all the artificial legs I have seen, the 'Palmer Leg' is the only one that will realize all that it promises to the unfortunate."

THE EXHIBITION of the MASS. Char. Mechanic Association will be opened in Boston on the 12th of September. As many of our citizens will visit Boston on that occasion, we would refer purchasers to the column of Boston advertisements in another part of this paper.

READ the new advertisement of SILVER SOAP, and then buy, try, and compare it with other specifics, and our word for it you will use no other preparation for cleaning your silver ware. Its safty and economy are vouched for by the highest authority.

RUBBER CLOTHING.—The advertisement of the Rubber Clothing Company in another column, is worthy of the attention of our merchants. Their facilities are such as to enable them to offer at all times a large stock at the lowest prices.

WE INVITE the attention of our dealers in Millinery Goods, &c, to the advertisement of ORDWAY BROTHERS, Boston, in another column.—Their stock is large and the assortment complete

SILVER SOAP.

A new and beautiful preparation made by the BOSTON INDEXICAL SOAP CO., expressly for cleaning and polishing Silver, Plated and Britannia Ware, and for cleaning Mirrors, Marble, Tin, &c. It is much more convenient and effective than any of the powders now in use, and may be used by even inexperienced help with perfect safety, as it contains nothing that can possibly injure the finest plate or jewelry, or even the most delicate skin, though not designed for toilet use. It is far superior to any other soap for cleaning the House Paint, Statuary, Artificial Teeth Plate, &c.

Many of our largest importers, and manufacturers of silver and plated ware, who have used it, have given it their unqualified approval. Read the following:

BOSTON, May 2, 1859.

Messrs. SAFFORD & BURDITT: Gentlemen,—After repeated trials of your Silver Soap, we can recommend it as the best article we have ever seen for cleaning plated and silver ware. It must soon be used by every family.

Yours, respectfully. SHREVE, BROWN & CO.,
(Late Jones, Ball & Co.)

BOSTON, June 1, 1859.

Gentlemen,—We have, during the last twelve months, given your Silver Soap a thorough trial, and find there is nothing to equal it, as it cleans silver quicker, better, and with less trouble than any thing we have been able to find.

Yours, respectfully, SAML. T. CROSBY,
69 Washington street.

BOSTON, June 13, 1859.

Gentlemen,—We have made careful trial of your Silver Soap, and find it admirably adapted to the cleaning of silver and plated wares, particularly the coarse work, and the fine work, and we take pleasure in recommending it to the public as a safe and effective agent for removing tarnish and restoring the color with a very small amount of labor. We have never seen a better article for the above purpose. Yours, truly, &c.,

HADDOCK, LINCOLN & FOSS,
65 and 67 Washington street.

PUMICE STONE SOAP.

This Soap, unrivalled for its erasive properties, is free from any caustic alkali. It scours the hands and renders them soft and white. ☞ Agreeable to public notice, a Meeting of the citizens of Portsmouth was held at the Common Council Room, Friday evening, to choose a Committee of Arrangements, to co-operate with the Trustees of the Rockingham Fair, in carrying through the exhibition in this city. The meeting was organized by electing Robt. Lefavour, Esq., Chairman, and Justin Hanscom Secretary. The following-named gentlemen were unanimously chosen as the Committee:

LAST CHANCE.

MISS KIMBERLY and the excellet Star Company close their brilliant engagement at the Temple this evening, as they are announced to appear in Dover on Monday.—This (Saturday) evening Uncle Tom's Cabin is to be performed. It was favorably received last evening. Miss Kimberly gives away this evening an elegant gold bracelet to the lady possessing the fortunate drawn number. Numbered tickets from 1 to 400, and issued to the ladies exclusively. The same number of tickets will be placed in a hat, from which one will be drawn, and the person holding the number corresponding, will immediately receive the bracelet. Thus, for the investment of only twenty-five cents, the ladies have the chance of witnessing a good play well played, and a chance for obtaining the splendid present.

For the Chronicle.

☞ We made our annual pilgrimage to the Shoals, a few days since, in the beautiful yacht "Golden Eagle," Capt. Pierson, which now runs regularly once a day to the Shoals.

We found the Atlantic House kept by Mr. Caswell, well filled with boarders. As for "old ocean," we found the "old salt" looking pretty much the same as last year. He wears his age uncommonly well, though it cannot be denied that he does present a "wrinkled front."

We can recommend to persons wishing a pleasant sail to this favorite resort, the beautiful yacht Golden Eagle, as a capacious, safe and convenient boat,—and Capt. Pierson, her commander, as a gentleman of the old school. REP.

☞ The Independent Democrat, in its report of the S. J. Court at Concord, gives these items:—

For Violation of Liquor Law.—Albert Blodgett, Patrick Hackett, Patrick Bresnehan, John Colby, 6 indictments, Jacob G. Beede 3 indictments, and eighteen other cases of the same sort.

Beede was found guilty on one indictment and pleaded nolo-contendere, upon the others. Att'y Gen. Sullivan, for State; Hackett was tried. Jury disagreed.

Bresnehan was tried. Jury disagreed.

Deborah Mitchell indicted for selling liquor, pleaded guilty.

☞ The schooner Fanny Boardman, arrived at this port, reports, off Montauk Point, Aug. 28, saw schooner Francis C. Smith, of Great Egg Harbor, bottom up.—Two boats were alongside, which reported that she was capsized on the night of the 27th, by a squall. One man of her crew was picked up alive, but five perished in her cabin. Her sails were all attached to her rigging, and must have been set when the squall struck her.

The boats still remained alongside at 5 P. M. One of the boats belonged to the schooner Mary Standish, Capt. Atwood, of Boston, bound for Philadelphia.

The Francis C. Smith was from Boston, bound for Port au Prince.

THE OLD STORY—"No quorum" in either board of the City Council, Thursday evening. Snooks says this is the only kind of "rum" which is scarce in the city.

☞ The Rockingham Weekly Chronicle, containing a summary of the news of the week, this day published, and for sale at the Chronicle Counting Room: price 3 cents; $1 per year, in advance.

☞ The First Baptist meeting house in South Hampton has been enlarged and improved by the addition of new windows and a new belfry. The Portsmouth Baptist Association will meet with this church on Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 5th and 6th. Services will commence on Wednesday at 10 o'clock, A. M.

MYSTERY OF GOD FINISHED.—Daniel Milton, the Lion of the Tribe of Judah, will preach on Sunday afternoon, at five o'clock, on the Custom House steps.

More Grribaldians had disembarked at Calabria.

It is stated that France had supplied Sardinia with large quantities of guns and ammunition. Sardinia actively continues warlike preparations.

It is reported that perfect equality in civil and political matters for all creeds is to be proclaimed in Austria.

☞ The South Carolinians seem to be getting uneasy, not so much about the state of their defences, however, as regarding the $100,000 appropriated by the last Legislature to arm the State. A correspondent of the Charleston Mercury beseeches Gov. Gist to tell what he has done with the money.

☞ The Chicago Tribune has the following:—

"The coming man is Abraham Lincoln; the going man is John C. Breckinridge; and the gone man is Stephen A. Douglas. As for Mr. Bell, he must be put down among the dead men."

HERSCHEL V. JOHNSON, candidate for Vice President on the Douglas ticket—said in a recent speech at Augusta, Ga., that if any one could prove to him that Mr. Douglas was in favor of squatter sovereignty, he would vote for Mr. Breckinridge.—Exchange.

LYMAN'S
Improved Patent Metallic Soles.
PATENTED JUNE 7, 1859.

The nature of this invention consists of a metallic sole for Boots and Shoes, which has been tested and operates admirably. No dampness penetrates through to the inside sole. This is the only device that will operate well between two soles, and is made so thin as not to interfere with the most delicately finished work. The necessity of such a device to fully accomplish the much desired object, and the direful effects arising from damp feet, are too well understood to require any comment.

It is obvious to every one that sole leather is porous, absorbing water, and that the soles of boots and shoes are often damp when they appear dry, causing cold feet, chills, neuralgia, rheumatism, consumption, &c.

Physicians of eminence have pronounced this Metallic Sole an invaluable discovery, and state that, if generally used, it will cause an immense saving of human life.

The right to manufacture and sell the above Improved Metallic Sole for the County of Rockingham has been purchased by the subscriber.

Boot and shoe manufacturers and dealers in Rockingham County furnished with the soles, with right to use, at No. 24 Market Street, Portsmouth, N. H. J. C. CARR.

CLIPPER PLOWS

Are manufactured only by the subscribers, the inventors, who offer them to the agricultural interest after they have been
THOROUGHLY TESTED
by experienced Plowmen, who pronounce them
The Best in the Market!

These Plows embrace INNE DIFFERENT SIZES, the largest of which is much in advance of anything in the United States, as regards size, and, like the other sizes of this celebrated Plow, is drawn easily by a team much smaller than is absolutely requisite to draw a Plow of less size, of any other make than the Clipper.

We also assure our Farming friends that as we have hitherto endeavored to make our Plows superior to all others in those points which especially interest Plowmen, we are still endeavoring by unceasing exertions, to improve—if this be possible—upon our former successes, although those who are best acquainted in these matters say, "It cannot be done."

Notwithstanding the immense advantages which these Plows possess over all others, we offer them at THE SAME PRICES as are charged for common grades, satisfied that their great superiority will induce so large a sale, that our aggregate profits will make our business sufficiently remunerative.

OLD ADAMS, GRIZZLY ADAMS,
—OR THE—
WILD ZANDEE HUNTER,
as he is familiarly termed, has long been known as
The California Trapper of '49.

The history of his exploits and hair-breadth escapes, his terrific encounters with GRIZZLY BEARS and other wild animals by which he has been nearly torn in pieces, and is now covered with scars from head to foot, has been extensively published, and it proves him to be, beyond dispute, the most FEARLESS AND INTREPID HUNTER that ever shouldered a rifle, distancing by far the renowned French Hunter GERARD, or the celebrated Lion Slayer GORDON CUMMING, so far as rocking-horses are to real lions.

"OLD ADAMS" in fact is considered quite as much of a curiosity as any of his animals. He SLEEPS with his Bears, EATS with his Bears, and seems always most happy when surrounded by Bears. "Old Adams" spent all of his time for years, in the Mountains and Wilds of California and the Far West, in capturing, taming, and training this unequalled and Wonderful Menagerie,
the exhibition of which shows the extraordinary power of man over the most savage beasts, and their entire subjection to his will—Mr. Adams controlling them with as much ease and certainty as any lady would her pet dog.

This truly great Combination of Talent may be relied upon by the public as worthy of the most extensive patronage, and is the only one travelling with any right to the well-earned fame of Niblo's, N. Y. It will appear at the following places, upon the following dates:

J. C. CARR.

The Remedies are carefully prepared under the direct supervision and inspection of Prof. HUMPHREYS, in order to meet that great and long realized want of the public, a reliable Medicine for all the more common and simple ailments of life.

A moment's reflection will show that a vast majority of diseases from which we suffer and die, were, at their commencement, simple and trifling. A mere cold, a slight diarrhea, a pain in the side, or a headache, if not promptly cured, are easily cured and subdued, in time becomes a consumption, a fever, a dangerous dysentery, Croup or other disease, which all the powers of medical skill baffle.

Hence, these remedies supply a great public want. Being on hand, simple, so you know at once what to take—human nature is so constituted—sickness will occasionally occur—so is risk, while the curative effects are positive and certain, they are taken, and at once the end is attained, the disease allayed.

Experience has amply confirmed the use of these remedies for families and private persons, as being THE BEST IN USE, THE MOST REALIABLE AND CONVENIENT, BY MANY THOUSANDS AND RELIABLE.

Thousands are now living who have been some five years past, in the enjoyment of health, who have to thank Humphreys' Specifics for their invaluable services. All speak in the highest terms of their simplicity and certainty, and numerous hundreds are added to the testimony, that they give good satisfaction to their customers.

AROMATIC INVIGORATING SPIRIT.

This medicine has been used by the public for six years, with increasing favor. It is recommended to cure Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Heartburn, Colic Pains, Wind in the Stomach, or Pains in the Bowels, Headache, Drowsiness, Kidney Complaints, Debility, Delirium Tremens, Intemperance. It Stimulates, Exhilarates, Invigorates, but will not Intoxicate or Stupefy.

As a Medicine, it is quick and effectual, curing the most aggravated cases of Dyspepsia, Kidney Complaints, and all other derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, in a speedy manner.

It will instantly revive the most melancholy and drooping spirits, and restore the weak, nervous and sickly to health, strength and vigor.

Persons who, from the injudicious use of liquors, have become dejected, and their nervous systems shattered, constitutions broken down, and subject to that horrible curse to humanity, the Delirium Tremens, will, almost immediately, feel the happy and invigorating efficacy of Dr. Ham's Invigorating Spirit.

What it will do!

DOSE.—1 wine glass full as often as necessary.
One dose will cure all Bad Spirits.
One dose will cure Heartburn.
Three doses will cure Indigestion.
One dose will give you a good appetite.
One dose will stop the distressing pains of Dyspepsia.

One dose will remove the distressing and disagreeable effects of Wind or Flatulence, and as soon as the Stomach receives the Invigorating Spirit, the distressing load and all painful feelings will be removed.

One dose will remove the most distressing pains of Colic, either in the stomach or bowels.

A few doses will remove all obstructions in the Kidney, Bladder or Urinary Organs.

Persons who are seriously afflicted with any Kidney Complaints, are assured speedy relief by a dose or two, and a radical cure by the use of one or two bottles.

NIGHTLY DISSIPATION.

Persons who, from dissipating too much over night, and feel the evil effects of poisonous liquors, in violent headaches, sickness at stomach weakness, giddiness, &c., will find one dose will remove all bad feelings.

Ladies of weak and sickly constitutions, should take the Invigorating Spirit three times a day; it will make them strong, healthy, and happy, remove all obstructions and irregularities from the menstrual organs, and restore the bloom of health and beauty to the careworn face.

During pregnancy it will be found an invaluable medicine to remove disagreeable sensations at the stomach.

All the proprietor asks, is a trial, and to induce this, he has put up the INVIGORATING SPIRIT in pint bottles, at 50 cents, qts $1.

DR. MOTT'S CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE PILLS & IRON.

An aperient and Stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Incredible in all maladies in which it has been tried—it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:—

IN INDIGESTION, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, EMACIATIONS, CONSTIPATION, DIARRHŒA, DYSPEPSIA, DYSENTERY, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, SALT RHEUM, MISMENSTRUATION, WHITES, CHLOROSIS, RHEUMATISM, INTERMITTENT FEVERS, TIMPLES ON THE FACE, &c.

In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of acute disease or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to all and exercise for which the physician has no name.

In NERVOUS AFFECTIONS of all kinds, and to persons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old oxides, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and overbearing; and yet, gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency, which forms them.

In the case of DYSPEPSIA, innumerable are its cause, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In unchecked DIARRHŒA, even when advanced to DYSENTERY, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, exhibiting cough and repulsive leucorrhœa, which generally indicate INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting cases.

In SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well-known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In MILD DYSPEPSIA, in cases of pain and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In INTERMITTENT FEVERS it most necessarily has a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its congress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has ever been discovered, in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects.—Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 60 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by Druggists and dealers, with the usual discount from the retail price of one dollar. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to

J. BUCHANAN CROSS, THE FORGER.—The Philadelphia American, referring to the fact that this noted individual, recently convicted of forgery, but who made his escape and was recaptured on Saturday, received a sentence of five years in the penitentiary, remarks:—

The prisoner, who a few years since commanded one hundred thousand dollars, and reveled with wine and women to his heart's content, had not prior to his escape, a pair of sound shoes to cover his feet, and owes his recapture solely to the fact that he had not means to leave the city. In court he looked as though satisfied of his friendless condition, yet was still buoyed up by that philosophy which appears to be instilled into every man of his peculiar stamp. It was suggested to him that he should make a relation to the court of the part certain persons took in his escape. He replied: "No I will say nothing. My word would fall upon this court as a feather. The fiat went forth that I must be convicted, and to accomplish this, much money was contributed by the banks, even before my arrest. Injustice has been done me throughout, and while I do not profess to be an angel, yet I am not the bad man the detective officers would make me appear."

While in the dock, prior to his sentence, Cross said that he would no speak of those who betrayed him, but would try to believe that they were driven to the wall, and forced to do what they did; but there was a certain man there present who seemed marvelously relieved when the five years sentence was pronounced upon the illustrious forger. The gang of which Cross was the master-spirit is now broken up. Nearly all his agents have gone before him, but the course of justice has verified the old maxim of being slow and sure. Two of them, both of whom are said to be well educated and refined young men, are in prison, one in Virginia, and the other in New York; and for five years to come their chief is consigned to the same retiracy.

THE MAID OF THE LIGHT HOUSE.—A lady writer for the papers thus describes an attraction of Cape Cod:

After a delightful sail of two or three hours, we landed at Long Point Light, which is at the tip end, or, as it is called here, the thumb nail of Cape Cod! Capt. Snow, of the Light, came out and gave us a most hospitable welcome; took us into the house and gave us the use of tables, dishes, &c., for the spread of our refreshments. He has a very pretty and accomplished daughter of fifteen, who played on the melodeon and sung very finely for us. She is entirely self-taught, never having received a lesson in music. She plays the organ at one of the churches in Provincetown, and, when necessary, rows the dory over herself, a distance of three miles.

She is domestic as well as musical. She took her fingers from the wash tub to play them on the keys of her melodeon, with no other preparation or change of dress than wiping her hands and rolling down her sleeves. She needed no other! It added greatly to our delight and to our obligations to her for the readiness with which she responded to our request.

Soon after our return to the boat, who should come out to join us but the very Light House maiden—line in hand, with a young gentleman of Boston to row her dory for her. The young man had on the uniform of a boat club to which he is attached in the city. She sat serene and majestic, a very queen of the sea, and hauled in an immense turbot, which she threw over as a present to us, as though the ocean was at her command.

A WIDOW'S PRAYER.—A short time since, a violent thunderstorm passed along the valley of Yellow Creek, in Indiana county, Georgia. The wind was terrific and devasting, and embraced a belt of land about one mile wide. Houses and fences were prostrated and forest trees were uprooted. In the severest of the tornado stood a small cabin, occupied by an aged widow and her son. A very large tree in front of her cabin was so twisted and beaten by the gale that she feared it would fall and lay her hut in ruins, and perhaps bring death as well as desolation. While the storm was raging, and timber falling in every direction, the old lady knelt and prayed fervently that the tree might be saved. A writer, who afterwards visited the spot narrates the incident and adds:—"The tree was spared—and strange as it may seem, it was the only one left within considerable distance of the widow's cabin."

The clergy live by our sins, the doctors by our diseases, and the lawyers by our follies. What do printers live on—echo answers—WHAT?—Ex.

To cure poverty—sit down and growl about it. By so doing you'll be sure to get rich, and make yourself particularly agreeable to everybody.

A lawyer is never so mischievous as when he has but little practice; nor a physician as when he has a good deal.—Ex.

If you hear a person saying that he has not a friend in the world, you may be pretty sure that he doesn't deserve one.

APPLEDORE HOUSE,
ISLES OF SHOALS.
This favorite resort for the man of leisure and the invalid is now open. Since last year many alterations and additions have been made, increasing the accommodations. Billiard and Bowling Saloons are provided, and every measure taken to secure the comfort and amusement of its guests. An abundance of best cream and milk is supplied from healthy cows kept on the Island. The table is faultless. The facilities for fishing have been increased by the addition of new boats and experienced skippers.
When to all these advantages are added the purity of the air—the delicious coolness of the ocean breeze, its invigorating and appetizing power—the loveliness of the scenery—the glory of its sunsets—the quietness of its walks—its freeness from dust, mud, and all other annoyances of the kind—it may truly be said to possess advantages and attractions which no other watering place in New England can attain. The equability of the temperature is a natural advantage over the coast or the mountains, which invalids can fully appreciate.
A daily Packet, the SIBYL, Capt. Preble, runs direct to Appledore from Portsmouth, leaving Rice Wharf on the arrival of the morning train from Boston, and returns in the afternoon. The Sibyl has every accommodation for the comfort of passengers which a Packet requires.

THE ONLY PREPARATION
Having Proof so Strong and Direct
as to
Expel the Doubts of All.
For Statesmen, Judges, Editors, Physicians of the medical schools as well as new, give it their unqualified sanction, and recommend it for all cases of eruptions, and diseases of the scalp and brain; but all woo have uxuriantly, infin in feeling that it will preserve the hair from being gray, and from falling to any age, as well as restore.—Read the following:—
Oak Grove, S. C., June 24, 1859.
Prof. O. J. Wood:—Dear:—Your Hair Restorative is rapidly gaining popularity in this community. I have had occasion to lay prejudice aside, and give your Hair Restorative a perfect test:—
During the year 1854, I was so unfortunate as to be thrown from my saiky against a rock near the roadside, from which my head received a most terrible blow; causing a great deal of irritation, which communicated to the brain and external surface of the head, from the effects of which my hair was entirely destroyed. From the time I first discovered its dropping, however, up to the time of its total disappearance, I employed everything I could think of, being a professional man myself, and as I thought, understanding the nature of the disease, but was finally defeated in every prescription advanced.
These and no other circumstances induced me to resort to your worthy "Hair Restorative," which I have every reason to believe, produced a very happy result: two months after the first application, I had as beautiful a head of young hair as I ever saw, for which I certainly owe you my sincere thanks. Rest assured, dear sir, I shall recommend your remedy to all enquirers; moreover, I shall use my influence, which I flatter myself is great, to get it introduced.
You can publish this if you think proper.
Yours, very respectfully,
THOS. WRIGHT, M. D.
Jeffersonian Office, Phillipi, Va., Dec. 12, 1859.
Professor O. J. Wood:—Dear Sir: I feel it my duty as well as my pleasure, to state to you the following circumstance, which you can use as you think proper. A gentleman of this place, (a lawyer,) has been bald ever since his early youth; so much so, that he was compelled to wear a wig. He was induced to use a bottle of your "Hair Restorative," which he liked very much: and after using some two or three bottles his hair grew out quite luxuriantly, and he now has a handsome head of hair. The gentleman's name is Bradford, and as he is very well known in our adjoining counties, many persons can testify to the truth of this statement: I give this to you at the request of Mr. Bradford. You can sell a great deal of your Hair Restorative in this and the adjoining counties if you have the proper agents. Yours, &c.,
THOMPSON SURGHNOR.
Dr. Wood—Dear Sir—Permit me to express the obligations I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color; about the time of my arrival in the United States it was rapidly becoming gray, but upon the application of your Hair Restorative it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative as a very wonderful invention, quite efficacious as well as agreeable. S. THALBERG.
The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes: viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 3, 1860.

NOW AND THEN.—The following anti-slavery resolutions were unanimously adopted by the Democratic State Convention of Massachusetts, in 1859, having been reported by Benj. F. Hallett, the chairman of the Democratic State Committee:

Resolved, That we are opposed to slavery in every form and color, and in favor of freedom and free soil wherever man lives, throughout God's heritage.

Resolved, That, by common law and common sense, as well as by the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, (in Prigg v. Pennsylvania, 16 Peters,) "the state of slavery is a mere municipal regulation, founded upon and limited to the verge of the territorial law;" that is, the limits of the State creating it.

Resolved, therefore, That as slavery does not exist by any municipal law in the new territories, and Congress has no power to institute it, the local laws of any State authorizing slavery can never be transported there, nor can slavery exist there but by a local law of the territories, sanctioned by Congress.

There is no mistaking the meaning of these resolutions. They were justly approved and admired by the Boston Post of that day. But they differ a little from the Breckinridge position at this time—just about as much, in fact, as the Chicago platform differs from that position.

But Massachusetts Democrats were not alone in their anti-slavery zeal in those days. Here are resolutions adopted by a Democratic Convention in New Hampshire in 1850:

Resolved, That we are opposed to the admission of any new State into the American Union, with the proviso that slavery shall be tolerated.

Resolved, That it is the duty of the members of our State Legislature, whenever the subject of slavery shall be brought before them, to give their influence in favor of freedom.

This, no doubt, was the sentiment of New England then; and it is the sentiment of a vast majority of her people to-day.

But how contrary was it all to the modern doctrine of those who don't care whether slavery is voted up or down; and of those also who deem it to be the great duty of our Union to protect and perpetuate slavery.

It must not be supposed the anti-slavery sentiment was confined to New England; for the Democrats of Ohio, in 1855, resolved that slavery was an evil, and that "they will at all times feel it to be their duty to use all power given by the terms of the national compact, to prevent its increase, to mitigate, and finally to eradicate the evil."

Near the same time, the New York Democrats resolved, while they would "faithfully adhere to all the compromises of the constitution and maintain all the reserved rights of the States, they deem this an appropriate occasion to declare their fixed hostility to the extension of slavery into free territory."

FUGITIVE SLAVES FROM MISSOURI.—The St. Louis Democrat of the 27th inst. says that a family of five negroes, held as slaves by Edward Bredell, a few days ago ran away from his farm, situated six miles from the city, on the Clayton road. They consist of the mother, two sons, a daughter and a young girl closely related to them. The master was on a visit to the East, and had left them in charge of an overseer. On the morning of their departure they obtained leave to visit some colored neighbors, but had not been long from the premises when their real design was suspected. The overseer soon found that they had not called at the house they pretended to visit, and his further investigations equally failed to discover them. A few years ago Mr. Bredell emancipated thirty or forty slaves left him by a deceased relative in Baltimore.

A LONG JOURNEY IN A SMALL BOAT.—The Albany Argus says that two sons of Capt. B. H. Hart of Lagrangeville, Duchess county, started a few days since on a journey to the Mississippi river, and perhaps to New Orleans, via the Hudson River, Erie Canal, and western rivers, in a boat built by themselves. She is twelve feet long, and the material employed in the construction is composed of a light wood frame covered with zinc, the whole only weighing sixty pounds. Her weight will admit of being carried around all locks and shallows.

☞ A reporter for the Atlas speaking of the camp meeting at Wesleyan Grove, says, the general religious character of this camp meeting is decidedly better than for several years. The object for which many have preached prayed and labored, viz: that the religious element of the meeting might predominate over what has been regared as the pic-nic element, has been realized.—There have been quite a number of conversions.

☞ A sensation occurred in the street at New York, on Monday, by a neatly dressed and good looking woman assaulting a well dressed and moustached man with much violence. The accusation which she brought against him was that, after having seduced her from her husband, home and friends, he had deserted her, and left her to prostitution or starvation.

NO CATTLE MALADY IN NEW HAMPSHIRE.—There has been, for months past, much alarm existing in Antrim, this State, respecting the cattle disease, which it was supposed had been imported in herds sent from Massachusetts to pasture there. It was determined to have a thorough investigation of the matter, which, accordingly, took place on Friday, the 24th inst. It was conducted by the Town Committee, the State Commissioners, Dr. Dadd, Veterinary Surgeon, of Boston, and other medical men. As to the result we copy the following statement from the Boston Journal:—

The animal selected for examination was a cow, the property of Mr. Oliver of Groton, Mass., which was sent there to pasture, in company with a large herd, three of which had been killed, a few months since, under a supposition that they were infected with the contagious cattle malady. The cow was also supposed to have the disease. She was examined by Dr. Dadd before death and pronounced to be free from the disease. She was killed, and the examination of the lungs proved the diagnosis of the surgeon. The lungs were artificially inflated, and assumed the appearance and condition of the most healthy specimens, proving conclusively that the disease had not existed at all in the animal examined. Several other members of the herd, upon suspicion were examined, and pronounced to be sound. The announcement of the results of the investigation were hailed by the people with joy, and they came to the conclusion that the cattle malady did not exist in that section.

The Independent Democrat says, this result will have a tendency to allay much of the anxiety felt by farmers in other sections of the State respecting the Pleuro-Pneumonia. It is probale that a similar examination in any supposed "infected district," would show that the dreaded malady does not exist in any form, latent or otherwise.

FROM CALIFORNIA, San Francisco, 18th August, overland.

Tonnage is scarce, there not being a vessel unengaged.

The ship White Swallow is chartered to load with wheat for Australia.

All the political parties are actively preparing for their State Conventions, which are to nominate electoral tickets. The Republican organization shows the greatest zeal and force in San Francisco, and will probably carry the city. The Republicans even hope to carry the State.

Col. Fremont has forbidden the Chinese miners on his estate paying the license taxes levied on foreign miners to the State.—He claims that the State has no control over his private property.

THADDEUS HYATT IN KANSAS.—Mr. Hyatt has gone to Kanasa, to verify the reports of the suffering from drought and furnish some relief. In a private letter to a friend, he says:—

"I arrived here (at Atchison) at 12 last night, to find reports and evidences of what I am to expect soon in my sad journey through the burnt up district of this sadly afflicted land. As far as I can learn here, all are leaving the sun-stricken region who can; while those who remain are, in the main, such as cannot get away."

THE TEXAS PANIC.—The Bath Times (Democratic) contains a letter from a correspondent in Texas, dated Aug. 8, to which the editor invites attention. This letter thus speaks of the burnings, &c., in Texas:

I presume you have by this time heard that Texas is overrun by abolitionists, and that we were to have an insurrection on our election day. That story was all gotten up for political purposes by the disunion party. I hope you will contradict it, for its tendency is to do great harm to our State.

☞ The Douglasites had a demonstration in St. Joseph, Missouri, recently. The following devices upon banners show the standard of the Democracy in that region:

"Old Abe cut his tow so, when he split that last rail, he can't run fast enough to keep in site of the little giant."

"for Presedant, A. S. Dugass; For vice Presidan, H. V. Johnsing, all Right."

"Douglas forever, never Beet yit."

RELIGIOUS MOVEMENT.—The Independent American Catholics of Richmond, Va., have formed a congregation, under the pastoral lead of Rev. Mr. Tirion, formerly a chaplain of the French army in the Crimea, and have fitted up a house for religious worship. They observe all the forms and ceremonies of the Roman Catholic Church, but do not acknowledge the supremacy of the bishop.

PREACHER HUNG IN TEXAS.—Rev. A. Bewley, Methodist superintendent and missionary in Texas, was hung by a mob a short time since, on the charge of being an abolitionist. The New York Christian Advocate says he was a devoutly pious and inoffensive man. How long will such outrages be permitted in a civilized land? The "barbarism of slavery" is truly fearful.

☞ The Boston Traveller says the Sons of Malta have collapsed in Lowell, where they had six hundred members, and sold their "fixins" to the highest bidders. The humbug has exploded everywhere. It is said some of their orgies were most obscene.

☞ It is said the peach crop of Illinois will be immense. A ridge in Union and Jackson counties, twenty miles long and from five to seven miles wide, will produce at least one million bushels. A large amount of this immense crop will be distilled.

AFFAIRS IN TEXAS.—Washington, Aug. 31.—New Orleans dates of Tuesday have been received by mail.

A man named Pearce has been arrested on almost positive proof of having burned the town of Henderson, Texas.

The people of Texas are driving from the upper counties all in the least suspected of abolitionism.

The town of Mount Vernon has been burned by incendiaries, one of whom was hung.

A plan to burn Sulphur Springs had been discovered. A slave preacher acknowledged that he and several others had set apart a certain time to burn all the stores and dwellings, and commit other depredations, and if unable to whip the whites, to fly to the Indian nation.

Taylor, a white man, who made negroes his only companions, was to get a travelling cardjor be hung.

An attempt to burn Indianola had been discovered in time to prevent serious loss.

There was considerable excitement in Crockett and Atchison counties. Several fires have been traced to negroes, and a white man who was implicated had been hung.

A plot among the negroes had been discovered in Tyler Prairie.

Various persons had been ordered to leave the State, and Vigilance Committees were continually forming.

There does seem to be an irrepressible conflict in Texas; and an inexhaustible stock of contradictions and monstrosities in the accounts of it. A negro was said to have burnt Henderson; now it is "a man named Pearce."

END OF SUMMER.—The summer, which ended on Friday, has been a remarkable one in all parts of the world. The season will be memorable for its tornadoes, torrents, droughts, meteors and tempests. The extraordinary weather of the year seems confined to no particular region, as in Spain, India, France and England, as well as different parts of our own country, the season has excited unusual comment.

HORSES ON THEIR MUSCLE.—A horse race recently took place in Kansas, when two Leavenworth brutes started their horses for a thirty-two mile race on the St. Joseph track. They mutually bet their horses on the result, while their friends put up large sums of money. The run was nearly even for fourteen times around; then one of the horses became weary; he was sponged and fed with brandy, and the struggle continued; the sponging was frequently renewed on both animals. At the twenty-eighth mile the fatigued horse had to be withdrawn, while the other finished the thirty-two miles in two hours and sixteen minutes. We regret that the owners were not then harnessed and for an equal time raced and whipped and sponged to the extent of endurance, just "for the sake of improving the breed"—the proper justification for equine barbarities.—Atlas.

MONTREAL, Aug. 31.—The regatta, yesterday, passed off well. The first race was for skiffs, for a purse and the champion's belt for Canada. It was won by the "Rosalind," pulled by Mr. Suming of Toronto. The second was for four oared gigs—prize $120—which was also won by a Toronto boat. Montreal was second in both cases. The third race was for Indian canoes, pulled by men guadily dressed and decorated with war paint and feathers.—The name of the winner is unpronounceable. The fourth, for six oared boats, was won by "Victoria" of Montreal. There was a number of other races of less importance.

At the ball last night there were 3000 people present. The Prince appeared at 10 o'clock and left at 11. He was loudly cheered.

The fireworks at the foot of the mountain went of splendidly, and were witnessed by an immense crowd of people.

The Prince left this morning for Ottawa. The route from his residence to the depot was lined with military companies, societies, firemen, &c. A great concourse of citizens assembled to witness his departure, who cheered him vigorously.

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—The Douglas State Convention Committee yesterday appointed a sub-committee to confer with any political organization for the purpose of securing the co-operation of all opposed to the Republican party.

At the race yesterday, on the Union Course, between Prince John and Native America, the former won in three straight heats. Time—2.39 1-2: 2.37: 2.33 1-4.

LEWISTON, ME., Sept. 1.—The Republican mass meeting in this place yesterday was the largest meeting ever held in Androscoggin county. There were ten thousand people present and the occasion was marked by great enthusiasm. Speeches were made by Hon. Israel Washburne, Jr., Senator Hale, John A. Andrew, Esq., and Hon. Linus B. Comins.

BATH, Aug. 31.—Hon. B. A. G. Fuller, the Douglas candidate for Congress from this District, and Hon. James Brooks of New York, addressed the Douglas men of this city to-night. Mr. Brooks urged the Bell and Everett men to support the Democratic ticket for State officers.

RICHMOND, Aug. 31.—The James River and Kanawha Canal has been conditionally sold to a company of French capitalists. The action of the Legislature is necessary to make the agreement final. The capital of the new company must not be less than twenty nor over thirty millions. The canal is to be finished to the Ohio River in eight years.

In New York all the parties—Douglas, Bell and Breckinridge, are making preparation for a union against Lincoln.—Newburyport Herald.

Ex-Speaker Orr recommends disunion if Lincoln is elected; in fact this is the Secessional-Breckinridge policy, and just what they are driving at.—Bath Times.

☞ We again call attention to the excellent qualities of Atwood's Quinine Tonic Bitters, so well adapted to the wants of the debilitated and the dyspeptic. Mr. Atwood, who is a highly respectable importer of choice chemicals, medicines, &c., at the suggestion of prominent physicians, and on their representations of the need of a judicious preparation of this character, was induced to devote several months' time and much energy to producing a tonic stimulant which would justify the confidence of both physician and sufferer. Throwing aside all empirical claims of recently discovered remedies, his researches among the standard agents of the Materia Medica, revealed the fact that many of the most highly prized stomachics and tonics of former years had been of late neglected. Combining the choicest of these with Quinine, thus securing all the virtues of the Peruvian Bark in a condensed and refined form, he has succeeded, after many experiments, in achieving a result in the shape of the Quinine Tonic Bitters, which is now rewarding him for his endeavors. The compound has already acquired a prominent position in the scanty list of reliable remedial agents, backed by the endorsements of most of the eminent physicians of our city.—Boston Traveller.

ATWOOD'S

QUININE TONIC

BITTERS,

The Best Aromatic Tonic ever offered to the Public.

RECOMMENDED BY THE FACULTY

For Its Superior Medicinal Qualities.

This elegant compound, which has secured the confidence and endorsement of most of the leading Physicians of New England, is a palatable and efficient form of Quinine, containing all the peculiar virtues of PERUVIAN BARK, carefully combined with various tonics and stomachics, and cannot fail to meet the wants of the debilitated.

It is a mild tonic to the stomach, increasing the appetite, assisting digestion, pre-eminently good in dyspepsia, strengthening and invigorating to the digestive and nervous systems after prostrating diseases; and in fever and ague, or kindred complaints, its aid is invaluable.

For diarrhœa, dysentery and cholera morbus, the public may rest assured there is nor can be any better general remedy.

One of the very best Physicians in Boston has said "that it is the best preparation of Bitters that has ever been offered to the public."

Put up in half-pint as well as quart bottles, in order that all may convince themselves of its superior merits.

For further particulars reference is made to the printed circulars.

Humphreys' Homeopathic Specifics

CURE PROMPTLY and safely all the more common diseases and ailments to which families are subject. In all acute diseases, such as fevers, inflammations, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Rheumatism, Croup, and such eruptive diseases as Scarlet Fever, Measles, and Erysipelas, the advantage of giving the proper remedies promptly is obvious, and in all such cases the specifics act like a charm. The entire disease is often arrested at once, and in all cases the violence of the attack is moderated, the disease shortened, and rendered less dangerous.

Coughs and Colds, which are of such frequent occurrence, and which so often lay the foundation of diseased lungs, Bronchitis and Consumption, may all be at once cured by the Fever and Cough Pills.

In all chronic diseases, such as Dyspepsia, Constipation, Weak Stomach, Liver Complaint, Piles Female Debility and Irregularities, old Headaches, Sore or Weak Eyes, Catarrh, Salt Rheum and other old eruptions, the case has specifics whose proper application will afford a cure in almost every instance. Often the cure of a single chronic difficulty, such as Dyspepsia, Piles or Catarrh, Headache or Female Weakness, has more than paid for the case ten times over.

THE WATER CONTROVERSY.

To the Editors of the Daily Chronicle:

SIRS—In your edition of Thursday, you say that "agreeably to the decision of the Court, and some subsequent arrangement between the C. & P. Railroad and the Water Company, the Portsmouth Aqueduct is now laying logs,&c." Permit me to say that there is no decision of the Court, neither has there been any arrangement with the Railroad Co., authorizing the Aqueduct Co. to lay logs on the property of the Railroad Co.

As President of the Railroad Co., I would most respectfully inform the stockholders that the Aqueduct Co., in violation of all law, commenced digging a ditch on the Company's property, but have stopped the work on my notice to their tenants that they were trespassing on the Company's property, and would be legally held responsible for all damages on the premises.

The Court decided that the Aqueduct Co. have the right to lay logs on the Railroad property, when a committee which has been duly appointed shall lay out the route, assess all damages, and pay for the same,—and not before.

This has not been done, and the Aqueduct Co. are therefore clearly liable for trespass.

The right to lay logs on our land, when the route and damages shall be agreed upon, does not give the Company any right to the spring in controversy. That is held by the Court to be the property of the Railroad Co., and as such I will defend it to the utmost. C. L. FROST,

President C. & P. Railroad Co.

Portsmouth, Sept. 1, 1860.

☞ Arrangements are progressing as favorably as could be desired, for the Fair. The great Tent will be beautifully decorated, and brilliantly lighted in the evening. It is decided to admit carriages on the field, and also to lay out, within the enclosure, a Ring or Track, of about one-third of a mile circuit, for the exhibition of horses and other stock. It is expected that the mammoth Oxen of New England, belonging to Mr. David Towle of Hampton, will be on exhibition here. The display of Fruits, Flowers, &c., will probably be one of the finest ever seen in Portsmouth—and that is saying not a little.

☞ It will be seen that Messrs. French & Lunt, the new dry goods firm at the celebrated store No. 15 Market street, advertise a fresh arrival of new seasonable goods this morning. These young men are the successors of Messrs. Allen & Paine, and we have no doubt will prove fully as popular traders, and we hope may be as successful. Mr. French was always a most pleasant, courteous and attentive gentleman in his former store at New Castle, and must needs become a popular salesman here;—and Mr. Lunt is well known as long a clerk in the old establishment.

☞ We learn with regret that Miss Annie B. Hall, for some time a successful teacher of a private school for girls in this city, is to leave Portsmouth to-day, to engage as an assistant in the Hancock School in Boston. Miss Hall is an excellent teacher, and her loss will be felt by a large circle of parents and pupils, as well as by hosts of friends. Thus we see Boston and its surrounding cities taking from Portsmouth its teachers in rapid succession.—Lynn, Chelsea, Roxbury and other cities have drawn upon us of late for instructors; and while we deplore the loss of those who have gone from among us, we must not forget the wide field of usefulness to which our friends are called.

A CHARACTER.—All who read "The Lamplighter," a popular novel, a few years since, will recollect a singular old lady prominent throughout, "Patty Pace" by name. We are told by a friend who professes to be well acquainted with the facts of the case—that Miss Sally Baker, who was drowned in the North Mill Pond in this city, a week or two since, was the veritable Patty; and are assured that the well known eccentricities of the two corresponded.

☞ Mr. Stephen Scammon, of Stratham, informs us that he has an Ayrshire Heifer, 4 years old last March, whose milk for 21 successive days averaged 57 1-2 lbs. per day; and in the 21 days the butter made from her milk weighed 67 lbs. 9 oz. On one of the days, the butter made was 3 lbs. 2 oz. Her feed was grass, with 2 qts. of meal per day.

If any one has a better heifer, will he please to send us an account of her.

☞ Great, "immense" preparations are being made for the Republican Mass gathering at Exeter to-morrow. Half a dozen Bands of music will be there, and all the wide-awake rail-splitters in the County, almost. See the advertisement of half-price trains.

☞ A large and valuable stock of fine Watches, rich Jewelry, &c., is now selling at Adams' Auction Store,—at private sale during the day and public vendue in the evening. ADV.

M. L. A.—At a special meeting of the Mercantile Library Association, on Friday evening, the following gentlemen were elected to fill vacancies. Charles C. Harvey, Treasurer, in place of Chas. T. Emery, resigned. E. P. Kimball, one of the Directors, in place of Jos. B. Knowlton, removed from the city.

☞ Cooke's celebrated Royal Circus, from Niblo's Garden, New York; and Old Grizzly Bear Adams, the hunter, with his monster Bear Menagerie, are to exhibit near the Sagamore Mill in Portsmouth, this (Monday) afternoon and evening, Sept. 3d. See advertisement on the 4th page.

THE FAIR.

☞ Agreeable to public notice, a Meeting of the citizens of Portsmouth was held at the Common Council Room, Friday evening, to choose a Committee of Arrangements, to co-operate with the Trustees of the Rockingham Fair, in carrying through the exhibition in this city. The meeting was organized by electing Robt. Lefavour, Esq., Chairman, and Justin Hanscom Secretary. The following-named gentlemen were unanimously chosen as the Committee:

Hon. J. R. Reding, Rev. Dan'l Austin, Hon. H. D. Walker, Dr. Frank Fuller, Phineas Nichols, Wm. R. Preston, Jas. F. Shores, jr., Charles E. Myers, Chas. H. Hayes, Geo. L. Treadwell, John S. Rand, Jas. H. Head, Frank W. Miller, Wm. H. Rollins, Jos. H. Foster, J. C. Carr.

Voted to adjourn to Tuesday evening Sept. 4th, at half past 7 o'clock, at Jefferson Hall; and to invite this Committee and all other citizens interested, to meet at that time and place. JUSTIN HANSCOM,

Ports., Aug. 31. Sec. Meeting.

Improved Patent Metallic Soles.

PATENTED JUNE 7, 1859.

The nature of the invention consists of a metallic sole for Boots and Shoes, which has been tested and operates admirably. No dampness penetrates through to the inside sole. This is the only device that will operate well between two soles, and is made so thin as not to interfere with the most delicately finished work. The necessity of such a device to fully accomplish the much desired object, and the direful effects arising from damp feet, are too well understood to require any comment.

It is obvious to every one that sole leather is porous, absorbing water, and that the soles of boots and shoes are often damp when they appear dry, causing cold feet, chills, neuralgia, rheumatism, consumption, &c.

Physicians of eminence have pronounced this Metallic Sole an invaluable discovery, and state that, if generally used, it will cause an immense saving of human life.

The right to manufacture and sell the above Improved Metallic Sole for the County of Rockingham has been purchased by the subscriber.

Boot and shoe manufacturers and dealers in Rockingham County furnished with the soles, with right to use, at No. 24 Market Street, Portsmouth, N. H. J. C. CARR.

The Best in the Market!

These Plows embrace NINE DIFFERENT SIZES, the largest of which is much in advance of anything in the United States, as regards size, and, like the other sizes of this celebrated Plow, is drawn easily by a team much smaller than is absolutely requisite to draw a Plow of less size, of any other make than the Clipper.

We also assure our Farming friends that as we have hitherto endeavored to make our Plows superior to all others in those points which especially interest Plowmen, we are still endeavoring by unceasing exertions, to improve—if this be possible—upon our former successes, although those who are best acquainted in these matters say, "It cannot be done."

Notwithstanding the immense advantages which these Plows possess over all others, we offer them at THE SAME PRICES as are charged for common grades, satisfied that their great superiority will induce so large a sale, that our aggregate profits will make our business sufficiently remunerative.

NEW STEAM MILL.

In the past week there has been some discussion of the subject of the erection of a new Steam Mill in Portsmouth, for the production of a class of goods not now manufactured here. The plans are not matured, but we are creditably informed that over a hundred thousand dollars from abroad has been proposed to be brought here for that purpose if some effort is made to raise a corresponding amount. As it is a matter in which all owners of real estate, as well the citizens generally have an interest, we trust something will be done forthwith.

THE BALL IN MOTION.

The Republicans of N. H. have set in motion the Presidential ball. Clear the track, little factions! Two meetings have been holden in this city this week, and it will be but a short time now before the great body of the Republican party in the state will awake from the lethargy which the sure prospect of an easy victory induces.

The Mass Meeting at Exeter on the coming Tuesday is the next roll of the ball, which will go on with accelerated motion, until it brings up with a "ten-strike" on the 6th of November. The Republicans of Portsmouth are throwing off their coats for the contest, and are looking around for something to contend with. Let our friends in the country take hold and hunt up a hunker or two, or half a dozen Douglasites, to start another ball, or we shall make a mere fizzle of it for want of opponents.

Let all our friends in this District turn out to the Mass Meeting. Don't leave it to others to create an excitement, but in every town let every one take hold and make his own expression of feeling. Let us have one of grandest of turnouts.

CONVENTION AT EXETER.—At a meeting held at the Court House on Tuesday evening last, the following Delegates to the Electoral Convention were chosen, in the several wards:

George W. Pendexter,	Joseph B. Adams,
Walter A. Cate,	John Hodgdon, 2d,
W. H. Y. Hackett,	William P. Walker.
Moses Yeaton,	Lewis W. Brewster,
John Knowlton, 2d,	Jonathan Dearborn,
John S. Salter,	Lyman B. Spalding.
Samuel Gookin,	William A. Vaughan, Jr.
Jeremiah Johnson,	James M. Locke.

In was voted, that the Delegates be authorized to fill vacancies.

REPUBLICAN SENTIMENT.—Hon. S. P. Chase of Ohio is one of the Republicans who are supposed to approximate most nearly to the abolitionists, yet he speaks of the intentions of the Republican party as follows:

"And when we succeed, what then? Shall we return evil for the injustice and calumny to which Republicans have been continually subjected? No, gentlemen, no! We will try to prove that the success of a party may be the success of a whole people; that the triumph of our cause is compatible with the best interests of the whole country; our triumph will prove as just to every portion of it, and generous to every person who bears the name of an American citizen. Shall we invade, in the spirit of sectionalism, the rights of any State? No Republican dreams of it.

We shall stay the extension of slavery, certainly; but we shall respect the Constitution and every constitutional obligation. And when this intent shall become apparent—when the bugbear of federal interference with the internal concerns of the States shall be expelled from the public mind by an honest and patriotic Republican administration—who can doubt—I certainly do not doubt—that the days of our old concord and mutual good will return, and that under the Constitution we shall find tranquility, liberty, union. In bringing about such happy results, you may rest assured of my earnest co-operation. In such a noble work, I am ready to go with you as far as the farthest."

A PEDESTRIAN TOUR.—Mr. Henry L. Richards arrived at his home in Portsmouth last week, in exactly four weeks from the western part of Ohio. The distance is nine hundred miles. He came on foot the whole way, with the exception of riding three miles one day. He rested four days on the route, and travelled only by day-light, taking time to enjoy the varied scenery and matters of interest in the long route. His average travel was thirty-seven and a half miles per day. He undertook it as a pleasure trip, performed it without fatigue, and was in good order on his arrival here for progressing a thousand miles further at the same rate.

SUGAR.—The Sugar Market which has been dull for a week or two past, has had a decided fall at New York, this week. Sales have been made at a decline of 1 4 cent, and prices have reached a lower point than at any time this season. The consumption has fallen off owing to the high prices, and the supply on the way to market is large, 80,000 bags coming from Manilla, alone. Refined sugar is now quoted at 9 5 8 cents for crushed, ground and granulated. —Traveller.

BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGAZINE, AUGUST CONTENTS: National Defence and Volunteers; Lord Macaulay and Dundee; the pursuit of Tantia Topee; The Great Earthquake at Lisbon; Norman Sinclair, An Autobiography, Part VII; Wycklife and Huguenots; Dosmine quoradis; The Translation State of our Indian Empire.

CAMP MEETING.—The meeting at New-Market which commenced on Monday, closed last Saturday morning. The weather has been good, and the attendance larger than on any previous occasion at that place. From seven to ten thousand have been estimated to be on the ground on some days, at the same time.

These persons who are disposed to look with a superstitious eye upon all events which are not in regular course, must attribute all the eccentricities of the last month to the circumstance that there were two full moons in August.

COMPLETION OF MINOT LEDGE LIGHTHOUSE.—The new light-house on Minot's Ledge is now completed, and on Wednesday night it was lighted up for the first time to test the power of the light.—It will be lighted regularly from the first of September.

LARGE GAIN.—The Eastern Railroad gained $30,000 net, in June and July over the same months in 1859. About half of this was from diminution of expenses.

SCATTER THE GERMS OF THE BEAUTIFUL

Scatter the germs of the beautiful!
By the wayside let them fall,
That the rose may spring by the cottage gate,
And the vine on the garden wall;
Cover the rough and the rude of earth
With a veil of leaves and flowers,
And mark with the opening bud and cup
The march of summer hours.

Scatter the germs of the beautiful!
In the holy shrine of home;
Let the pure, and the fair, and the graceful there
In their loveliest lustre come;
Leave not a trace of deformity
In the temple of the heart,
But gather about its hearth the germs
Of Nature and of Art.

Scatter the germs of the beautiful
In the temple of our God—
The God who starred the uplifted sky,
And dowered the trampled sod;
When He built a temple for himself,
And a home for his priestly race,
He reared each arch in symetry,
And curved each line in grace.

Scatter the germs of the beautiful
In the depths of the human soul,
They shall bud and blossom, and cat thee fruit,
While the endless ages roll;
Plant with the flowers of charity
The portals of the tomb,
And the fair and the pure about thy path
In Paradise shall bloom!

OLD ADAMS, GRIZZLY ADAMS,
—OR THE—
WILD ZANBEE HUNTER,
as he is familiarly termed, has long been known as
The California Trapper of '49.
The history of his exploits and hair-breadth escapes, his terrific encounters with GRIZZLY BEARS and other wild animals by which he has been nearly torn in pieces, and is now covered with scars from head to foot, has been extensively published, and it proves him to be, beyond dispute, the most FEARLESS AND INTREPID HUNTER that ever shouldered a rifle, distancing by far the renowned French Hunter GERARD, or the celebrated Lion Slayer GORDON CUMMING, so far as reckless daring is concerned.
"OLD ADAMS" in fact is considered quite as much of a curiosity as any of his animals. He SLEEPS with his Bears, Eats with his Bears, and seems always most happy when surrounded by Bears. "Old Adams" spent all of his time for years, in the Mountains and Wilds of California and the Far West, in capturing, taming, and training this unequalled and Wonderful Menagerie,
the exhibition of which shows the extraordinary power of man over the most savage beasts, and their entire subjection to his will—Mr. Adams controlling them with as much ease and certainty as any lady would her pet dog.
This truly great Combination of Talent may be relied upon by the public as worthy of the most extensive patronage, and is the only company with any right to the well-earned fame of Niblo's, N. Y. It will appear at the following places, upon the following dates:

Humphreys' Homeopathic Specific Remedies for the People

THE REMEDIES are carefully prepared under the direct supervision and inspection of Prof. HUMPHREYS, in order to meet the general and long felt want of the public, namely, remedies for all the more common and simple ailments of life.
A moment's reflection will show that a vast majority of diseases from which we suffer and die, were at their commencement, simple and trifling. A sore cold, a slight diarrhœa, a pain in the side, or a headache, or heartburn, at first easily cured and subdued, in time becomes a consumption, a fever, a dangerous dysentery, Cholera and plague, as being all the powers of medicine fail to arrest.
Herein these remedies supply a great public want. Being so small, simple, and so ready at once what to take—pleasant, so as to cause no repugnance—safe, and hence overcoming no risk, while the curative effects are speedy and certain. They are taken, and at once the spell is broken and the danger allayed.
Experience has amply confirmed the use of these remedies of Dr. Humphreys, and they are, so far, the BEST IN USE, THE MOST SIMPLE AND CONVENIENT, THE MOST PROMPT AND RELIABLE.
Thousands who have been using them for some five years past, in every section of the country, with almost invariable success. All speak in the highest terms of their efficacy and certainty, and among our hundreds of agents the uniform testimony is, that they give good satisfaction to their customers.

DR. MOTT'S CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE PILLS & IRON

An aperient and Stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States and prescribed in their practice.
The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Innoxious in all maladies in which it has been tried—it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:
DYSPEPSIA, DEBILITY, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, EMACIATIONS, CONSTIPATION, DIARRHŒA, DYSPEPSIA, DYSENTERY, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, SALT RHEUM, MISMENSTRUATION, WHITES, CHLOROSIS, RHEUMATISM, INTERMITTENT FEVERS, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, &c.
In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of acute disease or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested by female sufferers, emaciated victims or apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.
In NERVOUS AFFECTIONS of all kinds, and for persons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of Iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old oxides, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and over-heating; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of Costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.
It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency, which forms them.
In DYSPEPSIA, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.
In unchecked DIARRHŒA, even when advanced to DYSENTERY, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.
In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent hectic, which characterize INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.
In SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most carefully balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well-known liabilities.
The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.
Dowsiness, Pain and Redness of the inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviative and curative, in the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.
In INTERMITTENT FEVERS it must necessarily be a speedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.
No remedy has ever been discovered, in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects—Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.
Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by Druggists and Country Dealers, and may be sent free to any address on receipt of price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to

THE TOBACCO CROP IN KENTUCKY.—We find the following in the Louisville Commercial Review, regarding the growing tobacco crop:

"Tobacco statistics continue gloomy in the highest degree from the southern counties of the State. The plant has been stationary for some weeks, and it was thought hardly possible for good weather to bring it into good condition before frost. In consequence of this, prices have been advanced from $8 to $20 per hogshead, and holders of all grades are very firm. The reserve stock, however, at the principal depots, at home and abroad, is very large, so that it is not likely that chewers, snuffers and smokers will suffer, or that prices will reach famine rates."

THE Washington correspondent of the Charleston Courier writes as follows:

"Fusion is abandoned, in Pennsylvania, and the State will go for Lincoln. Fusion as between the Douglas and Breckinridge men, exists nowhere. Fusion between the Douglasites and Bell men in New York will be positive and will not move the State from Lincoln. It would require the general cooperation of the Douglas men, the Breckinridge men, and the Bell men, to defeat Lincoln in New York. It follows that Lincoln must be elected."

NEW TRICKS IN POLITICS.—At the South they catch slaves and whip them on suspicion of plotting insurrection, and then report in the papers that two thousand abolitionists have been found in one county, inducing the slaves to murder the whites.—That gulls the weak heads South. At the North, just before elections, great numbers of slaves fresh from Africa, are said to be landed; northern mechanics are driven from the slave States, and northern men are hung as Abolitionists. These stories have the same effect in the free States as the rumored insurrections have in the South.—Newburyport Herald.

Mr. F. W. Tuxbury of Amesbury, has real live potatoes growing upon the tops of some of his potatoe vines. This freak of nature has been a subject of doubt, but our informant, a man of truth, not only vouches for its correctness, but has seen them, and as "seeing is believing," Mr. Tuxbury must have the credit of raising the first potatoes above ground.—Villager.

"Why, Mrs. B., how do you manage to have such nice Bread and Biscuit?" "Because I use Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus. I never saw any half as good. I like it much better to use with cream tartar than I do soda. I shall never use any other. If you will try one paper, Mrs. W., you will say the same. It has almost cured my dyspepsia." Most all the Grocers keep it.

APPLEDORE HOUSE,
ISLES OF SHOALS.
This favorite resort for the man of leisure and the invalid is now open. Since last year many alterations and additions have been made, increasing its capacity. Billiard and Bowling Saloons are provided, and every measure taken to secure the comfort and amusement of its guests. An abundance of sweet cream and milk is supplied from healthy cows kept on the Island. The table is faultless. The facilities for fishing have been increased by the addition of new boats and experienced skippers.
When to all these advantages are added the purity of the air—the delicious coolness of the ocean breeze, its invigorating and appetizing power—the loveliness of the scenery—the glory of its sunsets—the cleanliness of its walks—its freedom from dust, mud, and all other annoyances of the kind—it may truly be said to possess advantages and attractions which no other watering place in New England can attain. The equability of the temperature is a natural advantage over the coast or the mountains, which invalids can fully appreciate.
A daily Packet, the SIBYL, Capt. Preble, runs direct to Appledore from Portsmouth, leaving Pier Wharf on the arrival of the morning train from Boston, and returns in the afternoon. The Sibyl has every accommodation for the comfort of passengers which a Packet requires.

THE ONLY PREPARATION
Having Proof so Strong and Direct
as to
Expel the Doubts of All.
For Statesmen, Judges, Editors, Physicians of the oldest schools as well as new, give it their unqualified sanction, and recommend it for all cases of eruptions, and diseases of the scalp and brain; but all woo have used it, unite in testifying that it will preserve the hair from being gray, and from falling to any age, as well as restore.—Read the following:—
Oak Grove, S. C., June 24, 1859.
Prof. O. J. Wood:—Dear:—Your Hair Restorative is rapidly gaining popularity in this community. I have had occasion to lay prejudice aside, and give your Hair Restorative a perfect test:—
During the year 1854, I was so unfortunate as to be thrown from my buggy, and drag near the roadside, from which my head received a most terrible blow; causing a great deal of irritation, which communicated to the brain and external surface of the head, from the effects of which my hair was entirely destroyed. From the time I first discovered its dropping, however, up to the time of its total disappearance, I employed everything I could think of, being a professional man myself, and as I thought, understanding the nature of the disease, but was finally defeated in every prescription advanced.
These and no other circumstances induced me to resort to your worthy "Hair Restorative," which I have every reason to believe, produced a very happy result: two months after the first application, I had a beautiful head of young hair as I ever saw, for which I certainly owe you my sincere thanks. Rest assured, dear sir, I will recommend your remedy to all inquirers; moreover, I shall use my influence, which I flatter myself to say, is not a little.
You can publish this if you think proper.
Yours, very respectfully,
M. J. WRIGHT, M. D.
Jeffersonian Office, Phillipi, Va., Dec. 12, 1859.
Professor O. J. Wood:—Dear Sir: I feel it my duty as well as my pleasure, to state to you the following circumstance, which you can use as you think proper. A gentleman of this place, (a lawyer,) has been bald ever since his early youth; so much so, that he was compelled to wear a wig. He was induced to use a bottle of your "Hair Restorative," which he liked very much; and after using some two or three bottles his hair grew out quite luxuriantly, and he now has a handsome head of hair. The gentleman's name is Bradford, and as he is very well known in our adjoining counties, many persons can testify to the truth of this statement. I give this to you at the request of Mr. Bradford. You can sell a great deal of your Hair Restorative in this and the adjoining counties if you have the proper agents. Yours, &c.,
THOMPSON SURGHNOR.
Dr. Wood—Dear Sir—Permit me to express the obligations I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color; about the time of my arrival in the United States it was rapidly becoming gray, but upon the application of your Hair Restorative it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative as a very wonderful invention, quite efficacious as well as agreeable. S. THALBERG.
The Restorative is put up in bottles of three size, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 4, 1860.

THE GOVERNOR OF VIRGINIA.—Messrs. Benj. Crawford and M. G. Harman, of Staunton, Va., having addressed a letter to Gov. Letcher to ascertain the position he "will take in the next Presidential canvass," the Executive has written the following letter, which is published in the Richmond Index of Tuesday last:—

RICHMOND, VA., Aug. 22, 1860.

Benj. Crawford, M. G. Harman—Gentlemen:—Your letter of the 20th inst., desiring to know the position I intend to take in the Presidential contest, has been received, and I avail myself of the earliest moment to reply.

I have purposely avoided committing myself to the support of either Breckinridge or Douglas, in the hope that a compromise would be agreed upon by the two Conventions recently held in our State, that would be honorable and mutually satisfactory to both wings of the Democratic party. All hope of adjustment having now failed, I have no hesitation in declaring that my support will be given to Douglas and Johnson.

The division that has occurred in the Democratic party could have been, and I think, ought to have been avoided. There was no more necessity for a rupture in 1860 than there was in 1856. The division has, however, taken place. The breach is widening daily, and it is useless to inquire into the causes which have produced these deplorable results. Such a discussion will not restore union and harmony, but will, of necessity, add to present embarrassments, and will only tend to make certain the election of a sectional candidate to the Presidency, whose success all patriots must deplore.

I sincerely hope, therefore, that the discussions which seem now unavoidable between the friends of Breckinridge and Douglas, will be marked by prudence and moderation, and after this struggle has been ended, a spirit of conciliation and compromise that will restore union and harmony in our party.

Respectfully your obedient servant.
JOHN LETCHER.

A DISHONEST SERVANT.—Mary Sullivan, an Irish girl, who had been living at Newburyport in the family of Capt. Chas. M. Bayley for a few weeks, on Thursday took advantage of the absence of the family to complete her trousseau, peradventure she should be matrimonially inclined. Having ordered a coach to take her to the depot, she commenced making her selection from the wardrobes of the family, and of a lady visiting at the house. Among the articles taken were five silk dresses, five more of different varieties, silk visites, lace capes, collars, undersleeves, and an endless variety of little nicknacks and underclothes, together with a gold watch, diamond ring, gold pins, bracelets, and a porte monnaie containing ten or twelve dollars. She took the train for Boston, and on the following day Marshal Westcott started in pursuit, following her to Nashua, at which place he arrested her, and arrived home on Saturday with the girl and the stolen articles. The goods stolen amounted to three or four hundred dollars. She was committed to await her trial at the October term of the Superior Court in Lawrence.

☞ The latest advices from Texas state that new causes of excitement have occurred there. The town of Mount Vernon is reported to have been destroyed by fire, and one of the incendiaries was caught and hung. Others had been hung, and a number of plots to burn dwellings had been discovered. Vigilance Committees were being formed continually. The story that the plots are those of abolitionists is generally discredited. They are planned by rogues who seek an opportunity to plunder.

☞ A Denver City correspondent, writing under the date of the 21st ult., states that silver mines had been discovered, situated about one hundred miles from that city, and that thus far they had yielded from two hundred to seventeen hundred dollars to the ton of quartz. Everything promises well for an extensive fall trade in Denver. Winter was coming on early in Northern Nebraska, and the miners were coming south. Within a few weeks that section had been visited by two snow storms.

☞ A discussion between Smart, Democratic candidate for Governor of Maine, and Washburn, the Republican candidate, "on the issues of the pending canvass," is to come off at Augusta on Wednesday of this week. Washburn is first to speak for one hour; Smart will then follow, occupying an hour and forty minutes; W. will then close the debate in a speech of thirty minutes.—As this is the first instance of the kind that has ever occurred in Maine, there will doubtless be a large concourse of both parties to hear the debate.

DEATH OF AN UNKNOWN WOMAN.—Sunday morning an unknown woman was seen sitting on the steps of the church at the corner of Bedford and Summer streets, Boston. She appeared to be very sick, and before assistance could be rendered she expired. Her name is unknown, and there was nothing on her person to identify her. The body was taken to the dead house.

☞ The New York police broke up a house of ill-fame, on Monday week, kept by Adolphe Marks, a German, and his wife. The immediate cause was that they hired a girl as a domestic, and when it came night, because she would not follow the course of the other female inmates of the house, they beat her most barbarously, and set a large dog upon her, who bit her terribly. The officers took out of the house the next night nearly a dozen dissolute females, but permitted their associates to escape.

FATAL RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—A man named Owen Smith, residing on the Mill Dam, Boston, was run over by a gravel train on the Boston & Worcester Railroad, at Longwood on Saturday morning. He was driving a load of hay across the track, and did not see or hear the cars. The injured man was taken to the hospital, where he died shortly after his arrival. He was a married man, and leaves a wife and nine children.

☞ Gov. Packer of Pennsylvania, on going into his wine cellar a few days since, found that his stock of liquors had decreased in an alarming manner—that it had in fact vanished entirely. His suspicions at once rested upon a young man who acted as chief butler. By procuring his speedy arrest he recovered nearly $100 worth of wines and brandies, and $25 in money, the proceeds of the sales which had been effected.

☞ The quarry connected with the Blockley Almshouse in Philadelphia, has been found to serve quite valuable ends. Every morning the able bodied paupers not working about the institution, are marched to the quarry. But working out the stones is an amusement the paupers do not like, and when the Superintendent's back is turned, they leave for parts unknown, and thus relieve the Almshouse of their support.

STEAM VS. WATER.—The Lowell correspondent of the Boston Traveller states that a careful computation shows the steam power of the Great Eastern steamship is equal to the water power that drives the mills at Lowell. This gives an idea of the immense power of the steamer, equal to that required for the works of the great manufacturing city of America.

SQUATTER SOVEREIGNTY.—Gen. Nye of New York, who has been down in Maine, addressed the Republican State Convention at Syracuse on the 22d ult. He said:

He had seen the Little Giant in Maine, and heard him make a speech on Squatter Sovereignty. He could not understand it, but next day he had been to a livery stable and heard two Irishmen discussing the speech of the previous night.—"What is this squatter sovereignty?" asked one. "And is you that comes from Ireland and asks?" replied the other. "Why I'll tell you what it means; a sovereign must always have somebody to reign over, and the squatter sovereign reigns over the augurs! (Laughter and applause.)

ACCIDENT.—An Irishman named John Smith, while mowing grass near the Longwood station, Brookline, Saturday afternoon, got upon the track and was run over by a train of dirt cars, and was killed. Every effort was made by the engineer to make the deaf man step aside, but of no avail. He was about 45 years old and unmarried.

SUDDEN DEATH AT SARATOGA.—Mrs. Gailand, wife of Gen. Gailand, of the U. S. Army, dropped dead in the streets of Saratoga, on Friday evening of last week, while walking with her daugter, the wife of Major Deas. She had been in her usual health previously.

☞ The Traveller learns that the wife of an eminent ex-city official in South Boston, while laboring under a temporary attack of insanity, committed suicide. She was 47 years of age, and a most estimable woman.

☞ Wm. G. Lambert, of New York, already under arrest for firing his cigar store on Broadway, in order to swindle the insurance companies out of $15,000, has now again been arrested for swindling a woman in Westchester county out of $6000, having purchased her residence on a payment of false and worthless stocks.

☞ A physician named Friedlander, died at his residence in Chicago, on Wednesday of last week, after a most distressing illness, caused, as was believed, by being bitten in the face by a fly that had brought poison communicated from the carcass of a poisoned dog.

☞ Another of Victoria's sons is travelling on the American continent—Prince Alfred, the second son, who arrived at Rio Janeiro June 29th and was at last accounts making a brief but happy visit among the Brazillians.

FROM CALIFORNIA.—New York, Sept. 2.—Steamer Northern Light, from Aspinwill, with California dates of Aug. 11th, arrived this forenoon. She brings $900,000 in treasure, and 600 bags of Washoe silver.

Part of the walls of the Pantheon in Valparaiso had fallen in, killing eight persons.

There was considerable excitement at Paita consequent on the discovery of gold mines in the vicinity.

HAMPTON BEACH.

This locality, once very popular, has been somewhat lost sight of, late years, as a "watering place, among the numerous other candidates for public favor. This may be partly owing to the exposed, unsheltered situation, not desirable except in the best of weather; but it is no doubt also attributable to the manner in which some of the houses there have been kept, and particularly to several disgraceful rows kicked up by transient fellows, who mixed too much of "something" else with their "water." But be the reason what it may, besides the length of the ride, the recent records of the four hotels on and near Boar's Head, show but few visitors from our city; and even the interesting series of sketches by our correspondent, J. H. H., hardly alluded to Hampton Beach.

A ride through Greenland and North Hampton, to Hampton and the Beach, is, however delightful—the road being one of the best, and the adjoining country and distant land and sea views fine. And you can return by another beautiful rural road, along by the sea, and crossing little Boar's Head, stop at the Atlantic House on Rye Beach if you choose. The view of the ocean from Boar's Head and Hampton Beach is very wide, with the Shoals about in the centre, and Cape Ann and Boon Island on either hand. The beach is very extensive, and excellent for walking, riding or bathing. None of the hotels are named, and we don't know that we need name them, though we found tolerable quarters at Mr. Stacey Nudd's house, near the fine beach south of the Head.

A poetical (?) correspondent, who does up the salt-water rhyming for the Chronicle on some occasions, has sent us the following effusion, which we insert here, with the single remark that we don't find ourselves in his list, and don't suppose any of our readers will.

BOAR'S HEAD.

Did you ever visit Boar,s Head—Boar's Head?
'Tis in Hampton, down on the sea-shore,—
And resembles a porker's caput, be it said,
As a sand bank a toad, and no more.

In August, when dog days are hot, so hot,
The "big bags" come here for their ease,—
Some ride on the beach, bathe, fish, and what not,
While others do—just what they please.

Here's the spinster, Miss Muggs, who has wealth—great wealth,
And a shrewish temper to match it,
Comes here every summer, as she says, 'for health,'
But has never been able to catch it.

And here is Miss Dimple, who's fair—so fair,
With ringlets that some might call—red;
Who sighs for some loved one, whose cottage to share,
And reads "yellow covers" in bed.

And here is Miss —— (?) just from school—from school;
Thinks a ride on the beach "so divine,"
And who prides herself much that, according to rule,
She's "finished," and now she "can shine."

Mr. Blot, who to nature is true—e'er true,
His portfolio comes here to fill,
And sketches the beach from all points of view,
And—leaves without paying his bill.

Then comes Mr. Dash, who lacks means—lacks means,
Yet cuts such a swell while he's here—
Has to dwell in an attic and dine upon beans,
To make up, for the rest of the year.

And others have been here, you'll find, you'll find,
Where the land and the ocean meet;
And if for the proof of the fact you're inclined,
Just go there and look at the seats.* C. H. O.

*Some persons—one would naturally suppose them to be amateur carvers—have covered the seats, which stand near the headland, near the large hotel, with their initials.

ADVERTISEMENT EXTRAORDINARY.—The following advertisement appears in the Minnesotian:

"Boy' Lost. Left Washington, D. C., some time in July, to go home to his mother in New York. He has not reached his mother, who is very anxious about him. He has been seen at Philadelphia, New York city, Hartford, Conn., and at a clam bake in Rhode Island. He has been also at Boston, Portland, Augusta, and Bangor, Me. From some expressions he has dropped, it is feared that he has become insane upon a subject he calls 'popular sovereignty.' He is about five feet in height, and about the same in diameter the other way. Has a red face, short legs, and a large belly. Answers to the name of 'Little Giant.' Talks a great deal, and very loud—always about himself. Has an idea that he is a candidate for the Presidency. Had on, when he left, drab pants, a white vest, and blue coat with brass buttons—the tail being very near the ground. Any information concerning him will be gratefully received by his afflicted mother. For further particulars, address Auguste Belmont, New York, or Willis A Gorman, Minnesota."

When the late Mr. Harris, of Salisbury, made his first speech in the English house of Commons, Charles Townsend asked, with an effected surprise, who he was? He had never seen him before.

"Ah! you must at least have heard of him. That's the celebrated Mr. Harris of Salisbury, who has written a very ingenious book on Grammar, and another on Virtue."

"What, then, brings him here? I am sure he will find neither the one nor the other in the House of Commons."

AMHERST, N. H., Sept. 3—The residence of Aaron Lawrence, on Amherst Plains, was totally destroyed by fire Sunday morning. The contents of the lower part were mostly saved. Loss about $4000; insured for $3400.

☞ Uncle Sam never raised such an enormous pile of eatables as he will in this goodly year of 1861.

LOST HIS MEDICINE.—On board the steamer Webster a few days ago, a passenger informed the captain with an air of deep concern that he had lost a package of medicine since he came on board; that it had had been abstracted from his berth, and desired to be paid for his loss. In answer to an enquiry as to the description of the lost article, he said it was a quart bottle filled with a mixture of brandy, sugar and the whites of eggs! The captain said he was sorry for the gentleman's loss, and would have the medicine returned if found, but the chances were that it had fallen into hands of some sick man.

☞ Queen Victoria travelled to Edinburg on her way to Balmoral by the night train. She likes to avoid observation, and having her own mattrass in the railway carriage, does the journey comfortably in one night.

☞ Lamartine is reported to have said that at the end of a century the only book possible will be a newspaper.

☞ The apple and other fruit crops of the Connecticut Valley promise an abundant yield this season.

☞ Miss Susan B. Anthony has accepted the invitation to deliver the address at the Dundee Agricultural Fair.

☞ The New England Female Medical College advertises its Thirteenth Annual Term in another column.

COMPLIMENTARY.—The popular Wine Importers, Messrs. A. M. Bininger & Co., N. Y., have received the following substantial endorsement of their "Genuine Wines," "Bininger's Old London Dock Gin," etc., which appear to be standard with our Druggists:

BURLINGTON, VT., Aug. 15, 1860.

Messrs. A. M. Bininger & Co., 19 Broad St., N.Y.

Sirs: We have subjected to a thorough chemical analysis your popular bottled goods, viz: "Bininger's genuine Cognac," "1840 Reserve Bourbon," "Bininger's Old London Dock Gin;" also your "Genuine Sherries, Ports and Madeiras." We find them uniformly of a full proof, good quality, and free from impure or injurious ingredients, and in every respect superior in standard of comparison, with many other specimens examined.

We can with entire confidence recommend them to the public. Respectfully yours,

A FEW CERTIFICATES OF THE GREAT SUCCESS

—of the—

Grover & Baker's Sewing Machines.

[From the wife of the Hon. Jefferson Davis.]

Mrs. Jefferson Davis presents her compliments to Messrs. Grover & Baker, and takes pleasure in saying that she has used one of their box Sewing Machines for two years, and finds it still in good order—makes a beautiful stitch, and does easily any kind of work.

[From J. G. Harris, Governor of Tennessee.]

My wife has had one of Grover & Baker's Family Sewing Machines for some time, and I am satisfied it is one of the best labor-saving machines that has been invented. I take pleasure in recommending it to the public.

[From the Rev. Jonathan Cross, Agent American Tract Society.]

My wife has been using one of your Sewing Machines for the last three months, and pronounces it faultless. She can sew more on it in one day, than in ten the old way, and without fatigue. The work is beautiful and durable.—She says she would not exchange it for any other one. It is certainly one of the grandest inventions ever made for the relief of woman-kind, and I would recommend every family to get one as soon as possible.

Baltimore, July 14, 1859.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859.

Having tested the merits of the various popular Sewing Machines, in the manufacture of our Capes and Ragians, we unhesitatingly recommend the Grover & Baker, as far superior to all others. ALLEN & PAINE.

PORTSMOUTH, July 16, 1859.

If you wish to purchase a machine that will do work handsomely and strongly, and will not be liable to get out of repair, call on Mr. Whittemore in Daniel street, see the operation of Grover & Baker's machine, and then place one in your family. They will never consent to part with it, after they understand its operation.

CHARLES W. BREWSTER.

"Zion's Herald," Nov. 10th, 1859, says,—"We would recommend to families and to those about to organize a homestead, to be sure and have a Family Bible, and also one of Grover & Baker's SEWING MACHINES.

Humphreys' Homeopathic Specifics

CURE PROMPTLY and safely all the more common diseases and ailments to which families are subject. In all acute diseases, such as fevers, inflammations, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Rheumatism, Croup, and such eruptive diseases as Scarlet Fever, Measles, and Erysipelas, the advantage of giving the proper remedies promptly is obvious, and in all such cases the specifics act like a charm. The entire disease is often arrested at once, and in all cases the violence of the attack is moderated, the disease shortened, and rendered less dangerous.

Coughs and Colds, which are of such frequent occurrence, and which so often lay the foundation of diseased lungs, Bronchitis and Consumption, may all be at once cured by the Fever and Cough Pills.

In all chronic diseases, such as Dyspepsia, Constipation, Weak Stomach, Liver Complaint, Piles, Female Debility and Irregularities, old Headaches, Sore or Weak Eyes, Catarrh, Salt Rheum, and other old eruptions, the case has specifics whose proper application will afford a cure in almost every instance. Often the cure of a single chronic difficulty, such as Dyspepsia, Piles or Catarrh, Headache or Female Weakness, has more than paid for the case ten times over.

JOB AND CARD PRINTING of all sorts is promptly done at the Chronicle Office.
Marriage, Visiting or Business Cards Printed or ENGRAVED in the best manner.

☞ Cooke's Circus and Grizzly Adams' trained animals drew good "houses" (in the tent) in this city, Monday afternoon and evening.

A sad accident occurred at the afternoon performance—a Mr. Armstrong, in jumping over another man on horseback, falling to the ground and breaking his arm, which snapped like a pipestem and was heard by all the sympathizing spectators.

An amusing incident also transpired soon after—a policeman seizing and dragging out one of the clowns, who in dress and action so well personated the drunken straggler, that the officer thought he also must take part in the performance, and prevent his entering the ring over the rope. Both were loudly encored, for this performance was not down in the bill.

☞ Among the many yachts that have visited our harbor this season, we notice some old acquaintances. On Monday the yachts Annie M., Capt. Drown, and J. Q. Souther, which have been here the two preceding summers, arrived here, bringing a party of about fifteen gentlemen from Charlestown and Dorchester, Mass.; having during the past week touched at Gloucester, Annisquam, the Shoals, &c. With musicians and a poet on board, they enjoy the healthful recreations of boating to the utmost; and for piscatorial triumphs, a horse-mackerel of great size, captured off the Shoals, will bear comparison with Webster's "mammoth cod." Their boats, of about ten tons' burthen, are fine sailers and good seaboats.

☞ It will be seen by advertising notices in another column, that all persons interested in the success of the coming Fair, are invited to meet with the citizens' Committee of Arrangements, at Jefferson Hall to-night.

Gentlemen favorable to the organization of the new Company of the Horse Guards, in this city and vicinity, are also to hold a meeting, at the same time and place.

☞ On Friday evening a large audience gathered at the Stone Church to listen to the monthly lecture from Rev. Dr. Peabody. The words of his text were taken from the 5th verse of the 17th chapter of Paul's second epistle to the Corinthians: "Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature." The Sacrament of the Communion was administered after the usual service.

☞ Prominent among the attractions at the Rockingham Fair in Portsmouth, the present month, will be the mammoth Oxen of Daniel Towle of Hampton, the largest and handsomest yoke of cattle in this County or in New England—which are engaged to be on exhibition on this occasion.

☞ Is there any good reason why the city should pay $1.75 per ton for ballast, when paving stones may be bought at the same price? TAX PAYER.

A BATH MAN HUNG IN TEXAS, ON SUSPICION OF BEING AN ABOLITIONIST!—Information was received here on Monday, stating that Mr. Wm. Crawford, son of Capt. Wm. Crawford of Ireland district, in this city, had been hung by Texans on the suspicion of being an abolitionist. No special particulars are given, other than that the villainous act was committed on the 17th day of July last. Mr. Crawford went from Bath to Minnesota some five or six years ago, and from thence removed to Texas, arriving there last Christmas. He had taken up a farm in the vicinity of Fort Worth, and intended to make his home there. He was a quiet person, not much disposed to take part in public affairs; but the Texans knowing him to come from the North, concluded he was an abolitionist, of whom they seem to have an inveterate abhorrence, and they took his life. It was an outrage which will recoil upon the perpetrators. Mr. C. was about 39 years of age. He leaves a wife and family in Texas.—Bath Sentinel.

The Prussian papers narrate a pleasing incident which recently occurred at an exhibition of necromancy in Koenigsberg. During an interval, a gentleman rose in the body of the hall, and pointing to a lady who sat on another bench, addressed the conjuror as follows: "Herr Bash, your next trick, as I see from the show-bill, is to make any person disappear that is pointed out to you. There sits my runaway spouse, with her paramour. Pray make them disappear." The lady turned alternately pale and red, and the couple left amid the roaring laughter of the public.

A youngster from the country, seeing a lawyer's office, walked in and inquired, "what do you keep to sell here?" "Blockheads," replied the lawyer. "Pretty good business," said the chap, "I see you have only got one left."

EDITOR AND MINISTER.—The Springfield Republican says:—"The position of an educated Christian editor is better than that of an educated Christian minister, for while one talks to hundreds, the other talks to thousands." They are similar, too, in this—they both work Sundays.—Ex.

Portland is to have reparation for her disappointment in not having the Great Eastern. The Prince of Wales is to visit there, and the British fleet to rendezvous there for his departure about the 1st of October.

THE FAIR.

☞ Agreeable to public notice, a Meeting of the citizens of Portsmouth was held at the Common Council Room, Friday evening, to choose a Committee of Arrangements, to co-operate with the Trustees of the Rockingham Fair, in carrying through the exhibition in this city. The meeting was organized by electing Robt. Lefavour, Esq., Chairman, and Justin Hanscom Secretary. The following-named gentlemen were unanimously chosen as the Committee:

Hon. J. R. Reding, Rev. Dan'l Austin, Hon. H. D. Walker, Dr. Frank Fuller, Phineas Nichols, Wm. R. Preston, Jas. F. Shores, jr., Charles E. Myers, Chas. H. Hayes, Geo. L. Treadwell, John S. Rand, Jas. H. Head, Frank W. Miller, Wm. H. Rollins, Jos. H. Foster, J. C. Carr.

Voted to adjourn to Tuesday evening Sept. 4th, at half-past 7 o'clock, at Jefferson Hall; and to invite this Committee and all other citizens interested, to meet at that time and place. JUSTIN HANSCOM,
Ports., Aug. 31. Sec. Meeting.

GOVERNOR'S HORSE GUARDS.

All members of the Third Company of the Governor's Horse Guards of New Hampshire, which is to have an Armory and rendezvous in Portsmouth; and all gentlemen who propose to join said company, or who feel any interest in the establishment of the same—are invited and requested to meet at Jefferson Hall this (TUESDAY) evening, at half-past 7 o'clock.

Per order of Committee.

LYMAN'S
Improved Patent Metallic Soles.

PATENTED JUNE 7, 1859.

The nature of this invention consists of a metallic sole for Boots and Shoes, which has been tested and operates admirably. No dampness penetrates through to the inside sole. This is the only device that will operate well between two soles, and is made so thin as not to interfere with the most delicately finished work. The necessity of such a device to fully accomplish the much desired object, and the direful effects arising from damp feet, are too well understood to require any comment.

It is obvious to every one that sole leather is porous, absorbing water, and that the soles of boots and shoes are often damp when they appear dry, causing cold feet, chills, neuralgia, rheumatism, consumption, &c.

Physicians of eminence have pronounced this Metallic Sole an invaluable discovery, and state that, if generally used, it will cause an immense saving of human life.

The right to manufacture and sell the above Improved Metallic Sole for the County of Rockingham has been purchased by the subscriber.

Boot and shoe manufacturers and dealers in Rockingham County furnished with the soles, with right to use, at No. 24 Market Street, Portsmouth, N. H. J. C. CARR.

The Best in the Market!

These Plows embrace NINE DIFFERENT SIZES, the largest of which is much in advance of anything in the United States, as regards size, and, like the other sizes of this celebrated Plow is drawn easily by a team much smaller than is absolutely required to draw a Plow of less size, of any other make than the Clipper.

We also assure our Farming friends that as we have hitherto endeavored to make our Plows superior to all others in those points in which especially interest Plowmen, we are still endeavoring by unceasing exertions, to improve—if this be possible—upon our former successes, although those who are best acquainted in these matters say, "It cannot be done."

Notwithstanding the immense advantages which these Plows possess over all others, we offer them at THE SAME PRICES as are charged for common grades, satisfied that their great superiority will induce so large a sale, that our aggregate profits will make our business sufficiently remunerative.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents,

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, Under the act of 1836.

76 STATE, OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have an advantage for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below, given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than this agency, and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant resources for business, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse." CHAS. MASON, Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office." EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents.

BOSTON, February 8, 1858.

"Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART.

From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on twenty rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in HIS FAVOR, by the Commissioner of Patents.

HUMPHREYS' SPECIFIC HOMEOPATHIC REMEDIES for the People

The Remedies are carefully prepared under the direct supervision and management of Dr. HUMPHREYS, in order to meet that great and long felt want of the public, namely, remedies for all the more common and simple diseases, put up for the

A moment's reflection will show that a vast majority of diseases from which we suffer and die, are, at their commencement, simple and trifling. A mere cold, a slight diarrhea, a pain in the side, or a headache, or heartburn, at first easily cured and subdued, is the beginning of consumption, a fever, a dangerous dysentery, Cough or other disease, which all the powers of medicine fail to arrest.

Hence these Remedies supply a great public want. Being on hand, simple, so as to serve at once what is take—pleasant, so as to cause no repugnance—safe, and above all, reliable, so as to make the curative effects are positive and certain, they are taken, and at once the spell is broken and the danger allayed.

Experience has amply proved the use of these remedies for families and private persons, as being THE BEST IN USE, THE MOST SIMPLE AND CONVENIENT, and MOST EFFECTUAL, of any known.

Thousands are and have been using them for some five years past, in every section of the country, who testify to their efficacy, and speak in the highest terms of their simplicity and certainty, and among our hundreds of agents the uniform testimony is, that they give good satisfaction to their customers.

DR. MOTT'S
PILLS OF IRON.

An aperient and Stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Dinoxious in all maladies in which it has been tried—it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

In DEBILITY, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, EMACIATIONS, CONSTIPATION, DIARRHŒA, DYSPEPSIA, DYSENTERY, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, SCURVY, MENSTRUATION, WHITES, CHLOROSIS, RHEUMATISM, INTERMITTENT FEVERS, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, &c.

In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of acute disease or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no depositions nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if raised from protracted interred in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female sufferers, emaciated victims of chronic marasmus, sanguineous extinction, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise from which the physician has no name.

In NERVOUS AFFECTIONS of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old oxides, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and stimulating; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency, which forms them.

In DYSPEPSIA, innumerable are its causes, and of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In unchecked DIARRHŒA, even when advanced to DYSENTERY, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent hectic, which generally indicate INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously-balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well-known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In RHEUMATISM, both chronic and intermittent—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and inflammation of the joints.

In INTERMITTENT FEVERS it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and it is proper that the new settlers of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

This remedy has ever been discovered, in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects.—Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by Druggists generally. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to

CLIPPER PLOWS

Are manufactured only by the subscribers, the inventors, who offer them to the agricultural interest after they have been

THOROUGHLY TESTED

by experienced Plowmen, who pronounce them

The Best in the Market!

These Plows embrace NINE DIFFERENT SIZES, the largest of which is much in advance of anything in the United States, as regards size, and, like the other sizes of this celebrated Plow, is drawn easily by a team much smaller than is absolutely requisite to draw a Plow of less size, of any other make than the Clipper.

We also assure our Farming friends that as we have hitherto endeavored to make our Plows superior to all others in those points which especially interest Plowmen, we are still endeavoring by unceasing exertions, to improve—if this be possible—upon our former success, although those who are best acquainted in these matters say, "It cannot be done."

Notwithstanding the immense advantages which them Plows possess over all others, we offer them at THE SAME PRICES as are charged for common grades, satisfied that their great superiority will induce a large n sale, that our agregate profits will make our business sufficiently remunerative.

ISLES OF SHOALS.
This favorite resort for the man of leisure and the invalid is now open. Since last year many alterations and additions have been made, increasing its capacity. Billiard and Bowling Saloons are provided, and every measure taken to secure the comfort and amusement of its guests. An abundance of sweet cream and milk is supplied from healthy cows kept on the Island. The table is faultless. The facilities for fishing have been increased by the addition of new boats and experienced skippers.
When to all these advantages are added the purity of the air—the delicious coolness of the ocean breeze, its invigorating and appetizing power—the loveliness of the scenery—the glory of its sunsets—the cleanliness of its walks—free from dust, mud, and all other annoyances of the kind—it may truly be said to possess advantages and attractions which no other watering place in New England can attain. The equability of the temperature is a natural advantage over the coast or the mountains, while invalids can fully appreciate.

THE ONLY PREPARATION
Having Proof so Strong and Direct
as to
Expel the Doubts of All.
For Statesmen, Judges, Editors, Physicians of the oldest schools as well as new, give it their unqualified sanction, and recommend it for all cases of eruptions, and diseases of the scalp and brain; but all woo have used it, unite in testifying that it will preserve the hair from being gray, and from falling to any age, as well as restore.—Read the following:—
Oak Grove, S. C., June 24, 1859.
Prof. O. J. Wood:—Dear:—Your Hair Restorative is rapidly gaining popularity in this community. I have had occasion to lay prejudice aside, and give your Hair Restorative a perfect test:—
During the year 1854, I was so unfortunate as to be thrown from my sulky against a rock near the roadside, from which my head received a most terrible blow; causing a great deal of irritation, which communicated to the brain and external surface of the head, from the effects of which my hair was entirely destroyed. From the time I first discovered its dropping, however, up to the time of its total disappearance, I employed everything I could think of, being a professional man myself, and as I thought, understanding the nature of the disease, but was finally defeated in every instance.
These and no other circumstances induced me to resort to your worthy "Hair Restorative," which I have every reason to believe, produced a very happy result: two months after the first application, I had a beautiful a head of young hair as I ever saw, for which I certainly owe you my sincere thanks. Rest assured, dear sir, I shall recommend your remedy to all inquirers; moreover, I shall use my influence, which I flatter myself is very, is not a little.
You can publish this if you think proper.
Yours, very respectfully,
M. J. WRIGHT, M. D.
Jeffersonian Office, Phillipi, Va., Dec. 12, 1859.
Professor O. J. Wood:—Dear Sir: I feel it my duty as well as my pleasure, to state to you the following circumstances, which you can use as you think proper. A gentleman of this place, (a lawyer,) has been bald ever since his early youth; so much so, that he was compelled to wear a wig. He was induced to use a bottle of your "Hair Restorative," which he liked very much; and after using some two or three bottles his hair grew out quite luxuriantly, and he now has a handsome head of hair. The gentleman's name is Brown, and as he is very well known in our adjoining counties, many persons can testify to the truth of this statement; I give this to you at the request of Mr. Bradford. You can get a great deal of your Hair Restorative in this and the adjoining counties if you have the proper agents.
Yours, &c.,
THOMPSON SURGHNOR.
Dr. Wood—Dear Sir—Permit me to express the obligations I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color; about the time of my arrival in the United States it was ra pidly becoming gray, but upon the application of your Hair Restorative it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative as a very wonderful invention, quite efficacious as well as agreeable.
S. THALBERG.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 5, 1860.

LETTER FROM SOUTH AMERICA.

Mr. D. G. Waldron, late publisher of the "California Spirit of the Times," and one of the sons of Portsmouth, gives an interesting account of his travels in South America.

Lima, Peru, July 20, 1860.

* * Leaving Copiapo, the interior of Chili, our next place of note was Cobija in Bolivia, where we arrived after a six days journey; and notwithstanding the great inconveniences of travelling, our tour had thus far been pleasant and interesting.

The climate of both republics, Chili and Bolivia, is much like that of California, and the general appearance of the country has a resemblance to the southern portion of that State, although not so well adapted to agricultural pursuits, for with the fertile lands of the interior the people seem to be indolent, and three hundred years behind the age in their out-door improvements. I really believe that were they aware of the many advantages derived from the labor-saving machinery of North America they would exclaim, "Oh, for a Yankee to come down among us!"—it being truly laughable to observe the method of tilling lands, and in fact every process of labor, in their country. They plow with a "palo" or stick of wood, pointed sharp at the end, which, when attached to a pair of oxen yoked twelve feet apart, presents quite a comical feature in the art of farming. Few implements are used, nearly all work being performed by hand.

The land for agricultural purposes is divided into large haciendas, from six to ten leagues square. The owner, living in the centre, in his beautiful mansion, surrounded by vineyards and fruit gardens, "takes the world easy;" while his workmen, who are of the lower class and half Indians, live near by, in their neatly-arranged huts, built of cane stalks, covered with mud and straw. I have seen a large village of this class of people living quite comfortably in their little "seven by nine" houses, each containing from ten to twenty inmates, all penned up upon the same floor, (the ground,) with an outside family of, say, six goats, four donkeys, and a poor dog to each member of their household. They are, however, very hospitable in their ways to "Gringos," as they call us, [not the dogs, for we have often been defended from their ravenous jaws by our guides.] Approaching these settlements, we are often invited to dismount, and on entering their abodes are offered whatever refreshments they may have in store, and no greater insult could be given than to offer them any remuneration for their trouble.

* * The stock of horses and cattle here are of the first class. I have seen some beautiful horses which have been reared upon the east range of the Andes, sold for two ounces. Horsemanship is one of the first acquirements of all the "fast ones" in South America. If a young man owns a fine saddle tipped off with gold and silver, and a respectable looking horse, he has acquired everything, and, of course, is what they call a "Caballero."

The "Arraires" or drovers, are undoubtedly the best riders in the world,—their exploits upon horseback being unequaled; but without care for their horses, frequently ride them to death, giving them no food or water, on a two days journey; the horrid result of which is, that the various trails leading from one city to another, throughout the interior, are half paved with the bones of these poor animals. I have often been laughed at by these unfeeling wretches for extending a mezdo for a bucket of water for my fatigued horse; while they would ride the whole day without allowing theirs a solitario drop.

* * The mineral wealth of this country is very great,—the silver and copper mines being the most extensive, although gold is found all along the base of the Cordilleras in small quantities, which I am informed assays much higher than the purest ore of California.

In our route from Quillota to San Felipe, —at which point new silver mines have lately been discovered—we met a tropa of two hundred mules and Llamos, each heavily laden with bars of silver for exportation.—It was quite a sight to see so much of the "needful"—that "root of all evil," as it is sometimes called, packed upon the backs of those queer looking animals, and they trudging along the trail, undoubtedly fully conscious of the weight, but not of the wealth, of their burdens.

In an interior village I remained a few days with a wealthy Peruvian, who holds possession of a very rich quartz lead, and being somewhat conversant with the modus operandi of the improved mining machinery of California, and thinking it might further his interest, I endeavored to show him that such would greatly facilitate his operations; but he remarked that it was well enough as it was,—did not wish to take the ore out too fast,—he had his mine,—was fully aware of its value, and to use his own words, he said, "as long as I have enough for to-day I am mucho contento, and let to-morrow take care for itself." This, I believe, is characteristic of these people; there is none of that Yankee go-a-head-itiveness which is so prominent with those north of the equator, and more especially our "real sons of yankee doodle;" and thus it is that the people of this country are so far aloof from many of the arts and sciences of the day; in fact, they are very ignorant, having but few books and very poor advantages for schooling, and only the higher class make any effort in acquiring knowledge. It would hardly be believed in any enlightened community, that there are, here, only one to every twelve who can read and write; but such is the melancholy fact.

☞ The New York Times says that great efforts have been made within the last few days to bring about a fusion between the Breckinridge and Douglas parties in that city and throughout the State, but thus far with little success. The Breckinridge men continue to grow more firm in their faith, and more independent in their attitude, while the Douglas men are disposed to strike a bargain with them. The only conference known to have been held as yet was that between Mr. Benjamin Wood, the Mayor's brother, and the President of a prominent Breckinridge association, at which the following colloquy ensued:

President—Well, Mr. Wood, they say have been authorized to make a bargain with the Breckinridge men; now what are you going to do? How many men are you going to give us on the electoral ticket?

Mr. Wood—Well, I think we shall give you about four.

President—Four! You must be crazy! We want ten, and we won't take one short of that; and, besides, they must all be out-and-out Breckinridge men, and pledged to vote for Breckinridge and nobody else; you can't come the Bell and Everett game over us.

Mr. Wood—I'll talk with you some other time.

☞ According to the New York Herald, the Breckinridge politicians of Pennsylvania, unable to raise funds for the campaign in their own State, have sent Senator Bigler and Thomas B. Florence to that city begging for money. Those gentlemen modestly ask for the sum of twenty thousand dollars, stating that, with that sum, they can carry the State against Lincoln. With such grand prospects, it is a little wonderful that so moderate an outlay, compared with what was needed in 1856, cannot be raised in Pennsylvania.

Plea of "Homicidal Monomania" in a Case of Four Murders.—At Walworth, England, a man named Youngman has been convicted of the murder of his mother, his two brothers, and the girl to whom he was about to be married. His only object was to obtain £100 insurance upon the life of the girl, which he could not have obtained if he had not been suspected. The plea of the defence was a singular one for England, that of "homicidal monomania," but it did not avail for a moment with the jury.

☞ The census taker has found a colored man in Washington county, Ohio, one hundred and fifteen years old. He was purchased at Richmond, Va., in 1776, by Blannerhasset's agent, by whom he was conveyed to Blannerhasset's Island. The old fellow says he recollects that he "had bin gwine to see de gals long time 'fore de resolution war broke out."

☞ The Washington National Intelligencer contains a long and hearty approval and commendation of the new work on "Studies of the Earth," by Sam'l E. Coues, Esq.,—from the pen of Rev. Dr. Samson, the learned President of Columbia College. It is too long for our limited and crowded columns.

☞ The Cattle Commissioners of Connecticut still adhere to their decision in June last, not to admit cattle to cross the line from Massachusetts into that State. They have been overwhelmed with applications from butchers and drovers to withdraw this decision, since the cattle disease excitement has died out. There is still a fear among the border towns that the epidemic will reappear on the approach of cold weather.

A Clock Tired of Doing Nothing.—The residents in the vicinity of the Old South Church, in Newburyport, were recently somewhat startled by the erratic behavior of the old clock, which got on a strike, and beat out 160 times, when it stopped from sheer exhaustion.

☞ Mr. Sigston was very much annoyed on Saturday, when he proposed to send up a balloon from the Frog Pond in Newburyport, for the benefit and pleasure of the youth. Some of the scoundrelly fellows threw stones, one of which struck Mr. Sigston, and another went through the balloon, so that it proved a failure.

☞ It is reported that the Douglas State Committee for New York have decided to place four Breckinridge men on the electoral ticket.

The Snake Excitement in Somerville.—A student at the Museum of Comparative Zoology at Cambridge, Mass., has communicated the following to the Boston Journal:—

The snake excitement at Somerville, has caused several persons to call at the Museum of Zoology for the purpose of ascertaining the truth of the assertion that a snake had escaped from our grounds. As the story now in circulation implies that we are careless of our animals, we take this method of informing our Somerville neighbors that we never have lost a Black Anaconda or a White Adder, and we further add that there are no such animals known to naturalists. We are inclined to think that our Somerville friends have been frightened by some harmless black snake, such as is occasionally found in this neighborhood. As snakes are not in the habit of taking more than two or three meals in a month, we think that the large number of chickens said to be missing, have fallen victims to some biped or quadruped. As the excitement has become so great in Somerville, and the stories that we hear are so absurd, you will oblige all interested by giving these few lines a place in your paper; and we earnestly hope that they will serve to quell the excitement, and that the Somerville ladies will no longer stay at home for fear of snakes.

A Fearful Fall.—The accident to Hon. Lewis Steenrod and his mother, near Wheeling, Va., has been before reported, and was a fearful one. It appears they were in a carriage, and had with them a little colored girl, when their horse took fright and pitched headlong over an embankment of about twenty-five feet, carrying down the carriage and its occupants.—The distance from the road to the level below is about one hundred feet, but at a distance of twenty-five feet there is a bunch or projection of earth, upon which they first alighted, and where, it is supposed, the injuries were received. From this point, however, Mr. Steenrod, being unable to retain his feet, was thrown the entire distance to the level below. The old lady died in a few minutes, but it is supposed from fright, as she was not perceptibly injured. Mr. Steenrod was alive at last accounts, but in a very critical conditon.—The colored girl escaped injury, as did also the horse.

☞ The Newark Advertiser laments the slaughter of the woodcock in New Jersey, which began on Saturday, as permitted by the statute. "Its fatal gift of beauty, like that in our own race," says the Advertiser, "has attracted the eye, and its racy flavor the epicurean appetite of the fowler. The bird must die, the spoilers are abroad without number, with guns and dogs, and their victims cannot escape."

☞ The Washington Correspondent of the N. Y. Commercial Advertiser writes:

"It is rumored here that the President and Secretary Cobb have both began to despair of the election of Mr. Breckinridge either by the people, or in the House; or even of sending Gen. Lane before the Senate, and that they have consulted a certain well-known politician, who acted as their adviser, to take up the cause of the Bell-Everetts in Pennsylvania, so as to defeat Lincoln and Douglas there."

Heavy Award. — The Secretary of War has just made an award of $119,000 to Wm. H. Degroot, in settlement of damages, losses and liabilities incurred under a contract with the government for furnishing brick for the Washington aqueduct. This extraordinary award, which is double the amount claimed by Mr. Degroot's lobby men last winter, took nearly everybody by surprise. The larger part of this amount is said to be for constructive damages, or for what his profits would have been had Congress not failed to make the proper appropriation, whereby the contract should have been carried out. During the past week, Mr. George A. Bates, a former resident of this city, addressed a memorial to the Secretary of War, in the name of Kellogg & Bates, asserting that Mr. Degroot failed in business in 1855, and that all his right and interest, as assignee of Mechlin & Alexander, came into their possession by contract with the latter, and that they, and not Mr. Degroot, are entitled to the amount in damages which has been awarded.—Worcester Spy.

☞ The Washington correspondent of the New York Journal of Commerce says the Whig and American interest in Pennsylvania is to be combined with the Democracy in favor of the election of Mr. Foster, the Democratic candidate for Governor.

Vermont Election.—Vermont voted Monday for Governor, other State officers, and members of Congress. The Republican elected Governor is Erastus Fairbanks, the celebrated scale manufacturer, who served one term several years since. His opponent was John G. Saxe, Douglas Democrat. The Republicans elected all their candidates by very large majorities.

☞ An informal gathering of a few Bell and Everett men took place at Manchester, N. H., on Friday, for purposes of consultation. The American says they propose having a more formal gathering in a week or two, and will probably select an electoral ticket.

☞ A boy, named James Bryant, fell from a bridge at Lewiston, a distance of fifty feet, into the river, where the water was only four feet in depth, and scrambled out of the river uninjured.

Washington, Sept. 3.—The Key West correspondent of the Charleston Courier says that a man named Cumming, from New Orleans, seized the barque William, recently sold, during the absence of the Commissioner, and got it under way, but it was re-taken by a pilot boat. Cumming was put in jail by the Commissioner under the piracy laws.

The New Orleans Picayune says that the schooner Taylor, which sailed recently for Ruatan, had a cargo of provisions, and other packages not named, for Gen. Walker.

It is known here that Walker, before capturing Truxillo, sent agents to Nicaragua to organize his friends.

Minister Dimitry's mission from Costa Rica to Nicaragua, was merely of a diplomatic nature, as he had not the means of enforcing success. Little interest is felt here in Walker's movements, though the departure of armed bodies will be prevented.

From Europe.—Garabaldi has landed at Calabria.

Paris, Aug. 22.—Dispatches announce that serious disturbances had occurrred in Basilicata.

Several corps of Garabaldians have landed and met with success. It is not known whether Garabaldi was present.

The correspondent of the Daily News confirms the announcement that the Calabrians are in open revolt against the King of Naples and in favor of Garabaldi.

Important from Italy.—New York, Sep. 3.—The Evening edition of the London Times of the 18th ult., says a Sardinian frigate had arrived at Faro on the 12th, bringing Dr. Bartano with important dispatches, when Garibaldi issued an order of the day, stating that he was obliged to leave for a few days, and placing General Sirtori in command of the land and sea forces.—The event is supposed to have a peaceful meaning.

Advices from Constantinople of the 8th of August state that twenty churches and two convents were burnt at Balbec during the recent disturbances, and the male Christians murdered and the women outraged. The Turkish soldiers sent to preserve order assisted in the outrages.

The Mussulman population of Damascus, as late as July 27th, maintained a menacing altitude, and large bodies of fanatics were parading the town, and demanding the surrender of Christians who had sought refuge in the citidel. The troops despatched from Beirut, on the 24th, had not arrived.

Removals.—Mr. Robert Keith, Inspector at the Boston Custom House, was removed on Saturday.

Col. George P. Kettell, Clerk at the Navy Yard, Charlestown, was also removed on Saturday, and B. F. Palmer, of East Boston, was appointed in his place.

☞ In allusion to the bad weather which has accompanied the Prince of Wales in his progress, the Montreal papers say that instead of being merely heir to the Crown, he appears to be the Reigning (raining) Prince.

☞ Six boys have been arrested in Portland, charged with setting fire to several primary school houses in that city.

Atwood's Quinine Tonic Bitters,—the best Aromatic Tonic ever offered to the public.—All the Druggists have it. See advertisement.

Humphreys' Homeopathic Specifics

Cure promptly and safely all the more common diseases and ailments to which families are subject. In all acute diseases, such as fevers, inflammations, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Rheumatism, Croup, and such eruptive diseases as Scarlet Fever, Measles, and Erysipelas, the advantage of giving the proper remedies promptly is obvious, and in all such cases the specifics act like a charm. The entire disease is often arrested at once, and in all cases the violence of the attack is moderated, the disease shortened, and rendered less dangerous.

Coughs and Colds, which are of such frequent occurrence, and which so often lay the foundation of diseased lungs, Bronchitis and Consumption, may all be at once cured by the Fever and Cough Pills.

In all chronic diseases, such as Dyspepsia, Constipation, Weak Stomach, Liver Complaint, Piles, Female Debility and Irregularities, old Headaches, Sore or Weak Eyes, Catarrh, Salt Rheum and other old eruptions, the case has specifics whose proper application will afford a cure in almost every instance. Often the cure of a single chronic difficulty, such as Dyspepsia, Piles or Catarrh, Headache or Female Weakness, has more than paid for the case ten times over.

For price, see advertisement in another column.

PORTSMOUTH STEAM MILL.—The annual meeting of the Stockholders of the Portsmouth Steam Factory was held at the Court House in this city on Tuesday. The President, Gov. Goodwin, being absent, Hon. C. S. Toppan was chosen chairman of the meeting. The doings of the Directors for the past year were confirmed by vote. The Treasurer read his report, showing a very satisfactory account of the operations of the mill for the past year, and its present financial position, which was accepted. Mr. Ammi R. H. Fernald was then unanimously elected Proprietor's Clerk for the ensuing year. The stockholders then voted to proceed to choice of Directors for the ensuing year.

The Chairman having appointed William H. Hackett and Albert R. Hatch, Esqs., committee to receive, sort and count the votes, the state of the vote subsequently reported by Mr. Hackett, shew that the stockholders had unanimously re-elected the Board of last year, viz:—Messrs. Ichabod Goodwin, John Knowlton, Wm. P. Jones, John A. Blanchard, Calvin W. Clark, Nathaniel Goddard, William Sheafe.

On motion of Mr. Hackett, it was voted that the committee upon the Treasurer's accounts, be the committee for that purpose for the ensuing year; after which the meeting was dissolved.

THE VACATIONS are over and gone. On Sunday most of the clergymen had returned to their pulpits and their flocks; and this week the schools are in full operation. The pleasure parties in the river, and to the beaches and the islands, will not, however cease for some weeks. For pleasure we have better weather in September than August. It is cooler to camp out nights, but the skies are clearer and the air more bracing and invigorating.

CENSUS RETURNS indicate that the population of New Hampshire has increased only about 4000 in the last ten years, being now about 322,000.

The population of Portsmouth has decreased a little in the same time: while that of Newburyport, (according to the Herald) rather unexpectedly to everybody, shows an increase.

TO THE PUBLIC.—Messrs. Editors:—One or more carriages, suitable for transporting persons to and from their dwellings or places of business, are wanted in this city, to carry persons at as low price as in other cities near us; there is every reason to suppose, that with proper management, as good an income may be realized as with any other coach business. Will not some person immediately set the above carriages in motion? PENEX.

☞ We are indebted to our old friend, Oliver Philbrick, Esq., for a basket of handsome apples, from his farm at Kittery.

Also, to Mr. Wm. Downie of this city, for various fine specimens of delicious pears and plums, from his garden.

Also, to some unknown but not forgotten friends, for a delightful serenade one fine moonlight night not long back,—which instead of disturbing our slumbers, only soothed us into deeper, and caused utter forgetfulness of all things less heavenly, for the time being.

A NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEM.

We copy the following article, which may interest some readers, from the Newark (N. J.) Evening Journal, edited by Mr. Fuller, late editor of the New Hampshire Gazette.

A NEW HAMPSHIRE DOUGLASITE ON FRANKLIN PIERCE.—It appears that we were mistaken in the statement that Thomas P. Treadwell, Esq., of New Hampshire, is for Breckinridge, as we now learn in a letter addressed by that gentleman to the Democrat of Newark, and we gladly make the correction, as we should be sorry to rank in the national army a man who can misrepresent and abuse one of New Hampshire's noblest sons, Ex-President Pierce, as Mr. Treadwell does in the concluding paragraph of his letter:

"If the editor of the Journal is counting upon the influence of Franklin Pierce in New Hampshire, let me assure him he is altogether behind the age. Pierce's influence is a thing of the past. Here, he is looked upon as a disappointed man. Things didn't work at Charleston and at Baltimore as the General wished. He wasn't nominated—Douglas was—and this accounts for his wishing success to Breckinridge, and lending the influence of his powerful name to the disunionists. But we say to the factionists here in New Hampshire—run your disunion ticket, exhibit your baker's dozen, and my word for it, even Franklin Pierce may find that he is now no "favorite son" of New Hampsire, and that his name coupled with the Southern disunionists cannot rally the Democracy of the Granite State under that flag. Yours truly,

THOMAS P. TREADWELL.

☞ Don't forget the Pic-Nic at Kittery Point this afternoon—whether your object be to pass a pleasant hour amid the most delightful natural scenery, or to aid a most worthy and desirable project, of public as well as local interest.

☞ The City Council having declared the several Slaughter Houses at the South End to be nuisances—the City Marshal has served notices on their occupants, ordering their abatement. He proposes, under advice of the legal counsel of the city, to proceed against them to the full extent of the law, if the notice is not regarded and the nuisances abated within thirty days.

While these institutions would seem to be a public necessity, and we should object to the waste of any more of "the wealth of the nation" by locating them on the water—it does not to us seem unreasonable to insist on some improvement in the present arrangement or location of these pestiferous nuisances.

☞ Two valuable horses belonging to Col. Simes Frink of Greenland, were killed by the down train from Concord, Monday morning, just below a curve which concealed them from the engineer, near the depot in Greenland. The animals had left their pasture, and were feeding along the track; and were struck by the cow-catcher, which threw them on their sides, and the train actually cut off three legs of each.

☞ Orders have been received at this Naval Station, to fit for sea U. S. ship Cumberland, which is to join the Home Squadron as flag-ship. She will be docked forthwith.

☞ The Republican Mass Meeting at Exeter, Tuesday, was truly a grand celebration. The Portsmouth delegation numbered about three hundred. We copy a brief mention of the chief features, from the Boston Journal, and shall have something more from our own reporter to-morrow.

GRAND REPUBLICAN DEMONSTRATION AT EXETER, N. H.—Exeter, N. H., Sept. 4.—This pleasant village is overflowing with people come to attend the grand Mass and Councillor Convention of the Republicans. The demonstration is a complete success. Messrs. Wilson, Chase, Van Wyck, McKean, Hale, Tappan, Edwards and others are here and speaking to the crowd. At least ten thousand people are in town. Hon. Gilman Marston is President of the day.

Hon. John Sullivan was nominated as the Elector of the First District of New Hampshire.

In Kittery, Me., 2d inst., Mrs. MARY R. SAFFORD, aged 58 years, widow of Edward D. Safford.

In Exeter, Mrs. Frances Prescott, aged 63.

In Durham, Shadrach Drew, Esq., aged 87.—Charles Hook.

In Sandown, Col. Jeremiah Fletcher, aged 69, formerly of Wilton, Me.

MARINE CHRONICLE.

Ship Adelaide Bell, Robertson, ldg at New Orleans 3d, for Havre.

Ship Galatea, Wendell, arr at Callao, Aug 3d, fm San Francisco, and sld 5th for Chincha Is.

☞ Hon. W. L. Yancy, the distinguished Southern disunion orator and leader of the Breckinridge party, has issued the following card, which seems to leave it in doubt whether his son or the editor of the Confederation is turned loose:—

"My son has this day caned the editor of the Confederation, and I now brand him as a convicted liar and slanderer, and turn him loose. W. L. YANCEY."

TORONTO, Sept. 3.—The Governor General announces that the Prince will take no part in any procession where party colors are worn or party tunes are played, trouble being anticipated between the Orangemen and the opposition.

☞ The Horse Show at Springfield began on Tuesday, and continues four days. It is expected that at least five hundred horses will be on exhibition.

POISONER ARRESTED.—New York, Sept. 3.—Dr. David Wickham was arrested here yesterday, on charge of having caused the death of a Mrs. Cole by poison while sick, over a year ago, in Sussex county, New Jersey. There was an insurance on her life, and Wickham is supposed to have colluded with her husband.

☞ U. S. steamer Mohican arrived at Salt Pond, west coast of Africa, July 15, and sailed same day for Onitah.

MORRISSEY AND HEENAN.—New York, Sept. 2.—A Sunday paper says that Morrissey and Heenan will probably fight in January—certainly not later than the 5th of March—for $10,000.

We don't believe it.

☞ Mr. John Kingman died at Charleston, S. C., on the 24th ult., in the 67th year of his age. At one time he was teacher in the Orphan House in that city, and had under his care John C. Fremont. Mr. Kingman filled many prominent places of trust in the city government.

A head properly constituted, can accommodate itself to whatever pillows the vicissitudes of fortune may place under it.

LYMAN'S

Improved Patent Metallic Soles.

PATENTED JUNE 7, 1859.

The nature of this invention consists of a metallic sole for Boots and Shoes, which has been tested and operates admirably. No dampness penetrates through to the inside sole. This is the only device that will operate well between two soles, and is made so thin as not to interfere with the most delicately finished work. The necessity of such a device to fully accomplish the much desired object, and the direful effects arising from damp feet, are too well understood to require any comment.

It is obvious to every one that sole leather is porous, absorbing water, and that the soles of boots and shoes are often damp when they appear dry, causing cold feet, chills, neuralgia, rheumatism, consumption, &c.

Physicians of eminence have pronounced this Metallic Sole an invaluable discovery, and state that, if generally used, it will cause an immense saving of human life.

The right to manufacture and sell the above Improved Metallic Sole for the County of Rockingham has been purchased by the subscriber.

Boot and shoe manufacturers and dealers in Rockingham County furnished with the soles, with right to use, at No. 24 Market Street, Portsmouth, N. H. J. C. CARR.

SILVER SOAP.

A new and beautiful preparation made by the BOSTON INDEXICAL SOAP CO., expressly for cleaning and polishing Silver, Plated and Britannia Ware, and for cleaning Mirrors, Marble, Tin, &c. It is much more convenient and effective than any of the powders now in use, and may be used by even inexperienced help with perfect safety, as it contains nothing that can possibly injure the finest plate or jewelry, or even the most delicate skin, though most designed for kitchen use. It is far superior to any other soap for cleaning fine House Paint, Statuary, Artificial Teeth Plate, &c.

Many of our largest importers, and manufacturers of silver and plated ware, who have used it, have given it their unqualified approval. Read the following:

BOSTON, May 2, 1859.

MESSRS. SAFFORD & BURDITT: Gentlemen,—After repeated trials of your Silver Soap, we can recommend it as the best article we have ever seen for cleaning plated and silver ware. It must soon be used in every family.

Yours, respectfully, SHEPLEY, BROWN & CO.,
(Late Jones, Ball & Co.)

BOSTON, June 1, 1859.

Gentlemen,—We have, during the last twelve months, given your Silver Soap a thorough trial, and find there is nothing to equal it, as it cleans silver quicker, better, and with less trouble than any thing we have been able to find.

Yours, respectfully, SAM'L T. CROSBY,
69 Washington street.

BOSTON, June 12, 1859.

Gentlemen,—We have made careful trial of your Silver Soap, and find it admirably adapted to the cleaning of silver and plated ware, particularly the chased and frosted work, and we take pleasure in recommending it to the public as a safe and effective agent for removing tarnish and restoring the color with a very small amount of labor. We have never seen a better article for the above purpose. Yours, truly, &c.,

HADDOCK, LINCOLN & FOSS,
65 and 67 Washington street.

Opera Boots—Latest Style,

For sale low, at 34 Market St., by

J. C. CARR.

The Remedies are carefully prepared under the direct supervision of Dr. HUMPHREYS, of 562 BROADWAY, in order to meet that great and long realized want of the public, namely, remedies for all the more common and simpler ailments of life.

Experience's reflection will show that a vast majority of diseases from which we suffer and die, were, at their commencement, simple and trifling. A mere cold, a slight diarrhœa, a pain in the side, or a headache, or heaviness, at first easily cured and subdued, in time becomes a consumption, a fever, a dangerous diarrhœa, dysentery or other disease, which all the powers of medicine fail to arrest.

Herein these remedies supply a great public want. Being on hand, they are ready at once and once what to take—pleasant, so as to cause no repugnance—safe, and beyond controlling our will, while the results of their use, as shown by certificates, they are taken, and at once the spell is broken and the danger allayed.

Experience has amply confirmed the use of these remedies for families and private persons, as being THE MOST EXPEDITIOUS, THE MOST SIMPLE AND CONVENIENT, THE MOST PROMPT AND RELIABLE.

Thousands of families have been using them for some five years past, in every section of the country, with almost invariably success, and speak in the highest of their simplicity and certainty, and almost our hundreds of agents the uniform testimony is, that they give good satisfaction to their customers.

AROMATIC INVIGORATING SPIRIT.

This medicine has been used by the public for six years, with increasing favor. It is recommended to cure Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Heartburn, Colic Pains, Wind in the Bowels, or Pains in the Bowels, Headache, Drowsiness, Kidney Complaints, Low Spirits, Delirium Tremens, Intemperance. It Stimulates, Exhilarates, Invigorates, but will not Intoxicate or Stupefy.

As a Medicine, it is quick and effectual, curing the most aggravated cases of Dyspepsia, Kidney Complaints, and all other derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, in a speedy manner.

It will instantly revive the most melancholy and drooping spirits, and restore the weak, nervous and sickly to health, strength and vigor.

Persons who, from the injudicious use of liquors, have become dejected, and their nervous systems shattered, constitutions broken down, and subject to that horrible curse to humanity, the Delirium Tremens, will, almost immediately, feel the happy and invigorating efficacy of Dr. Ham's Invigorating Spirit.

What it will do!

DOSE.—1 wine glass full as often as necessary.
One dose will remove all Bad Spirits.
One dose will cure Heartburn.
Three doses will cure Indigestion.
One dose will give you a good appetite.
One dose will stop the distressing pains of Dyspepsia.
One dose will remove the distressing and disagreeable effects of Wind or Flatulence, and as soon as the Stomach receives the Invigorating Spirit, the distressing load and all painful feelings will be removed.
One dose will remove the most distressing pains of Colic, either in the stomach or bowels.
A few doses will remove all obstructions in the Kidney, Bladder or Urinary Organs.
Persons who are seriously afflicted with any Kidney Complaints, are assured speedy relief by a dose or two, and a radical cure by the use of one or two bottles.

NIGHTLY DISSIPATION.

Personsewho, from dissipating too much over night, and feel the evil effects of poisonous liquors, in violent headaches, sickness at stomach, weakness, giddiness &c., will find one dose will remove all bad feelings.

Ladies of weak and sickly constitutions, should take the Invigorating Spirit three times a day; it will make them strong, healthy and happy, remove all obstructions and irregularities from the menstrual organs, and restore the bloom of health and beauty to the cancerous face.

During pregnancy it will be found an invaluable medicine to remove disagreeable sensations at the period of feeling.

All the proprietor asks, is trial, and to induce this, he has put up the INVIGORATING SPIRIT in pint bottles, at 50 cents, qts $1.

DR. MOTT'S CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE PILLS & IRON.

An aperient and Stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Innoxious in all maladies in which it has been tried—it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

In DEBILITY, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, EMACIATIONS, CONSTIPATION, DIARRHŒA, DYSPEPSIA, DYSENTERY, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, SALT RHEUM, MISMENSTRUATION, WHITES, CHLOROSIS, RHEUMATISM, INTERMITTENT FEVERS, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, &c.

In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of acute disease or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no debility may not within attention would render credible. Invalids so long bed ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are at Boston—8 Court st. and 10 Court Sq. NEWMARKET—Furber's Hotel. RAYMOND—Blake's store. EPPING—at Depot. PORTSMOUTH—J. B. Adams' Store. Also, at house No. 9 Middle street.

In NERVOUS AFFECTIONS of all kinds, and for reasons furnished by medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old oxides, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and over-heating; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency, which forms them.

In DYSPEPSIA, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In unchecked DIARRHŒA, even when advanced to DYSENTERY, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remitting fever, which generally indicate INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well-known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In MENSTRUATION, both obstructed and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In INTERMITTENT FEVERS it must necessarily be a most remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has ever been discovered, in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such immediate happy, and fully restorative effects. Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by Druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to

CLIPPER PLOWS

Are manufactured only by the subscribers, the inventors, who offer them to the agricultural interest after they have been

THOROUGHLY TESTED

by experienced Plowmen, who pronounce them

The Best in the Market!

These Plows embrace NINE DIFFERENT SIZES, the largest of which is much in advance of anything in the United States, as regards size, and, like the other sizes of this celebrated Plow, is drawn easily by a team much smaller than is absolutely requisite to draw a Plow of less size, of any other make than the Clipper.

We also assure our Farming friends that as we have hitherto endeavored to make our Plows superior to all others in those points which especially interest Plowmen, we are still endeavoring by unceasing exertions, to improve—if this be possible—upon our former successes, although those who are best acquainted in these matters say, "it cannot be done."

Notwithstanding the immense advantages which these Plows possess over all others, we offer them at THE SAME PRICES as are charged for common grades, satisfied that their great superiority will induce so large a sale, that our aggregate profits will make our business sufficiently remunerative.

APPLEDORE HOUSE,
ISLES OF SHOALS.
This favorite resort for the man of leisure and the invalid is now open. Since last year many alterations and additions have been made, increasing its capacity. Billiard and Bowling Saloons are provided, and every measure taken to secure the comfort and amusement of its guests. An abundance of sweet cream and milk is supplied from healthy cows kept on the Island. The table is faultless. The facilities for fishing have been increased by the addition of new boats and experienced skippers.
When to all these advantages are added the purity of the air—the delicious coolness of the ocean breeze, its invigorating and appetizing power—the loveliness of the scenery—the glory of its sunsets—the cleanliness of its walks—its freeness from dust, mud, and all other annoyances of the kind—it may truly be said to possess advantages and attractions which no other watering place in New England can attain. The equability of the temperature is a natural advantage over the coast or the mountains, which invalids can fully appreciate.
A daily Packet, the SIBYL, Capt. Preble, runs direct to Appledore from Portsmouth, leaving Pier Wharf on the arrival of the morning train from Boston, and returns in the afternoon. The Sibyl has every accommodation for the comfort of passengers which a Packet requires.

THE ONLY PREPARATION
Having Proof so Strong and Direct
as to
Expel the Doubts of All.
For Statesmen, Judges, Editors, Physicians of the oldest schools as well as new, give it their unqualified sanction, and recommend it for all cases of eruptions, and diseases of the scalp and brain; but all woo have used it, unite in testifying that it will preserve the hair from being gray, and from falling to any age, as well as restore.—Read the following:—
Oak Grove, S. C., June 24, 1859.
Prof. O. J. Wood:—Dear:—Your Hair Restorative is rapidly growing in popularity in this community. I have had occasion to lay prejudice aside, and give your Hair Restorative a perfect test.—
During the year 1854, I was so unfortunate as to be thrown from my sulky against a rock near the roadside, from which my head received a most terrible blow; causing a great deal of irritation, which communicated to the brain and external surface of the head, from the effects of which my hair was entirely destroyed. From the time I first discovered its dropping, however, up to the time of its total disappearance, I employed everything I could think of, being a professional man myself, and as I thought, understanding the nature of the disease, but was finally defeated in every prescription advanced.
These and no other circumstances induced me to resort to your worthy "Hair Restorative," which I have every reason to believe, produced a very happy result: two months after the first application, I had as beautiful a head of young hair as I ever saw, for which I certainly owe you my sincere thanks. Rest assured, dear sir, I shall recommend your remedy to all inquirers; to whom, I shall use my influence, which I flatter myself to say, is not a little.
You can publish this if you think proper.
Yours, very respectfully,
M. J. WRIGHT, M. D.
Jeffersonian Office, Phillipi, Va., Dec. 12, 1859.
Professor O. J. Wood:—Dear Sir: I feel it my duty as well as my pleasure to inform you the following circumstance, which you can use as you think proper. A gentleman of this place, (a lawyer,) has been bald ever since his early youth; so much so, that he was compelled to wear a wig. He was induced to use a bottle of your "Hair Restorative," which he bought very much; and after using some two or three bottles his hair grew out quite luxuriantly, and he now has a handsome head of hair. The gentleman's name is Bradford, and as he is very well known in our adjoining counties, many persons can testify to the truth of this statement; I give this to you at the request of Mr. Bradford. You can sell a great deal of your Hair Restorative in this and the adjoining counties if you have the proper agents. Yours, &c.,
THOMPSON SURGHNOR.
Dr. Wood—Dear Sir—Permit me to express the obligations I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color; about the time of my arrival in the United States it was rapidly becoming gray, but upon the application of your Hair Restorative it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative as a very wonderful invention, quite efficacious as well as agreeable. S. THALBERG.
The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes: large, medium, and small, the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 6, 1860.

LETTER FROM SOUTH AMERICA.

LIMA, PERU, July 20, 1860.

* * Our stay at Cobija was of short duration owing to the prevailing state of excitement which pervades its inhabitants. I presume ere this you have obtained information regarding the difficulty between Peru and Bolivia. Within the past few months war has been declared, and at present all communication has been cut off between the two republics. This, however, cannot be of long duration, for each party is dependent upon the other for supplies, both having a large trade and commerce. Bolivia, I believe will suffer the most under the existing circumstances as they have no ships-of-war, and on the other hand Peru has quite a little fleet. Castilla's army, (Peruvian,) now numbers fifteen thousand, while Linares (Bolivian) has about eight thousand men. Nearly all the wealthiest families had left Cobija for Chili as a reported attack was daily expected from the Peruvians. During all of the "confusion" we "travelers" have kept "perfectly silent" and quietly housed ourselves en la casa of the Hon. Lewis Joel, our American Consulate, who, with his interesting and amiable lady made everything home-like around us, and I can assure you that it was a source of gratification to us, who can truly appreciate the generous hospitalities of our countrymen when meeting them in foreign lands.

* * * Leaving Bolivia we departed for Arica and Tacna, an inland city of thirty thousand inhabitants; from thence to Iquique, the great depot of the renowned saltpeter mines, and from thence to Islay, where we remained two days, preparatory to our journey to the ancient city of Arequipa, situated nearly forty leagues in the interior. The trip we accomplished upon mules in three days, and I believe the hardest ride I ever undertook, the California trails over which I have traveled being no comparison to this. About twenty leagues is a sandy desert with no vegetation whatever, and all the water for our animals and ourselves had to be packed fifty miles; on the second night we lost our way and were obliged to camp out till the morning. The most of the travel is performed by night, as through the day it is so excessively hot that it is almost impossible to proceed. Arequipa contains sixty thousand inhabitants, a portion being from the old descendants of Spain, and about half the descendants of the Inca tribe of Indians. The city is supposed to be four hundred years old; but no reliable information could be obtained as to the date of its foundation. It is, however, in point of architecture the most ancient in South America, being wholly built of stone. Its appearance surpasses all Spanish cities I have yet visited.

* * * The active volcano Arequipa, being 20,320 feet above the level of the sea,—next to the highest in the world,—and situated within thirty miles of the city, presented to us, nightly, a scene of grandeur, as the burning lava and dark smoke in awful volumes continually burst from its crater. It was indeed a picture I never can forget, and to describe it in its true sublimity is a task to which I am wholly inadequate.

The city of Lima, at which place I am now sojourning, fully meets my expectation. Its reported population is said now to reach one hundred and fifty thousand. It is indeed a "great town;" that is to say, not to be compared with our cities in the Atlantic states, but as a Peruvian city it presents quite a business-like appearance. Callao, its port, which is but nine miles distant, has about thirty thousand inhabitants, of which three thousand are foreigners; and it really appeared to me on my arrival there, that I had "struck a white country," and was again nearing Yankeedom, for I could hear the English language spoken upon every turn. Quite a number of New England people are settled here with the intention of making Peru their future home.

* * * You undoubtedly have seen the account of the late heavy earthquake, the effects of which still remain visible both here and also in Callao. It is said to be the heaviest that has been experienced since the great one which destroyed the old city of Callao in 1747. Some forty shocks were felt during the space of seventy hours, the worst of which took place at two o'clock in the afternoon and, lasting ninety seconds, destroyed over two million dollars worth of property. In Lima and the adjoining towns not a building escaped damage. Trees were uprooted, and many beautiful residences shaken to the ground. All the public squares were occupied for days by families, fearing to approach their own dwellings; the roads and avenidas publico leading to the suburbs, were completely lined with people fleeing from the city.—The padres of the churches, with their followers, carrying images of holy saints, paraded the streets in solemn prayerful procession. It was indeed a time sufficient to appal the stoutest heart, and consternation depicted itself on every face. In Callao the fear was not alone from the earthquake, but also from the dread of the sea again sweeping over their habitations as in the year 1747.

From here I shall visit the Chincha Islands, Guayaquil, Quito, also all the principal cities in Ecquador, and shall write you again. Truly yours, &c.,

D. G. WALDRON.

ONE DAY LATER FROM EUROPE.

The steamship Palestine, from Liverpool 23d, and Londonderry 24th, for Quebec, passed Farther Point, Tuesday morning.—Her advices are one day later.

The report is confirmed that Garibaldi has commenced operations in Calabria.

The French government has decided to admit breadstuffs free of duty.

The Times' correspondent writes that Garibaldi, in a letter to a friend, expresses his disappointment and disgust at the Neapolitans, and declares that he will not appear until Naples has been in a state of insurrection for a month.

A letter from Paris says that the weather throughout France is most discouraging. It rains five or six hours every day, and the harvest must be unfavorably affected. Produce is rising in price.

The report published in the German papers, that Louis Napoleon had proposed a Congress for the settlement of Italy, is totally unfounded.

The French government had made known to the European governments that its proposal to raise Spain to the rank of a great power having given rise to objections, it will not endeavor for the present to carry it out.

Le Nord asserts that the suggestions made by Prussia, for the re-organization of the army of the confederation, is strongly disapproved of by the secondary German States. It is considered that the giving up the command of the military forces to one or both of the great powers, would be the first step towards their political extinction. The smaller States have, therefore, refused to abdicate so much of their independent sovereign power.

Canton, July 8.—Matters are more settled. There were 100 war vessels and transports in Foochow bay on the 24th of June.

The Mandarins have been ordered to furnish no supplies.

☞ By steamer America, at Cape Race, we have Queenstown dates to Aug. 26.

The invasion of Calabria by Garibaldi is fully confirmed.

Reggio had been attacked and taken by Garibaldi.

A general battle with the Neapolitan troops was considered imminent.

It is said that a French corps d'armee of 100,000 men has been ordered to be in readiness at a moment's notice.

The weather in England has been unfavorable, but was fairer when the America left.

VERMONT ELECTION.—Montpelier, Sept. 4.—Our annual election of State officers and members of Congress took place to-day. Returns of the votes for Governor in 29 towns give the following result:

Erastus Fairbanks (Rep.)	6885
John G. Saxe (Douglas Dem.)	2664
—— Harvey (Breckinridge Dem)	487

Majority for Fairbanks 3733.

The same towns last year gave a majority of 3064 for Hiland Hall, Republican, showing a republican gain of 669.

These towns embrace one-fifth of the vote of the State, and indicate the election of Fairbanks by a round majority of 20,000 votes.

Returns of Representatives to the Legislature give 43 Republicans, 7 of which are gains from last year, and 6 Democrats, 4 of which are gains from last year.

This is just about what reasonable men expected; though there were some sanguine items about Douglas in Vermont.

IMPORTANT FROM TRUXILLO. — New Orleans, Sept. 3.—Schooner Toucey, from Truxillo 23d, has arrived.

700 men had assembled outside the walls of Truxillo, ready to attack Walker.

An English war vessel arrived at Truxillo on the 19th.

Heavy cannonading was heard at Ruatan on the 24th, in the direction of Truxillo, lasting until noon.

It is stated that the object of the British war vessel was to protect the property of the citizens of Honduras, and to restore the revenue of Truxillo to the rightful authorities. The cannonading is supposed to be the combined attack of Guardiola and the war vessel.

AUSTRIAN ILLIBERALITY.—The Minister of War in Austria has just ordered that Protestant soldiers shall only be interred in cemeteries in a part separated from the Catholic portion by a hedge or enclosure. Some of the Austrian journals complain of the measure as being exceedingly illiberal, and only called forth by the requirements of the Concordat.

☞ The American Agriculturist illustrates an implement for picking fruit (not patented) which seems very convenient. A small bag, stretched on a hoop, is attached to a pole. At the mouth of this a piece of iron of Y shape is fixed, which, with a slight twist, breaks off the fruit, letting it drop into the bag. It is especially adapted to gathering choice fruit on high trees.

☞ Hon. Daniel S. Dickinson, having been applied to to throw some light on the character of the fusion electoral ticket of New York, is said to have answered characteristically: "The voice is the voice of Jacob, but the hands are the hands of Esau."

☞ The first number of a weekly paper, to be styled the Squatter Sovereign, will be issued in Boston on Friday next. It will oppose a coalition with the Bell party.

ELECTOR FOR DISTRICT NO. 1.

The delegates representing the Republicans of the first Councillor District, assembled at the Town Hall, Exeter, on the 4th inst., at 10 o'clock A. M.

The Convention was organized by electing Wm. H. Y. Hackett of this city Chairman, and B. F. Prescott of Concord Secretary.

The Committee on Credentials, consisting of Dearborn of Portsmouth, Coffin of Concord, Jones of Deerfield, Leavitt of Exeter, and Corliss of Seabrook, reported the names of above one hundred and thirty delegates entitled to seats in the Convention.

The Convention proceeded by informal ballot to nominate a candidate for Elector. Hon. John Sullivan of Exeter, having a large majority of all the votes cast, was unanimously nominated.

In the course of the forenoon, Mr. Hackett announced the nomination to the mass meeting, which received it with enthusiastic demonstrations of applause.

The Republican Mass Meeting for Rockingham Councillor District, at Exeter, on Tuesday, was successfully conducted, according to the programme previously announced.

The procession was formed promptly on the arrival of the trains, and, with the numerous spectators, made the streets very lively for a couple of hours.

In the procession were five bands of music; scores of banners and flags, great and small; a good representation of our public men, including Gov. Goodwin and Mr. Marston, M. C. for this district; delegations on foot from many towns in the vicinity; and carriages, decorated and plain, rustic and finished, in great numbers, containing a multitude of men, women and children.

The streets were decorated with the flags of nations—at one point near the Squamscot House, with the flags of four or five nations; with Lincoln and Hamlin flags at frequent short intervals, with a number of Douglas and Johnson flags here and there, and with one Bell and Everett flag.

At the speaking stand, Mr. Marston, M. C., presided. He made the introductory speech, and was followed by Mr. Tuck, formerly M. C. from this district; and by Messrs. Van Wyck and McKean, both of New York State.

At the close of their remarks, a recess of three-quarters of an hour was taken.

After dinner, speeches were made by Messrs. Chase of Ohio and Wilson of Mass.; and when the train left for Portsmouth, Dover, and towns on the Concord & Portsmouth Railroad, about 5 o'clock, Senator Wilson was speaking to a large audience, which did not seem sensibly diminished by the hundreds that had left.

The large attendance, good order, and general success of the occasion, must have been satisfactory to those who projected and arranged the meeting.

☞ A letter from Aspinwall to the New York Picayune, dated the 15th ult, says:

"Since my last there has been an unusual and alarming spread of the Isthmus fever. Nearly every white person in the city has had it, and a much larger number of deaths have been noted down this season than any before since the railroad was finished. Among the deaths were the railroad company's physician and paymaster."

A DRUNKEN MESS.—It came out during the hearing of a case in the Lord Mayor's Court, the other day, that thirty-three members of the Social Club, consisting of barristers, officers, &c., consumed, at a supper given at London, no less than thirty-eight crown bowls of punch, in addition to considerable quantities of beer, wine and spirits.

☞ The official vote of the election in Kentucky has been received as follows:

Leslie Coombs, (Bell)	68,054
McCarty, (Breckinridge)	45,076
Bolling, (Douglas	10,874
Hopkins	804

Majority for Coombs 22,978; majority against Breckinridge 34,656.

☞ At Williamston, last week, a laboring man got into a hearse to take an after dinner nap, and did not wake until the vehicle reached the cemetery. His surprise at the locality brought on a severe fit of coughing, from which he finally escaped.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—Gain Robinson, a young lawyer of considerable promise in Buffalo, New York, was run over by an express train last Thursday and fatally injured. The accident was caused by Robinson's intemperance.

☞ A burglar in Williamsburg, N. Y., was married on Monday night by Rev. Mr. Cleveland, and a few nights after he broke into the minister's house and stole his silver. The rogue is arrested.

☞ An extensive soap factory is to go into operation in New Bedford shortly. Some of the solid men of the city are engaged in the business.

☞ The first street railway in England was to be inaugurated at Birkenhead on Thursday, Aug. 30. Geo. F. Train, of Boston, is the builder of the road.

BENEVOLENT DEEDS.—We have perused with great pleasure the annual report of that ever active and sympathetic missionary to the poor of Boston, the Rev. Father Cleveland, now in his eighty-ninth year. This report is the twenty-seventh annual record of his unobtrusive but blessed labors in behalf of the suffering and indigent. Notwithstanding his advanced years, he has passed in his mission of mercy over the streets, lanes and alleys of the city, up attics and down cellars, having especial regard to the sick, the aged, the widow and the fatherless. He has during the year answered in groceries, garments, shoes, flannels, sheetings, &c., 786 cards from patrons. He has also relieved 816 cases without cards. In addition to other labors 488 individuals have been visited.—Traveller.

MRS. MACREADY BEFORE HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS.—On the evening of the arrival of the Prince on our island, Mrs. Macready was requested to appear before his Royal Highness, to give some of her recitations. The reception was grand in the extreme, and most flattering to this gifted artiste. She received every kindness and attention from Mrs. Dundas, and was presented by Mr. Haviland and the Lieut. Governor, and after the entertainment was over was most highly commended by the Prince, who during the performance demonstrated his pleasure by the warmest expressions of applause.—Monitor, Aug. 15, (P. E. Island.)

THE HOUSE OF CHATTERBOXES.—The Long Parliament made a name for itself in history, and the present House of Commons bids fair to earn a somewhat similar name. It will probably be denominated the Long-winded Parliament.—Punch.

☞ We call the attention of our readers to an article advertised in another column, called BLOOD FOOD. It is an entirely new discovery, and must not be confounded with any of the numerous patent medicines of the day. It is food for the blood, already prepared for absorption; pleasant to the taste and natural in action, and what one gains he retains. Let all those, then, who are suffering from poverty, impurity, or deficiency of blood, and consequently with some chronic disease or without, take of this BLOOD FOOD and be restored to health. We notice that our druggists have received a supply of this article, and also of the world-renowned DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL, which every mother should have. It is said to contain no paregoric or opiate of any kind whatever, and of course must be invaluable for all infantile complaints. It is also said that it will allay all pain, and soften the gums in process of teething, and at the same time regulate the bowels. Let all mothers and nurses, who have endured anxious days and sleepless nights, procure a supply and be at once relieved.

Humphreys' Homeopathic Specifics
CURE PROMPTLY and safely all the more common diseases and ailments to which families are subject. In all acute diseases, such as fevers, inflammations, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Rheumatism, Croup, and such eruptive diseases as Scarlet Fever, Measles, and Erysipelas, the advantage of giving the proper remedies promptly is obvious, and in all such cases the specifics act like a charm. The entire disease is often arrested at once, and in all cases the violence of the attack is moderated, the disease shortened, and rendered less dangerous.

Coughs and Colds, which are of such frequent occurrence, and which so often lay the foundation of diseased lungs, Bronchitis and Consumption, may all be at once cured by the Fever and Cough Pills.

In all chronic diseases, such as Dyspepsia, Constipation, Weak Stomach, Liver Complaint, Piles Female Debility and Irregularities, old Headaches, Sore or Weak Eyes, Catarrh, Salt Rheum, and other old eruptions, the case has specifics whose proper application will afford a cure in almost every instance. Often the cure of a single chronic difficulty, such as Dyspepsia, Piles or Catarrh, Headache or Female Weakness, has more than paid for the case ten times over.

To Correspondents.—"Islington St.," very good in sentiment, but not much to boast of in the way of poetry—hardly up even to the passable of newspaper rhyming.

"Alexis's" very readable report of the Republican Mass Meeting at Exeter, he will see is superseded by another spectator.

☞ At the meeting of the Committee of Arrangements for the Fair, at Jefferson Hall, Tuesday evening, Wm. H. Rollins was chosen Secretary, and J. C. Carr Treasurer, of the Committee.

Messrs. C. E. Myers and C. H. Hayes were appointed a sub-committee to collect and arrange a Town Team for Portsmouth.

Mr. J. H. Head was appointed to take charge of the Decorations of the Tent, Arches, Town Team, &c., with request to report a list of assistants at the next meeting.

The Committee adjourned to meet at the office of the Secretary, on Friday evening, at half-past 7—on which occasion various other sub-committees will be appointed, and all members of the Committee are invited to be present. Wm. H. Rollins, Portsmouth, Sept. 5. Sec. Com.

☞ There is no longer any question as to filling the ranks of the Third Company of the Governor's Horse Guards, the armory of which is to be in Portsmouth. At the meeting Tuesday evening, several new recruits were enlisted; there have been half a dozen new uniforms ordered and received in this city since the June parade, and Mr. Walker has taken measures for several others. An armory is to be secured for the company forthwith. The troop will parade here with full ranks at the time of the Fair.

☞ On Wednesday afternoon, the clipper barque "Fury," of 350 tons, was launched by Mr. William F. Fernald, from the Raynes yard. She is intended for the Mediterranean trade, and is owned by David Draper & Son of Boston.

☞ We learn, on the best authority, that it is decided to have a General Muster of all the militia in New Hampshire, at Nashua, this Fall—the exact day for which is not yet fixed, but probably some time early in October. It is estimated that about six-hundred soldiers will parade, prominent among which, of course, will be the Veterans and Horse Guards.

☞ Hon. James B. McKean, Member of Congress from the fifteenth distrint of the State of New York, was in town, Wednesday, accompanied by Hon. Messrs. Thos. M. Edwards and Gilman Marston of N. H.

☞ Workmen have commenced operations on the Fair grounds, at the City Farm. The fence is being built, to enclose about ten acres, and the grounds are being prepared for the occasion.

Exeter.—Our correspondent says new and elegant buildings are going up on the site of the recent fires.

The Exeter Manufacturing Company, under the management of their new Agent, Mr. Norris, seem to have entered upon a new era of prosperity; and the stockholders are congratulating each other on the prospect of fat dividends in the future.

☞ On Tuesday forenoon, at Exeter, in a crowd not far from the depot, we understand a little girl named Marsh was knocked down by a horse, run over by a carriage, and killed.

☞ The Newark (N. J.) Advertiser of Monday says:—

We learn that a wager of $1000 was made and the money deposited in this city yesterday, between a well known Breckinridge man of this city and a prominent Douglas politician of Belleville. The Breckinridge man wagered the money that Mr. Lincoln would be elected. He says he is opposed to Mr. Lincoln, and shall vote against him, but as he bets to win, he has staked the money on Mr. Lincoln's success.

Buffalo, Sept. 4.—There is trouble at Kingston between the Prince's party and the Orangemen. The Prince refuses to land, and the Orangemen won't yield.—There is great excitement at Toronto from the same cause.

A battle was fought on the 10th between Miramon and Degollado, in which the former was defeated. The fight lasted five hours. Miramon was badly wounded, but escaped with a few cavalry—the rest of the army were taken prisoners. There is great excitement throughout the country.

The Prince of Wales must have a constitution equal to that of the United States. He is continually dining and driving, receiving and speaking. At the table a day or two since in Montreal, it was suddenly discovered, that, exhausted by the fatigue and excitement of the last few days, he had fallen asleep. A great debate ensued as to who should wake him but it was finally determined to let him sleep fifteen minutes.—Before that time he awoke, and the incident furnished a topic for laughter during the excursion.—Manchester American.

The Force of Example.—A girl, six years of age, screamed out to her little brother: 'Bob, you good-for-nothing little scamp, come right into the house this minute, or I will beat you till the skin comes off.' 'Why, Angeline, Angeline dear, what do you mean? where did you learn such talk?' exclaimed the mortified mother, who stood talking with a friend. Angeline's childish reply was a good commentary upon this manner of speaking to children: 'Why mother, you see we are playing, and he's my little boy, and I am scolding him just as you did me this morning; that's all."

A Fire Escape.—At dinner, one day Mr. Rodgers related a story of a nervous gentleman who kept a fire escape—a kind of sack, in which he could lower himself from his window. Being suddenly awakened one night by the sound, as he thought, of the wheels of a fire-engine, followed by a tremendous knocking at the door, he went down in his sack in great haste, and reached the street just in time to hand his wife (who had been to the opera) out of her carriage.

BLOOD FOOD

The attention of Invalids, Physicians, Clergymen, scientific men, and the public generally, is respectfully invited to the merits of this chemical preparation, containing Iron, Sulphur and Phosphorus, and which is identical in its composition with the Hematic Globule, or red blood.—In all diseases accompanied with

DEBILITY,

pale countenance and nervous derangement, analyses of the blood show a deficiency of the red globules. Ruddy complexion and a rosy tint of the skin, is always indicative of health; while a pale, wax-like skin and countenance, — which evinces a considerable deficiency of the red globules,—accompanies a diseased organism. Preparations of Iron have been given for the purpose of supplying the red globules, but we contend that Iron alone, or Sulphur alone, or Phosphorus alone, will not meet the deficiency in every case, but that a judicious combination of all these elements is necessary to restore the blood to its normal standard. This point, never before attained, has been reached in the Blood Food, and its discovery ranks as one of the most scientific and important of the age. Its effects in

are to soften the cough, brace the nerves, strengthen the system, allay the prostrating night sweats, increase the physical and mental energy, enrich the blood by restoring the lacking red globules, increase the appetite, restore the color, and clothe the skeleton frame with flesh. The Blood Food will be found a specific in all CHRONIC DISEASES of the THROAT or LUNGS, such as Catarrh, Bronchitis, Coughs, &c. Public speakers and singers will find it of great utility in clearing and strengthening the vocal organs. In Dyspepsia, Liver Complaints, Dropsy, Epilepsy, Paralysis, Scrofula, Gravel, St. Vitus' Dance, Fever and Ague, &c., its efficacy is marked and instantaneous. In no class of diseases, however, are the beneficial effects of this remedy so conspicuous as in those harrassing to which the gentler sex are liable, and which tend towards Consumption, such as suppressed or difficult Menstruation, Green Sickness, Whites, &c., especially when these complaints are accompanied with paleness, a dingy hue or pallor of the skin, depression of spirits, debility, palpitation, want of appetite, and nervous prostration. We have the utmost confidence in recommending the Blood Food to all who may be conscious of a loss of vitality or energy, and to those whose mental or bodily powers are prostrated through over-use, either of the mind or body, and we deem it our duty to say that in all cases of Weakness and Emaciation, and in all diseases of the Kidneys or Bladder, this preparation has a claim upon the attention of sufferers which cannot be over-estimated. A faithful trial will be found the most convincing proof in regard to its efficacy that could be asked for. With the above remarks, and with the numerous testimonials we have in its favor, we offer the "Blood Food" to the consideration of the afflicted, knowing that it will be acknowledged as pre-eminent over all other preparations, patent or official, in point of usefulness. Circulars giving the Theory upon which this remedy is founded, also certificates of remarkable cures, will be sent free when desired. We forward the Blood Food to any part of the United States or Canadas upon receipt of price—$1 per bottle, $5 for six bottles. Be careful in all cases to take none but that having our fac-simile signature upon the wrapper. None other is genuine.

LYMAN'S

Improved Patent Metallic Soles.

PATENTED JUNE 7, 1859.

The nature of this invention consists of a metallic sole for Boots and Shoes, which has been tested and operates admirably. No dampness penetrates through to the inside sole. This is the only device that will operate well between two soles, and is made so thin as not to interfere with the most delicately finished work. The necessity of such a device to fully accomplish the much desired object, and the direful effects arising from damp feet, are too well understood to require any comment.

It is obvious to every one that sole leather is porous, absorbing water, and that the soles of boots and shoes are often damp when they appear dry, causing cold feet, chills, neuralgia, rheumatism, consumption, &c.

Physicians of eminence have pronounced this Metallic Sole an invaluable discovery, and state that, if generally used, it will cause an immense saving of human life.

The right to manufacture and sell the above Improved Metallic Sole for the County of Rockingham has been purchased by the subscriber.

Boot and shoe manufacturers and dealers in Rockingham County furnished with the soles, with right to use, at No. 24 Market Street, Portsmouth, N. H. J. C. CARR.

SILVER SOAP.

A new and beautiful preparation made by the BOSTON INDEXICAL SOAP CO., expressly for cleaning and polishing Silver, Plated and Britannia Wares, and for cleaning Mirrors, Marble, Tin, &c. It is much more convenient and effective than any of the powders now in use, and may be used by even inexperienced help with perfect safety, as it contains nothing that can possibly injure the finest plate or jewelry, or even the most delicate skin, though not designed for toilet use. It is far superior to any other soap for cleaning fine House Paint, Statuary, Artificial Teeth Plate, &c.

Many of our largest importers, and manufacturers of silver and plated ware, who have used it, have given it their unqualified approval. Read the following:

BOSTON, May 2, 1859.

MESSRS. SAFFORD & BURDITT: Gentlemen,—After repeated trials of your Silver Soap, we can recommend it as the best article we have ever seen for cleaning plated and silver ware. It must soon be used by every family.

Yours, respectfully, SUMNER, BROWN & CO.,
(Late Jones, Ball & Co.)

BOSTON, June 1, 1859.

Gentlemen,—We have, during the last twelve months, given your Silver Soap a thorough trial, and find there is nothing to equal it, as it cleans silver quicker, better, and with less trouble than any thing we have been able to find.

Yours, respectfully, SAML. T. CROSBY,
62 Washington street.

BOSTON, June 13, 1859.

Gentlemen,—We have made careful trial of your Silver Soap, and find it admirably adapted to the cleaning of silver and plated wares, particularly the chased and frosted work, and we take pleasure in recommending it to the public as a safe and effective agent for removing tarnish and restoring the color with a very small amount of labor. We have never seen a better article for the above purpose. Yours, truly, &c.,

J. C. CARR.

THE Remedies are carefully prepared under the direct supervision and inspection of Prof. HUMPHREYS, in order to meet that great and long realized want of the public, namely, a reliable remedy for all the more common and simple ailments of life.

A moment's reflection will show that a vast majority of diseases, in every nation, are acute and of a simple character, and that, if they are taken in time, they will generally yield to a single dose, or to a few doses, when they are of a more chronic character, or have run into a state of disease, they will not yield to less than a course of medicine. Hence these remedies supply a great public want. Being on hand, simple, so you know at once what to take—pleasant, so as to cause no repugnance—safe, and hence occasioning no risk, while the curative effects are positive and certain, they are taken, and at once the sick is healed and the danger shunned.

Experience has amply confirmed the use of these remedies for families and private persons, as being THE MOST SIMPLE, THE MOST SAFE AND CONVENIENT, THE MOST PROMPT AND RELIABLE.

Thousands are and have been using them for some five years, and have found, in every country, with almost invariable success. All speak in the highest terms of their simplicity and certainty, and many are now using them, regards the uniform testimony is, that they give good satisfaction to their customers.

Dyspepsia Remedy

DR. DARIUS HAM'S

AROMATIC INVIGORATING SPIRIT.

This medicine has been used by the public for six years, with increasing favor. It is recommended to cure Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Heartburn, Colic Pains, Wind in the Stomach, or Pains in the Bowels, Headache, Drowsiness, Kidney Complaints, Low Spirits, Delirium Tremens, Intemperance. It Stimulates, Exhilarates, Invigorates, but will not Intoxicate or Stupefy.

As a Medicine, it is quick and effectual, curing the most aggravated cases of Dyspepsia, Kidney Complaints, and all other derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, in a speedy manner.

It will instantly revive the most melancholy and drooping spirits, and restore the weak, nervous and sickly to health, strength and vigor.

Persons who, from the injudicious use of liquors, have become dejected, and their nervous systems shattered, constitutions broken down, and subject to that horrible curse to humanity, the Delirium Tremens, will, almost immediately, feel the happy and invigorating efficacy of Dr. Ham's Invigorating Spirit.

What it will do!

DOSE.—1 wine glass full as often as necessary.

One dose will remove a Cold Spell.

One dose will cure Heartburn.

Three doses will cure Indigestion.

One dose will give you a good appetite.

One dose will stop the distressing pains of Dyspepsia.

One dose will remove the distressing and disagreeable effects of Wind or Flatulence, and as soon as the Stomach receives the Invigorating Spirit, the distressing load and all painful feelings will be removed.

One dose will remove the most distressing pains of Colic, either in the stomach or bowels.

A few doses will remove all obstructions in the Kidney, Bladder or Urinary Organs.

Persons who are seriously afflicted with any Kidney Complaints, are assured speedy relief by a dose or two, and a radical cure by the use of one or two bottles.

NIGHTLY DISSIPATION.

Persons who, from dissipating too much over night, and feel the evil effects of poisonous liquors, in violent headaches, sickness at stomach, weakness, giddiness &c., will find one dose will remove all bad feelings.

Ladies of weak and sickly constitutions, should take the Invigorating Spirit three times a day; it will make them strong, healthy, and happy, remove all obstructions and irregularities from the menstrual organs, and restore the bloom of health and beauty to the careworn face.

During pregnancy it will be found an invaluable medicine to remove disagreeable sensations at the stomach.

All the proprietor asks, is a trial, and to induce this, he has put up the Invigorating Spirit in pint bottles, at 50 cents, qts $1.

DR. MOTT'S CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE PILLS OF IRON.

An aperient and Stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States and recommended in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Numerous in all maladies in which it has been tried—it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

In DEBILITY, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, EMACIATIONS, CONSTIPATION, DIARRHŒA, DYSPEPSIA, DYSENTERY, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, SALT RHEUM, MISMENSTRUATION, WHITES, CHLOROSIS, RHEUMATISM, INTERMITTENT FEVERS, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, &c.

In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of acute disease or of the continued diminution of vital energy from exhaustion or chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed-ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female sufferers, emaciated victims of nervous marasmus, symptoms simulating consumption, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise by which the physician is often at his wits end.

In NERVOUS AFFECTIONS of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation is of the necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old oxides, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and stimulating; and gently, yet regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a specific and speedy influence, by dispersing the local tendency, which forms them.

In DYSPEPSIA, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In unchecked DIARRHŒA, even when advanced to DYSENTERY, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been quite decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent hectic, which generally indicate PULMONARY CONSUMPTION, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well-known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In RHEUMATISM, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, when decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In INTERMITTENT FEVERS it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

Scarcely any remedy has ever been discovered, in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects.—Lost appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by Druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to

CLIPPER PLOWS

Are manufactured only by the subscribers, the inventors, who offer them to the agricultural interest after they have been

THOROUGHLY TESTED

by experienced Plowmen, who pronounce them

The Best in the Market!

These Plows embrace NINE DIFFERENT SIZES, the largest of which is much in advance of anything in the United States, as regards size, and, like the other sizes of this celebrated Plow, is drawn easily by a team much smaller than is absolutely requisite to draw a Plow of less size, of any other make than the Clipper.

We also assure our Farming friends that as we have hitherto endeavored to make our Plows superior to all others in those points which especially interest Plowmen, we are still endeavoring by unceasing exertions, to improve—if this be possible—upon our former successes, although those who are best acquainted in these matters say, "It cannot be done."

Notwithstanding the immense advantages which these Plows possess over all others, we offer them at THE SAME PRICES as are charged for common grades, satisfied that their great superiority will induce so large a sale, that our aggregate profits will make our business sufficiently remunerative.

APPLEDORE HOUSE,
ISLES OF SHOALS.
This favorite resort for the man of leisure and the invalid is now open. Since last year many alterations and additions have been made, increasing its capacity. Billiard and Bowling Saloons are provided, and every measure taken to secure the comfort and amusement of its guests.
An abundance of sweet cream and milk is supplied from healthy cows kept on the Island. The table is faultless. The facilities for fishing have been increased by the addition of new boats and experienced skippers.
When to all these advantages are added the purity of the air—the delicious coolness of the ocean breeze, its invigorating and appetizing power—the loveliness of the scenery—the glory of its sunsets—the cleanliness of its walks—its freeness from dust, mud, and all other annoyances of the kind—it may truly be said to possess advantages and attractions which no other watering place in New England can attain. The equability of the temperature is a natural advantage over the coast or the mountains, which invalids can fully appreciate.
A daily Packet, the SIBYL, Capt. Preble, runs direct to Appledore from Portsmouth, leaving Pier Wharf on the arrival of the morning train from Boston, and returns in the afternoon. The Sibyl has every accommodation for the comfort of passengers which a Packet requires.

THE ONLY PREPARATION
Having Proof so Strong and Direct
as to
Expel the Doubts of All.
For Statesmen, Judges, Editors, Physicians of the oldest schools as well as new, give it their unqualified sanction, and recommend it for all cases of eruptions, and diseases of the scalp and brain; but all woo have used it, unite in testifying that it will preserve the hair from being gray, nap from falling to any age, as well as restore.—Read the following:—
Oak Grove, S. C., June 24, 1859.
Prof. O. J. Wood:—Dear:—Your Hair Restorative is rapidly gaining popularity in this community. I have had occasion to lay prejudice aside, and give your Hair Restorative a perfect test:—
During the year 1854, I was so unfortunate as to be thrown from my silly mustang on a rock near the roadside, from which my head received a most terrible blow; causing a great deal of irritation, which communicated to the brain and external surface of the head, from the effects of which my hair was entirely destroyed. From the time I first discovered its dropping, however, up to the time of its total disappearance, I employed everything I could think of, being a professional man myself, and as I thought, understanding the nature of the disease, but was finally defeated in every prescription advanced.
These and no other circumstances induced me to resort to your worthy "Hair Restorative," which I have every reason to believe, produced a very happy result: two months after the first application, I had as beautiful a head of young hair as I ever saw, for which I certainly owe you my sincere thanks. Rest assured, dear sir, I feel confident that much and all other annoyances of the kind—it may truly be said to possess advantages and attractions which no other watering place in New England can attain. The equability of the temperature is a natural advantage over the coast or the mountains, which invalids can fully appreciate.
A daily Packet, the SIBYL, Capt. Preble, runs direct to Appledore from Portsmouth, leaving Pier Wharf on the arrival of the morning train from Boston, and returns in the afternoon. The Sibyl has every accommodation for the comfort of passengers which a Packet requires.
Yours, very respectfully,
M. J. WRIGHT, M. D.
Jeffersonian Office, Phillipi, Va., Dec. 12, 1859.
Professor O. J. Wood:—Dear Sir: I feel it my duty as well as my pleasure, to state to you the following circumstance, which you can use as you think proper. A gentleman of this place, (a lawyer,) has been bald ever since his early youth; so much so, that he was compelled to wear a wig. He was induced to try a bottle of your "Hair Restorative," which he liked very much; and after using some two or three bottles his hair grew out quite luxuriantly, and he now has a handsome head of hair. The gentleman's name is Bradford, and as he is very well known in our adjoining counties, many persons can testify to the truth of this statement: I give this to you at the request of Mr. Bradford. You can sell a great deal of your Hair Restorative in this and the adjoining counties if you have the proper agents. Yours, &c.,
THOMPSON SURGHNOR.
Dr. Wood—Dear Sir—Permit me to express the obligations I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color; about the time of my arrival in the United States it was rapidly becoming gray, but upon the application of your Hair Restorative it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative as a very wonderful invention, quite officacious as well as agreeable. S. THALBERG.
The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes: viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 7, 1860.

MAINE STATE ELECTION will take place next Monday, and is deemed of great importance by all parties.

Maine last year was Republican by the following vote:—Republicans 56,338; Democrats 44,340, on a total vote of 100,000,—In 1856, on a vote of 109,000, the vote was as follows:—Fremont, 67,379; Buchanan, 39,080; Fillmore, 3,325,—the Republican majority 24,974.

Year before last, 1858, when the present Members of Congress were chosen in Maine, there were at least 20,000 more votes thrown than last year—and in that election Gov. Morrill had only about 8000 majority.

There can be no reasonable doubt that Washburn will be chosen Governor by 10,000 or 12,000 majority, and that the State government will be Republican in all its branches; as their Governor last year had nearly 12,000 majority,—there were 30 Republicans in the Senate, to 1 Democrat,—and 119 Republicans in the House, to 32 Democrats.

In respect to Representatives in Congress, there is more room for doubt, and to this point the efforts of both parties will be turned.

All the six Representatives are now Republicans—but in the First District the sitting member had only 455 majority; in the Third, only 63! and in the Sixth 100.

In some of the counties, the vote for county officers was close. York county was one of these.

"I care not whether slavery is voted up or down."—Stephen A. Douglas.

There has been a dispute as to the correctness of this quotation. The Augusta Age, the leading Democratic paper in Maine, settles the question by a longer quotation from Mr. Douglas's speech on the infamous Lecompton Bill, in which speech he says:

If Kansas wants a slave State constitution, she has a right to it; if she wants a free State constitution, she has a right to it. It is none of my business which way the slavery clause is decided. I care not whether it is voted down or up.

☞ Mr. Douglas spoke in Baltimore, Wednesday night; Mr. Breckinridge spoke at Lexington, Wednesday, against Douglas, who he says was not regularly nominated. He adds that, at Baltimore,

"The most flagrant acts of injustice were perpetrated for the purpose of forcing a particular dogma upon the Democratic organization, and the gentleman who is the representative also of a principle repugnant alike to reason and the constitution.

☞ A planter named Kelley was lately killed at Columbus, Miss., by one of his slaves, who stabbed him with a bowie-knife. Another planter on the same place undertook to chastise a negro, when the latter drew a bowie-knife upon him, and a search disclosed twenty of these ugly weapons on the persons of his chattels. A secret association called the "Z society," has been discovered in Choctaw county, Ala., supposed to have an abolition object, and a Lynch court has been organized for the trial and punishment of conspirators.

SOME COLT.—The American Stock Journal says E. Swan, of Worcester, Mass., has a three year old colt, iron grey, that bids fair to become a mastodon. He is seventeen hands high, weighs over thirteen hundred pounds, and for so large an animal is short-gaited and nimble. Mr. Swan thinks at six years old he can be made to weigh at least two thousand. He is large boned and short jointed, and if his body should ever be proportioned to his legs, it would puzzle a teamster to find a load for him.

THOUGHT THE MALARIA OF NEW ENGLAND.—Dr. Holmes, in his recent address before the Massachusetts Medical Society, alludes to the freedom with which each speaks his thought in the Medical Society as belonging "in part to the assured position of the profession in our Commonwealth, to the attitude of science, which is always fearless, and to the genius of the soil on which we stand, from which Nature withheld the fatal gift of malaria only to fill it with exhalations that breed the fever of inquiry in our blood and in our brains."

☞ Of the eight Democratic papers in Connecticut, four have already hoisted the Breckinridge and Lane flag, viz.: the New Haven Register, Hartford Times, Middletown Sentinel, and the New London Star. Two have hoisted the Douglas and Johnson flag, viz.: New Haven News and Hartford Press. The Bridgeport Farmer is decidedly for Breckinridge, but has as yet hoisted no names. The Norwich Aurora gives a quasi support to Douglas, under protest.

☞ Two prize-fighters named Kernan and Kennedy, who were preparing for a ring fight on Bloomingdale road, were arrested by the New York police last Sunday afternoon. A large crowd had gathered to witness the affair.

For the Chronicle.

TOPPING CORN.—That the old practice of topping corn, before the corn is fully ripe, or when it is first scaled over, is injurious to the corn, has been proved by many fair experiments, removing all doubt upon the subject. It has been clearly proved that by topping, when the corn is first scaled over, there will be a less number of bushels to the acre, less in weight, and less in sweetness. Some farmers believe that by topping early, the corn will ripen earlier, because it will be more exposed to the warmth of the sun in the day-time. Will they not consider that it will be more exposed to the cold and winds in the night-time, and that the wide blades are some protection, especially against early frosts?

It is an established fact that the corn will ripen earlier without topping. It does not come to maturity until the saccharine juice, or milky substance, ceases to enter the kernel, and the juice is elaborated (a chemical process) in the blade before it enters the cob. The nutriment, which the roots extract from the soil, is a very different substance from the milky substance which finally forms the kernel.

How unwise and unreasonable, therefore, to top the corn, when nature is striving to bring it to maturity. Nature is perfect in all her works. There is no part of the corn vegetable that is not essential to bring it to maturity. If the corn is cut down near the soil, soon after it is thoroughly ripe, the butts will afford more nutriment to cattle than the tops, and the cattle will consume them in the early part of the winter. Any farmer, by fair experiments, will be convinced of the truth of the above remarks.

A FARMER.

☞ We have already mentioned that Rev. Mr. Kalloch has again left the ministry, and gone into the practice of law at Leavenworth. The following resolution was passed by the society over which he was pastor in that city:

Resolved, That during the time the Rev. I. S. Kalloch has been our pastor, he has served us with distinguished ability, devotion and success; that we reluctantly yield to his unconditional demand for a release from his pastorate over us; that we part with him with entire confidence in him as a good man and good minister; and that in the new work to which he propores to devote his energies, we wish him the most abundant success.

Mr. Kalloch has entered into partnership with Judge J. L. Pendery, and commences his legal career as the defender of Gordon, accused of murder at Denver.

PREMATURE APPLICATION.—In order for the reader to understand and appreciate the following incident, which we cut from the Herald, it is necessary to know that the City Clerk of Newburyport has a brother, a doctor,—they are twins, we believe,—and we will add that both are portly, good-natured old gentlemen, and each can enjoy his joke.

A Slight Mistake.—A few days since, a physician of this city, who is so much like the City Clerk that few people can tell one brother from "t'other," was called on by a young gentlemen with a fair damsel on his arm, who was all smiles and blushes, to obtain a certificate for marriage. "Oh," responded the physician in his bland manner, "it is my brother you call on before marriage; my call comes afterwards."

A REMARKABLE CASE.—The Barnstable Patriot states that a young man named Keith, who was badly injured by the premature discharge of a cannon at Hyannis last year, has been enabled, by the use of admirably contrived artificial hands and fore-arms, to write, send messages as a telegraph operator, drive a horse and carriage, and perform very many other acts requiring muscular agility and skill.

☞ A barber in Hartford keeps a rattlesnake and a red adder in his shop for the amusement of his customers. The other day, while the reptiles were having a tussle with a rat, the glass over the box was accidentally broken, and the pair set at liberty. About twenty-five men got out of the shop as quick as the thing could be done—some of them well lathered for tonsorial operations. Among those who showed the greatest agility, was the Chief of Police.

☞ The Louisville Courier says that authentic information received from members of the Missouri Legislature personally, give the friends of Breckinridge in the two Houses, being a clear majority on joint ballot. This, contrary to previous statements, would favor the probable return of James S. Green to the U. S. Senate.

☞ The Rev. Asa Kent, who was very extensively known throughout New England, as an early and devoted minister in the Methodist Episcopal Church, died at New Bedford on Saturday last. He has been one of the most efficient and popular clergymen of his denomination, and was much beloved and respected by all. His age was 80 years.

☞ The subscription in Hayti for the family of John Brown amounted to just $184 50, Haytien currency, which, owing to depreciation would realize in this country only $11 07.

NEW YORK, Sept. 5.—Seymour Benedict, mate of the ship Fidelia, was arrested yesterday, charged with the murder of David Furguson, second mate, on the voyage to Liverpool.

Henry Smalley of New Jersey, was instantly killed yesterday, while bathing, having jumped from the topmast of a vessel.

Elizabeth Corcoran, in a fit of delirium tremens, jumped from the fourth story of a dwelling house and was instantly killed.

T. W. Greenalch, engineer on the Hudson Railroad, died yesterday from injuries received on the road last Monday.

Sarah Mallady died yesterday from injuries received at the hands of her reputed husband, John Van Camp.

A staging erected over a cavity in Broadway, fell last night while persons were crossing it, precipitating several into the chasm, and seriously injuring them.

A freight train on the New York Central Railroad ran off the track near Palmyra yesterday, smashing some dozen or so of cars, and damaging their contents.

Frederick Haffy, a carman, fell down a hatchway in Broadway yesterday, and was killed.

NEWARK, N. J., Sept. 5.—The Protestant Associations of this city and New York had a celebration to-day. There was a large procession. The Brigade were under arms most of the day, in anticipation of a riot. When the New York Societies were about to return, each member discharged a pistol from the cars. A negro woman was accidentally shot, probably fatally.

What are these Protestant Associations? Are they Irish?—And why do they carry pistols?

KINGSTON, Canada, Sept. 5.—The Orangemen paraded to-day. They formed on the wharf, as if to receive the Prince.

One of their officers was mounted, and with a drawn sword shouted "no surrender." The Prince refused to land and left for Bellville, where an Orange arch had been erected. The Orangemen of this city will probably charter a steamer and follow the Prince. The officials of three counties presented an address to the Prince on board the steamer.

TORONTO, Canada, Sept. 5.—The Orangemen meet to-night to decide on what course to pursue. The community is greatly excited, and the common salutation is "no surrender."

☞ Hon. I. N. Morris of Illinois has written a letter to Col. Orr of South Carolina, rebuking the latter's disunion utterances.—The position of Mr. Morris, as the man who can give the vote of Illinois to Lincoln, instead of Breckinridge, if the election goes into the House, gives this letter much significance.

☞ In the British House of Commons, on the 25th ult., Lord Palmerston acknowledged the services rendered to the Christians in Syria by Abd-el Kader. He said the British Consul had been instructed to tender him the thanks of the British Government.

VERMONT ELECTION.—Montpelier, Vt., Sept. 5.—We have received returns of the election of yesterday from nearly one-half of the State, and there is no reason to change the estimate telegraphed last evening as to the final result. Mr. Fairbanks is chosen Governor by at least 20,000 majority. All the Republican candidates for Congress are elected by increased majorities. The State Senate is doubtless entirely Republican. The House is also Republican, nine to one.

☞ A fire broke out in the barn attached to the Almshouse at Medford, Mass., about 10 o'clock Wednesday evening, which destoyed the barn, the house and out-buildings. The inmates were safely removed, and lodged in the Town Hall. The fire is supposed to have been caused by an incendiary. Loss $6,000. Insured for $3000.

NEW YORK, Sept. 5.—Ship Dowan reports August 25, off Georges, saw a large balloon going east.

The correspondent of the New York Times was arrested to-day for a libel on the Secretary of War. He waived an examination.

☞ The Charleston Mercury is informed by an extensive planter on the Edisto, that the rice crop of the present season will be the largest that has been made for several years. Planters have already commenced threshing.

☞ A sun fish weighing 200 pounds was harpooned by Capt. Carr, of the sloop Willar, as he was passing Point Judith on Saturday. The oil from the livers of these fish is valuable for medicinal purposes and for lubricating watches.

☞ A Calabrian recently detected at Faro confessed to having been hired by Count d'Aguila to assassinate Garibaldi. Faro is a famous place for knaves to turn up, even kings and queens being often found there in company with them.

☞ It appears by the Ballot, that a little boy aged 6 years, son of Mr. E. F. Blake, was knocked down at Exeter on Tuesday, and hurt, but not killed.—Out of this accident came the story of the girl being killed.

SUNDAY SERVICES.—Rev. Elmer Hewitt is to preach at South New Market, next Sunday.—Rev. T. H. Miller is to preach at Nottingham.

Gov. Moore, of Alabama, has given a new direction to gallantry, and manifested his deference to the female sex in a novel way. It is reported that, finding the penitentiary at Wetumpka too full, he has discharged the female convicts to make room for the males.—Springfield Republican.

☞ Think of a telegraph wire from Stamboul to Nineveh! One is probably constructed by this time,—a continuation of that which runs along the Tigris.

Local.

☞ The Water Controversy seems not to be settled yet, by a jug full. We have already published the decision of the Court respecting the matter, the subsequent operations of the Aqueduct Co., and the counteraction of the C. & P. Railroad Co. through their President. The Aqueduct Co. had dug a long trench beside the railroad track, to receive the logs which were to run from the spring to the city; when the work was suspended by order of C. L. Frost, Esq. in the name of the Railroad—he maintaining that the committee appointed by Court "to lay out the route of the logs and allow damages," had not done so.

We now learn that an impervious cemented brick wall is being built around the famous spring in the Railroad Co.'s land—which will, it is thought, effectually prevent any water "percolating" from the premises of one corporation to the other, and thus show where the source of the supply is located. This wall is to run eleven feet below the surface of the ground; and beneath this, plank are to be driven down lengthwise—the whole work being under the personal supervision of the determined and energetic President of the C. & P. Railroad Co. himself—who, whether he is right or not, evidently thinks he is, and shows himself bound to go ahead as long as he can.

☞ While the Corporations are quarreling over the liberal Spring of clear and sparkling water, now wasting its supplies in Great Swamp, the people here in the city are gasping for cold water. Men by the dozen or score meet us at the street-corners, and want the Chronicle to touch-up the Aqueduct Co.; and if we do chance to make a remark concerning the short supply, some equally earnest, and perhaps no less worthy and reliable friends in the interest of the Water Co. blame us for aiding to create a prejudice against a valuable and well-managed institution.

So, "ye rebels," we don't see what we can do, unless we can "bring water out of the rock" wall now being laid round the spring "we read of" so much. There was much complaint of no water to be had in the vicinity of Market Square, Thursday; and the usual condemnation of the breweries,—or rather perhaps of the Aqueduct Co. for granting them so large a supply, to the deprivation of the citizens in general, —for we cannot see that a brewer, more than any other consumer, is to be blamed if he pays the price asked for what he uses.

MORE THAN PROMPT.—We learn that the Concord (& Boston) Railroad Co. have remitted to the Treasurer of the Concord & Portsmouth Railroad Co., a check for the amount of the six months loan, due on the 13th of September. This will enable the company to declare its dividend to the stockholders two weeks earlier than last year. It will probably be paid on the 13th inst.—the day the loan money was due.

POLICE COURT.—Sept. 6. Before Justice Odell.—Wm. Ryan gave bail in $400, to answer to the complaint of Mary Foley, before the Supreme Judicial Court in October.

On previous days, Patrick Buckley and Abigail his wife, were accused of assault on Margaret Daire—but the complaint was quashed.

Wiathrop Ricker plead guilty of assault on Lyman D. Hartford; and paid $5 fine, and $6.08 costs.

THE BILL OF MORTALITY, in Portsmouth, for the month of August, is remarkably small for a summer month, being only 10 in a population of about 10,000.

Four of the deceased were males, aged 42, 63, 80, 81 years.

Six were females, aged 1, 3, 4, 7 months; 41, 87 years.

Thus, the deaths were six adults, all middle-aged and old; and four infants, of less age than a year.

☞ The Democrats of Ward 1 were notified to meet Thursday evening, to choose delegates to the State Convention,—and the handbill contained the following test:—

All legal voters in said Ward who support Douglas and Johnson, the regular nominees of the Democratic party, are earnestly invited to attend.

THE SUIT BETWEEN THE FITCHBURG AND EASTERN RAILROAD COMPANIES.—A case was tried before a Sheriff's jury, at Cambridge, a few weeks since, in which the Fitchburg Railroad claimed heavy damages from the Eastern Railroad Company, in consequence of alleged injury to their engines and cars by the crossing of their track by the Eastern Railroad at Somerville. The jury sealed up their verdict and placed it in the hands of the Sheriff, and yesterday it was opened by the Judge of the Superior Court, in session at Lowell. The jury found a verdict in favor of the respondents. This case has been in litigation some four or five years.—Atlas.

☞ In the S. J. Court of Concord, Andrew J. Sherburne of Epsom plead guilty to two indictments for keeping liquor for sale, and was fined $50 and costs.

State v. Geo. M. Rines for keeping liquor for sale at the "Ramshead." Verdict guilty.

THE OLD YANKEE FARMER.

[A homely old Ballad, brought to mind by the coming anniversary of the County Fair.]

Here's a health to the Farmer who lives on the land,
Made the best and the richest on earth by his hand:
You may search the wide world, but there's naught to be seen
That can rival the true Yankee Farmer, I ween.

What life is so happy? He's up with the sun—
He hears the day's poetry sweetly begun
By the lark and the cuckoo, the swallow and wren,
And sees the green lawn all bespangled with pearl!

While sluggards in cities, 'mid tumult and strife,
Lose all the best part of this quick-fading life,
He quaffs Hebe's cup at Aurora's first ray,
And lives twice as long as they do ev'ry day!

He rules ev'ry station, from castle to cot;
He's neither by noble nor peasant forgot;
The peer and the ploughman together agree
That the farmer should never want company.

Look round you—what treasures his riches unfold!
His granaries filled with those sheaves of bright gold!
His pens and his pastures all breathing with life,
And his home far away from all passion and strife!

Then, a health to the Farmer who lives on the land,
Made the best and the richest on earth by his hand:
You may roam the wide world, but there's naught to be seen
That can rival the true Yankee Farmer, I ween!

LATE FROM ITALY, via Naples.—The fort of Reggio capitulated on the 21st. The garrison was allowed to leave with muskets and personal baggage only.

Gen. Cozenz, with a considerable force, had crossed the straits at Finmicino, and two Neapolitan brigades had surrendered to him at discretion.

The Garibaldians were masters of the Fort of Delpizzo. They had also, after a short fight occupied the villa San Giovanni.

The defection of the army at Naples was considered extremely probable, and it was hoped that Garibaldi would enter the city in triumph without bloodshed.

Conflicts had taken place between the Neapolitan troops and some Bersieglieri, who landed from Sardinian vessels.

An English steamer, the Orful, from Hull, with passengers for Messina, was seized by the passengers while the captain was ashore at Genoa. It is supposed that the passengers were friends of Garibaldi. The vessel was chartered under a penalty of $6000 against seizure. The inference is that she was designed for Garibaldi.

The Sardinian Government has forbid any more volunteers embarking at Genoa for Sicily.

A TRAVELLER PUZZLED.—A distinguished foreigner who is stopping at one of the Boston hotels, found some boiled Indian corn on the table one day at dinner, a dish to which he was unaccustomed. Following examples set around him, he ate of the corn, and liking it very much, he passed the cob to the waiter and asked to have some more corn put on it. The waiter was waggish, and he took the cob and returned a fresh ear, so the traveller knew he had done just right.

"Why, Mrs. B., how do you manage to have such nice Bread and Biscuit?" "Because I use Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus. I never saw any half as good. I like it much better to use with cream tartar than I do soda. I shall never use any other. If you will try one paper, Mrs. W., you will say the same. It has almost cured my dyspepsia." Most all the Grocers keep it.

There is another article in the market put up in similar colored papers. Do not be deceived by it. See that the name of HERRICK ALLEN is on the wrapper, and no mistake can occur. Manufactured by Allen & Taylor, corner of Canal and Centre streets, New York, and sold at wholesale by Israel Nash & Co., Boston. M&F is

CURE PROMPTLY and safely all the more common diseases and ailments to which families are subject. In all acute diseases, such as Fevers, Inflammations, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Rheumatism, Croup, and such cruptive diseases as Scarlet Fever, Measles, and Epepsies, the advantage of giving the proper remedies promptly is obvious, and in all such cases the specifics act like a charm. The entire disease is often arrested at once, and all cases the violence of the attack is moderated, the disease shortened, and rendered less dangerous.

Coughs and Colds, which are of such frequent occurrence, and which so often lay the foundation of diseased lungs, Bronchitis and Consumption, may all be at once cured by the Fever and Cough Pills.

In all chronic diseases, such as Dyspepsia, Constipation, Weak Stomach, Liver Complaint, Piles Female Debility and Irregularities, old Headaches, Sore or Weak Eyes, Catarrh, Salt Rheum and other old eruptions, the case has specifics whose proper application will afford a cure in almost every instance. Often the cure of a single chronic difficulty, such as Dyspepsia, Piles or Catarrh, Headache or Female Weakness, has more than paid for the case ten times over.

LYMAN'S

Improved Patent Metallic Soles.

PATENTED JUNE 7, 1859.

The nature of this invention consists of a metallic sole for Boots and Shoes, which has been tested and operates admirably. No dampness penetrates through to the inside sole. This is the only device that will operate well between two soles, and is made so thin as not to interfere with the most delicately finished work. The necessity of such a device to fully accomplish the much desired object, and the direful effects arising from damp feet, are too well understood to require any comment.

It is obvious to every one that sole leather is porous, absorbing water, and that the soles of boots and shoes are often damp when they appear dry, causing cold feet, chills, neuralgia, rheumatism, consumption, &c.

Physicians of eminence have pronounced this Metallic Sole an invaluable discovery, and state that, if generally used, it will cause an immense saving of human life.

The right to manufacture and sell the above Improved Metallic Sole for the County of Rockingham has been purchased by the subscriber.

Boot and shoe manufacturers and dealers in Rockingham County furnished with the soles, with right to use, at No. 24 Market Street, Portsmouth, N. H. J. C. CARR.

Morning Chronicle.

M. Blondin Outdone.—The rope extended from an eminence on the hill side above the village, over a ravine and down to a green knoll in the fields below, and was drawn as tight as several hundred men with their united strength could effect.—They had just finished stretching it when we arrived, and I could scarcely believe a man was actually going to slide down it; the feat appeared so utterly impracticable with any chance of safety. Imagine a rope extended from the top of a rock at least five hundred feet high, to a pole some two thousand feet from its base, and some idea may be formed of the undertaking.—A great concourse of people of both sexes were assembled, all in their holiday garb, and the man who was to slide was swinging round at the end of a long plank fixed in an upright pole as a pivot. Every few moments he called some person amongst the crowd by name, and swinging round several times to the individual's honor, received from him a trifling gratuity. He no sooner saw me than I was included in the category, and being told it was in no way a religious ceremony, I gave him a rupee.

When this was over he was escorted to the eminence above, amidst the loud lamentations of his family and the discordant music of the village. With the glass I saw him placed on a saddle on the rope, two individuals busied fastening something to his legs, which I saw afterwards were bags filled with earth. The spectators, amongst whom I stood, were assembled in groups near the pole to which the lower end of the rope was attached, all intently watching for the descent. Presently he was let go, and came down several hundred yards with terrible velocity, a stream of smoke following in his wake. As he approached us the incline being gradually diminished, his career was less rapid, and became slower and slower towards the end, where the rope being sufficiently near the ground he was taken down, amidst the shouts and congratulation of the villagers.—A Ramble in the Himalayas.

The North Carolina State Convention of the Douglas Democracy nominated candidates for the Presidential Electors, who were instructed by resolution to vote for Douglas as long as there were a possibility of his election, but in the opposite contingency to vote so as to throw the election into the House, so as to defeat the Republicans. That is, to defeat the election by the people and the House, and so try to make Lane President. But the instructions are harmless, as there will be no Douglas electors from North Carolina in the Electoral college.—Atlas.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents,

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, Under the act of 1837.

76 STATE, OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The manner practice of his predecessor during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. Therefore, he has added to his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse." CHAS. MASON, Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office." JOHN LAGGART.

From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on TWICE rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in HIS FAVOR, by the Commissioner of Patents.

Humphreys' Specific Homeopathic Remedies for the People

The Remedies are carefully prepared under the direct supervision and inspection of Prof. HUMPHREYS, physician of twenty years' standing and long realized want of the public, namely, remedies for all the more common and simple ailments of life.

A number of them have been in use long enough to know that a vast majority of diseases from which we suffer and die, were, at their commencement, simple and trifling. A mere cold, a slight diarrhœa, a pain in the side, or a headache, or hoarseness, at first easily cured and subdued, in time becomes a consumption, a fever, a dangerous diarrhœa, or pleurisy, or some disease, which all the powers of medicine fail to arrest.

Herein these remedies supply a great public want. Being so simple, so safe, so prompt, so sure and so easy to take—pleasant, so as to cause no repugnance—safe, and hence occasioning no risk, while the curative effects are positive and certain, they are taken, and at once the spell is broken and the danger allayed.

Experience has amply confirmed the use of these remedies for families, and private persons, as being THE BEST IN USE, THE MOST SIMPLE AND CONVENIENT, THE MOST PROMPT AND RELIABLE.

Thousands have and have been using them for some five years past, in every section of the country, with almost invariable success. All speak in the highest terms of their simplicity and certainty, and among our hundreds of agents the uniform testimony is, that they give good satisfaction to their customers.

Dyspepsia Remedy

DR. DARIUS HAM'S

AROMATIC INVIGORATING SPIRIT.

This medicine has been used by the public for six years, with increasing favor. It is recommended to cure Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Heartburn, Colic Pains, Wind in the Stomach, or Pains in the Bowels, Headache, Drowsiness, Kidney Complaints, Low Spirits, Delirium Tremens, Intemperance, Ill Stimulates, Exhilarates, Invigorates, but will not Intoxicate or Stupefy.

As a Medicine, it is quick and effectual, curing the most aggravated cases of Dyspepsia, Kidney Complaints, and all other derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, in a speedy manner.

It will instantly revive the most melancholy and dropsy of spirits, and restore the weak, nervous and sickly to health, strength and vigor.

Persons who, from the injudicious use of liquors, have become dejected, and their nervous systems shattered, constitutions broken down, and subject to that horrible curse to humanity, the Delirium Tremens, will, almost immediately, feel the happy and invigorating efficacy of Dr. Ham's Invigorating Spirit.

What it will do!

Does.—1 wine glass full as often as necessary.
One dose will remove all Bad Spirits.
One dose will cure Heartburn.
Three doses will cure Indigestion.
One dose will give you a good appetite.
One dose will stop the distressing pains of Dyspepsia.
One dose will remove the distressing and disagreeable effects of Wind or Flatulence, and as soon as the Stomach receives the Invigorating Spirit, the distressing load and all painful feelings will be removed.
One dose will remove the most distressing pains of Colic, either in the stomach or bowels.
A few doses will remove all obstructions in the Kidney, Bladder or Urinary Organs.
Persons who are seriously afflicted with any Kidney Complaints, are noticed speedy relief by a dose or two, and a radical cure by the use of one or two bottles.

NIGHTLY DISSIPATION.

Persons who, from dissipating, sup much over night, and feel the evil effects of poisonous liquors, in violent headaches, sickness at stomach weakness, giddiness &c., will find one dose will remove all bad feelings.

Ladies of weak and sickly constitutions, should take the Invigorating Spirit three times a day; it will make them strong, healthy, and happy, remove all obstructions and irregularities from the menstrual organs, and restore the bloom of health and beauty to the careworn face.

During pregnancy it will be found an invaluable medicine to remove disagreeable sensations at the stomach.

All the proprietor asks, is a trial, and to induce this, he has put up the Invigorating Spirit in pint bottles, at 50 cents, qts $1.

DR. MOTT'S CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE PILLS OF IRON.

An aperient and Stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States, and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Immunes in all maladies in which it has been tried—it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

IN DEBILITY, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, EMACIATIONS, CONSTIPATION, DIARRHŒA, DYSPEPSIA, DYSENTERY, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, SALT RHEUM, MENSTRUATION, WHITES, CHLOROSIS, RHEUMATISM, INTERMITTENT FEVERS, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, &c.

In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of acute disease or of the continued diminution of physical and nervous energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids long bedridden and to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if returned from a protracted tour in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no remedy.

In NERVOUS AFFECTIONS of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the oxyhydrate of iron, administered in this form, especially be salutary, for, unlike the old oxides, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and diaphoretic, and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinctly specific influence, in dispersing the local tendency, which forms them.

In DYSPEPSIA, innumerable are its cures, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In unchecked DIARRHŒA, even when advanced to DYSENTERY, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent heetic, which constitute incipient CONSUMPTION, SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of Iodine, without any of their well-known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In RHEUMATISM, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, very decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In INTERMITTENT FEVERS it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has ever been discovered, in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects.—Good appetite, complete digestion, and acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by Druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to

LAWRENCE.—A new company is about being formed by the aid of the Essex Company, with a capital of three-quarters of a million dollars, for the manufacture of cotton goods. It is proposed to have the Essex Company and the stockholders of the Essex Company unite in taking the stock; the location to be their central mill site. It would no doubt be a paying operation, and add greatly to the value of the property they already hold, and it would also much increase the general prosperity of Lawrence. It is to be a first-class mill with 25,000 or 30,000 spindles.

The present population of Lawrence is stated at 17,793. On the completion of the Pemberton mill, the Pacific extension, and the Everett corporation, 2500 additional operatives will be needed, which number will make an increase of 5000, and it is not improbable that in one year from this time its population will be 25,000, putting it ahead of Salem.

You may judge pretty well as to a woman's secret vices, by observing what she condemns most fiercely in others.

Wealth does not always improve us. A man, as he gets to be worth more, may become worth*less*.

Our fast women can wear as long trains as they please. They keep so far ahead of the age that it can't tread on their dresses.

A Western editor says that his voice "is still for truth." Evidently his voice for truth is perfectly still."

"Why is it, husband, that whenever we send for a pound of tea or coffee to the grocery man, it falls several ounces short?" "Oh, it's just a weigh he has."

The most adroit injury that can be committed is to make the injured person be thankful for the evil done to him.

You will be sure to "go to smash" if you are in the habit of going to "smashes."

A man may be excused for being miserable in his feelings if he is careful never to be so in his morals.

Reason cannot show itself more reasonable than to leave reasoning on things above reason.—Prentice.

SENATOR BRIGHT ON DOUGLAS.—At a national democratic meeting held recently in Indiana, Mr. Bright made the following declaration:

"We do not intend to have Stephen A. Douglas and his cohorts crammed down our throats. They wish to place the democratic party in the position of a bucket tied to a dog's tail, to be dragged through the mud wherever the dog may choose to run. If you follow the fortunes of Douglas, and stand with him on the rotten, Janus-faced platform, you are irrecoverably lost."

☞ We published, a short time ago, an article against the use of charcoal for the teeth, and recommended soap; but a correspondent of the Scientific American says that soap "is always prejudicial to the mucous membrane, although this may not appear until after its protracted use," and recommends a soft brush and warm water for general use, with occasionally a little prepared chalk, and, three or four times a year, a small quantity of ground and sifted pumice stone, applied gently with a wet rag.

☞ Chapley R. Phillips, one of the wealthiest planters in Missouri, while on a drunken frolic at New Madrid, a few days ago, became incensed at Barton Yergan, another planter and most intimate friend, and shot him with a pistol, inflicting a wound which soon proved fatal. Phillips was at once arrested.

☞ The millers and distillers of Ohio are having a convention at White Sulphur Springs; the millers manifested a desire to bolt, out their companions for trying to worm into their secrets; but they finally united on the common ground of Sulphur, and are all one again.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.—The Breckinridge Committee of New York are here, consulting relative to a union in that State. Prominent men here, advise them to claim ten of the names on the electoral ticket, and to take no less.

☞ Rev. Elias Nason, of Medford, Mass., will read a paper on the "Ancient Psalmody of New England" before the New England Historic Genealogical Society, at their meeting.

APPLEDORE HOUSE,
ISLES OF SHOALS.
This favorite resort for the man of leisure and the invalid is now open. Since last year many alterations and additions have been made, increasing its capacity. Billiard and Bowling Saloons are provided, and every measure taken to secure the comfort and amusement of its guests. An abundance of sweet cream and milk is supplied from healthy cows kept on the Island. The table is faultless. The facilities for fishing have been increased by the addition of new boats and experienced skippers.
When to all these advantages are added the purity of the air—the delicious coolness of the ocean breeze, invigorating and appetizing power—the loveliness of the scenery—the glory of its sunsets—the cleanliness of its walks—its freedom from dust, mud, and all other annoyances of the kind—it may truly be said to possess advantages and attractions which no other watering place in New England can attain. The equability of the temperature is a natural advantage over the coast or the mountains, which invalids can fully appreciate.
A daily Packet, the SIBYL, Capt. Preble, runs direct to Appledore from Portsmouth, leaving Pier Wharf on the arrival of the morning train from Boston, and returns in the afternoon. The Sibyl has every accommodation for the comfort of passengers which a Packet requires.

THE ONLY PREPARATION
Having Proof so Strong and Direct
as to
Expel the Doubts of All.
For Statesmen, Judges, Editors, Physicians of the oldest schools as well as new, give it their unqualified sanction, and recommend it for all cases of eruptions, and diseases of the scalp and brain; but all woo have used it, unite in testifying that it will preserve the hair from being gray, and from falling to any age, as well as restore.—Read the following:—
Oak Grove, S. C., June 24, 1859.
Prof. O. J. Wood—Dear—Your Hair Restorative is rapidly gaining popularity in this community. I have had occasion to lay prejudice aside, and give your Hair Restorative a perfect test:—
During the year 1854, I was so unfortunate as to be thrown from my chaise against a rock near the roadside, from which my head received a most terrible blow; causing a great deal of irritation, which communicated to the brain and external surface of the head, from the effects of which my hair was entirely destroyed. From the time I first discovered its dropping, however, up to the time of its total disappearance, I employed everything I could think of, being a professional man myself, and as I thought, understanding the nature of the disease, but was finally defeated in every prescription advanced.
These and no other circumstances induced me to resort to your worthy "Hair Restorative," which I have every reason to believe, produced a very happy result; two months after the first application, I had as beautiful a head of young hair as I ever saw, for which I certainly owe you my sincere thanks. Rest assured, dear sir, I shall recommend your remedy to all inquirers; moreover, I shall use my influence, which I flatter myself to say, is not a little.
You can publish this if you think proper.
Yours, very respectfully,
M. J. WRIGHT, M. D.
Jeffersonian Office, Phillipi, Va., Dec. 12, 1859.
Professor O. J. Wood—Dear Sir: I feel it my duty as well as my pleasure, to state to you the following circumstance, which you can use as you think proper. A gentleman of this place, (a lawyer,) has been bald ever since his early youth; so much so, that he was compelled to wear a wig. He was induced to try a bottle of your "Hair Restorative," which he liked very much; and after using some two or three bottles his hair grew out quite luxuriantly, and he now has a handsome head of hair. The gentleman's name is Bradford, and as he is very well known in our adjoining counties, many persons can testify to the truth of this statement: I give this to you at the request of Mr. Bradford. You can sell a great deal of your Hair Restorative in this and the adjoining counties if you have the proper agents. Yours, &c.,
THOMPSON SURGHNOR.
Dr. Wood—Dear Sir—Permit me to express the obligations I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color; about the time of my arrival in the United States it was rapidly becoming gray, but upon the application of your Hair Restorative it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative as a very wonderful invention, quite effectual, and well be worthy of the attention of the public.
S. THALBERG.
The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 8, 1860.

☞ Somebody has made the surmise that Gov. Banks is to go from Massachusetts to Illinois, because he sees no chance of Lincoln's election; and somebody else asserts that he is a politician and nothing else. But, says Uncle Toby, the surmise and assertion are alike groundless. Gov. B. is a most practical, executive man; and his going to the West, to manage the biggest railroad in the country, is the most likely movement he could make toward his future advancement in political life—as well as a good move towards a large and permanent income. The only evidence that Gov. B. has any fears of a Republican defeat, is the surmise of a newspaper or two, where the wish is father to the thought.

All future events are uncertain; and none more so than popular elections; but the chances, at the present moment, are strongly in favor of Lincoln's election by the people.

☞ Senator Wilson addressed the Republicans of Brooklyn, N. Y., on Tuesday evening of last week, and in the course of his speech said:

He (Mr. Wilson) asked Douglas a few years ago what kind of a man Lincoln was, when he replied that he was a very honest man, and that he (Douglas) had been in Congress for a period of sixteen years, and had never met with a man who was his superior; he had never yet coped with any man superior to Abraham Lincoln in point of ability—and when the telegraphic dispatch announcing Lincoln's nomination was handed to Douglas in the Senate, he said, "We have got to do our best to defeat him." In the house of the President of Harvard College, Douglas said that Lincoln was the first lawyer of his State, and one of the best popular orators in the Union.

☞ Another attempt to arrest S. M. Booth was made at Ripon, Wis., on the 27th of August. Six officers made an attempt to enter the house where he was staying, but the inmates, ten or a dozen in number, rallied with fire arms, and the officers beat a retreat. They then sent for more aid to capture Booth; but in the mean time the friends of Booth sent officers out into the country, and soon the people came flocking in from all quarters. They administered a great deal of plain talk to the officers, after which they were allowed to depart in peace, but without Booth.

☞ Scandal comes from California. Mr. Duncan W. Perley, a well-known lawyer of San Francisco, (the same whose quarrel with Senator Broderick led to the fatal duel between the latter and Judge Terry,) escaped an outraged husband's vengeance only by fleeing in scant attire from a room in an improper house, leaving behind him an entire suit of apparel, with arms, pocket-book, two hundred dollars in money, and valuable papers; and after running a block or two took refuge in a livery stable, where he procured a carriage and buffalo robe and rode off. Mr. and Mrs. Fall are the other parties in the affair.

Killing in Ireland.—Killing comes natural; half the places in Ireland begin with kill. There is Killboy, (for all Irishmen are called boys,) and what is more unmanly, there is Killbride; Killbaron, after the landlords; Killbarrack, after the English soldiers; Killcrew, for the navy; Killbritain, for the English proprietors; Killcool, for a deliberate murder; and Killmore, if that ain't enough.—Knickerbocker.

Among the old Dutch settlers, the word kill signified a small stream or creek. What it means exactly in the Irish vernacular it would be difficult to decide.

Republican Mass Convention.—A Mass Convention of Republicans was held on Thursday at Wolfborough, N. H. It was very large and enthusiastic. Hon. Joel Eastman of Conway was chosen President. The meeting was addressed by Hon. Jas. B. McKeen, and Hon. Chas. Van Wyck of New York, Senator Wilson, Hon. Anson Burlingame and others. Col. Ebenezer Stevens of Meredith was nominated for Presidential Elector for the district.

☞ The New York correspondent of the Baltimore Patriot says:

The attempted fusion in this State has wrought most disastrously to all concerned therein, and the ranks of the high contracting parties have terribly diminished in consequence of the unfortunate and ill-advised movement. Mr. Lincoln will receive many thousand votes, which would not have been cast for him but for this fusion, which is so bald and incongruous that honest men, among whom are many Democrats, turn from it with loathing and disgust.

☞ Several convicts escaped from Sing Sing Prison on Thursday, and were followed by the keepers on board a sloop which was lying at the prison dock, where they were re-captured, after a desperate affray. One of the keepers was dangerously wounded, and the captain of the sloop fatally stabbed.

Toledo, Ohio, Sept. 5.—The sleeping apartments of the Orphan Asylum were burnt last night, and three children and one Sister of Charity are supposed to have perished in the flames.

Reception to Mr. Gough by his Fellow Townsmen.—The citizens of Boylston, Mass., gave a reception Thursday, to their fellow citizen, John B. Gough, upon the occasion of his return home after three years absence in Great Britain. Exercises were held in a grove, where there was a collation, speeches, &c. Rev. Daniel Wight, Jr., of Boylston, welcomed Mr. Gough to his home. Mr. Gough replied, highly gratified at the welcome thus tendered him. Rev. Mr. Cross, of Sterling, followed with a congratulatory address. Other speeches were made. Mr. Gough then spoke again, for an hour and a half, mostly upon his favorite theme, the Temperance cause. About one thousand persons were present.

Mr. Gough has brought with him from Europe four thousand volumes of select theological works, which he is about to present to the church in Boylston of which he is a member, as a permanent library for the pastor of the church.

The Up Hill of an Aged Life.—Phillip Hadley, aged 90 years, a resident of Bradford, Vt., ascended Moosilauke Mountain on foot, stopped at the Prospect House over night, and walked down the mountain on the 30th ult. Mr. Hadley also walked the whole distance in coming and returning to Bradford.

☞ While Grizzly Adams' bear menagerie was passing through the streets in Fall River, a few days since, two of the bears, a black and grizzly, in one cage, got to fighting. The affair created considerable excitement, and ended in the grizzly's killing the black.

☞ The Supreme Court of Mississippi has affirmed the validity of the law making it penal for retailers to sell liquor to a drunken man, and declaring that the owner of the establishment is responsible for the acts of his bar-keeper on his behalf.

☞ The Williams College expedition to Greenland and Labrador, has been heard from off the latter coast. The party were all well, and had left two of their number gathering natural curiosities on the coast of Labrador, while the remainder had started for Greenland.

A Political Victory.—A correspondent of the Boston Herald, writing from Fairlee, Vermont, says that the Democrats of that town achieved a double political success in electing a Democratic representative,—first, in electing a Democrat; and second, in electing a Democrat that is somebody.

☞ Sergeant Lord, of the New York Sanitary Police, on Monday, made the following special report:—"I report the premises No. 323 West 38th street, as being in a filthy condition and detrimental to the public health. The premises are occupied by Bridget Tragoing, her two sons, nineteen pigs, two horses, three goats, and two dogs—all of which tenant the same shanty.

☞ The U. S. steam frigate "Powhatan," Capt. Sam'l Mercer, just ordered to Vera Cruz, on special service, sailed from Capes of the Delaware on Sunday afternoon, the 3d inst. Freeman G. Beal, of this city, goes out in her, as Paymaster's Clerk.

☞ A fugitive slave was arrested last Thursday morning while at work on the farm of Michael Minch, near Bridgeton, Cumberland County, N. J. He did not seem at all reluctant to be returned to his master.

☞ A correspondent of the N. Y. Times says of matters at Kingston, that there was "a procession of Orangemen, with dress or badges half a mile long." The novelty of the thing should have induced the Prince to go ashore.

Good News.—We read in the papers that at a ball given at Halifax, the Prince of Wales danced with a Miss Mackarell.—After this of course he cannot refuse to similarly favor the belles of our codfish aristocracy when he comes on here.—Vanity Fair.

☞ A number of slaves belonging to Dr. Wm. Brogden, who resides on South River, Md., had all their arrangements made for a trip to Canada last Sunday. A free negro was to pilot the company, and he injudiciously offered a white man $50 if he would assist him in running off the slaves. The project was thus divulged and defeated.

A young lady, who graduated recently at an institute in Virginia, has been committed to the insane asylum at Raleigh. Her friends attributed her mental aberration to the reading of Milton's Paradise Lost.

☞ Mr. John Bendett has an orchard of 2000 peach trees on Cayuga Island, on the Niagara river, near Buffalo. His crop this year will be about 5000 baskets.

☞ The total number of wild pigeons shipped east from Michigan, the past summer, exceeds two millions, which yielded $25,000, and on which the railroads got $3500 freight.

☞ The wigwam at Chicago, where Lincoln was nominated, is now being used for a Mechanics' Exhibition.

Shipbuilding on the Merrimac.—There are now in process of construction in this city ten ships and barques of from 400 to 1200 tons, and one schooner of 220 tons. The yards are more busy than for years before.—Newburyport Herald.

Later from California.—St. Joseph, Mo., Sept. 6.—The Pony Express, of San Francisco 24th ult., has arrived.

There was good steady business at last quotations.

The Bell and Everett men are pushing their State organization energetically.

A letter from Virginia city says that it has been ascertained that seven white men, who have been missing for some time, were burnt to death by the Indians near Pyramid Lake. Their charred remains were found chained to trees.

Large numbers of emigrants continued to arrive at Carson and Honey Lake Valleys.

The barque Yankee brings Honolulu dates to Aug. 9th. A bank was about to be started there with a paper currency not exceeding a million and a half.

The California Crops are not inferior in quantity or quality to those grown in the Northwestern States. In wheat this year they have 250,000 acres of land that will average 30 bushels to the acre, and after feeding their own population, have a surplus for exportation of three and a half million bushels. In barley they have an equal number of acres with a like produce, that gives seven and a half million bushels, which is greater than the entire crop of all the other States together. The surplus of wheat and barley will be 4,533,000 bushels. That is pretty good for a State that six years ago had to be fed from New York.—Newburyport Herald.

The Troubles in Canada.—Toronto, C. W., Sept. 6th.—The Orangemen have resolved to parade by themselves, and not interfere with the citizens' reception or procession. It is doubtful whether this will insure the landing of the Prince.

Belleville, C. W., Sept. 6.—The Orangemen turned out to receive the Prince, but he (the Prince) refused to land, and left for Cobourg this forenoon.

Cobourg, C. W., Sept. 6.—The Prince arrived at 9 o'clock this evening. No signs of an Orange demonstration. He will attend the ball to-night. The ball-room is reported unsafe, and is being propped up.

Toronto, C. W., Sept. 5.—The streets are crowded to-night, and arches and decorations are being rapidly completed. The Prince was expected to-morrow afternoon.

New York, Sept. 7.—The Houston State Committee have issued an address accepting the withdrawal of Gen. Houston, and recommending his friends to cast their votes so as to secure the election of a President by the people.

It was rumored last evening that one of the leading railroad companies in Pennsylvania had been defrauded of $200,000 thro' the collusion of a certain ticket seller with several of the conductors.

Burlington, Vt., Sept. 6.—The votes for Governor from 106 towns, gives Fairbanks a majority over both Saxe and Harvey of 11,768. 137 towns are to be heard from. If they give as large a Republican majority as they did last year, it will bring the Republican majority to 21,000, an advance of 20 per cent. over last year. The Breckinridge Democratic vote so far shows about one-fifth of the entire Democratic vote, but it was very irregular. The votes for Representatives show the names of 133 Republicans to 11 Democrats. The Senate is doubtless all Republican.

Scene in a Village Church.—On Sunday last, in one of the churches of the good town of Spencer, while the people were engaged in the worship of God, something unusual occurred. It was at the communion service, and just before the sacrament was offered, a man in the back part of the assembly rose, and deliberately passing up the aisle to the table in front of the altar, seized one of the sacramental goblets with one hand, and the large silver pitcher with the other, filled the goblet with wine, and turning to the audience coolly drank it off and returned to his seat. The reader may imagine the "surprise" of that congregation.—Worcester Spy.

☞ Mr. Douglas made a speech at Baltimore, Thursday night. He referred to Breckinridge's assertion that he (Douglas) was not the regular nominee of the party, and that he had broken faith relative to the decision of the Supreme Court, denying the truth of both charges. He reiterated his opinion that if Breckinridge had not been nominated, he (Douglas) would have beaten Lincoln in every State excepting Vermont and Massachusetts!!!

Ex-President Tyler's Prosperity.—Jenkins has had his hand on ex-President Tyler. He says that time seems to have had no effect upon the old gentleman, who is now seventy-five years of age, but that he looks younger and more robust than when occupying the White House. The pride which he last year felt in the possession of the finest wheat crop on the James river, is now transferred to an infant, only two months old—his daughter.

☞ The Bangor Whig learns that a child five years old, son of Mr. Dove of Stetson, fell into a well forty feet deep, in which was but little water, with a ledge bottom, and remained there all night, the parents supposing he was in bed with their other children. When found he was senseless and almost pulseless, but in three hours revived and was soon out of danger.

The Free Masons and the Prince.—At Ottawa the Free Masons, about six hundred of whom were present, besides representatives from 190,000 in the United States, refused to join in the ceremonies of laying the corner-stone, as the duties were not assigned to them. They were given a place from which they could view the ceremonies at a distance. They were very indignant at what they considered an insult, and did not even present the address which they had prepared.—Atlas.

The Exeter Wide Awakes.—All praise is due to the little band of gallant men who constitute the Wide Awake Club of Exeter, and who performed such invaluable service on Tuesday. About fifty of them appeared in the morning, and did escort duty for the procession, and their appearance and unexceptionable deportment was the subject of general commendation.—But for them, Exeter would have been unrepresented in the procession. In the evening they appeared again with about sixty torches, and the display they made was the crowning glory of the day's demonstration.—Ballot.

Dogs.—A neighbor tells us that a dog was killed in Exeter last week, that exhibited unmistakable signs of hydrophobia. There are hundreds of worthless curs in town, the cost of whose support would probably feed all the hungry people we have among us. Not one in a hundred of them all is of the least value, (as every one will admit when his own is excepted,) and yet they consume food that would enrich the tables of many poor families, while they endanger the lives of all the community.—Ballot.

Nashua, N. H., Sept. 7.—A fire broke out about half-past 2 o'clock last night, in the building owned by John Atwood, adjoining the bridge on Main street, occupied by C. C. Clark, gunmaker, Mr. Hamlitt, watchmaker, and others. Supposed to be the work of an incendiary.

Philadelphia, Sept. 7.—Prof. Lowe is inflating his balloon, and will start for Europe this afternoon.

LOTTERIES AT "FAIRS."

Did you ever hear of a "Fair" without its "Lottery?" No matter for what purpose it was gotten up—whether for the Orphan, Sunday School, or Church,—there was the Lottery, and just there, the prettiest girl in the room to attend it. A single chance cost more than all the toy-prizes were worth; yet the fat clergyman laughed, and his good wife "fussed," and it was all right and perfectly proper. Why, then, upon what ground can our clerical friend object to the legalized Lotteries of Messrs. Wood, Eddy & Co., of Wilmington, Delaware, and St. Louis, Missouri, who offer chances for $20, $10, $5, and $2 50? A letter addressed to them, enclosing the amount, will be attended to, and ticket enclosed by return mail.

☞ We call the attention of our readers to an article advertised in another column, called Blood Food. It is an entirely new discovery, and must not be confounded with any of the numerous patent medicines of the day. It is food for the blood, already prepared for absorption; pleasant to the taste and natural in action, and what one gains he retains. Let all those, then, who are suffering from poverty, impurity, or deficiency of blood, and consequently with some chronic disease or ailment, take of this Blood Food and be restored to health. We notice that our druggists have received a supply of this article, and also of the world-renowned Dr. Eaton's Infants' Cordial. We think every mother should have. It is said to contain no paregoric or opiate of any kind whatever, and of course must be invaluable for all infantile complaints. It is also said that it will allay all pain, and soften the gums in process of teething, and at the same time regulate the bowels. Let all mothers and nurses, who have endured anxious days and sleepless nights, procure a supply and be at once relieved.

Humphreys' Homeopathic Specifics

Cure promptly and safely all the more common diseases and ailments to which families are subject. In all acute diseases, such as fevers, inflammations, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Rheumatism, Croup, and such eruptive diseases as Scarlet Fever, Measles, and Erysipelas, they are advantage of giving the proper remedies promptly is obvious, and in all such cases the specifics act like a charm. The entire disease is often arrested at once, and in all cases the violence of the attack is moderated, the disease shortened, and rendered less dangerous.
Coughs and Colds, which are of such frequent occurrence, and which so often lay the foundation of diseased lungs, Bronchitis and Consumption, may all be at once cured by the Fever and Cough Pills.
In all chronic diseases, such as Dyspepsia, Constipation, Weak Stomach, Liver Complaint, Piles Female Debility and Irregularities, old Headaches, Sore or Weak Eyes, Catarrh, Salt Rheum and other old eruptive diseases, the use of the specifics whose proper application will afford a cure in almost every instance. Often the cure of a single chronic difficulty, such as Dyspepsia, Piles or Catarrh, Headache or Female Weakness, has more than paid for the case ten times over.

☞ The chief point in dispute at present between the two Boards of the City Council, (to which reference is made in another column, in an item from the Journal and a resolution of the Common Council,) is, whether or not the City Watchmen are "City officers" within the meaning of the new amendment of the City Charter, which provides that all City officers not elected by the Aldermen before a certain time each year, shall be chosen by both Boards in Convention. The Com. Council claims that they are, while the Aldermen have taken the responsibility, and elected their list of Watchmen, since the expiration of the time specified for them to elect City officers.—And what especially provokes the Republican majority of the Com. Council, is the alleged fact that the Aldermen, (also strongly Republican, but with a Democratic Mayor as chairman, who of course would not consent to assist in the election of an entire Republican Watch,) should put into public office or employment men of opposite politics to the majority of the City Council, merely for the sake of having their own way, or at best of exercising a power which they might have waived for the good of the party. Those readers curious to study the merits of the case, can find the amendments to the City Charter, in the newspapers, a few weeks back.

As to the Journal's ideas of the City form of government, we think they are more than half right—especially in view of the belief we have, that each and all parties concerned in the municipal controversies of the past year,—the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council,—have acted upon the calmly-considered conviction that they were severally right, and each doing their best for the public whose servants they are. It is much easier to decide such matters flippantly, and condemn this or that person or body, than to come to a really just and satisfactory settlement of the points in controversy.

☞ Everything indicates that the Fair to be held in Portsmouth on the 19th and 20th of September, will be one of the most successful exhibitions ever given in this vicinity. The Horse Guards will certainly be out with full ranks, about one hundred strong,—and a full Band, also mounted;—and it is reported that one or more Fire Companies from New Market, with their Band, and another Company from Rochester, with the Farmington Band, propose to be on hand; and no doubt other Companies with music will turn out. The wagon or car arranged for the Portsmouth Town Team will, we venture to say, eclipse anything ever seen in the County or State, and of the kind,will be hard to excel anywhere.

THE BANDS.—We think all who participated in the grand Republican demonstration at Exeter, must have become well satisfied that there is no necessity for sending out of the County for music for any celebration within its borders. Five bands were present on the occasion, from Exeter, Portsmouth, Northwood, Fremont and Epping. All appeared in neat and appropriate uniforms, and each discoursed good music. That these musical organizations are kept up so well where the patronage they receive is so limited, is highly creditable to the young men who compose them, and they richly deserve all the encouragement that their fellow citizens can give them.—Ballot.

☞ The Committee appointed by the Supreme Judicial Court of New Hampshire, to lay out the route for the aqueduct, through the Concord & Portsmouth Railroad, and to assess the damage,—met in this city on Friday,—and proceeded to give the parties a hearing.

Their hearing, of course, was not closed on Friday, though we trust it will be speedily: for the people of Portsmouth need more water.

☞ The General Association of Congregational and Presbyterian ministers of New Hampshire, met at Claremont on Tuesday, Aug. 28th, and continued its session three days. The opening sermon was preached by Rev. Asa P. Tenney of East Concord.

For the first time, a lay delegation appeared, from seven county conferences; this is to be a permanent feature, and the name of the body is hereafter to be the General Association of New Hampshire.

Its fundamental principles are:—

(1.) The Assembly's Shorter Catechism shall be the basis of union in this Association. (2.) All ecclesiastical power and authority over the churches or individuals shall be disclaimed. (3.) The promotion of brotherly intercourse, mutual assistance, &c. are to be the objects of the Association.

The next meeting is to be at Portsmouth.

GENERAL CONGRATULATIONS.—That the Rockingham Fair is to be held here this year,—that the Horse Guards are to visit Portsmouth,—that the U. S. ship Cumberland is to be fitted out—and that we are to have a new Factory?

STOCK COMPLAINTS.—Dull times,—low water, and that the new Post Office is not occupied.

☞ The Rockingham Weekly Chronicle, containing a summary of the news of the week, this day published, and for sale at the Chronicle Counting Room: price 3 cents; $1 per year, in advance.

LYMAN'S

Improved Patent Metallic Soles.

PATENTED JUNE 7, 1859.

The nature of this invention consists of a metallic sole for Boots and Shoes, which has been tested and operates admirably. No dampness penetrates through to the inside sole. This is the only device that will operate well between two soles, and is made so thin as not to interfere with the most delicately finished work. The necessity of such a device to fully accomplish the much desired object, and the direful effects arising from damp feet, are too well understood to require any comment.

It is obvious to every one that sole leather is porous, absorbing water, and that the soles of boots and shoes are often damp when they appear dry, causing cold feet, chills, neuralgia, rheumatism, consumption, &c.

Physicians of eminence have pronounced this Metallic Sole an invaluable discovery, and state that, if generally used, it will cause an immense saving of human life.

The right to manufacture and sell the above Improved Metallic Sole for the County of Rockingham has been purchased by the subscriber.

Boot and shoe manufacturers and dealers in Rockingham County furnished with the soles, with right to use, at No. 24 Market Street, Portsmouth, N. H.

CITY COUNCIL.

Whereas the City Charter of Portsmouth, N.H. confers upon the City Council (in certain contingencies,) powers to elect city officers, and also declares it to be the duty of said Council; and, whereas, in accordance with said Charter, said Council have met agreeable to concurrent vote of each board, and, having elected a part of said City officers, adjourned; and, that previous to the day on which said convention was adjourned to, the board of Mayor and Aldermen met and elected twelve watchmen; therefore

Resolved, That said Board of Aldermen have transcended their power, and that the Common Council hereby protest against such unlawful acts, and declare such and said election of watchmen illegal and void.

In Common Council passed and voted to be published in all the Portsmouth papers.

Sept. 6, 1860. JAS. W. FOLSOM, Clerk.

CITY GOVERNMENT.

It will be seen that there is some collision between the two boards of the City Council. This is nothing new. There has scarcely a year passed during the last ten of the City's corporated existence, that troubles have not arisen, mostly growing out of jealousies from supposed or real encroachments on the rights of the respective boards, and rarely out of much consideration for the promotion of the general interest of the city. For our own part, we can see no real necessity for having two boards for the management of our city business. We care not whether the board of Mayor and Aldermen, or the Common Council be abolished. We have more confidence in the prompt and right doing of the city business by either board, than in its performance by two boards between which no friendly feeling exists.

We should rather prefer the existence of the upper board, the Mayor to have the like powers formerly given to the Chairman of the board of Selectmen,—and the restoration of some of the duties of the Common Council to the people.—We have by our charter received the name of a City, which is pleasant to the ear, and desirable to retain—wherein we have otherwise been really benefitted by the change of organization, we hope some correspondent will avail himself of our columns to inform the public.

The Water Controversy.

As there has been some dispute as to what the decision of the Court really was in the Aqueduct case; at the request of parties concerned and as a matter of some public interest, we publish below a certified copy of that decree:

The Proprietors of Portsmouth Aqueduct, vs. the Concord & Portsmouth Railroad and Charles L. Frost. This cause came on to be heard upon the bill, answer and evidence taken in the cause, which being read and considered together with the arguments of the counsel as well of the defts. as of the plffs., and it thereupon appearing to the Court that the spring in the lands of the Railroad described in said bill was accidentally discovered in the rightful construction of the Railroad, and that though the said spring up to the time of the grievance complained of in said bill had been used by the Railroad and its servants only for the purpose of drinking, and the surplus water thereof was allowed to escape by the usual ditches at the side of the Railroad track of the usual depth of such ditches, and the said Railroad was well entitled to the full use and benefit of said spring, for the lawful and proper purposes of said Railroad; but that at the time of the committing of the grievances aforesaid, the pit or excavation at said spring, and the ditch leading therefrom to the Great Swamp were made and dug, not for the purpose of using the water nor for draining said Railroad, nor for any other lawful and proper purposes, but for the purpose and object of diverting, draining away and wasting the water in the pit or reservoir of the proprietors of the Aqueduct in their land adjoining.

Now it is ordered, adjudged and decreed that said defendants be and they are hereby required and enjoined to cause the said pit and ditch dug by them, within the limits of their Railroad to be filled up with suitable impervious materials to the height at which the bottom of said spring, and of the ditches at the side of said Railroad respectively were on the sixth day of August, 1859. And that said defendants be henceforth forever enjoined and prohibited from digging any pit, or reservoir, or any ditch, drain or excavation in the lands of said Railroad, for the purpose of diverting, drawing off or lowering the water from the plaintiff's land adjoining or from their reservoir or pipes thereon—or for any use or purpose whatever—except for the legitimate and proper use and benefit of said Railroad corporation, and from doing any act for the purpose of injuring or deteriorating the water, fountains, reservoirs or pipes of the plaintiffs, or of rendering the same unfit for use.

And it being further shown to the Court, that it is convenient and necessary that said Aqueduct should be constructed from said pit or reservoir of said Aqueduct Company, on their land adjoining said Railroad in said bill described through the lands of said Railroad, and that the said proprietors should enter upon and break up the ground of said Railroad for the purpose of laying down pipes as may be necessary, and the said proprietors have attempted to agree with said Railroad as the owners of said land, on the compensation to be made for the damages done to said land and have not been able to agree thereon. It is ordered, adjudged and decreed that, William W. Stickney, Nathaniel P. Cram and William C. Patten, be and they hereby are appointed a Committee to notify and hear the parties, and to ascertain and report to the Court the proper compensation to be made by said proprietors to said Railroad, for the damages to be done to said land by laying said Aqueduct in the route by them reported agreeably to the Charter of said Aqueduct corporation. And that upon payment of the damages so ascertained by said Committee and adjudged by the Court, the said defendants, their agents, attorneys and servants, be and they hereby are forever enjoined, prohibited and restrained from offering or causing any molestation, damage or hindrance to the building, completing and maintaining of said Aqueduct through the land of said railroad, agreeably to the report of said committee. And that the plaintiffs have and recover of the defendants their costs of this suit, taxed at fifty-three dollars and six cents ($53.06.)

And the Court reserves the consideration of all further directions until after the said Committee shall have made their report; when either party is to be at liberty to apply to the Court, as the occasion may require. C. G. CONNER, Clerk.

NEW HAMPSHIRE STATE FAIR.—The Manchester Mirror states that the officers of the State Agricultural Society are making unusual preparations for the Annual Fair, which is to be held in that city on the first week in October. The Amoskeag Company will have three Steam Fire Engines on the ground, and the mills and manufactories will exhibit goods in variety. Great inducements are held out to owners of horse flesh. In addition to the $500 in premiums offered by the society, the citizens have contributed $500 to be awarded to the first, second, and third winners of heats. The indications are that it will be a most successful exhibition. Governor Banks is to deliver the address.

HOW TO SWAY CHILDREN.

Over wayward children wouldst thou hold firm rule,
And sun thee in the light of happy faces;
Love, hope, and patience—these must be thy graces,
And in thine own heart let them first keep school.
—Coleridge.

John C. Fremont, who has struggled on against obstacles and in the face of opposition sufficient to discourage almost any man in the world, is at last in a fair way to be repaid for his labors. He has just completed the most extensive works ever known in this country for mining purposes; and a few days since completed a railroad four miles in length, to bring his quartz from his mine to his crushing mills. He has eighty-eight stampers running night and day, crushing ninety tons of rock in twenty-four hours, which pays him about $25 per ton, leaving him a net profit of about $2000. No man in California has ever shown such indomitable energy and perseverance. He has struggled on against obstacles sufficient to crush any ordinary man, and his friends will be pleased to know that he is at last on the high road to fortune, and bids fair to come out the richest man in California.—N Y. Times.

☞ The Washington correspondent of the N. Y. Journal of Commerce says:

It is to be remarked that almost universally in the South, the election of Lincoln is deemed a foregone conclusion. All political speculations are based upon it. There has never been much confidence in the disposition of the New York anti-Republican leaders to enter into a general and hearty co-operation; and whatever hope there was of such a result, is discouraged by the distance which the Douglas-Bell Committee and the Breckinridge Committee maintain between each other. It is true, though, that neither may be so bad as they seem, and that the fusion, which you have so zealously and patriotically urged, may still be effected.

CLIPPER PLOWS

Are manufactured only by the subscribers, the inventors, who offer them to the agricultural interest after they have been

THOROUGHLY TESTED

by experienced Plowmen, who pronounce them

The Best in the Market!

These Plows embrace NINE DIFFERENT SIZES, the largest of which is offered in advance of anything in the United States, as regards size, and, like the other sizes of this celebrated Plow, is drawn easily by a team smaller than is absolutely requisite to draw a Plow of less size, of any other make than the Clipper.

We also assure our Farmer friends that as we have hitherto endeavored to make our Plows superior to all others in those points which especially interest Plowmen, we are still endeavoring by increasing excellence, if this be possible—upon our former successes, although those who are best acquainted in these matters say, "It cannot be bettered."

Notwithstanding the immense advantages which these Plows possess over all others, we offer them at THE SAME PRICES as are charged for common grades, satisfied that their great superiority will induce so large a sale, that our aggregate profits will make our business sufficiently remunerative.

BLOOD FOOD

The attention of Invalids, Physicians, Clergymen, scientific men, and the public generally, is respectfully solicited to the merits of this chemical preparation, containing Iron, Sulphur and Phosphorus, and which is identical in its composition with the Hematic Globule, or red blood.—In all diseases accompanied with

DEBILITY,

pale countenance and nervous derangement, analyses of the blood show a deficiency of the red globules. Ruddy complexion and a rosy tint of the skin, is always indicative of health; while a pale, wax-like skin and countenance,—which evinces a considerable deficiency of the red globules,—accompanies a diseased organism. Preparations of Iron have been given for the purpose of supplying the red globules, but we contend that Iron alone, Sulphur alone, or Phosphorus alone, will not meet the deficiency in every case, but that a judicious combination of all these elements is necessary to restore the blood to its normal standard. This result, never before attained, has been reached in the Blood Food, and its discovery ranks as one of the most scientific and important of the age. Its effects in

are to soften the cough, hence the nerves, strengthen the system, allay the prostrating night sweats, increase the physical and mental energy, enrich the blood by restoring the lacking red globules, increase the appetite, restore the color, and clothe the skeleton frame with flesh. The Blood Food will be found a specific to all CHRONIC DISEASES of the THROAT & LUNGS, such as Asthma, Bronchitis, Coughs, &c. Public speakers and singers will find it of great utility in clearing and strengthening the vocal organs. In Dyspepsia, Liver Complaints, Dropsy, Epilepsy, Paralysis, Scrofula, Gravel, St. Vitus' Dance, Fever and Ague, &c., its efficacy is marked and instantaneous. In no class of diseases, however, are the beneficial effects of this remedy so conspicuous as in those harrassing

FEMALE COMPLAINTS

to which the gentler sex are liable, and which tend towards Consumption, such as suppressed or difficult Menstruation, Green Sickness, Whites, &c., especially when these complaints are accompanied with paleness, a dingy hue or pallor of the skin, depression of spirits, debility, palpitation want of appetite, and nervous prostration. We have the utmost confidence in recommending the Blood Food to all who may be conscious of a loss of vitality or energy, and to those whose mental or bodily powers are prostrated through over-use, either of the mind or body, and we deem it our duty to say that in all cases of Weakness and Emaciation, and in all diseases of the Kidneys or Bladder, this preparation has a claim upon the attention of sufferers which cannot be over-estimated. A faithful trial will be found the most convincing proof in regard to its efficacy that could be asked for. With the above remarks, and with the numerous testimonials we have in its favor we offer the "Blood Food" to the consideration of the afflicted, knowing that it will be acknowledged as pre-eminent over all other preparations, patent or official, in point of usefulness. Pamphlets giving the Theory upon which this remedy is founded, also certificates of remarkable cures, will be sent free when desired. We forward the Blood Food to any part of the United States or Canadas upon receipt of price—$1 per bottle, $5 for six bottles. Be careful in all cases to take none but that having our fac-similie signature upon the wrapper. None other is genuine.

Humphreys' Specific Homeopathic Remedies for the People

THE Remedies are carefully prepared under the direct supervision and inspection of Prof. HUMPHREYS, a physician of long standing, and realized want of the public, namely, remedies for all the more common and simple ailments of life.

A moment's reflection will show that a vast majority of diseases from which we suffer and die, were, at their commencement, simple and trifling. A mere cold, a slight diarrhœa, a pain in the side, or a heartache, or hoarseness, at first easily cured and subdued, in time becomes a consumption, a fever, a dangerous dysentery, severe pain, or total disease, which all the powers of medicine fail to arrest.

Herein these remedies supply a great public want. Being on hand, simple, so that the most ignorant can use them, and have proven so in cases no repugnance—safe, and hence occasioning no risk, while the curative effects are positive and certain, they are taken, and at once the spell is broken and the danger allayed.

Experience has amply confirmed the use of these remedies for families, for family use and certainly, all the powers of medicine fail to arrest. Herein these remedies supply a great public want. Being on hand, simple, so that the most ignorant can use them, and have proven so in cases no repugnance—safe, and hence occasioning no risk, while the curative effects are positive and certain, they are taken, and at once the spell is broken and the danger allayed.

Experience has amply confirmed the use of these remedies for families, for family use and certainly, all the powers of medicine fail to arrest.

THE MOST SIMPLE AND CONVENIENT, THE MOST PROMPT AND RELIABLE.

Thousands are now using them, have been using them for some five years past, in every section of the country, with almost invariable success. All speak in the highest terms of their efficacy and certainty, and scattered over hundreds of agents the uniform testimony is, that they give good satisfaction to their customers.

This medicine has been used by the public for six years, with increasing favor. It is recommended to cure Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Heartburn, Colic Pains, Wind in the Stomach, or Pains in the Bowels, Headache, Drowsiness, Kidney Complaints, Low Spirits, Delirium Tremens, Intemperance. It Stimulates, Exhilarates, Invigorates, but will not Intoxicate or Stupefy.

As a Medicine, it is quick and effectual, curing the most aggravated cases of Dyspepsia, Kidney Complaints, and all other derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, in a speedy manner.

It will instantly revive the most melancholy and drooping spirits, and restore the weak, nervous and sickly to health, strength and vigor.

Persons who, from the injudicious use of liquors, have become dejected, and their nervous systems shattered, constitutions broken down, and subject to that horrible curse to humanity, the Delirium Tremens, will, almost immediately, feel the happy and invigorating efficacy of Dr. Ham's Invigorating Spirit.

What it will do!

DOSE.—I wine glass full as often as necessary.
One dose will remove all Bad Spirits.
One dose will cure Heartburn.
Three doses will cure Indigestion.
One dose will give you a good appetite.
One dose will stop the distressing pains of Dyspepsia.

One dose will remove the distressing and disagreeable effects of Wind or Flatulence, and so soon as the Stomach receives the Invigorating Spirit, the distressing load and all painful feelings will be removed.

One dose will remove the most distressing pains of Colic, either in the stomach or bowels.

A few doses will remove all obstructions in the Kidney, Bladder or Urinary Organs.

Persons who are seriously afflicted with any Kidney Complaints, are assured speedy relief by a dose or two, and a radical cure by the use of one or two bottles.

NIGHTLY DISSIPATION.

Persons who, from dissipating too much over night, and feel the evil effects of poisonous liquors, in violent headaches, sickness at stomach weakness, giddiness, &c., will find one dose will remove all bad feelings.

Ladies of weak and sickly constitutions, should take the Invigorating Spirit three times a day; it will make them strong, healthy, and happy, remove all obstructions and irregularities from the menstrual organs, and restore the bloom of health and beauty to the careworn face.

During pregnancy it will be found an invaluable medicine to remove disagreeable sensations at the stomach.

All the proprietor asks, is a trial, and to induce this, he has put up the INVIGORATING SPIRIT in pint bottles, at 50 cents, qts $1.

DR. MOTT'S
PILLS OF IRON

An aperient and Stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Innoxious in all malady in which it has been tried—it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

IN DEBILITY, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, EMACIATIONS, CONSTIPATION, DIARRHŒA, DYSPEPSIA, DYSENTERY, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, SALT RHEUM, MISMENSTRUATION, WHITES, CHLOROSIS, RHEUMATISM, INTERMITTENT FEVERS, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, &c.

In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of acute disease or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed-ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if from Rip Van Winkle's protracted nap, and hale. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, suspicious alarming critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.

NERVOUS AFFECTIONS of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron most necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old oxides, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and over-heating; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a direct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency, which forms them.

In DYSPEPSIA, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed to cure the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In unchecked DIARRHŒA, even when advanced to DYSENTERY, confirmed, exhausting, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent hectic, which generally indicate INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well-known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In RHEUMATISM, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invaluable, both as a remedy, as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In CONSTIPATION, it has been found to be not necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and extensive.

No remedy has ever been discovered, in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, and, we add, such invariable effect. Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 60 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by Druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to

OUR OWN BUSINESS.—A lady writer in the Ladies' Repository, writes thus:—

It would be a happy thing if we could resolve never to be annoyed by what is none of our business. Suppose a poor man does spend his last cent for a Christmas turkey; if he has paid for it he has a right to eat it. It may look foolish and improvident, but it is none of our business, unless he owes us money. Suppose that the spanks fall on some neighbor's mischievous child till a lecturer might mistake the vibrating sounds for a tempest of applause; it is none of our business. Very likely the child deserved it. If he didn't, he will very soon. Suppose that rosy Miss Janet should take it into her head that broad stripes around the skirt of her dress must be worn whenever they are fashionable, even though they make her short, plump figure more dumpy than ever, is it any of our business? Hasn't a lady a right to make a fresh complexion perfectly flaming, if she chooses to do so, by surrounding her face with fire-colored ribbons and roses? If a gentleman, in defiance of good taste and Scripture, assiduously digs about, prunes and cultivates his hair and beard till their growth transforms him into a bugbear to frighten crows with, is it anybody's business? Or if a fair girl chooses to sacrifice to some silly caprice the beautiful, luxuriant locks which are a glory to her, and then, by her ingenuity in brushing up the blunt stumps that remain, succeed in assuming a wide-awake, scared, owlish appearance, is it anybody's business? What is it to me if little Miss Clarice sports a sunshade in December, and wears furs in July? I remember seeing, several years ago, in one of those deep valleys among the Alleghanies, quite shut out from any view of the outer world, a large house with a spacious observatory on the top of it. From its situation, the observatory was a perfectly useless addition, for not a single house in any direction could be seen, and the overtopping hills almost buried it. But it was the builder's good pleasure to have an observatory, and it was none of my business.

A SEVERE SENTENCE.—In the early part of his residence at Wanstead, my father's boyish spirit of fun broke out as usual. On one occasion some boys were caught by him in the act of robbing an orchard; with the assistance of the gardener, they were dragged trembling into the house. My mother's father happened to be staying there—an imposing-looking old gentleman, who had not forgotten his scholastic dignity when looking on anything in the shape of a boy. A hint to him sufficed, and he assumed an arm-chair and the character of a J. P. for the county. The frightened offenders were drawn up before him, and formally charged by my father with the theft, which was further proved by the contents of their pockets. The judge assuming a severe air, immediately sentenced them to instant execution by hanging on the cherry tree. I can recollect being prompted by my father to kneel down and intercede for the culprits, and my frightened crying and the solemn farce of the whole scene had its due effect on the offenders. Down on their knees they dropped in a row, sobbing and whining most piteously, and vowing never "to do so no more." My father, thinking them sufficiently punished, gave the hint, and they were as solemnly pardoned, my father and grandfather laughing heartily to see the celerity with which they made off. —Hood's Memorials.

A SOLDIER'S ESTIMATE OF GLORY.—Sir Charles Napier, so distinguished for his military services in India, on receiving despatches from the English government making him governor of Scinde with additional pay, and ordering a triumphal column to be cast from the guns he had captured, wrote, "I wish the government would let me go back to my wife and girls; it would be more to me than pay, glory and honor. This is glory, is it? Yes. Nine princes have surrendered their swords to me on the field of battle, and their kingdoms have been conquered by me and attached to my own country. Well, all this glory that can be desired is mine, and I care so little for it that the moment I can, all shall be resigned to live quietly with my wife and girls; no honor or riches repays me for absence from them. Otherwise this sort of life to me, is only agreeable, as it may enable me to do good to these poor people. Oh, if I can do any good to serve them where so much blood has been shed in accursed war, I shall be happy. May I never see another shot fired. Horrid, horrid war."

APPLEDORE HOUSE,
ISLES OF SHOALS.
This favorite resort for the man of leisure and the invalid is now open. Since last year many alterations and additions have been made, increasing its capacity. Billiard and Bowling Saloons are provided, and every measure taken to secure the comfort and amusement of its guests. An abundance of sweet cream and milk is supplied from healthy cows kept on the Island. The table is bountiful. The facilities for fishing have been increased by the addition of new boats and experienced skippers.
When to all these advantages are added the purity of the air—the delicious coolness of the ocean breeze, its invigorating and appetizing power—the loveliness of the scenery—the glory of its sunsets—the cleanliness of its walks—its freeness from dust, mud, and all other annoyances of the kind—it may truly be said to possess advantages and attractions which no other watering place in New England can attain. The facility of the temperature is a natural advantage over the coast or the mountains, which invalids can fully appreciate.
A daily Packet, the SIBYL, Capt. Preble, runs direct to Appledore from Portsmouth, leaving Pier Wharf on the arrival of the morning train from Boston, and returns in the afternoon. The Sibyl has every accommodation for the comfort of passengers which a Packet requires.

THE ONLY PREPARATION
Having Proof so Strong and Direct
as to
Expel the Doubts of All.
For Statesmen, Judges, Editors, Physicians of the oldest schools as well as new, give it their unqualified sanction, and recommend it for all cases of eruptions, and diseases of the scalp and brain; but all woo have used it, unite in testifying that it will preserve the hair from being gray, and from falling to any age, as well as restore.—Read the following:—
Oak Grove, S. C., June 24, 1859.
Prof. O. J. Wood:—Dear:—Your Hair Restorative is rapidly gaining popularity in this community. I have had occasion to lay prejudice aside, and give your Hair Restorative a perfect test:—
During the year 1854, I was so unfortunate as to be thrown from my sulky against a rock near the roadside, from which my head received a most terrible blow; causing a great deal of irritation, which communicated to the brain and external surface of the head, from the effects of which my hair was entirely destroyed. From the time I first discovered its dropping, however, up to the time of its total disappearance, I employed everything I could think of, being a professional man myself, and as I thought, understanding the nature of the disease, but was finally defeated in every prescription advanced.
These and no other circumstances induced me to resort to your worthy "Hair Restorative," which I have every reason to believe, produced a very happy result: two months after the first application, I had as beautiful a head of young hair as I ever saw, for which I certainly owe you my sincere thanks. Rest assured, dear sir, I shall recommend your remedy to all inquirers; it defeated in every prescription advanced.
Yours, very respectfully,
M. J. WRIGHT, M. D.
Jeffersonian Office, Phillipi, Va., Dec. 12, 1859.
Professor O. J. Wood:—Dear Sir: I feel it my duty as well as my pleasure, to state to you the following circumstance, which you can use as you think proper. A gentleman of this place, (a lawyer,) has been bald ever since his early youth; so much so, that he was compelled to wear a wig. He was induced to use a bottle of your "Hair Restorative," which he liked very much; and after using some two or three bottles his hair grew out quite luxuriantly, and he now has a handsome head of hair. The gentleman's name is Bradford, and as he is very well known in our adjoining counties, many persons can testify to the truth of this statement. I give this to you at the request of Mr. Bradford. You can sell a great deal of your Hair Restorative in this and the adjoining counties if you take the proper agents. Yours, &c.,
THOMPSON SURGHNOR.
Dr. Wood—Dear Sir—Permit me to express the obligations I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color; about the time of my arrival in the United States it was rapidly becoming gray, but upon the application of your Hair Restorative it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative as a wonderful invention, quite efficacious as well as agreeable. S. THALBERG.
The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes: viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 10, 1860.

THE TEXAS TROUBLES.—Late Texas papers correct some of the exaggerations in regard to fires and insurrections in that State. The Tyler (Smith county) Sentinel says that no attempt has been made to fire that town, nor have the citizens of Smith county hung or otherwise violently dealt with any man. The Sentinel says the most thorough investigation made by a number of the leading citizens, has proved that no such thing as an insurrection has been thought of by the slaves in that county, and that if any such thing has been in contemplation east of the Trinity, it has been confined to one or two small neighborhoods.

In Upshur county a white man named Morrison has been hung for stealing a negro woman, and endeavoring to excite the slaves on plantations in Wood, Hopkins, Titus and Upshur counties to insurrection.

In Gainsville, Cook County, three abolitionists, Templeton, Hensley and Kirk, have been hung. It is stated that they implicated fifteen others in a conspiracies.

In Polaxy Springs, in Johnson county, a notorious horse thief named Robert Tucker was hung on the 16th August.

A fire, supposed to be incendiary, at Lavenia, on the night of the 17th, destroyed property to the amount of $25,000 or $30,000.

THE MURDERED METHODIST CLERGYMAN IN TEXAS.—The Albany Journal has the following in regard to one of the men murdered in Texas:

Rev. Mr. Bewley, who was hung in Texas a few days since on suspicion of abolitionism, will be remembered by many who attended the General Conference at Buffalo last May. He represented the Arkansas Conference, and was recognized as a peaceful, humble and devoted evangelist. His views of slavery were of the mildest character, and he would be deemed the last man to thrust his views—mild and conservative though they were—upon any community. On his removal to Texas a few months since, he carried with him testimonials of his humility and his devotion to his work.—But he was a Methodist! That, in Texas, is deemed the equivalent of abolitionism;—and the devoted minister of Christ, guilty of no crime, and on the merest suspicion that he cherished offensive opinions, was hung up like a murderer!

☞ Gov. Banks was "betrayed" into a speech at a gathering at Springfield the other evening. He said he was gratified at the county and horse shows. Such exhibitions are an incentive to labor and industrial improvement. The impression of the first horse show has been with him ever since, and impelled him to visit it with every repetition. The horse is to the community what the ship is to the civilized world and the sea. Interest lingers around the undiscovered greatness of a man or horse, and therefore the managers acted wisely in calling together the masses rather than the marked examples of flesh. He closed with a beautiful tribute to the products of Hampden county, displayed in the hall in Springfield.

EMANCIPATION MOVEMENT IN VA.—A correspondent of the New York Herald, writing from White Sulphur Springs, says that there is a grand emancipation scheme now in embryo in Western Virginia, which will develope itself in the course of the coming winter. The movement is to have for its leader "a distinguished gentleman from Eastern Virginia, not regarded as particularly sound on the slavery question for many years past." The movement is to be instituted with reference to a change in the basis of taxation.

FIRE IN LYNN.—At about 10 o'clock Friday evening, a fire broke out in the extensive coal sheds of Breed & Co., on Breed's Wharf, in Lynn. The sheds, six in number, were entirely destroyed. Over one hundred tons of coal, stored in the buildings, were on fire, when the special train came through, at 11 o'clock, and fears were entertained that a number of wooden buildings would be destroyed. A large schooner, lying at the wharf, was also on fire. It was low tide, and no water could be obtained to check the progress of the flames. The light of the fire was seen at a great distance, and engines from Danvers, Salem, and other places, went to the assistance of the Lynn firemen.

☞ A letter from Kingston, Jamaica, under date of Aug. 22, says:

The exports this year are 37,400 hogsheads sugar, 8000 puncheons rum, 4,000,000 pounds coffee, 4,500,000 pounds pimento, half a million pounds ginger, and about the usual quantities of arrowroot, logwood, honey, cotton, &c.

☞ Inspired, we presume, by the reported resuscitation of Hicks, pirate, "Mountain Farmer" writes to the Greenfield Courier, expressing doubt that Andre was ever executed. The soldier who guarded him on the night when he was to have been hung, had told a friend of "Mountain Farmer" in his early days, that he was hung with an "iron life preserver" about his neck.

2 DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., Sept., 7.—Steamship City of Washington, from Liverpool 29th ult., via Queenstown 30th, for New York, was intercepted off Cape Race at 2 P. M.

Parliament was prorogued on the 28th. The Queen's speech was read by the Lord Chancellor.

Her Majesty says she trusts there is no danger of any interruption of the general peace; believes if the Italians are left to settle their own difficulties, the tranquility of other States will remain undisturbed; hopes that in any negotiations which may occur on the Savoy question, the neutrality and independence of Switzerland will be maintained; laments the atrocities in Syria, and cheerfully concurs with other Powers, in assisting the Sultan to re-establish order.

The steamer Great Eastern averaged nearly 14 knots an hour on her passage home.

The improvement in the weather continued, but it was still unsettled.

The weather in France was still unsettled and showery.

The Emperor and Empress were at Chalons, where they met with an enthusiastic reception.

The Bourse was dull. Rentes 60f.

Garibaldi had been proclaimed Dictator at Polenses.

Large numbers of Calabrians were joining him.

The latest despatches report that the Royalists had again been defeated in Calabria, and it was reported in Paris on the 29th that the King of Naples had quitted that city on the previous evening, and gone on board the frigate Stromboli, and that the Piedmontese occupied the forts. This requires confirmation.

Disturbances at Naples were imminent, and appeals to the people to revolt were openly distribuied.

Gen. Basco had left Naples for Calabria with six battalion reinforcements.

A revolutionary movement in Salero was imminent.

The Pope, it is said, has expressed his readiness to agree to an Italian Confederation.

There is nothing important from Syria.

QUEENSTOWN, 30th.—The reported flight of the King of Naples is still unconfirmed.

SICILIAN BOATMEN.—The Sicilian correspondent of the London Daily News, writing from Faro Point, near Messina, Aug. 13, says:

There is no chance here of getting a boat for love or money, for the boatmen of this country are such a cowardly set of fellows that at the first sight of a Neapolitan cruiser, or at the first splashing of a cannon ball in the water, they begin to scream like children, and pull the boat ashore as fast as they can. Yet one can scarcely help being amused on hearing those fellows utter all sorts of prayers to their Madonnas and saints as soon as they think themselves in danger. It is not to be forgotten that Sicily is perhaps the most bigoted country of Europe, and its people the most ignorant. If the Neapolitans have got the liquefying blood of St. Januarius, the Messinese have an autograph letter of the Holy Virgin, and what is still stranger, the inhabitants of Taormina evince great devotion for a similar document.

How Garibaldi could have been permitted to land with so considerable a force is as unaccountable as was his landing at Marsala. The Neapolitan steamers have been for weeks past moving backward and forward through the Straits of Messina, close to Bagnara, exhibiting a fussy activity by day, and sending up an abundance of skyrockets in the night, but yet not interrupting the transmission of arms from Sicily to the main land, nor hindering the deputations of Calabrians to Garibaldi's headquarters.

With the landing parties the usual difficulty of keeping the Sicilian rowers in their places arose. Those fellows began to scream like monkeys, and, in spite of the bayonets pointed at them by the soldiers in the boats, some pulled up towards the shore they had started from, and some left their oars and fell down in the boats. The commander of the expedition would have had them shot at once, but how could he dispense with them?

THE PRINCE OF WALES.—Toronto, Sept. 7.—The Prince visited Peterboro, Port Hope, and Milby to-day, on his route to this city, where he arrived this evening. The city was illuminated. Everything is harmonious.

Coburg, Sept. 7.—All passed off quietly last night. The Prince's carriage was drawn to the ball-room by fifty citizens.

We hear of no material trouble with the potatoes in any part of our State. They are now beginning to come freely to market, and the crop is said to be immense. Good early varieties sell as low as 35 cents. Bangor Whig.

☞ The collection in aid of the Pope, made in the churches of Baltimore, will amount to $10,000 to $12,000.

ACCIDENT TO AN EX-PRESIDENT.—While riding through Concord, N. H., last Thursday, ex-President Pierce was thrown from his vehicle and somewhat bruised about the face. The shock stunned the General for a few moments.—Herald.

☞ Mrs. Fanny Kemble Butler advertises her cottage at Lenox, "The Perch," for sale.

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—The shipments of specie to Europe to-morrow from this city, will reach $1,100,000.

The slave brig W. R. Kilby has been condemned and ordered to be sold.

☞ Sir Benjamin Brodie, the celebrated London surgeon, has become totally blind.

LANSING, Mich., Sept. 7.—Senator Seward addressed about 15,000 people here today. There was a procession three miles long.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Sept. 7.—Mr. Douglas addressed a large assembly here to-day. The Mayor presided, and Gov. Packer made an introductory speech.

☞ In Great Falls, Tuesday afternoon, as Mr. Chas. Neally, of South Berwick, was riding in an open gig, the carriage was overturned by his turning suddenly, throwing him out, but not seriously injuring him; the shafts and seat were detached from the wheels, and the horse taking fright, ran down Orange street, where the rigging struck an open gate, which caused the horse to stumble and fall upon the sidewalk, where a large number of school children were at play. In his fall the horse struck several of the children, though none were seriously injured except a little girl, the only child of Mr. Libbey, who was fearfully crushed, and has since died.

ARREST ON CHARGE OF LIBEL.—The Washington correspondent of the New York Times, Mr. Goodlae, has been arrested on the charge of libelling the Secretary of War concerning Mr. Floyd's action in the DeGroot case. Mr. Goodlae was arrested under an old Maryland law, which is still in force in the District of Columbia, and held to answer in the sum of $1000.—His trial is ordered in the Criminal Court.

NEW USE FOR CRINOLINE.—A young lady in Roxbury recently succeeded in catching a stray canary bird under her crinoline. The thing was neatly done.—Some boys had given chase to the bird, which, tired and confused, hopped toward the young lady, who by a quick circular motion made a "cheese," and enclosed the runaway in a case.

HAIL STORM.—The Keene (N. H.) Sentinel states that a destructive hail storm passed over the south part of Rindge about two weeks ago. It started in Fitzwilliam, and swept along in a path some half a mile wide, terminating in the eastern part of New Ipswich. The grain, corn, and fruit on the trees, were almost wholly destroyed on six or eight farms in Rindge.

☞ The will of Lady Byron has been admitted to probate, and it is found that Charles Follen of Boston receives "£300 (about $1500) to assist him in the difficulties he will have to contend with in his disinterested advocacy of the rights of the colored race." In addition to $300,000 personal, she had several valuable real estates. She has bequeathed considerable sums to charitable purposes.

STARVATION IN LOUISIANA.—The Nachitoches Chronicle of the 25th ult. says:—

Every day we hear new and grevious complaints of the wants of the necessaries of life among the poorer class of people in this parish, who have been cut off from the ordinary supply of corn and meat.—There is actual suffering in our midst, and every consideration of genuine philanthropy and charity should prompt us at once to take efficient measures for relief of those whom starvation is staring in the face. Acts, and not words, are now required.

☞ A keg of powder was placed under Mr. Adle's grocery in New Orleans, and ignited in the night, blowing Mr. Adle from his bed through a second story front window to the sidewalk, but doing him little injury. The building was mostly demolished.

SYMPATHY FOR JOHN BROWN. The statement which is going the rounds that only between two and three hundred dollars has been subscribed in Hayti for the family of John Brown, it appears is a mistake. A late Haytien paper gives the amount of the subscriptions thus far as $30,000, Haytien—equal to about $2000 Spanish.—Boston Journal.

☞ Breeders of stock in Kentucky and Tennessee, are doing what they have never done before, says a correspondent of the New York Post, sending their hogs and cattle in huge droves over to Illinois, to be fed there, where corn is eighteen cents a bushel, while in their own States it is a dollar.

☞ There has been discovered a great "sensation" at Plumshead, England. There is now residing there James Cooper, in his 90th year, a veteran who attended Napoleon during his confinement at St. Helena. He has no pension, and has to struggle hard "to keep the wolf from the door."

☞ A convict in the New Hampshire State Prison, by the name of John Hale, 70 years old, escaped Thursday morning, and has not yet been caught. Another convict committed suicide in his cell last week by cutting his throat.

☞ The Fond du lac Press (Douglas Dem.) says, "there is not a buggy load of Breckinridge men in the State." To this the Madison Argus (Breckinridge Dem.) replies: "Perhaps not, but there will be a 'sulky' load of Douglas men after election."

☞ Capt. Ogden, who died recently in New York, was one of the few Americans who escaped in the bloody fight between the frigate Essex and the British ships Phœbe and Cherub. He had a high reputation in the service.

☞ The lodging room of Prof. Dewey, in Westfield, Mass., was entered by a burglar one night last week, who carried off his entire wearing apparel, from coat to neck-tie. The rogue got no money.

☞ The Old Farmer's 1861 Almanac, by Rob't B. Thomas, No. 69, just received from Swan, Brewer & Tileston, Boston.—How the years slip away.

LOTTERIES AT "FAIRS."

Did you ever hear of a "Fair" without its "Lottery?" No matter for what purpose it was gotten up—whether for the Orphan, Sunday School, or Church,—there was the Lottery, and just there, the prettiest girl in the room to attend it. A single chance cost more than all the toy-prizes were worth; yet the fat clergyman laughed, and his good wife "fussed," and it was all right and perfectly proper. Why, then, upon what ground can our clerical friend object to the legalized Lotteries of Messrs. WOOD, EDDY & CO., of Wilmington, Delaware, and St. Louis, Missouri, who offer chances for $20, $10, $5, and $2 50? A letter addressed to them, enclosing the amount, will be attended to, and ticket enclosed by return mail.

☞ We call the attention of our readers to an article advertised in another column, called BLOOD FOOD. It is an entirely new discovery, and must not be confounded with any of the numerous patent medicines of the day. It is food for the blood, already prepared for absorption; pleasant to the taste and natural in action, and what one gains he retains. Let all those, then, who are suffering from poverty, impurity, or deficiency of blood, and consequently with some chronic disease or ailment, take of this BLOOD FOOD and be restored to health. We notice that our druggists have received a supply of this article, and also of the world-renowned DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL, which every mother should have. It is said to contain no paregoric or opiate of any kind whatever, and of course must be invaluable for all infantile complaints. It is also said that it will allay all pain, and soften the gums in process of teething, and at the same time regulate the bowels. Let all mothers and nurses, who have endured anxious days and sleepless nights, procure a supply and be at once relieved.

SPRINGFIELD, N. H., April 19, 1855.

My daughter has been troubled with the Scrofulous Humor, causing swelling of the neck, for a number of years, and by the use of four bottles of Dr. S. Swett's Panacea, the swelling has been entirely removed, and her health is good.

JANE B. ELLIOTT.

The above testimony of my wife is true.

ENOCH B. ELLIOTT.

Hundreds of testimonials on hand might be added, evincing the many cures by Dr. Swett's medicine. All orders directed to DR. SIMEON SWETT, PORTSMOUTH, N. H., No. 1 School St., for his Panacea, Cough Drops, Conserve, Rheumatic Compound and Family Pills, and other of his popular remedies, will be promptly attended to.

Humphreys' Homeopathic Specifics

CURE PROMPTLY and safely all the more common diseases and ailments to which families are subject. In all acute diseases, such as fevers, inflammations, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Rheumatism, Croup, and such eruptive diseases as Scarlet Fever, Measles, and Erysipelas, the advantage of giving the proper remedies promptly is obvious, and in all such cases the specifics act like a charm. The entire disease is often aborted, and, in all cases the violence of the attack is moderated, the disease shortened, and rendered less dangerous.

Coughs and Colds, which are of such frequent occurrence, and which so often lay the foundation of diseased lungs, Bronchitis and Consumption, may all be at once cured by the Fever and Cough Pills.

In all chronic diseases, such as Dyspepsia, Constipation, Weak Stomach, Liver Complaint, Piles Female Debility and Irregularities, old Headaches, Sore or Weak Eyes, Catarrh, Salt Rheum and other old eruptions, the case has specifics whose proper application will afford a cure in almost every instance. Often the cure of a single chronic difficulty, such as Dyspepsia, Piles or Catarrh, Headache or Female Weakness, has more than paid for the case ten times over.

☞ The Board of Aldermen having voted it inexpedient for the City to pay for gas lights at the corners of the new Post Office enclosure—the four posts (which were prepared for lanterns,) have been finished with urn-like ornaments, similar to those on the other posts.

TERRIBLE DISASTER ON LAKE MICHIGAN.—Chicago, Sept. 8.—Steamer Lady Elgin was run into by a schooner off Wankegan at 2:30 this morning, and sunk in twenty minutes in three hundred feet of water.

There were 350 or 400 passengers on board, including several military and fire companies. Col. Lumsden, of the New Orleans Picayune, and family, are supposed to be lost. Only seventeen are known to have been saved.

The schooner was going at the rate of eleven miles an hour. A steam tug has gone to the scene of the disaster.

☞ The largest gathering of people ever assembled in Hampden, Me., the home of the Republican candidate for the Vice Presidency, came off Friday afternoon, closing in the evening with torch-light procession, illumination, and fireworks. Hon. Linus B. Comins, of Massachusetts, and Hon. Israel Washburne, Jr., made speeches. Mr. Hamlin was called out, as the procession arrived at his house, and welcomed the people of Hampden and vicinity in the warmest and most heartfelt manner.

MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEARANCE. — Mr. Charles D. Benjamin, of Preston, Conn., who had shipped as first officer of ship Jireh Perry, of this port, which was to have sailed to-day for the Pacific Ocean, went on board yesterday afternoon, the vessel laying in the outer harbor. At 11 o'clock last night, he went into his state room and extinguished his light. This morning nothing could be found of him, but his coat, watch, and baggage remained undisturbed. It is supposed that he went into the main chains during the night, and fell overboard. It had been noticed that he was low spirited at times, and had expressed some doubt about going in the ship. He is represented to be worth property to the amount of $15,000 to $20,000.—New Bedford Standard, Sept. 6.

ACCOMMODATING.—Among the public accommodations in Springfield, Mass., is a bathing establishment. "Baths, hot and cold, constantly on hand," says the enticing announcement. Enter weary and dust covered traveller:

Traveller—"Have you a bath?"

Very Polite Attendant—"Yes sah; yes sah; when will you have it?"

Traveller—"I would like it now, to be sure."

Very Polite Attendant—"Yes sah; yes sah. Can get it ready for you any time to-morrow forenoon."

The traveller declined to wait.

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—A dispatch from Washington says that charges have been made by Hon. Preston King, against the Postmaster of that city, for refusing to mail documents franked by Republican members of Congress.

☞ On Saturday the amount of wheat (including flour,) received at Chicago was 205,566 bushels—which are the heaviest receipts for one day ever known in the history of the city.

In the cemetery at Lanesville may be seen the following epitaph:

"This little Hero that lies here
Was conquered by the Diarrhœa."

—Gloucester Telegraph.

If a flock of geese see one of their number drink, they will drink too. Men often make geese of themselves.

Humility of mind is neither arrived at, retained, nor increased, by comparing ourselves with others.

SPRINGFIELD, Sept. 7.—The Horse Show closed this afternoon in the presence of about eighteen thousand people.

The State Prize Banner was awarded to the Connecticut State Agricultural Society.

The principal premiums were awarded as follows:—For thorough-bred stallions, $200 to Comet of New York. For thorough bred mares, $100 to Narcissa. Thorough-bred stallions for general use, five to eight years old, $100 to Patrick Henry and David Hill. Four year old stallions, first premium to Ethan Allen colt belonging to Harrington of Salem; second premium to Ethan Allen colt belonging to Geo. Weston of Worcester. Matched horses, $100 to Mr. T. Adams of Roxbury, and $100 to Mr. Washburne of Worcester. Stallions eight years old, $200 to Jupiter.

INTERESTING FROM SYRIA.—Extract from a private letter:

BEIRUT, Aug. 4, 1860.

I send you the following, received this morning from Mr. Robson, dated Damascus, Aug. 2:

"I thank God that at last a Christian may feel safe in Damascus. The Moslems are terrified in turn. With Mr. Brant's kind help, I have to-day sent off all the remaining Protestants, except the Meshakas, (family of American Vice Consul,) who are able to take care of themselves. The government furnished animals; no hire is paid by us. Some two thousand Christians and two hundred Jews went off to-day."

An attempt was made to destroy the Christians in the castle by mixing poison with their food, and seven persons have died in consequence. Several persons were arrested on suspicion.

MERRIMACK COUNTY FAIR.—Hon. Eli Thayer, one of the Representatives in Congress from Massachusetts, will deliver the address before the Merrimac County Agricultural Society, on the second day of their Fair. The officers of the Society are hard at work, preparing for the Fair, on the Plains, in Concord.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents.

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, Under the act of 1837.

76 STATE, OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior; to, any which can be offered them, elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse." CHAS. MASON, Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office." EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents.

BOSTON, February 2, 1858.

"Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART.

From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on TWICE rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in HIS FAVOR, by the Commissioner of Patents.

LYMAN'S
Improved Patent Metallic Soles.
PATENTED JUNE 7, 1859.

The nature of this invention consists of a metallic sole for Boots and Shoes, which has been tested and operates admirably. No dampness penetrates through to the inside sole. This is the only device that will operate well between two soles, and is made so thin as not to interfere with the most delicately finished work. The necessity of such a device to fully accomplish the much desired object, and the direful effects arising from damp feet, are too well understood to require any comment.

It is obvious to every one that sole leather is porous, absorbing water, and that the soles of boots and shoes are often damp when they appear dry, causing cold feet, chills, neuralgia, rheumatism, consumption, &c.

Physicians of eminence have pronounced this Metallic Sole an invaluable discovery, and state that, if generally used, it will cause an immense saving of human life.

The right to manufacture and sell the above Improved Metallic Sole for the County of Rockingham has been purchased by the subscriber.

Boot and shoe manufacturers and dealers in Rockingham County furnished with the soles, with right to use, at No. 24 Market Street, Portsmouth, N. H. J. C. CARR.

It is a mild tonic to the stomach, increasing the appetite, assisting digestion, pre-eminently good in dyspepsia, strengthening and invigorating to the digestive and nervous systems after prostrating diseases; and in fever and ague, or kindred complaints, its aid is invaluable.

For diarrhœa, dysentery and cholera morbus, the public may rest assured there is nor can be any better general remedy.

One of the very best Physicians in Boston has said "but it is the better portion of Bitters that has ever been offered to the public."

Put up in half-pint as well as quart bottles, in order that all may convince themselves of its superior merits.

Morning Chronicle.

In a town not a thousand miles from this city, says the Temperance Journal, there is a father and son of the same name. The old gentleman is a Republican, and the young man a leading Democrat. A short time since, our Democratic friends enclosed in a letter fifty dollars, directing that it should be expended in the best manner possible. They forgot to append "Jr." to the address, and so it fell into the hands of the Republican. He followed the directions of the letter according to his best judgment, and with it paid his taxes, grocery, and other little bills.—Portland Courier.

NEW ENGLAND FAIRS.—As September and October are the finest months for travelling, so are they noted for the fairs held in them in all parts of the country.—These fairs are becoming of increased importance every year to all classes in the community. Those to be held in New England will, it is expected, be uncommonly attractive during the present season; and will no doubt bring together a large number of people, not only manufacturers and merchants, but public men as well as private citizens, from all the Atlantic and inland towns and cities.—Boston Trans.

A FACT FOR SWIMMERS.—It may not be generally known that when a person is drowning, if he is taken by the arm from behind, between the elbow and shoulder, he cannot touch the person attempting to save him, and whatever struggles he may make will only assist the person holding him in keeping his head above water. A good swimmer can thus keep a man above water for an hour. If seized anywhere else the probability is that he will clutch the swimmer and perhaps, as is often the case, both will be drowned.

THE JOCKEYS.—Some peculiar traits of Yankee character are daily developed at Hampden Park, Springfield, where a National Horse Show is now in successful operation. A class of men can be found there (lovers of lucre as well as the equine race) who will never, under any contingency, lose the sale of a horse from any modesty of nature, in naming too low a price for the animal.—Boston Trans.

CLIPPER PLOWS

Are manufactured only by the subscribers, the inventors, who offer them to the agricultural interest after they have been

THOROUGHLY TESTED

by experienced Plowmen, who pronounce them

The Best in the Market!

These Plows embrace NINE DIFFERENT SIZES, the largest of which is much in advance of anything in the United States, as regards size, and, like the other sizes of this celebrated Plow, is drawn easily by a team much smaller than is absolutely requisite to draw a Plow of less size, of any other make than the Clipper.

We also assure our Farming friends that as we have hitherto endeavored to make our Plows superior to all others in those points which especially interest Plowmen, we are still endeavoring by unceasing exertions, to improve—if this be possible—upon our former successes, although those who are best acquainted in these matters say, "It cannot be done."

Notwithstanding the immense advantages which these Plows possess over all others, we offer them at THE SAME PRICES as are charged for common grades, satisfied that their great superiority will induce so large a sale, that our aggregate profits will make our business sufficiently remunerative.

BLOOD FOOD

The attention of Invalids, Physicians, Clergymen, scientific men, and the public generally, is respectfully solicited to the merits of this chemical preparation, containing Iron, Sulphur and Phosphorus, and which is unrivalled in its composition with the Hematic Globule, or red blood.—In all diseases accompanied with

DEBILITY,

pale countenance and nervous derangement, analyses of the blood show a deficiency of the red globules. Ruddy complexion and a rosy tint of the skin, is always indicative of health; while a pale, wax-like skin and countenance,—which evinces a considerable deficiency of the red globules,—accompanies a diseased organism. Preparations of Iron have been given for the purpose of supplying the red globules, but we contend that Iron alone, Sulpur alone, or Phosphorus alone, will not meet the deficiency in every case, but that a judicious combination of all these elements is necessary to restore the blood to its normal standard. This point, never before attained, has been reached in the Blood Food, and its discovery ranks as one of the most scientific and important of the age. Its effects in

are to soften the cough, brace the nerves, strengthen the system, allay the prostrating night sweats, increase the physical and mental energy, enrich the blood by restoring the lacking red globules, increase the appetite, perfect digestion, and dotte the skeleton frame with flesh. The Blood Food will be found a specific to all CHRONIC DISEASES of the LUNGS, such as Asthma, Bronchitis, Coughs, &c. Public speakers and singers will find it of great utility in clearing and strengthening the vocal organs. In Dyspepsia, Liver Complaints, Dropsy, Epilepsy, Fumigata, Scrofula, General, St. Vitus' Dance, Fever and Ague, &c., its efficacy is marked and instantaneous. In no class of diseases, however, are the beneficial effects of this remedy so conspicuous as in those harrassing

FEMALE COMPLAINTS

to which the gentler sex are liable, and which tend towards Consumption, such as suppressed or difficult Menstruation, Green Sickness, Whites, &c., especially when these complaints are accompanied with paleness, a dingy hue or pallor of the skin, depression of spirits, debility, palpitation want of appetite, and nervous prostration. We have the utmost confidence in recommending the Blood Food to all who may be conscious of a loss of vitality or energy, and to those whose mental or bodily powers are prostrated through excess, either of the mind or body, and we deem it our duty to say that in all cases of Weakness and Emaciation, and in all diseases of the Kidneys or Bladder, this preparation has a claim upon the attention of sufferers which cannot be over-estimated. A faithful trial will be found the most convincing proof in regard to its efficacy that could be asked for. With the above remarks, and with the numerous testimonials we have in its favor, we offer the "Blood Food" to the consideration of the afflicted, knowing that it will be acknowledged as pre-eminent over all other preparations, patent or official, in cases of weakness. Circulars giving the Theory upon which this remedy is founded, also certificates of remarkable cures, will be sent free when desired. We forward the Blood Food to any part of the United States or Canadas upon receipt of price—$1 per bottle, $5 for six bottles. Be careful in all cases to take none but that having our fac-similie signature upon the wrapper. None other is genuine.

Humphreys' Homeopathic Specific Remedies for the People

THE Remedies are carefully prepared under the direct supervision of Dr. HUMPHREYS, in order to meet that great and long realized want of the public, namely, remedies for all the more common and simple ailments of life.

A moment's reflection will show that a vast majority of diseases from which we suffer and die, were, at their commencement, simple and trifling. A mere cold, a slight diarrhœa, a pain in the side, or a headache, or hoarseness, at first easily cured and subdued, in time becomes a consumption, a fever, a dangerous dysentery and Cholera, or other disease, which all the powers of medicine fail to arrest.

Herein these remedies supply a great public want. Being on hand, simple, so you know at once what to take—pleasant, so as to cause no repugnance—safe, and hence occasioning no risk, while the curative effects are speedy, certain, and permanent, they are taken, and at once the spell is broken and the danger allayed.

Experience has amply confirmed the use of these remedies in families and private persons, as being THE BEST IN USE, THE MOST SIMPLE AND CONVENIENT, THE MOST PROMPT AND RELIABLE.

Thousands upon thousands have been using them for some five years past, in every section of the country, with almost invariable success. All speak in the highest terms of their simplicity and efficacy, and among our hundreds of agents the uniform testimony is, that they give good satisfaction to their customers.

In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of acute disease or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.

In NERVOUS AFFECTIONS of all kinds, and for persons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old oxides, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and over-heating; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which renders it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency, which forms them.

In DYSPEPSIA, innumerable are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In unchecked DIARRHŒA, even when advanced to DYSENTERY, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, its effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, distressing cough, and other effects herein, which generally indicate INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most continuously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well-known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In RHEUMATISM, both in acute and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In INTERMITTENT FEVERS it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

A remedy has ever been discovered, in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects,—Good apparently malignant diseases, from deprivation of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by Druggists and Dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to

DR. MOTT'S CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE PILLS OF IRON.

An Important and Stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States, and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Innoxious in all maladies in which it has been tried—it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

IN DEBILITY, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, EMACIATIONS, CONSTIPATION, DIARRHŒA, DYSPEPSIA, DYSENTERY, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, SALT RHEUM, MISMENSTRUATION, WHITES, CHLOROSIS, RHEUMATISM, INTERMITTENT FEVERS, TIMPLES ON THE FACE, &c.

In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of acute disease or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.

In NERVOUS AFFECTIONS of all kinds, and for persons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old oxides, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and over-heating; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which renders it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency, which forms them.

In DYSPEPSIA, innumerable are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In unchecked DIARRHŒA, even when advanced to DYSENTERY, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, its effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, distressing cough, and other effects herein, which generally indicate INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most continuously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well-known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In RHEUMATISM, both in acute and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In INTERMITTENT FEVERS it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

A remedy has ever been discovered, in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects,—Good apparently malignant diseases, from deprivation of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by Druggists and Dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to

OUR FOREMOTHERS.—Some wag, zealous for the honor of womanhood, has given utterance to the following tribute to his ancestors on the female side. It is well done, and worth reading:

We hear enough about our forefathers.—They were nice old fellows, no doubt. Good to work, eat or fight. Very well. But where are their companions—their 'chums,'—who, as their helpmates, urged them along? Who worked and delved for the forefathers, brushed up their old clothes, and patched their breeches? Who almost involved themselves for the cause of liberty? Who nursed our forefathers when sick—sang Yankee Doodle to their babies—who trained up their boys? Our forefathers.

Who landed at James river, and came over in the Mayflower, and established the other early settlements? Were there any women among them? One would think not. Our Yankee neighbors, especially, make a wonderful talk about the Pilgrim Fathers who squatted on Plymouth Rock, and there is a great ado made about it every time they wish to get up a little enthusiasm on liberty, and refresh themselves by crowing over freedom; and the chivalry of Virginia are not a whit behind them, when they take a notion to vaunt themselves upon the glory and greatness of the Old Dominion; and our staid Pennsylvania Quakers, too, like to plume themselves slyly upon the doings of William Penn and his associates; but with all the "blarney" so plentifully distributed on all sides, what do we hear or gather about the foremothers? Didn't they land on a rock, too? Didn't they encounter perils and hardships? And after all, didn't they, with their kind hearts, sustain the flagging spirits of their male companions?

Who ushered us into this world—our forefathers? Bah! No, indeed, it was our foremothers. Who nursed George Washington, Anthony Wayne, Ben Franklin, Israel Putnam, and a host of other worthies whose names will live forever, and taught them to be men and patriots? Didn't our foremothers? And who gives them the credit they deserve? Nobody.

We have our monuments commemorating, and our speeches, our songs, our toasts, and our public dinners celebrating the wonderful deeds of our forefathers, but where are those in honor of our foremothers? We talk ourselves hoarse, and write ourselves round-shouldered while boiling over with enthusiasm about the nice things our forefathers did, and yet nothing is said about our foremothers, to whom many a virtuous act and brave deed may be ascribed, such as any here would be proud to own.

We wish not to detract. All hail to the noble old men, our forefathers, say we.—May the glory of their deeds never be less; but the good Book tells us to "render unto Cæsar," etc., and we wish to speak a word in season for women generally, and especially for our noble and self-sacrificing foremothers, lest time and the one-sided page of history shall blot them forever from our memories.

GETTING IN WHEAT IN WISCONSIN.—A gentleman of this city, a few weeks ago, went out into Walworth county to transact some business. At that time the country was absorbed entirely in securing the harvest, and the gentleman had a great deal of trouble in finding any body "to home." We will let him tell his own story:

I stopped at the house of my friend B——and knocked all the skin off my knuckles at his front door, but could not start anybody, and just as I was going away, a passer by, in answer to my enquiry, said that "B——was getting in his wheat." I then went over into another part of the town, to where an old school-mate, Squire R——, resided. I walked in at the open door, sat down in an open down, sat down in the parlor a few minutes, and no one appearing, I walked up stairs and down stairs, but couldn't find a soul.

When I got around on the porch again, the same fellow came along who had answered my question before, and I hailed him:—

"Is the Squire in town?"

"Getting in his wheat, I reckon."

"Well, where's his lady?"

"She's helpin' the Squire."

"And the young ladies?"

"Getting in the wheat, stranger—you'll find 'em all down in the field about a mile from here."

I then concluded I would try the hotel, and carried my carpet-bag to the public house. There was a notice on the door, saying that the house would be closed for a week, as the proprietor was getting in his wheat. Things began to look desperate now. I had carried my carpet bag about five miles already in the hot sun, and it was growing momentarily heavier.

So when I saw a boy coming towards the house, I made up my mind to give him a dollar to carry it for me. I was somewhat surprised, however, when, in reply to my offer, he gyrated his digits at the extremity of his nasal projection, and "guess'd I'd have to wait till dad got his wheat in."

At this stage of proceedings I resolved to walk to the first house I saw, and demand, in the name of civilization, the hospitality due to a traveller. As the house happened to be a boarding-school for young ladies, I was fortunate enough to secure a night's rest, and the next day, not being able to see any one but young ladies, as everybody was getting in his wheat, I left for home, resolved never to return there when people were harvesting.—Milwaukie Sentinel, 25th.

APPLEDORE HOUSE,
ISLES OF SHOALS.
This favorite resort for the man of leisure and the invalid is now open. Since last year many alterations and additions have been made, increasing its capacity. Billiard and Bowling Saloons are provided, and every measure taken to secure the comfort and amusement of its guests. An abundance of sweet cream and milk is supplied from healthy cows kept on the Island. The table is faultless. The facilities for fishing have been increased by the addition of new boats and experienced skippers.
When to all these advantages are added the purity of the air—the delicious coolness of the ocean breeze, its invigorating and appetizing power—the loveliness of the scenery—the glory of its sunsets—the cleanliness of its walks—its freeness from dust, mud, and all other annoyances of the kind—it may truly be said to possess advantages and a charm which no other watering place in New England can attain. The equability of the temperature is a natural advantage over the coast or the mountains, which invalids can fully appreciate.
A daily Packet, the SIBYL, Capt. Preble, runs direct to Appledore from Portsmouth, leaving Pier Wharf on the arrival of the morning train from Boston, and returns in the afternoon. The Sibyl has every accommodation for the comfort of passengers which a Packet requires.

THE ONLY PREPARATION
Having Proof so Strong and Direct
as to
Expel the Doubts of All.
For Statesmen, Judges, Editors, Physicians of the oldest schools as well as new, give it their unqualified sanction, and recommend it for all cases of Dyspepsia, and diseases of the scalp and brain; but all woo have used it, unite in testifying that it will preserve the hair from being gray, any from falling to any age, as well as restore.—Read the following:—
Oak Grove, S. C., June 24, 1859.
Prof. O. J. Wood:—Dear:—Your Hair Restorative is rapidly gaining popularity in this community. I have had occasion to lay prejudice aside, and give your Hair Restorative a perfect test.—
During the year 1854, I was so unfortunate as to be thrown from my sulky against a rock near the roadside, from which my head received a most terrible blow; causing a great deal of irritation, which communicated to the brain and external surface of the head, from the effects of which my hair was entirely destroyed. From the time I first discovered its dropping, however, up to the time of its total disappearance, I employed everything I could think of, being a professional man myself, and as I thought, understanding the nature of the disease, but was finally defeated in every prescription advanced.
These and no other circumstances induced me to resort to your worthy "Hair Restorative," which I have every reason to believe, produced a very happy result: two months after the first application, I had as beautiful a head of young hair as I ever saw, for which I certainly owe you my sincere thanks. Rest assured, dear sir, I shall recommend your remedy to all inquirers; moreover, I shall use my influence, which I flatter myself to say, is not a little.
You can publish this if you think proper.
Yours, very respectfully,
M. J. WRIGHT, M. D.
Jeffersonian Office, Phillipi, Va., Dec. 12, 1859.
Professor O. J. Wood:—Dear Sir: I feel it my duty as well as my pleasure, to state to you the following circumstance, which you can use as you think proper. A gentleman of this place, (a lawyer,) has been bald ever since his early youth; so much so, that he was compelled to wear a wig. He was induced to use a bottle of your "Hair Restorative," which he liked very much; and after using some two or three bottles his hair grew out quite luxuriantly, and he now has a handsome head of hair. The gentleman's name is Bradford, and as he is very well known in our adjoining counties, many persons can testify to the truth of this statement: I give this to you at the request of Mr. Bradford. You can sell a great deal of your Hair Restorative in this and the adjoining counties if you have the proper agents. Yours, &c.,
THOMPSON SURGHNOR.
Dr. Wood—Dear Sir—Permit me to express the obligations I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color; about the time of my arrival in the United States it was rapidly becoming gray, but upon the application of your Hair Restorative it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative as a very wonderful invention, quite efficacious as well as agreeable. S. THALBERG.
The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a pint, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

GREAT STEAMBOAT DISASTER.

By dispatches from Chicago it appears that one of the most dreadful steamboat disasters has just taken place on the lake—and that about two hundred lives are lost, including Col. Lomelen of the N. O. Picayune, and family.

On the 8th of Sept., says the dispatch of that day, steamer Lady Elgin was run into by a schooner at Waukegan at 2:30 in the morning, and sunk in twenty minutes in three hundred feet of water. There were from three hundred and fifty to four hundred passengers on board, including seveal military and fire companies. About one hundred persons were rescued.

The schooner was going at the rate of eleven miles an hour. The mate of the boat gives the following account:—

At about 2 1-2 o'clock this morning, schooner Augusta, of Oswego, came in collision with Lady Elgin when about ten miles from shore. The vessel struck the steamer at midship-gangway, on larboard side. The two vessels separated instantly, and the Augusta drifted by in darkness.

At the moment of the collision there were music and dancing going on in the forward cabin. In an instant after the crash all was still, and in half an hour after the steamer sunk. I passed through the cabins; the ladies were pale but silent.—There was not a cry or shriek,—no sound but the rush of steam and the surge of the heavy sea. Whether they were fully aware of the danger, or whether their appalling situation rendered them speechless, I cannot tell.

A boat was lowered at once with a design of going round upon the larboard side to examine the leak. There were two oars belonging to the boat, but just at that moment some person possessed himself of one of them and we were powerless to manage the boat.

We succeeded once in reaching the wheel but were quickly drifted away and thrown upon the Beach at Winetka. Only two boats were left on the steamer. One of them contained thirteen persons, all of whom were saved. The other boat had eight persons, but only four succeeded in reaching the shore alive, the others being drowned at the beach.

Before I left the steamer the engine had ceased to work, and the fires had been extinguished.

The force and direction of the wind was such that the boats and fragments of the wreck were drifted up the lake and would reach the shore in the vicinity of Winetka.

A dispatch from Chicago of the 9th, says:

Capt. Malott of the schooner Augusta states that when he first discovered the steamer's lights, both red and bright, he supposed her to be from a quarter to half a mile distant, and steering northeast. It was raining very hard at the time. We kept our vessel on her course, east by south, until we saw that a collision was probable when we put the helm hard up; struck the steamer 2 or 3 minutes afterwards, just abaft the paddle-box on the port side.

The steamer kept on her course with engine in full motion; headed the Augusta, around north, alongside the steamer, but they got separated in about a minute, when the Augusta fell in the trough of the sea, and all head-gear, jibboom and stancheons were carried away. We took in sail and cleared away anchor, supposing the vessel would fill. After clearing away the wreck got up the foresail and succeeded in getting before the wind, and stood for land. We lost sight of the steamer in five minutes after the collision.

In the first ward of Milwaukie, it is said, there is scarcely a house or place of business which has not lost some inmate or employee.

All the survivors unite in praise of Capt. Jack Wilson for his great bravery and daring. He was foremost in confronting danger and earnest for the safety of the passengers. He was drowned within one hundred feet of the shore.

Nearly 100 persons arrived within 50 yards of the beach, but were swept back by returning waves and lost.

Up to 9 o'clock to night only twenty-one bodies have been recovered, most of which are recognized by friends as those of residents of Milwaukie.

☞ The reporters of some of the Boston papers when they are hard up for news items make the most of what they can get. The other day we saw in an enterprising Boston Daily an account of a man's losing two fingers in a hay-cutter, in Boston, in which the fell particulars were given. This was doubtless interesting to the loser of the fingers, and his friends, but it seems to be rather a small accident for such a big city as Boston. Up in New Hampshire the papers do not publish such accidents where less than three fingers were cut off!

☞ A portion of the Derby Range building, at the junction of Court and Sudbury streets, Boston, fell down Saturday afternoon, in consequence of its foundation being weakened by digging away the earth to lay the foundation for a new structure. The rain of Saturday may have had something to do with it, but carelessness probably more. Fortunately no one was injured, except in the way of fright; and in that particular but little.

☞ The Amherst Express says a laboring man in that town has a sore upon his foot from which a worm is protruding. It has already projected twelve inches. A few years since he had one taken from one of his limbs twenty-seven feet long.

MAINE ELECTION.

The election of Governor, State officers, and Members of Congress, in Maine, took place Monday—and from the first returns, it appears that the State has given an increased Republican majority.

In the town of Kittery, the vote for Governor was—Washburn 231, Smart 271. The same for Representative to Congress.

John Wentworth, Republican, was elected Rep. to Legislature, having 253 votes.—E. C. Spinney, Democrat, had 238.

In York, the vote for Governor was—Washburn 278, Smart 302. For Representative to Congress—Goodwin 278, Hayes 304. Representative to Legislature, Samuel E. Paine, Democrat.

Eliot—Smart's majority 13.

The York County Republican ticket is said to be elected by 1000 majority.

Dispatches from Portland at 9 P. M. say that Goodwin, Republican, is elected to Congress from the first District by about 1500 maj.; and Fessenden, Rep., in the third District by 300.

In Portland, Washburn had 2715, Smart 2259, Barnes (Bell-Everett) 259.

Washburn's maj. will probably reach 18,000, and the Republicans have elected all the Members of Congress.

FUSION IN NEW YORK.—New York, Sept. 8.—The negotiations between the Breckinridge and Douglas Committees yesterday amounted to nothing. The former claimed ten names on the electoral ticket, and the latter offered six.

Sept. 9.—After the adjournment, yesterday, of the Breckinridge State Committee, the Douglas sub-committee on fusion agreed to accept the propositions of the former as a basis for fusion, subject to the ratification of the Douglas State Committee. The propositions are to place ten Breckinridge men on the electoral ticket, and Breckinridge men for Lt. Governor and Canal Commissioner on the State ticket.

☞ In a Republican address, recently delivered, Horace Greeley said:—

The State of New York could not be kept from Lincoln. There were not ten counties in the State that could be got to go for Douglas or the Union Electoral ticket. There were 325,000 Republican voters in the State. For ten years they had polled 250,000 on a light vote, and 275,000 for Fremont. Surely there were 75,000 who voted for Fillmore who would now vote for Lincoln and Hamlin. (Applause.) He had heard talk of apathy, but he did not know where it was, in this election.

QUEER FRIENDSHIP.—On one of our wharves may be seen a chicken that has taken the fancy to leave the maternal shelter and seek the company of a pig altogether. No inducement can keep it from the sty. Several times has chick been taken away, but he is soon found at his old quarters. The pig seems to enjoy it no less than his visitor, and the chicken is never so happy as when perched upon piggy's nose. They are fast friends and will not be separated. Gloucester Telegraph.

AN ECCENTRIC INDIVIDUAL.—The head of a celebrated mercantile house in Vienna has recently erected a mausoleum which no one, even his most intimate friend, is allowed to enter. The walls are covered with black velvet, upon which appear the family arms of the proprietor. Upon a platform slightly elevated, stands an open coffin, candles of black wax at its four corners. At the foot of the coffin is a plate of silver, on which are the name and date of birth of the future occupant of the narrow abode, and a space has been left for the date of his death, and this he evidently expects within the coming ten years—for he has completed the record as far as 186—. Daily he is accompanied by his friends to the door of this tomb, there he leaves them, enters alone into the edifice, lies down in his coffin, and causes a concealed organ to play lugubrious music. Then he goes forth to the world again, dines heartily and converses with a gayety of manner which charms all his guests.

Lynn is at the present time the largest morocco manufacturing city in the United States, with one exception,—Philadelphia, and its location near Boston, and in the heart of the shoe trade, together with its admirable facilities for carrying on the business, must make it hereafter, at no distant time, as noted for making morocco as it is for ladies shoes.—Lynn Bay State.

A young lady in Virginia played the piano so hard that she broke her forefinger. We have been often alarmed at the force with which that unhappy instrument is beaten, and have wondered if the fair hands that forced the unwilling strains might not suffer almost as much as the ears of the listeners.—Providence Journal.

☞ The Albany Statesman, for the last five years the leading American paper in Central New York, says that more than 75,000 Americans in that State, who have never before voted a Republican ticket, will vote for Abraham Lincoln in November next.

It is stated in his Press that Douglas is opposed to union against Lincoln in the State of Pennsylvania. If that be the policy of Mr. Douglas, then he is for Lincoln, and the sooner he is dropped in Pennsylvania and every other State so much the better.—N. Y. Herald.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9.—The Secretary of the Treasury has advertised for proposals until the 22d of October for a loan of ten millions, under the Treasury Note Redemption act of June.

The census taker found in one shanty at Duckville, Mass., a family of seventeen persons, who ate, drank and slept in a single room.

☞ Remember the Concert of Sacred Music, at Kittery Point, this evening. See advertisement.

☞ The decision of the suit of the Fitchburg Railroad against the Eastern Railroad is regarded as a righteous one. The suit was brought to receive damages occasioned by the E. R. R. crossing the Fitchburg track on the new route to the Causeway St. Depot in Boston, the F. R. R. contending that the frogs at the crossing caused much wear and tear, loss of speed, time, &c. Had this claim been allowed, a heavy crop of law-suits might have followed, and railroad property (if the measure of damages desired by the Fitchburg had been the basis of the amount awarded,) would have at once seriously depreciated in value. The Eastern track from Portsmouth to Boston is crossed by the Concord & Portsmouth, Newburyport, Salem & Lowell, and Grand Junction Railways, and itself crosses the Maine and Fitchburg. If railways were to be allowed damages for other roads laid out for the public convenience crossing their tracks, it would seem that the public in town might require something of the roads for a like privilege. The suit of the Fitchburg road evinces a narrow-minded policy on the part of its projectors, and a spirit at least half a century behind the age. The claim has been vigorously resisted by Hon. Geo. M. Browne, the President of the Eastern road, and the result must prove a satisfactory one not only to the shareholders of that Road, but to all others interested in the stability of railroad property.

COULD NOT ACCOUNT FOR IT.—We noticed the other day, says the Newburyport Herald, a queer mistake made by a couple matrimonially inclined, calling upon a physician for a certificate instead of his brother, the City Clerk. It reminded us of the quandary in which a child was thrown, by seeing both of those gentlemen in church. One of them was in the gallery and the other in the body of the house. The little boy was so mystified by the exact resemblance of the two, that he was unable to come to any other conclusion than that there was but one man, who by some hocus pocus had the power of being present in two places at one time, or at least of changing from the floor to the gallery and back again, instantaneously, or as soon as he could turn his eyes. He endured the strange idea for some time, nestling around in his seat, and constantly looking from one to the other, and then back again, puzzled with himself in trying to solve the riddle. At last he could endure it no more, and pulling his father's coat, said, "Look there, papa, see that man up gallery; and now see him down there; and there he is back again."

LATE ITEMS FROM EUROPE.—The Pope is said to have expressed to the Duke of Grammont his readiness to agree to the proposal for an Italian Confederation.

Turin advices state that a provincial government has been established at Foggia, the capital of Capinata, one of the Neapolitan States.

The ex-Governor of Beirout has been convicted by Fuad Pasha of high treason.

The Greek Minister of War has resigned.

Gen. Bosco, with the Neapolitan forces, was at Monteleone.

The weather in France was magnificent, and its continuance would cause an extraordinarly fine vintage.

Four hundred and fifty volunteers for Garibaldi, from Parma, were obliged to return from Genoa.

Advices from Pagusa report a sanguinary collision at Gasco, in Herzegovina. The Mussulmen attacked the Christians, and massacred even women and children. The authorities were unable to prevent it.

☞ A prominent merchant of San Francisco, writing to a friend in Boston, says:

Rev. T. S. King is all the rage here now. His church is thronged at every service, and there is no doubt but that the whole debt of the society ($14,000) will this year be paid from the sale of pews and the regular income of the parish. Mr. King looks quite as well as when I saw him in Boston last March.

HANGING IN TALLADEGA.—The Montgomery (Ala.) Mail has the following:

"The Right Move at Last.—We learn, through a gentleman just from the up-country, that on Tuesday night last (Aug. 29th) the citizens of Talladega took from the jail at that place a white man who was the ringleader in the lately discovered plot among the negroes in that vicinity, and hung him. Yesterday morning he was gracefully pendant to a Pride of China tree. We did not learn his name."

☞ New Orleans papers of Tuesday state that there is a probability of a union of the parties opposed to Breckinridge and Lincoln.

Vigilance Committees are still forming in Texas.

Mexican advices say that the Liberals are advancing from every side on the Capital.

☞ The New York Leader says A. T. Stewart, the dry goods prince, is worth $20,000,000—is an Irishman, about 64 years old, and when he landed in America, at 24 years old, was alone, poor, and unfriended. He was a schoolmaster at first in New York. His yearly income now is $800,000.

☞ The laborers on the Lynn horse railroad have struck for higher wages.—Their pay is one dollar per day. They have struck for one dollar and a quarter.

☞ We call the attention of our readers to an article advertised in another column, called BLOOD FOOD. It is an entirely new discovery, and must not be confounded with any of the numerous patent medicines of the day. It is food for the blood, already prepared for absorption; pleasant to the taste and natural in action, and what one gains he retains. Let all those, then, who are suffering from poverty, impurity, or deficiency of blood, and consequently with some chronic disease or ailment, take of the BLOOD FOOD and be restored to health. We notice that our druggists have received a supply of this article, and also of the world-renowned DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL, which every mother should have. It is said to contain no paregoric or opiate of any kind whatever, and of course must be invaluable for all infantile complaints. It is also said that it will allay all pain, and soften the gums in process of teething, and at the same time regulate the bowels. Let all mothers and nurses, who have endured anxious days and sleepless nights, procure a supply and be at once relieved.

Atwood's Quinine Tonic Bitters,—the best Aromatic Tonic ever offered to the public.—All the Druggists have it. See advertisement.

My daughter has been troubled with the Scrofulous Humor, causing swelling of the neck, for a number of years, and by the use of four bottles of Dr. S. Swett's Panacea, the swelling has been entirely removed, and her health is good.

JAMES B. ELLIOTT.

The above testimony of my wife is true.

ENOCH B. ELLIOTT.

Hundreds of testimonials on hand might be added, evincing the many cures by Dr. Swett's medicine. All orders directed to DR. SIMEON SWETT, PORTSMOUTH, N. H., No. 1 School St., for his Panacea, Cough Drops, Conserve, Rheumatic Compound and Family Pills, and other of his popular remedies, will be promptly attended to.

Humphreys' Homeopathic Specifics

CURE PROMPTLY and safely all the more common diseases and ailments to which families are subject. In all acute diseases, such as fevers, inflammations, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Rheumatism, Croup, and such eruptive diseases as Scarlet Fever, Measles, and Erysipelas, the advantage of giving the proper remedies promptly is obvious, and in all such cases the specifics act like a charm. The entire disease is often arrested at once, and in all cases the violence of the attack is moderated, the disease shortened, and rendered less dangerous.

Coughs and Colds, which are of such frequent occurrence, and which so often lay the foundation of diseased lungs, Bronchitis and Consumption, may all be at once cured by the Fever and Cough Pills.

In all chronic diseases, such as Dyspepsia, Constipation, Weak Stomach, Liver Complaint, Piles Female Debility and Irregularities, old Headaches, Sore or Weak Eyes, Catarrh, Salt Rheum and other old eruptions, the case has specifics whose proper application will afford a cure in almost every instance. Often the cure of a single chronic difficulty, such as Dyspepsia, Piles or Catarrh, Headache or Female Weakness, has more than paid for the case ten times over.

A GRAND SOIREE.

One of the most unique and recherche affairs of the season took place on Tuesday evening, at the residence of Major John G. Reynolds, of the Marine Corps, at the Navy Yard,—which, for elegance, originality, and almost Monte Christoian style, surpassed anything of the kind that has ever been witnessed in this vicinity. To do full justice to the entertainment would require the plume of a much abler writer than myself, though a modest and brief attempt at description may not be deemed uninteresting, especially to the ladies.

The most novel feature of the occasion was the supper saloon, which elicited much admiration from the guests. Attached to the ball room was fitted up a pavilion, composed entirely of the flags of all nations very tastefully festooned around—the most conspicuous among which were "star-spangled banners," the ever loved tricolor of la belle France, the cherished ensign of old Castile and the Alhambra, the blood-red flag of Britannia, and the historic cross of St. George.

The fairy entertainment was rendered resplendent by chandeliers composed of musket bayonets most handsomely decorated with rich and rare floral embellishments, each containing nearly a hundred Roman candles, the lights of which, reflecting on the steeled arms, presented an appearance unusually gorgeous, and one that will long be remembered by the distinguished guests.

The invites numbered the elite of the city, and never did our Portsmouth ladies, —ever dazzling in the arena of beauty,— look more enchanting than at this carnival. The invited guests included Gov. Goodwin and lady; Com. John Pope, wife and daughters; the Rev. Dr. Burroughs and lady; Capt. Decatur and lady, with many of our ton of society; and the beauty and grace that thronged the festive halls, rendered the scene more ideal than real.—To enumerate would be more than my humble efforts could encompass, but I cannot do our ladies the injustice to allow this opportunity to pass without referring to the most beautiful and distingue. The charming lady of Dr. —. was as usual one of the "estrellas" of the evening; as also the lady of Mr. I. Miss Berrien, daughter of Capt. Berrien of the Navy, and Miss H., were very brilliant; and the pleasing and vivacious Mrs. Capt. Misroon, also of the Navy, elicited much admiration; as did also the lady of Mr. B., of Portsmouth. The lady of Lieut. C., magnificently dressed, shed a lustre on the festival; which might also be said of several ladies whose acquaintance I had not the pleasure of securing.

Among this gay and happy throng was one young lady robed in the sable habiliments of grief, who, moving with all the ease and grace of a courtly demoselle, attracted much attention. I refer to Mrs. Effie R., the Major's daughter, whom to know is to love. Her advent in our community has been marked by the exercise of the many graces that adorn her mind and person; and the numerous friends she will leave behind, cannot but sorrow at her departure from among us.

The lady of the Major, dressed in the weeping weeds, looked exceeding amiable and matronlike—and it was plainly discernible that the departure of a loved and affectionate son for the realms of bliss, still held its power over the bereaved mother's heart, —ever hoping for that re-union which will have no separation.

The festive board was loaded with the rich and rare delicacies of the season, and the wines and liquors were of the most superior vintage. The creams, jellies, confections, pyramidial ornaments, fruits, &c., were of the first order. The floral embellishments, comprising interior decorations and festoonings, &c., were under the superintendence of Mr. John Rogers of Kittery, who received much praise for the admirable manner in which the adorning was executed. The grounds around the Major's residence were beautifully illuminated with Chinese transparencies, lanterns of variegated colors, French and German flambeaus,—producing an effect which is beyond description..

Thus passed off this most gorgeous affair. The attendance of rank and beauty, the gay and glittering robings of the ladies, the uniforms of Army and Navy officers, the thousand jets of artificial and real light illumining the scene, will cause it to be remembered as one of the gayest and most artistic of social gatherings. Yours, MARS.

Navy Yard, Portsmouth, Sept. 8th.

GOOD ORDER.—Messrs. Editors:—We rejoice to know that our new City Marshal is at work in earnest, breaking up the nightly gangs of young men and boys who loaf up and down Congress street, and who obstruct the sidewalks and crossings of the streets. He has the authority to stop such proceedings, and if we mistake not the indications, he is determined to exercise it.—Rowdyism has been tolerated long enough by those in authority; but now, when we see our Marshal endeavoring to enforce the law, we know better order will prevail, and also know that his efforts will be sustained by every LOVER OF DECENCY.

SIGHT AND SMELL.

Messrs. Editors:—Having been much interested in the descriptions of the points of interest in the environs of Portsmouth, recently published in the Chronicle, I determined to treat myself and family to ride to Rye Beach. On a beautiful afternoon I started for the Sagamore route, and had hardly got over the South Mill Bridge when my olfactory nerves were saluted by an odor not mentioned by your correspondent, who seems to have been blessed with organs of sight rather than those of smell. Fearing an immediate attack of cholera, I at once turned my horse's head and drove through town to Auburn St., determined to enjoy the beauties of the shady Sagamore Road, if possible. About half-way down Auburn street I am attacked by the same identical smell! No; it is a worse one. It would seem that the Auburn street nuisance was determined to out-general its South street rival. But without waiting to determine the question of superiority, I again retraced my steps and left for Rye, by the old Lafayette Road. On my return I inquired out and ascertained who caused the terrible scourge that offended alike citizen and stranger, and having learned the names of the perpetrators of this nuisance, I at once made note of the fact, and warned my family and friends never to eat meat slaughtered in these pestilential places, as they valued their health. I then thought of our famous city government which, placed in power by nearly equaled political parties, does not dare to do right lest some voter should take offence and "quit the party." Oh, for a law that shall not permit slaughter-houses to be located anyhere but over the swift running tide-water of the purifying Piscataqua. Then every one could enjoy all the rides and walks around our city, and buy the best-looking steaks without stopping to know where they have been butchered. O. DOR.

LYMAN'S Improved Patent Metallic Soles.

PATENTED JUNE 7, 1859.

The nature of this invention consists of a metallic sole for Boots and Shoes, which has been tested and operates admirably. No dampness penetrates through to the inside sole. This is the only device that will operate well between two soles, and is made so thin as not to interfere with the most delicately finished work. The necessity of such a device to fully accomplish the much desired object, and the direful effects arising from damp feet, are too well understood to require any comment.

It is obvious to every one that sole leather is porous, absorbing water, and that the soles of boots and shoes are often damp when they appear dry, causing cold feet, chills, neuralgia, rheumatism, consumption, &c.

Physicians of eminence have pronounced this Metallic Sole an invaluable discovery, and state that, if generally used, it will cause an immense saving of human life.

The right to manufacture and sell the above Improved Metallic Sole for the County of Rockingham has been purchased by the subscriber.

Boot and shoe manufacturers and dealers in Rockingham County furnished with the soles, with right to use, at No. 24 Market Street, Portsmouth, N. H. J. C. CARR.

LAUGHTER.

Oh! who can estimate the worth
Of sunny-eyed and dimpled mirth?
How desolate would be the earth
If it were not for laughter!
Of all the cures by man possessed,
To cheer the heart by grief oppressed,
There's none hath power, it is confessed,
That can compare with laughter.
So, for each sorrow ye endure,
Unless ye nourish it, be sure
You have at hand an easy cure;
Ha! ha! 'tis only laughter.
'Tis good for young, 'tis good for old;
It is more precious far than gold;
Then laugh as long as you can hold;
Hurrah for jolly laughter!

SONNET TO TOM THUMB.

General Tom Thumb, it is reported, will soon lead to the hymeneal alter "one of Portland's fairest daughters." The young lady is said to be very pretty, below the ordinary height, and heiress to a large estate.—Exchange.

O, THOMAS THUMB!—The papers all declare
That you, dear General, are about to wed:
To take (in short) unto your board and bed,
A Portland damsel, wealthy, young and fair.
Why not? there's many a husband in the land
Whose wife "looks down upon him" every day;
And your's could do no more; besides, they say
All men "aspire" to reach a lady's hand!
Yet, could you manage to select your she
In the same manner that the boys advise
In fighting, namely, "take one of your size,"
Twould be, in sooth, a charming thing to see;
And Barnum, thankful for the smallest crumble,
Might show the world a pretty pair of Thumbs!

Celebrated Family Sewing Machines.
FOR FAMILY USE.

From the very flattering manner in which our Machines have been received by the public, resulting in the sale of

we are led to believe that our endeavors to manufacture a RELIABLE MACHINE have been appreciated. We take this opportunity to remark that the policy will be unchanged, and that

THIRTY DIFFERENT PATTERNS,
Adapted to every variety of
FAMILY SEWING.

A FEW CERTIFICATES OF THE GREAT SUCCESS
—of the—
Grover & Baker's Sewing Machines.

[From the wife of the Hon. Jefferson Davis.]

Mrs. Jefferson Davis presents her compliments to Messrs. Grover & Baker, and takes pleasure in saying that she has used one of their new Sewing Machines for two years, and finds it still in good order—makes a beautiful stitch, and does easily any kind of work.

[From J. G. Harris, Governor of Tennessee.]

My wife has had one of Grover & Baker's Family Sewing Machines for some time, and I am satisfied it is one of the best labor-saving machines that has been invented. I take pleasure in recommending it to the public.

[From the Rev. Jonathan Cross, Agent American Tract Society.]

My wife has been using one of your Sewing Machines for the last three months, and pronounces it faultless. She can sew more on it in one day, than in ten the old way, and without fatigue. The work is beautiful and durable. She says she would not exchange it for any other one. It is certainly one of the grandest inventions ever made for the relief of woman-kind, and I would recommend every family to get one as soon as possible.

Baltimore, July 14, 1859.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859.

Having tested the merits of the various popular Sewing Machines, in the manufacture of our Capes and Raglans, we unhesitatingly recommend the Grover & Baker, as far superior to all others. ALLEN & PAINE.

PORTSMOUTH, July 16, 1859.

If you wish to purchase a machine that will do work handsomely and strongly, and will not be liable to get out of repair, call on Mr. Whitemore in Daniel street, see the operation of Grover & Baker's machine, and then place one in your family. They will never consent to part with it, after they understand its operation.

CHARLES W. BEWSTER.

"Zion's Herald," Nov. 10th, 1859, says,—"We would recommend to families and to those about to organize a household, to buy not less a Family Bible, and also one of Grover & Baker's SEWING MACHINES."

SILVER SOAP.

A new and beautiful preparation made by the BOSTON INDEXICAL SOAP CO., expressly for cleaning and polishing Silver, Plated and Britannia Wares, and for cleaning Mirrors, Marble, Tin, &c. It is much more convenient and effective than any of the powders now in use, and may be used by even inexperienced help with perfect safety, as it contains nothing that can possibly injure the finest plate or jewelry, or even the most delicate skin, though not designed for toilet use. It is far superior to any other soap for cleaning fine House Paint, Statuary, Artificial Teeth Plate, &c.

Many of our largest importers, and manufacturers of silver and plated ware, who have used it, have given it their unqualified approval Read the following:

BOSTON, May 2, 1859.

MESSRS. SAFFORD & BURDITT: Gentlemen,—After repeated trials of your Silver Soap, we can recommend it as the best article we have ever seen for cleaning plated and silver ware. It must soon be used by every family.

Yours, respectfully, SHREVE, BROWN & CO.,
[Late Jones, Ball & Co.]

BOSTON, June 1, 1859.

Gentlemen,—We have, during the last twelve months, given your Silver Soap a thorough trial, and find there is nothing to equal it, as it cleans silver quicker, better, and with less trouble than any thing we have been able to find.

Yours, respectfully, SAML. T. CROSBY,
69 Washington street.

BOSTON, June 13, 1859.

Gentlemen,—We have made careful trial of your Silver Soap, and find it admirably adapted to the cleaning of silver and plated ware, particularly the chased and frosted work, and we take pleasure in recommending it to the public as a safe and effective article for removing tarnish and restoring the color with a very small amount of labor. We have never seen a better article for the above purpose. Yours, truly, &c.,

One dose will remove the most distressing pains of Colic, either in the stomach or bowels.

A few doses will remove all obstructions in the Kidney, Bladder or Urinary Organs.

Persons who are seriously afflicted with any Kidney Complaints, are assured speedy relief by a dose or two, and a radical cure by the use of one or two bottles.

NIGHTLY DISSIPATION.

Personswho, from dissipating too much over night, and feel the evil effects of poisonous liquors, in violent headaches, sickness at stomach weakness, giddiness &c., will find one dose will remove all bad feelings.

Ladies of weak and sickly constitutions, should take the Invigorating Spirit three times a day; it will make them strong, healthy, and happy, remove all obstructions and irregularities from the menstrual organs, and restore the bloom of health and beauty to the careworn face.

by experienced Plowmen, who pronounce them

The Best in the Market!

These Plows embrace NINE DIFFERENT SIZES, the largest of which is much in advance of anything in the United States, as regards size, and, like the other sizes of this celebrated Plow, is drawn easily by a team much smaller than is absolutely requisite to draw a Plow of less size, of any other make than the Clipper.

We also assure our Farming friends that we have hitherto endeavored to make our Plows superior to all others in those points which especially interest Plowmen, we are still endeavoring by unceasing exertions, to improve—if this be possible—upon our former successes, although those who are best acquainted in these matters say, "It cannot be done."

Notwithstanding the immense advantages which these Plows possess over all others, we offer them at THE SAME PRICES as are charged for common grades, satisfied that their great superiority will induce so large a sale, that our aggregate profits will make our business sufficiently remunerative.

An aperient and Stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combination in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Innoxious in all maladies in which it has been tried—it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

IN DEBILITY, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, EMACIATIONS, CONSTIPATION, DIARRHŒA, DYSPEPSIA, DYSENTERY, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION; SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, SALT RHEUM, MISMENSTRUATION, WHITES, CHLOROSIS, RHEUMATISM, INTERMITTENT FEVERS, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, &c.

In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of acute disease or of the consequent diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Even very signal instances of this kind are attested of the deaths of persons, emaciated victims to apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.

In NERVOUS AFFECTIONS of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old oxides, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and over-heating; and yet, unlike the nearly insoluble, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency, which forms them.

In DYSPEPSIA, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In unchecked DIARRHŒA, even when advanced to DYSENTERY, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent hectic, which generally indicate INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most approved, but scarcely balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well-known Habitics.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In SALT RHEUM, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, it acts perfectly medically—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of joints and muscles.

In INTERMITTENT FEVERS it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative; and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has ever been discovered, in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects—Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by Druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to

LADIES IN CONGRESS.—Mr. N. Sargent contributes to the National Intelligencer the following account of the first time a party of ladies attended the debates in the House of Representatives:—

You know from history that while the Jay treaty was under consideration, and the House was debating the question whether it would make an appropriation to carry it into effect, party feeling ran very high and the debates were very animated. At a party given by Mrs. —— one night, a speech made by some member was the subject of conversation, and was spoken of in terms of admiration; whereupon, Mrs. Langdon, the wife of Senator and afterwards Governor Langdon, remarked to Mr. Fisher Ames that she thought it very hard that the ladies could not listen to such eloquent speeches and enjoy them as well as the gentlemen, to which Mr. Ames replied that he saw no reason why they could not if they chose to come and listen. If you think there would be no impropriety in our coming, said Mrs. L., if you will give me notice when you intend to speak, I will make up a party and come and hear you. Mr. A. said he saw no impropriety in their coming and would give her notice when he was to speak. The party was made up, Mr. Ames sent a note to Mrs. L. informing her when he should address the House, and she, with her female friends, attended and listened to one of the most eloquent, powerful and effective speeches ever made in that body, Mr. A.'s celebrated speech in support of the Jay treaty. My venerable informant was from that party.—From that time ladies attended the debates as well as gentlemen.

It is idle to talk of the vices as a sisterhood. There may be association but no affiliation. Knaves may be companions, but not friends. The vain dislike the vain; the proud hate the proud; the covetous abhor the covetous. But the virtues are never at war. The just love the just; the chaste esteem the chaste; the benevolent admire the benevolent. In short all good things harmonize; all bad things are discordant, both with the good and with each other. Boston Post.

The last complaint against John A. Andrew was made by a speaker at a political meeting Wednesday night, to the effect that the Republican Gubernatorial candidate had too big a heart.—It is not often that politicians are troubled with an excessive supply of the article. People of Massachusetts, be very careful how you vote for a candidate who is charged with having too great a heart!—Traveller.

MOTHERS

It must be obvious not only to you, but to every attentive and intelligent person, that the first dawnings of mental strife are chiefly from a disordered condition of their bowels, and in this connection, we present to your notice, for the alleviation and cure of these diseases, a remedy known as

Dr. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL,

Prepared from a formula used by Dr. Eaton with unparalleled success during twenty years' practice. We know it to be a most reliable and efficacious remedy for infantile complaints, and one trial from will convince you of its superiority over every other preparation of the kind. It is particularly recommended

FOR CHILDREN TEETHING,

And at this period of infantile life, when your anxious hearts are pained by witnessing the sufferings of your little ones, it will be found invaluable in Softening the Gums, Reducing Inflammation, Allaying all Spasmodic Action, FOR DISEASES ATTENDING TEETHING, such as Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Griping in the Bowels, Acidity of the Stomach, Worms, Colic, and Cold in the Head, we confidently offer this as a certain relief and cure in every case when given in time. It will invariably regulate the stomach and bowels, and its importance in this respect can truly be estimated only by

IN CONVULSIONS,

From which more infants are sold to die than from any other disease, the little sufferer is relieved instantaneously, as if by magic; and in this dread complaint alone, its intrinsic value is such that it has been recommended from one family to another, until the name of DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL has become familiar as a household word." We now ask your attention to a subject of vital interest to yourself, as well as to your suffering child. DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL contains

NO MORPHINE OR OPIATE,

Of any kind, or of whatever nature, a fact which we are fully warranted in saying cannot be said of any other preparation for infantile diseases, at this time before the public. We find that throughout the country, Mothers are becoming convinced of this truth, and of the sad and blighting consequences which are certain to result from the use of narcotics disguised in the form of quieting remedies; their continued administration being invariably followed by stupefaction and constipation of the bowels, ending oftentimes in convulsions. Heretofore DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL differs from every other remedy, in

DOES NOT CONSTIPATE

The Bowels, neither does it act by deadening the sensibilities of your children, but naturally, through its rare medicinal qualities, by removing all pain and cause of disease. We earnestly recommend you, therefore, to lose no time in procuring a bottle, that you may have at hand a remedy which will never fail to relieve your child in time of need. It is perfectly harmless, and cannot injure the most delicate infant.

Take none but DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL. This you can rely upon. Price 25 cts. per bottle.

APPLEDORE HOUSE,
ISLES OF SHOALS.
This favorite resort for the man of leisure and the invalid is now open. Since last year many alterations and additions have been made, increasing its capacity. Billiard and Bowling Saloons have been provided, and every measure taken to secure the comfort and amusement of its guests. An abundance of sweet cream and milk is supplied from healthy cows kept on the Island. The table is faultless. The facilities for fishing have been increased by the addition of new boats and experienced skippers.
When to all these advantages are added the purity of the air—the delicious coolness of the ocean breezes, its invigorating and appetizing power—the loveliness of the scenery—the glory of its sunsets—the cleanliness of its walks—its freeness from dust, mud, and all other annoyances of the kind—it may truly be said to possess advantages and attractions which no other watering-place in New England can attain. The equability of the temperature is a natural advantage over the coast of the mountains, which invalids can fully appreciate.
A daily Packet, the SIBYL, Capt. Preble, runs direct to Appledore from Portsmouth, leaving Pier Wharf on the arrival of the morning train from Boston, and returns in the afternoon. The Sibyl has every accommodation for the comfort of passengers which a Packet requires.

Expel the Doubts of All.
For Statesmen, Judges, Editors, Physicians of the oldest schools as well as new, give it their unqualified sanction, and recommend it for all cases of eruptions, and diseases of the scalp and brain; but all woo have used it, unite in testifying that it will preserve the hair from being gray, and from falling to any age, as well as restore.—Read the following:—
Oak Grove, S. C., June 24, 1859.
Prof. O. J. Wood:—Dear:—Your Hair Restorative is rapidly gaining popularity in this community. I have had occasion to lay prejudice aside, and give your Hair Restorative a perfect test.—
During the year 1854, I was so unfortunate as to be thrown from my sulky against a rock near the roadside, from which my head received a most terrible blow; causing a great deal of irritation, which communicated to the brain and external surface of the head, from the effects of which my hair was entirely destroyed. From the time I first discovered its dropping, however, up to the time of its total disappearance, I employed everything I could think of, being a professional man myself, and as I thought, understanding the nature of the disease, but was finally defeated in every prescription advanced.
These and no other circumstances induced me to resort to your worthy "Hair Restorative," which I have every reason to believe, produced a very happy result: two months after the first application, I had a beautiful growth of young hair as I ever saw, for which I certainly owe you my sincere thanks. Rest assured, dear sir, I shall recommend your remedy to all inquirers; moreover, I shall use my influence, which I flatter myself to say, is not a little.
You can publish what you think proper.
Yours, very respectfully,
M. J. WRIGHT, M. D.
Jeffersonian Office, Phillipi, Va., Dec. 12, 1859.
Professor O. J. Wood:—Dear Sir: I feel it my duty as well as my pleasure, to state to you the following circumstance, which you can use as you think proper. A gentleman of this place, a lawyer, has been bald since his early manhood's prime, and so, that he was compelled to wear a wig. He was induced to use a bottle of your "Hair Restorative," which has benefited him much; and after using some two or three bottles his hair grew out quite luxuriantly, and he now has a handsome head of hair. The gentleman's name is Bradford, and as he is very well known in our adjoining counties, many persons can testify to the truth of this statement; I give this to you at the request of Mr. Bradford. You can sell a great deal of your Hair Restorative in this and the adjoining counties if you have the proper agents. Yours, &c.,
THOMPSON SURGHNOR.
Dr. Wood—Dear Sir—Permit me to express the obligations I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color; about the time of my arrival in the United States it was rapidly becoming gray, but upon the application of your Hair Restorative it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative as a very wonderful invention, quite efficacious as well as agreeable. S. THALBERG.
The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, 1860.

MAINE ELECTION.

The vote in 143 towns foots up as follows: Washburn 38,078, Smart 27,067, Barnes 1085. Same towns last year—Morrill 30,404, Smith 23,156. Washburn's majority 9926. In the same towns last year, Morrill's majority was 7248, making a Republican net gain 2678. Aggregate vote in these towns this year 66,230; last year, 53,560,—being an increase in the vote of 12,670. Washburn will have 17,000 majority. Republican county officers are generally chosen.

The total vote of the State will be about 113,000.

CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICTS.

York county, complete, gives John N. Goodwin (Rep.) 963 majority, and he will receive a much larger majority in the whole district.

Chas. W. Walton (Rep.) is elected in the Second District.

S. C. Fessenden, (Rep.,) in the Third District, has 350 majority in 35 towns, and is probably elected.

Anson P. Morrill (Rep.) is elected in the Fourth District.

John H. Rice (Rep.) is elected in the Fifth District.

Frederick A. Pike, (Rep.) in the Sixth District, has 1246 majority in 22 towns, and is probably elected.

LEGISLATURE.

Senate doubtless entirely Republican, as two Democratic tickets were run in Aroostook. The House is at least four fifths Republican.

FILLIBUSTER WALKER IN THE SUDS.—The steamer Osceola, has arrived at Havana from Truxillo, with the intelligence that the British war vessel has commanded Walker to surrender the town, which he did, retiring down the lower coast with 80 men. At last advices the force was reduced to 25 men. Walker had been severely wounded in the face, and had lost a Colonel. There were seven prisoners on board the British war vessel. Alvarez entered Truxillo with 300 men.

The brig Kate, from Truxillo 31st ult., and Ruatan 2d inst., has arrived at New Orleans, bringing as passengers four of Walker's men.

Walker evacuated Truxillo on the night of the 21st, pursued by the enemy. At last accounts only one man had been killed. The fate of the rest was unknown.

☞ Quite a little excitement was created in New Orleans, a few days ago, by a lunatic who managed to mount the top of a two-story grocery and began to amuse himself by pulling bricks from the chimney, breaking them with a hatchet, and then hurling them at the passers by. Finally one of the fire companies brought its engine to the spot and directed a powerful stream upon him. So surprised was he at this novel mode of attack, that he lost his foothold, slid down the roof, and came to the ground in a sitting posture. Before he had recovered from the effects of the jar, he was in custody.

☞ The Manchester Mirror says Kate Sullivan, a girl sixteen years old, in trying to escape, fell from the third story of the Reform School to the ground, and injured herself so that she cannot recover. There were bars across her sleeping room, and she tied bedclothes, dresses and the suspenders of overalls, which she had put by for the purpose, together, and suspended them from the lower bar to within six feet of the ground, and intended to let herself down by them. It is supposed that in attempting to descend she fell the whole distance, forty-two feet.

ACCIDENT TO A CLERGYMAN.—Last Sunday evening, as Rev. A. L. Stone was driving a pair of horses out home from Boston, over the Milldam, in company with his wife and child, he was run into by two fast individuals who were returning from church or something else in Brighton. The pole of Mr. Stone's carriage was broken off and the horses ran away, dragging him out and injuring one of his hands quite severely.—The young man had run toll on the Milldam, and were driving at a rapid rate.

☞ A circular was issued by the Roman Catholic Bishop of Buenos Ayres, calling for subscriptions to aid the Pope in maintaining his temporal power. The Italian Catholics immediately got up a meeting at the theatre, passed resolutions condemning the exercise of temporal power by the Pope, and started a subscription to aid the revolution in Sicily.

☞ The executors of a lady named Desmond, who died at Brompton, England, last May, sold the extraordinary number of 1800 silk dresses, 700 velvet mantles, 200 bonnets, and upwards of 100 pairs of shoes, with innumerable kerchiefs and scarfs of all colors of the rainbow, which had been purchased by the deceased lady within ten years of her demise.

Wm. A. Cromwell, Esq., a Breckinridge Postmaster at South Berwick, has come out for Lincoln. That's natural. They are all tending that way.—Bath Times.

HAUNTS OF THE SEA-SERPENT.

ISLES OF SHOALS,
Season of Chowder, 1860.

The ride beyond Boston just now, is a charming one. The country is robed in its utmost beauty. The forest foliage is at its heaviest and darkest. The broad fields have recently been mown, refreshing showers followed, and the aftermath has grown finely, so that the eye roams admiringly over an almost limitless reach of "Nature's own color, intellectual green."

The rustling corn is at the rankest, and the potato fields on the hill-sides are in full blossom. Don't sneer at my allusion to this prosaic vegetable; let me tell you that a dozen acres of potato vines in blossom is a very pretty sight—and I am reminded of Holmes's use of the tuber in illustration of his own case when snubbed by the quid nuncs for making fun for the million:—

"They suspect the azure blossom that unfolds upon the shoot,
As if wisdom's old potato could not flourish at its root."

My first divergence from the inevitable railroad was to Boar's Head — ominous name! Here is one of the finest beaches on the coast, and a good surf, but (a tremendously tough fellow is your but,) that is all. Four summer hotels are in full blast, on and about the Head, and I stopped at the one which I was informed was the best. If so—but no matter. I think I must have been deceived, and dumped at the wrong house. In the parlor hung a work of art, an oil painting, whose merits it would take a very crooked pen to describe; but they were of an order similar to those of a picture which adorns and glorifies the wall of your Mr. Bassett's barber shop, to which more particular reference may be had, and thereby save me the labor of an elaborate criticism.

Rye Beach, six miles farther east, is a very nice place for sojourning, especially if you stop at the Atlantic House. Comfort and enjoyment reign supreme, and fashionable frivolity is banished to more pretentious hostelries. The bathing is fine; but as I did not fancy being arrayed in a flannel shirt and woollen continuations, and bathing gregariously, I went down to the beach after nightfall, and had a glorious swim in the surf by moonlight, all by myself, in puris naturalibus.

Among the good things which befell me at the Atlantic, was witnessing the return of a party of gentlemen from a sail on the ocean, who had seen the veritable sea serpent! Really and truly—its first appearance this season. And it was curious to witness the effect which the frequent repetition of its size, etc., had upon the listeners, as well as upon the relators themselves.—The more the gentlemen talked, the more devoutly they seemed to believe their own story; and the remarks, and shrugs of incredulity bestowed on them by the crowd, did but the more potently confirm them in their asseverations. There was no possibility of mistake—"Sharks! Don't you suppose I know a shark when I see one? Why, this fellow left a wake as long as——"

"How long was he?" asked a small boy.

"I don't know; I couldn't see the end of him."

And so the boy, as well as the rest of us, was left in a state of indefinite doubt, being at liberty to assume that the monster was a mile long, or, indeed, that it was, like the emblem of eternity, without end.

But I am a believer! I go for the sea-serpent, and am down on all incredulous doubters. I never saw a sea-serpent; but now, having seen a man who has seen one, I feel as if I should be justified in about a week in swearing that I saw it myself! Such, O friend, is the time-honored privilege of travellers!

With the rising of the morning breeze, I stepped on board a small boat, dashed thro' the surf to the packet, which danced at her moorings, sprang on board, and with a fair wind the Prioress stood out to sea, and bore me away from the land of my fathers, and the home of the never-enough-to-be-glorified spread-eagle, which, etc., etc. Being the sole passenger—"alone, alone on the wide, wide sea"—I foregathered with the skipper, who informed me, privately and confidentially, "that there warn't no sich a thing as a sea-sarpent; they was all horse-mackerels!" Notwithstanding his infidelity he was a good sailor, and after the appointed number of hours—Providence favoring us—landed me safely here, on Hog Island, one of a cluster of eight which comprise the kingdom known in history books as the Isles of Shoals:

"Hog Island once, but hogs are here are no more,
And now, instead, they call it Appledore."

The appropriateness of the new name I do not comprehend, unless it be that apples never grew here, but the door is invitingly open—all the year round—for their admission.

Let us make a tour of observation over and around these two or three hundred sterile acres.

There is but one house on "the premises," and that is the Appledore. The island is a mere mass of rock, rising both abruptly and gradually from the sea; flecked in spots with a scanty soil that is too little to be made light of. The primeval forest consists principally—indeed, I may say entirely—of a stunted growth of huckleberry bushes. Where there is not soil enough for this sort of timber, cling the modest mosses; and where there is no foothold for them, spreads the bare rock. There are three cows and several sheep resident on the island, who are fenced in with a stone wall, to prevent a too enterprising or homesick one from straying away. How they contrive to pick up a living is more than I know; but I have a shrewd suspicion that their fodder is imported—of course duty free, as the machinery of custom-houses is unknown here.

The fishing off the rocks and in the neighborhood is said to be very fine. Not being much addicted myself to that fascinating sport, I did not venture far, and caught only one "sheep's-head," and that was on the highest rocks, and in a very unpleasant state of decay.

On Star Island (another rock a mile to wind'ard) are a number of houses, with fishing-boats outside the surf below—whereby I infer that the inhabitants are of the order, or tribe, of St. Peter, and derive their sustenance from the same illimitable aquarium that he did. Indeed, I am informed that their daily rations consist of equal proportions of salt fish and (in the vernacular) horse rum.

I am, moreover, told such is the stay-at-home character of the people, that there are full grown men, born and brought up here, who have never seen a horse nor a tree—and I believe it. The books say that the population is twenty-nine—showing a most reprehensible lack of information on the part of compilers; for I became satisfied, from my own observation, that the number is underestimated by at least one-half!—a proof that but little reliance can be placed on stupid geographers.

The Appledore House is the realization of my idea of the plan of a sea side hotel. The piazza, to the south and west, being at least forty feet broad, overlooking the sea, (everything overlooks the sea, here,) and making a capital place to lounge or walk and enjoy the "salt salubrious breeze," without having your face burned and blistered by the too ardent midsummer sun. What a magnificent sight there must be from here after an equinoctial storm!

The very fat and gouty old landlord is a character. On my arrival, when asked the usual question if he could take care of me, he wheeled slowly round in his arm-chair, gave me a critical look worthy of Captain Cuttle, and replied "the guessed he could, as I seemed to be a Christian!" I suggested a suspension of judgment on that point until after further acquaintance.

I noticed a building on the opposite island that looked as if it might be a church, and inquired of Boniface if there was stated preaching. He said there was—"always—in the summer—while strangers were here. There was preaching for the benefit of the community; that is, they took up a contribution!"

I asked him if the preaching did not inure, also, to the spiritual welfare of the inhabitants?

"Pooh! they don't go; catch 'em at it!"

The longevity of the islanders is said to be remarkable—almost realizing the poetical description of another locality, where the only death that occurred during the year was said to be one

"Who lived to the age of a hundred and ten,
And died of a fall from a cherry tree then."

But there are no cherry-trees here to fall from, and I suppose the usual mode of final exit is by drowning.

I have been told that a long time ago there was a missionary resident here, whose labors among the people were crowned with but little success, and who soon died and was taken "ashore" and buried, there being no place where a grave could be dug on the island.

A few years since, a zealous minister of the gospel was moved with a desire to preach to the barbarians, and of trying to infuse a little spiritual life into their benighted souls. He accordingly sent word that he should come on the following Sunday, and as the saintly edifice was somewhat out of repair, suggested that it be put in order for religious services.

And so he went, and preached with great power and unction. But imagine the worthy man's dismay the following morning, on being presented with a bill of expenses for repairing the church! The reverend gentleman's missionary zeal suddenly subsided; and thus began and ended his labors for christianizing the islanders.

But these are not the kind of people you meet at the Appledore. Here is a house full of people from all the great cities of the Union, intelligent and refined men and women, who come to be social and enjoy themselves—and they do it. It is a place worth visiting. I was delighted on my arrival, have been pleased while here, and shall leave with regret. But my stay must be brief, as, like the old gentleman who was chased by a bear, I am "somewhat pressed for time."

As I sat on the rocks this afternoon, watching the restless surf, and listening to the sound of the everlasting rush and recoil, the thought would intrude,

At the foot of thy crags, O Sea!
But the tender grace of a day that is dead
Will never come back to me."

The waves of memory will break against the present, and the recoil, like that of the sea, is only to gather fresh force for another encounter.

But the cry from the boat is, "All aboard," and I must stop—and go! Yours, C.K.

A PRESIDENTIAL MANSION.—Ex-President Pierce is preparing to build himself a house in Concord, N. H. The lot, says the Worcester Palladium, is about a mile from the main street, on the north side of a road leading to the west; and consists of a swell of land, crowned with an oak grove, in which the house is to be located, and overlooking a broad plain in front, with a curve of blue hills in the distance.

☞ Mrs. Putnam, a colored American woman, who was badly treated on the steamer Europa, and addressed a letter to Sir Samuel Cunard on the subject, has returned on the Arabia, and says that she was admitted to all the rights and privileges purchased by her passage money, and was treated with courtesy.

☞ Between 12 and 1 o'clock, on Tuesday, John Shay, a workman employed in the bone factory of Andrew Coe & Co., on South street, Roxbury, was caught in a machine for grinding bones, and his body mangled in a frightful manner. His death was almost instantaneous.

☞ A fight between two dogs, one belonging in Boston and the other in New York, for $200 a side, occurred Monday evening in an empty ice house on the borders of Fresh Pond, Cambridge. The dogs fought three hours, but the police did not interfere.

☞ The Boston Post says:—

Mr. Douglas is scolding in Pennsylvania. At Reading he was very cross, and held that everybody was bound to stand out of his way when he wanted to be President.

☞ We call the attention of our readers to an article advertised in another column, called BLOOD FOOD. It is an entirely new discovery, and must not be confounded with any of the numerous patent medicines of the day. It is food for the blood, already prepared for absorption; pleasant to the taste and natural in action, and what one gains he retains. Let all those, then, who are suffering from poverty, impurity, or deficiency of blood, and consequently with some chronic disease or ailment, take of this BLOOD FOOD and be restored to health. We notice that our druggists have received a supply of this article, and also of the world-renowned DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL, which every mother should have. It is said to contain no paregoric or opiate of any kind whatever, and of course must be invaluable for all infantile complaints. It is also said that it will allay all pain, and soften the gums in process of teething, and at the same time regulate the bowels. Let all mothers and nurses, who have endured anxious days and sleepless nights, procure a supply and be at once relieved.

Atwood's Quinine Tonic Bitters,—the best Aromatic Tonic ever offered to the public.—All the Druggists have it. See advertisement.

JOB AND CARD PRINTING of all sorts is promptly done at the Chronicle Office.

SPRINGFIELD, N. H., April 19, 1855.

My daughter has been troubled with the Scrofulous Humor, causing swelling of the neck, for a number of years, and by the use of four bottles of Dr. S. Swett's Panacea, the swelling has been entirely removed, and her health is good.

JANE B. ELLIOTT.

The above testimony of my wife is true.

ENOCH B. ELLIOTT.

Hundreds of testimonials on hand might be added, evincing the many cures by Dr. Swett's medicine. All orders directed to DR. SIMEON SWETT, PORTSMOUTH, N. H., No. 1 School St., for his Panacea, Cough Drops, Conserve, Rheumatic Compound and Family Pills, and other of his popular remedies, will be promptly attended to.

Humphreys' Homeopathic Specifics

CURE PROMPTLY and safely all the more common diseases and ailments to which families are subject. In all acute diseases, such as fevers, inflammations, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Rheumatism, Croup, and such eruptive diseases as Scarlet Fever, Measles, and Erysipelas, the advantage of giving the proper remedies promptly is obvious, and in all such cases the specifics act like a charm. The entire disease is often arrested at once, and in all cases the violence of the attack is moderated, the disease shortened, and rendered less dangerous.

Coughs and Colds, which are of such frequent occurrence, and which so often lay the foundation of diseased lungs, Bronchitis and Consumption, may all be at once cured by the Fever and Cough Pills.

In all chronic diseases, such as Dyspepsia, Constipation, Weak Stomach, Liver Complaint, Piles Female Debility and Irregularities, old Headaches, Sore or Weak Eyes, Catarrh, Salt Rheum and other old eruptions, the case has specifics whose proper application will afford a cure in almost every instance. Often the cure of a single chronic difficulty, such as Dyspepsia, Piles or Catarrh, Headache or Female Weakness, has more than paid for the case ten times over.

For price, see advertisement in another column.

THE HAUNTS OF THE SEA SERPENT, a letter which we copy to-day from a Hartford paper, is an amusing piece of gossip; and the queer stories about Gosport will of course furnish a fund of laughter to the Islanders, and to all others who know much about the Shoals, as they are the merest Munchausen tales; — but if any person abroad, who is not acquainted with the place or circumstances, should suppose there was any considerable foundation in truth, for the queer stories about the Mission Church there, he would be grossly deceived.

For example, the letter-writer says the books state the number of people on Gosport or Star Island, to be 29. What book he saw we cannot tell; but the New Hampshire Register shows that for several years lately, the Islanders threw from 24 to 27 votes; the U. S. census of 1850 sets down Gosport with a population of 102; and the new History of New England, last year set down the population 125.

Again, it is not true that the Islanders never attend church, as the letter intimates; for a good proportion of them do so, and their children attend Sabbath and day schools. The stories about the repairs of the church and the burial of the missionary, are mere romance.

In fact, the church has been repaired by donations from the main land, and the teachers and preachers have been paid mostly by benevolent ladies and gentlemen in Newburyport, Portsmouth, and Boston, —for many years, until lately, when the people themselves have assumed part of the burden.

And as to burial, one clergyman, who died a century ago or so, and was buried there, has one of the most elegantly engraved monumental stones anywhere to be found.

Going on to Appledore, to get ideas of the religious condition of Gosport, is something like going to Paris, to get ideas of the religion of England.

The gossip, we repeat, is amusing, and some of the descriptions not bad; but as to real information it is about as reliable as an old sailor's yarn.

NAVAL.—Captain Geo. F. Pearson is to relieve Captain John Pope in the command of this Navy Yard on the first of October.

Chaplain Henry Wood has been ordered to this Navy Yard.

Gunner Samuel G. City died at his residence, at Portsmouth, Va., on the 5th inst. He was the senior gunner in the navy, having entered in 1832.

☞ We are authorized to state that half-fare trains will run on the Eastern and Concord & Portsmouth Roads, Sept. 19th and 20th, for the Rockingham Fair in this city—return tickets good for two days.—The crowd of visitors will undoubtedly be very great, including many from Boston and along the road.

☞ All ladies and gentlemen disposed to assist in the Decorations of the Car, Tent and Arches, for the Fair, are invited to meet at Jefferson Hall, this (Wednesday) evening, at half-past 7, or to leave word at the store of J. H. Head.

The general Committee of Arrangements are also requested to meet at Jefferson Hall this evening.

BIGAMY.—Lydia Ann Knights, wife of Alpheus Knights, was brought before the Police Court of Gloucester, to answer to a charge of bigamy. From the evidence it appears she was married some six years since to one Dearborn of Great Falls, N. H., and without procuring a legal divorce, had entered into matrimonial alliance with her latest partner, at Manchester, Mass., about two ago. But Massachusetts is not the place to indulge in a plurality of husbands with impunity, and so Justice Trask ordered her to recognize in the sum of $500 for her appearance at the Superior Court.—Gloucester Telegraph.

SUDDEN DEATH.—The Postmaster at Oldtown, Me., Mr. O. Pearson, whilst presiding at a political meeting on Friday night of last week, was suddenly taken sick and requested to be taken home, saying he was going to die. He was removed to his house and died in a few hours. His disease was epilepsy.

DIAMOND WEDDING.—Miss Ida Craig, daughter of D. H. Craig, Esq., Agent of the Associated Press, was married on Tuesday last to James B. Brown, Esq., of Peekskill, son of one of the wealthiest residents of that place. Rev. H. W. Beecher officiated, and his son and daughter were groomsman and bridesmaid. The affair was a brilliant one.—N. Y. Day Book.

☞ The Boston Journal says Gov. Banks will go to Chicago in a few days, to make arrangements for the removal of his family, and the assumption of his new duties. His family will remove thither early this fall, and the Governor will at once pass from the State House in January, to the Illinois Central Railroad office in Chicago.

A lady visiting Newport speaks of the little curs which infest great houses, in this wise: "We surrender our heels to the barking and biting of their dear little dog, a wisp of oakum with a devil in it.

☞ A cargo of slaves has been landed on the eastern coast of Cuba.

CHICAGO, Sept. 10.—Mrs. Jane Cook, Miss Elizabeth Ann Cook of Wisconsin, Franklin Hopkins and son, and Marshal Burns of Milwaukie, are among the lost on board the Steamer Lady Elgin. Thomas Kennedy, reported lost, is saved.

Milwaukie is shrouded in mourning, and business is entirely suspended. The reception of Senator Seward is postponed.

Twenty-seven bodies have been recovered, among them that of Herbert Ingraham, member of the British Parliament.

Among the lost was William Harner of Philadelphia.

The Lady Elgin is insured for $24,000. The schooner Augusta is libelled for $40,000, and has been taken in charge by the U. S. Marshal.

NEW YORK, Sept. 11.—A dispatch from Washington says that bids for the building of a Pacific Telegraph will be opened today. It is believed that the only substantial bid is that of Major Libbey, in behalf of the Western Union line.

Richard Gray, a young fireman, was stabbed to the heart in the street last night, by a parcel of young rowdies, who were arrested.

MANCHESTER, N. H., Sept. 11.—The Third District Republican Electoral Convention and Mass Meeting is held in this city to-day. Over ten thousand strangers are reported to be in the city. Hon. Daniel Clark is President of the day, and Isaac W. Farmer Chief Marshal. Hon. David Gillis of Nashua is nominated as Elector.

FUSION IN NEW YORK STATE.—New York, Sept. 10.—A call has been issued by Cagger and Richmond for a meeting of the Democratic State Committee on Friday next. It is understood that the Committee will reject the proposition agreed to by the Sub-Committee with the Breckinridge Committee, which was unauthorized by the full Committee.

☞ We refer our readers to the advertisement of Granville Moars, Agent for the sale of the Shawmut Company's Clarine Coal Oil. From his well known reputation in the business, we can confidently recommend this oil to our readers as a very superior article. Get a good burner, a good lamp, and good oil, and you will be delighted with the article.

THE MECANICS' EXHIBITION at Faneuil and Quincy Halls, Boston, is now open, and possesses unusual attractions for visitors. It affords one of the most amusing and profitable entertainments, as it enables all to examine the works of the great inventive genius of the age, in Art, Science, Mechanics and Manufactures.

LYMAN'S
Improved Patent Metallic Soles.
PATENTED JUNE 7, 1859.

The nature of this invention consists of a metallic sole for Boots and Shoes, which has been tested and operates admirably. No dampness penetrates through to the inside sole. This is the only device that will operate well between two soles, and is made so thin as not to interfere with the most delicately finished work. The necessity of such a device to fully accomplish the much desired object, and the direful effects arising from damp feet, are too well understood to require any comment.

It is obvious to every one that sole leather is porous, absorbing water, and that the soles of boots and shoes are often damp when they appear dry, causing cold feet, chills, neuralgia, rheumatism, consumption, &c.

Physicians of eminence have pronounced this Metallic Sole an invaluable discovery, and state that, if generally used, it will result in the immense saving of human life.

The right to manufacture and sell the above Improved Metallic Sole for the County of Rockingham has been purchased by the subscriber.

Boot and shoe manufacturers and dealers in Rockingham County furnished with the soles, with right to use, at No. 24 Market Street, Portsmouth, N. H. J. C. CARR.

Morning Chronicle.

☞ The following notice, printed last week for a Committee of the Pleasant Street Baptist Society, in Concord, and distributed in their house of worship is appliable in all churches where congregational singing is practiced:—

All the congregation are depended upon to sustain the singing, and it is all-important that every voice should be prompt, full, distinct and uniform in uttering the words, and never behind the time given by the instrument.

Uniformity in position while singing is not unimportant; and while it is more appropriate to rise, it is easier to sing in a standing posture.

It is therefore desired that all would rise, who are physically able, during the short time that is devoted to this part of the service, whether they can unite audibly in the service or not, and to rise together, when the instrument begins to play the last part of the tune corresponding with the beginning of the last line of the verse.

A rehearsal will be held every Saturday evening, at half past 7 o'clock; and it is very important every member of the congregation, who can, should be present. So will this important part of public worship be more creditably and appropriately maintained.

A FEW CERTIFICATES OF THE GREAT SUCCESS

—of the—

Grover & Baker's Sewing Machines.

[From the wife of the Hon. Jefferson Davis.]

Mrs. Jefferson Davis presents her compliments to Messrs. Grover & Baker, and takes pleasure in saying that she has used one of their box Sewing Machines for two years, and finds it still in good order—makes a beautiful stitch, and does easily any kind of work.

[From J. G. Harris, Governor of Tennessee.]

My wife has had one of Grover & Baker's Family Sewing Machines for some time, and I am satisfied it is one of the best labor-saving machines that has been invented. I take pleasure in recommending it to the public.

[From the Rev. Jonathan Cross, Agent American Tract Society.]

My wife has been using one of your Sewing Machines for the last three months, and pronounces it faultless. She can sew more on it in one day, than she can in any other way, and without fatigue. The work is beautiful and durable. She says she would not exchange it for any other price. It is certainly one of the grandest inventions ever made for the relief of woman-kind, and I would recommend every family to get one as soon as possible.

Baltimore, July 14, 1859.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859.

Having tested the merits of the various popular Sewing Machines, in the manufacture of our Capes and Raglans, we unhesitatingly recommend the Grover & Baker, as far superior to all others. ALLEN & PAINE.

PORTSMOUTH, July 16, 1859.

If you wish to purchase a machine that will do work handsomely and strongly, and will not be liable to get out of repair, call on Mr. Whittemore in Daniel street, see the operation of Grover & Baker's machine, and then place one in your family. They will never consent to part with it, after they understand its operation.

CHARLES W. BREWSTER.

"Zion's Herald," Nov. 10th, 1859, says,—"We would recommend to families who are about to organize a homestead, to be sure and have a Family Bible, and also one of Grover & Baker's SEWING MACHINES."

HUMPHREYS' HOMEOPATHIC SPECIFIC REMEDIES for the People

THE Remedies are carefully prepared under the direct supervision and inspection of Prof. HUMPHREYS, in order to meet that great and long realized want of the public, namely, remedies for all the more common and simple ailments of life.

Each moment's reflection will show that a vast majority of diseases from which we suffer and die, were, at their commencement, simple and trifling. A mere cold, a slight diarrhœa, a pain in the side, or a headache, or hoarseness, at first easily cured and subdued, in time becomes a consumption, a fever, a dangerous dysentery, Croup or other disease, which the powers of medicine fail to arrest.

Herein these remedies supply a great public want. Being on hand, simple, so you know at once what to take—pleasant, so as to cause no repugnance—safe, and hence occasioning no risk, while the curative effects are positive and certain, they are taken, and at once the sick is broken and the danger allayed.

Experience has amply confirmed the worth of these remedies for families and private persons, as being THE MOST SIMPLE, MOST SIMPLE AND CONVENIENT, THE MOST PROMPT AND RELIABLE.

Thousands are and have been using them for some five years past, in every section of the country, with almost invariable success. All speak in the highest terms of their simplicity and certainty, and among our hundreds of agents the uniform testimony is, that they give good satisfaction to their customers.

Three doses will cure Indigestion.

One dose will give you a good appetite.

One dose will remove the most distressing pains of Colic, either in the stomach or bowels.

A few doses will remove all obstructions in the Kidney, Bladder or Urinary Organs.

Persons who are seriously afflicted with any Kidney Complaints, are assured speedy relief by a dose or two, and a radical cure by the use of one or two bottles.

NIGHTLY DISSIPATION.

Persons who from over-eating too much over night, and feel the evil effects of poisonous liquors, in violent headaches, sickness at stomach, weakness, giddiness &c., will find one dose will remove all bad feelings.

Ladies of weak and sickly constitutions, should take the Invigorating Spirit three times a day; it will make them healthy, cheerful, happy, remove all obstructions and irregularities from the menstrual organs, and restore the bloom of health and beauty to the careworn face.

During pregnancy it will be found an invaluable medicine to remove disagreeable sensations at the stomach.

All the proprietor asks, is a trial, and to induce this, he has put up the INVIGORATING SPIRIT in pint bottles, at 50 cents, or a dozen for $5.

CLIPPER PLOWS

Are manufactured only by the subscribers, the inventors, who offer them to the agricultural interest after they have been

THOROUGHLY TESTED

by experienced Plowmen, who pronounce them

The Best in the Market!

These Plows embrace NINE DIFFERENT SIZES, the largest of which is much in advance of anything in the United States, as regards size, and, like the other sizes of this celebrated Plow, is drawn easily by a team much smaller than is absolutely requisite to draw a Plow of less size, of any other make than the Clipper.

We also assure our Farming friends that as we have hitherto endeavored to make our Plows superior to all others in those points which especially interest Plowmen, we are still endeavoring by unceasing exertions, to improve—if this be possible—upon our former successes, although those who are best acquainted in these matters, "Will cannot be done."

Notwithstanding the immense advantages which these Plows possess over all others, we offer them at THE SAME PRICES as are charged for common grades, satisfied that their great superiority will induce so large a sale, that our aggregate profits will make our business sufficiently remunerative.

CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE

PILLS & IRON

An aperient and Stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Innoxious in all maladies in which it has been tried—it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

IN DEBILITY, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, EMACIATIONS, CONSTIPATION, DIARRHŒA, DYSPEPSIA, DYSENTERY, DISTEMPERED CONSUMPTION, SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, SALT RHEUM, MISMENSTRUATION, WHITES, CHLOROSIS, RHEUMATISM, INTERMITTENT FEVERS, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, &c.

In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of acute disease or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed-ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, critical change, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.

In NERVOUS AFFECTIONS of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary; for, unlike the old oxides, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and over heating; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency, which forms them.

In DYSPEPSIA, innumerable are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In unchecked DIARRHŒA, even when advanced to DYSENTERY, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent hectic, which generally indicate INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the numerous, highly boasted, prepared preparations of iodine, without any of their well-known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In RHEUMATISM, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In INTERMITTENT FEVERS it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has ever been discovered, in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects.—Within a few days, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an appetite for disputatious exercise and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by Druggists and Grocers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to FLOWERS.—Of all the minor creations of God, flowers seem to be completely the effusions of His love of beauty, grace and joy. Of all the minor objects which surround us, they are the least connected with our absolute necessities. Vegetation might proceed, the earth might be clothed with a sober green; all the processes of fructification might be perfected, without being attended by the glory with which the flower is crowned; but beauty and fragrance are poured over the earth in blossoms of endless varieties, radiant evidences of the boundless benevolence of the Deity. They are made solely to gladden the heart of man, for a light to his eyes, for a living inspiration of grace to his spirits, for a perpetual admiration. The Greeks, whose souls preeminently sympaththized with the spirit of grace and beauty in everything, were enthusiastic in their love and lavish in use of flowers. They scattered them in the porticos of their deities—they were strewed in the conqueror's path—on all occasions of festivity and rejoicing they were strewn about or worn in garlands. The guests at banquets were crowned with them; the bowl was wreathed with them; and whenever they wished to throw beauty, and to express gladness like sunshine, they cast flowers.

DONNYBROOK FAIR.—This annual gathering of infamy and reckless depravity is dead—stone dead. Yesterday, being the Sunday preceding the 26th inst., was, or was to have been, "walking Sunday," but the famed "Brook" was deserted, and the "interested individuals" looked townwards in vain for the arrival of their dupes and fools from the city.—Dublin Freeman's Jour.

FATAL FLUID ACCIDENT.—MRS. Hibbard Stevens at Manchester, whose clothes were almost wholly burned by an accident from burning fluid, is dead. MRS. S. set a fluid lamp upon the stove, and it exploded. Her age was fifty-seven years.

☞ Miss Jane Rose of Putnam, Conn., who took a dose of corrosive sublimate on Sunday the 26th of August, has died from its effects. She is said to have taken the poison at the instigation of the "spirits," as she asserted.

☞ The Orthodox Church edifice in Medford was destroyed by fire early Sunday morning. Loss about $6000. It was no doubt set on fire.

☞ The Philadelphia Inquirer says the Irish military organizations of that city will refuse to unite in any demonstration of respect to the Prince of Wales.

☞ General Leslie Coombs, just elected Clerk of the Court of Appeals of Kentucky by the Unionists, is nearly eighty years old.

A very aggravating fire at Bridgeport, Conn., not only burnt up a young ladies' boarding school, but all the young ladies' new dresses, bought during the vacation just finished.

MOTHERS

It must be obvious not only to you, but to every attentive and intelligent person, that the first diseases of infants arise chiefly from a disordered condition of their bowels, and in this connection, we present to your notice, for the alleviation and cure of these diseases, a remedy known as

Dr. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL,

Prepared from a formula used by Dr. Eaton with remarkable success during several years' practice. We know it to be a most reliable and efficacious remedy for bowel complaints, and our trial alone will convince you of its superiority over every other preparation of the kind. It is particularly recommended

☞ FOR CHILDREN TEETHING, ☜

And at this period of infantile life, when your anxious hearts are pained by witnessing the sufferings of your little ones, it will be found invaluable in Softening the Gums, Reducing Inflammation and Relieving all Pain. FOR DISEASES ATTENDING TEETHING, such as Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Griping in the Bowels, Acidity of the Stomach, Wind, Colic, and Cold in the Head, we confidently offer this as a certain relief and cure in every case when given in time. It will invariably regulate the stomach and bowels, and its importance in this respect can hardly be estimated.

IN CONVULSIONS,

From which many infants are said to die than from any other disease, the little sufferer is relieved instantaneously, as if by magic; and in this direct application, its intrinsic value is such that it has been recommended from one family to another, until the name of DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL, has become "familiar as a household word." We now ask your attention to a subject of vital interest to yourself, as well as to your suffering child. DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL contains

NO MORPHINE OR OPIATE,

Of any kind, or of whatever nature, a fact which we are fully warranted in saying cannot be said of any other preparation for infantile diseases, at this time before the public. We find that throughout the country, Mothers are becoming convinced of this truth, and of the sad and painful consequences which are certain to result from the use of narcotics disguised in the form of quieting remedies; their continued administration being invariably followed by stupefaction and constipation of the bowels, ending oftentimes in convulsions. Here in DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL differs from every other remedy. It

DOES NOT CONSTIPATE

The Bowels, neither does it act by deadening the sensibilities of your children, but naturally, thro' its rare medicinal qualities, by removing all pain and cause of disease. We earnestly recommend you, therefore, to lose no time in procuring a bottle, that you may have at hand a remedy which will never fail to relieve your child in time of need. It is perfectly harmless, and cannot injure the most delicate infant.

Take none but DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL. This you can rely upon. Price 25 cts. per bottle.

APPLEDORE HOUSE,
ISLES OF SHOALS.
This favorite resort for the man of leisure and the invalid is now open. Since last year many alterations and additions have been made, increasing its capacity. Billiard and Bowling Saloons are provided, and every measure taken to secure the comfort and amusement of its guests in abundance of sweet cream and milk is supplied from healthy cows kept on the Island. The table is faultless. The facilities for fishing have been increased by the addition of new boats and experienced skippers.
When to all these advantages are added the purity of the air—the delicious coolness of the ocean breeze, its invigorating and appetizing power—the loveliness of the scenery—the glory of its sunsets—the cleanliness of its walks—its freeness from dust, mud, and all other annoyances of the kind—it may truly be said to possess advantages and attractions which no other watering place in New England can attain. The equability of the temperature is a natural advantage over the coast or the mountain, which invalids can fully appreciate.
A daily Packet, the SIBYL, Capt. Preble, runs directly from Portsmouth, leaving Fier Wharf on the arrival of the morning train from Boston, and returns in the afternoon. The Sibyl has every accommodation for the comfort of passengers which a Packet requires.

Having Proof so Strong and Direct
as to
Expel the Doubts of All.
For Statesmen, Judges, Editors, Physicians of the oldest schools as well as new, give it their unqualified sanction, and recommend it for all cases of eruptions, and diseases of the scalp and brain; but all woo have used it, unite in testifying that it will preserve the hair from being gray, nap from falling to any age, as well as restore.—Read the following:—
Oak Grove, S. C., June 24, 1859.
Prof. O. J. Wood:—Dear:—Your Hair Restorative is rapidly gaining popularity in this community. I have had occasion to lay prejudice aside, and give your Hair Restorative a perfect test:—
During the year 1854, I was so unfortunate as to be thrown from my sulky against a rock near the roadside, from which my head received a most terrible blow; causing a great deal of irritation, which communicated to the brain and external surface of the head, from the effects of which my hair was entirely destroyed. From the time I first discovered the dropping, however, up to the time of its total disappearance, I employed everything I could think of, being a professional gentleman myself, and at least understanding the nature of the disease, but was finally defeated in every prescription advanced.
Hence as a last resort I determined and made to resort to your worthy "Hair Restorative," which I have every reason to believe, profluced a very happy result: for at the second or the first application, I had as beautiful a head of young hair as I ever saw, for which I certainly owe you my sincere thanks. Rest assured, dear sir, I shall recommend your remedy to all inquirers; moreover, I shall use my influence, which I flatter myself is no slight one, in its behalf.
You can publish this if you think proper.
Yours, very respectfully,
M. J. WRIGHT, M. D.

Jeffersonian Office, Phillipi, Va., Dec. 12, 1859.
Professor O. J. Wood:—Dear Sir: I feel it my duty as well as my pleasure, to state to you the following circumstance, which you can use as you think proper. A gentleman of this place, (a lawyer,) has been bald ever since his early youth; so much so, that he was compelled to wear a wig. He was induced to use a bottle of your "Hair Restorative," which he liked very much; and after using some two or three bottles the hair grew out quite luxuriantly, and he now has a handsome head of hair. The gentleman's name is Bradford, and as he is very well known in our adjoining counties, many persons can testify to the truth of this statement: I give this to you at the request of Mr. Bradford. You can sell a great deal of your Hair Restorative in this and the adjoining counties if you have the proper agents. Yours, &c.,
THOMPSON SURGHNOR.

Dr. Wood—Dear Sir—Permit me to express the obligations I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color; about the time of my arrival in the United States it was rapidly becoming gray, but upon the application of your Hair Restorative it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative as a very wonderful invention, quite efficacious as well as agreeable. S. THALBERG.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $8 a bottle.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 13, 1860.

AN INCIDENT WORTH REPEATING.—La Fayette S. Foster, who was recently re-elected to the United States Senate by the Connecticut Legislature, has concluded that it is not good for man to be alone, as he is soon to take unto himself a wife. The lady is said to be well known in Washington society.

If reports are correct, this is not the first time Mr. Foster has been wounded by the little god. When we lived in Connecticut we recollect hearing a story run in this wise:

During his period of law study in the south-eastern portion of the State, he became acquainted with a young lady of prepossessing appearance and more than ordinary accomplishments, a daughter of parents of the highest respectability, and moving in the most fashionable circle of the vicinity. With her he entered one of his earliest pleas, and commenced his first suit. That he was successful is evident from the fact, that, shortly after his admission to the bar, having obtained an honorable position and business connection, arrangements for consummating the marriage were made, and all went on harmoniously until a short time before the appointed day.

During his visit one evening, he remarked that he believed all necessary arrangements for the wedding were made, and the route for their bridal tour decided. He added: "On our return, we shall be obliged to devote a short time to our friends here, after which, if you please, we will pay a visit to my old father and mother, and spend a few days with them." Now La Fayette was always a good boy, and was taught to honor his father and mother, which early became to him a pleasure as well as a duty. He had received from them words of love and encouragement, which had done for him without money (for they were poor) what money could never have done, and through all his privations and struggles to attain an education and a position in life, he had been stimulated and supported by the thought of the pleasure his success would give them, and he looked forward to the day when with his chosen one he should meet them beneath their humble roof and receive again their blessings, to be one of the happiest he should ever experience.

For a few moments the lady kept silence. She then said, "Mr. Foster, you know I have been educated with different ideas from yours, and have always associated with people whose manners and style of living are different from those of your parents, and although I shall make no objection to your proposed visit, I wish you to understand that I shall not expect to repeat it soon or often, and that I shall not desire to associate with people of their class."

Nothing could have surprised him more than to hear these words from her lips. For a few minutes he walked the room, seemingly half bewildered. Then taking his hat in his hand, he turned, and with words more emphatic than refined, said: "Madam, I am glad I have found you out in time. You may go to the d—l."

The last we heard of the lady, she was still living, an ancient maiden, having seen this son of parents she considered beneath her notice, filling with honor the highest public offices to which his fellow-citizens could promote him.—Life Illustrated.

ENCOURAGEMENT FOR FIRST COUSINS TO MARRY.—Dr. William Owen in the September number of the Cincinnati "Journal of Rational Medicine," reviews the report of Dr. S. M. Bemiss of Louisville, Ky., made to the American Medical Association at the meeting of 1858, with regard to the intermarriage of cousins, and deduces from his examinations of the statistics, the conclusion, "that a larger proportion of the parents were defective than the children; and that if any result has ensued from this system of intermarriage it has been sanitary rather than otherwise." Dr. Owens concludes his paper as follows:

"If Dr. Bemiss or any one else will take a whole county or State, ascertain all of the cases of intermarriage of blood relations, and then obtain the history of each family on both sides as far back as possible, and enquire into the health and habits of their ancestry,—observe all accidents and diseases which may have been connected with each one,—if any diseases have been peculiar to any family, and what were their position in society and manner of living;—and in short let him enquire into everything that goes to make the character and history of the families; then we will have a report of undoubted value, and one that will reflect credit upon its author. The present one is almost useless, being wholly deficient in its essential parts. It displays an amount of ignorance, unfairness, or dishonesty, which we were unprepared to see in such a document, and are greatly surprised at its endorsement, without question, by the Association."

☞ The ordination of Rev. F. D. Huntington, D. D, as a deacon of the Episcopal Church, took place at Trinity Church, Boston, Wednesday forenoon. Rev. Dr. Watson of the U. S. Navy read the service; Bishop Burgess preached the sermon "the Litany was pronounced, and the candidate was presented for examination. This having been done in the usual form, Bishop Eastburn laid his hands upon the candidate and invested him with authority to execute the office of a deacon in the church and also to preach.

☞ A dispatch from Washington mentions a rumor of a defalcation, by a Breckinridge leader of high standing with the Administration, to the amount of $40,000.

MAINE.—On Tuesday evening, in Portland, the Republicans had a torch-light procession, illumination, and other demonstrations of joy at their success in the election. Details are of no consequence.

The Representatives elected to the Legislature in Penobscot and Piscataquis counties are all Republicans.

All the Republican candidates for Congress are elected.

Two hundred and thirteen towns give Washburn (Rep.) 48,147; Smart (Dem.) 35,026; Barnes (Union) 1240. Same towns last year gave Morrill (Rep.) 39,360; Smith (Dem.) 30,544. Republican majority this year 11,881; last year 8816. Increase in the whole vote 14,509. Republican net gain 3065. The aggregate vote of the State will reach 120,000—about 20,000 more than that of last year.

Some guess at 20,000 majority—but that is probably too large.

☞ The Republicans of Saco and Biddeford celebrated their victory in grand style Tuesday night, by torchlight processions, illuminations and fireworks. Altogether it was the finest demonstration ever made there.

FATAL ACCIDENT FROM BURNING FLUID.—While Mr. S. D. Huntoon, of the firm of Fellows & Huntoon, Hopkinton, N. H., was drawing burning fluid on Thursday evening last, the vapor escaping from the fluid took fire, and communicating with the barrel, it exploded, staving the head of the barrel into fragments, and blowing Mr. H. across the cellar. His clothes were saturated with fluid and set on fire. He rushed up stairs completely enveloped in flames;—his partner and others flew to his aid, and quickly succeeded in extinguishing the flames, but not before he was horribly burned. He lived in great agony until Sabbath evening, about 11 o'clock, when death came to his relief. He was thirty-seven years of age, and leaves a wife and child and a host of friends to mourn his loss. A man standing by his side, holding the light by which the fluid was ignited, was seriously but not dangerously burned.

AN INNOCENT MAN HUNG BY A MOB.—The Madison (Wis.) Argus says late developments lead to the conviction that Mayberry, who was hung by a mob at Janesville, in 1855, was innocent of the crime of which he had been convicted, and for which he has been murdered. All the evidence, as far as it can be gathered, points to 'Laut McComb as the real murderer of Alger; and the Janesville mob will soon have the satisfaction of knowing that they put to death, in a cruel and shameful manner, a man who was guilty of no crime.

AFFRAY IN CAMBRIDGE.—On Sunday evening last, various branches of the O'Connor family assembled at a wedding feast of one of their kin, and celebrated the reunion by a general "skrimmage," which resulted in the arrest of the principal guests at the wedding, and their commitment to the lock-up.

☞ Joseph True Lake, of Chichester, is now on a visit to his sister in Manchester. He at the present time weighs 237 lbs., and is but eight years old next December. He stands 4 feet and 7 inches in his stockings, and measures 4 feet 2 1-2 inches around his waist. The circumference of his thigh is 2 feet 3 1-2 inches, and his body around the shoulder, 4 feet.

SCALDED TO DEATH IN A MOTHER'S ARMS.—An accident of a singularly distressing character occurred in Chicago on Monday of last week. As the servant girl of Mr. James Powers was in the act of placing the coffee pot on the breakfast table, as directed by her mistress, the handle broke, and the hot coffee scalded a child in Mrs. Powers' arms, so that death took place the same day.

☞ A Washington dispatch to the N. Y. Times says it is understood that the government has given its assent and co-operation to the intended mediation of England, France, Prussia and Spain in the affairs of Mexico. Minister McLane has instructions to that effect.

☞ Rev. J. V. Himes, pastor of the Second Advent church in Boston, recently preached a sermon, commemorative of the thirtieth anniversary of his ministry. In regard to the second coming of the son of man, he said that from all the signs of the times he believed it would be in less than ten years.

☞ Letters by the America leave no doubt that the Great Eastern will make a trip soon to Hampton Roads. If the South is really in earnest for direct trade with Europe, now is the time to act.

☞ A non-resident of New Bedford has just made his will, giving the to Franklin street Christian church $2000, and to the Christian Church at Steep Brook $1000 to $2000.

☞ The German Sunday theatres in New York, by a course of action on the part of the authorities, in enforcing the law, are at length closed.

COUNTERMAN ROBBED IN A LIQUOR SALOON.—On Friday William Wait, of Malden, came to Boston and visited a liquor shop in Merrimac streeet, kept by one Samuel Marble, where he showed a $100 bill on the Spickett Falls bank, at Methuen. The bill was snatched from his hand by Marble, who soon after handed back a bill which Wait supposed to be his own, and he went away satisfied. When he got home he ascertained that a one dollar bill had been palmed off upon him. He applied to the police of Boston, and on Saturday officer Dunn arrested Marble, who had in his possession about $60 on the Blackstone Bank, and upon visiting that bank it was ascertained that a $100 bill on Spickett Falls Bank had been exchanged there on Friday afternoon, and Mr. Wait has seen that bill and idenified it as the one taken from him. Marble, who was formerly a hackman, was committed to the toombs.—The prisoner had an examination in the Police Court, and was held in $400 for trial at the Superior Court, in October.—True.

GENEROUS CONTRIBUTION.—The steamship America, when four hours out from Halifax, in a thick fog, run into the schooner Emorald of Barington, N. S., heavily laden with fifty-one tons of coal and herring, with which she was returing after a long cruise. The steamer struck her on the quarter, and her bowsprit became entangled in the rigging, suspended the schoner long enough to enable the whole of the crew, consisting of ten men and a boy, to scrample upon deck with the aid of those on board the steamer, thus providentially escaping almost certain death. The misfortune excited the sympathy of the passengers on the steamship, and in a short time the generous sum of $387 was collected. Capt. Moodie, his officers, crew, engineers, stokers add stewarts all liberally contributed. The contribution was suggested by Charlton of Sheffield, England. The Hon. Robert C. Winthrop was entrusted, together with Mr. Hall of Boston, and Mr. Carlton, in the distribution of the funds. The gratitude of the recipients is said to have been touching. The act is commendable to all concerned.—Atlas.

We have in our household (writes a friend from Hartford,) a youngster of three years, who not unfrequently is the author of some knotty questions, but who, nevertheless, is always ready with reasons for his interrogations, as may be seen from the subjoined colloquy. Sitting by his mother's side, one evening last week, he quietly broke forth with—

"Mother, did father ask you to marry him?"

Receiving an affirmative answer, he continued: "Well, what did he say?"

"Oh, I have almost forgotten," replied his mother; "but why do you ask?"

"Because," said he, "I want to know what to say when I'm a man!"

I think this was preparing to "pop the question" early.—Knickerbocker.

☞ The Bangor Union is remarkable for its use of adjectives. Here is a specimen in speaking of the Republican nominees for Congress:

"In the first district, the impotent Somes has been set aside for the uncompromising Goodwin; in the third, the lethargic French is superseded by the active, puritanical Fessenden; in the fourth, the quiet and harmless Morse has been crushed out by that crafty and powerful abolitionist, Anson P. Morrill, the father of Black Republicanism and Know-Nothingism in Maine; and in the sixth, the innocent and feeble Foster is to be succeeded by the able. bitter and vindictive Garrisonian, Frederick A. Pike.

A HINT TO THE LADIES.—Don't make your rooms gloomy. Furnish them for light, and let them have it. Daylight is very cheap, and candle or gas-light you need not use often. If your rooms are dark, all the effect of furniture, pictures, walls, and carpet are lost. Finally, if you have beautiful things, make them useful.—The fashion of having a nice parlor, and then shutting it up all but three or four days in the year, when you have company; spending your life in a mean room, shabbily furnished, or an unhealthy basement, to save your things, is the worst possible economy. Go a little further—shut up your house and live in a pig-pen! The use of nice and beautiful things is to act upon your spirit—to educate you and make you beautiful.

A CHILD'S APPEAL.—"Pa," said a little girl, "are you a drunkard?" And with her little hands upon his cheek, patting them both, she looked in his eye so imploringly. There was a mingling of fear, of agony and of hope in the question, that started the tears to her eyes. And why?

At school that day unkind school mates had tauntingly said, "Aha, your father gets drunk." With her heart swelled nigh to bursting, she ran home to have the question settled. Alas; her father was a drunkard! But he vowed to drink no more. That appeal saved him.

AN INCIDENT.—At the Bell and Everett meetings things often occur that are not in the programme. Here is a late example: A speaker whose stock in trade was his personal abuse of Mr. Lincoln, said that "all he had ever done was to split rails and sell whiskey at five cents a drink." At this point of the orator's speech an enthusiastic, spiritually minded friend of the "Constitutional Union party" arose and excitedly demanded "three cheers for the man who sells whiskey at five cents a drink!" The cheers were given heartily.

☞ Of the 606 convicts in the Ohio Penitentiary, 400, or nearly 60 per cent., have no trade, and 250 cannot read or write.

☞ According to the N. Y. Commercial, $15,000 a day are spent in New York for oysters.

Senator Douglas really has swung clear from Democratic moorings, and time only can fix his ultimate drifting.—Boston Post.

WORDSWORTH AND THE PIG.

Wordsworth walked once near Ambleside,
Upon a Summer's day,
And, upward gazing, struck his lyre
To this majestic lay:

"There's poetry in everything,
In small as well as big"—
But just as he had got so far,
He trod upon a pig.

"Hoorch!" quoth the pig, with such a grunt,
As you might well excuse,
If ever you had seen the nails
In the great poet's shoes.

"Hoorch!" quoth the poet, "there it is,
As plain as plain can be;
Even in this pig's grunt I do hear
The voice of poetry.

There's poetry in everything,
In small as well as big;
In Goody Blake and Harry Gill,
And in this grunting pig.

There's poetry in everything
We hear, or see, or smell;
You have it here in 'hoorch! hoorch! hoorch!'
And there in Peter Bell.

For poetry's but natural thought
In natural sounds expressed,
And that which hath the least of art
The truest is and best.

Of poets, therefore, we're the first,
Thou grunting pig and I;
For where's the poet that with us
In artlessness can vie?"

Elate he said: then onward passed,
And bade the pig adieu;
And then his lyre he struck again,
And sang with rapture new:

"There's poetry in everything,
In small as well as big;
In Goody Blake and Harry Gill,
And in yon grunting pig."

FORTUNE SELDOM MADE BY LABOR.

We seldom hear of fortune being acquired by hard labor. Indeed, it has passed into a proverb, that "the harder the labor the poorer the man." A few hundred dollars invested in improving districts have often become fortunes. So men of courage investing in new inventions, which others declined for lack of courage, have become millionaires, upon a few thousand capital. New York, New England and the West are full of such cases. The same may be said of many who have denied themselves superfluities, and purchased a lottery ticket. Messrs. WOOD, EDDY & CO., of Wilmington, Delaware, and St. Lous, Missouri, have cashed hundreds of prizes drawn in their Lotteries, from a few hundreds up to $100,000. A remittance to them of $2 50, $5, $10, or $20, will be answered by the return of a chance in one of their legalized Lotteries, by next mail.

☞ We call the attention of our readers to an article advertised in another column, called BLOOD FOOD. It is an entirely new discovery, and must not be confounded with any of the numerous patent medicines of the day. It is food for the blood, already prepared for absorption; pleasant to the taste and natural in action, and what one gains he retains. Let all those, then, who are suffering from poverty, impurity, or deficiency of blood, and consequently with some chronic disease or ailment, take of this BLOOD FOOD and be restored to health. We notice that our druggists have received a supply of this article, and also of the world-renowned DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL, which every mother should have. It is said to contain no paregoric or opiate of any kind whatever, and of course must be invaluable for all infantile complaints. It is also said that it will allay all pain, and soften the gums in process of teething, and at the same time regulate the bowels. Let all mothers and nurses, who have endured anxious days and sleepless nights, procure a supply and be at once relieved.

Atwood's Quinine Tonic Bitters,—the best Aromatic Tonic ever offered to the public.—All the Druggists have it. See advertisement.

My daughter has been troubled with the Scrofulous Humor, causing swelling of the neck, for a number of years, and by the use of four bottles of Dr. S. Swett's Panacea, the swelling has been entirely removed, and her health is good.

The above testimony of my wife is true.

ENOCH B. ELLIOTT.

Hundreds of testimonials on hand might be added, evincing the many cures by Dr. Swett's medicine. All orders directed to DR. SIMEON SWETT, PORTSMOUTH, N. H., No. 1 School St., for his Panacea, Cough Drops, Conserve, Rheumatic Compound and Family Pills, and other of his popular remedies, will be promptly attended to.

Humphreys' Homeopathic Specifics

CURE PROMPTLY and safely all the more common diseases and ailments to which families are subject. In all acute diseases, such as fevers, inflammations, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Rheumatism, Croup, and such eruptive diseases as Scarlet Fever, Measles, and Erysipelas, the advantage of giving the proper remedies promptly is obvious, and in all such cases the specifics act like a charm. The entire disease is often arrested at once, and in all cases the violence of the attack is moderated, the disease shortened, and rendered less dangerous.

Coughs and Colds, which are of such frequent occurrence, and which so often lay the foundation of diseased lungs, Bronchitis and Consumption, may all be at once cured by the Fever and Cough Pills.

In all chronic diseases, such as Dyspepsia, Constipation, Weak Stomach, Liver Complaint, Piles, Female Debility and Irregularities, old Headaches, Sore or Weak Eyes, Catarrh, Salt Rheum and other old eruptions, the case has specifics whose proper application will afford a cure in almost every instance. Often the cure of a single chronic difficulty, such as Dyspepsia, Piles or Catarrh, Headache or Female Weakness, has more than paid for the case ten times over.

For price, see advertisement in another column.

GOSPORT CHURCH.

The publication of a false story often brings out a contradiction or correction, of some value. Thus our republication of the story that a Missionary, many years ago, advised repairs of the Gosport Meeting House, had to pay a bill for the repairs, and then waxed wroth and preached no more because of the bill,—has brought out the simple yet interesting facts, on which the erroneous story was founded.

As long ago as 1817, two young gentlemen of Portsmouth, Rev. Mr. Burroughs of St. John's Church, and Lieut. Wilson of the U. S. Marine Corps, made a summer visit of two or three weeks, to Gosport.

Observing the old meeting-house which had been built by some charitable friends on shore, was neglected, dirty, and dilapidated, Mr. Burroughs employed a suitable man, who with a gang cleared out the rubbish, cleansed the sanctuary, and made some important, but not very extensive repairs.

Mr. B. urged the completion of these repairs on Saturday, that he might read the service and preach on Sunday; they were completed, and he preached accordingly. No bill was presented, but on Monday, with his usual promptness he gave the laborer his hire, as he expected to do when he employed him;—and instead of being offended by anything about the transaction, as the story runs, so as to leave the place abruptly, he remained and preached the next Sunday.

Mr. Burroughs was no missionary, but a volunteer preacher; and his visit to the Shoals was long before any Missionary was sent to Gosport.

We have given these particulars to show how easily a story gets distorted, and how far it may ultimately get away from the truth, by being told many times with fanciful variations.

The "Mr. Burroughs" thus honorably mentioned above, is of course now the Rev. Dr. Burroughs, the venerable and venerated clergyman of this city, who thus displayed the liberality and public spirit which have characterized his course through life.

For the Chronicle.

CONCERT AT KITTERY POINT.—A very interesting concert of sacred and secular music came off at the Congregational Church on Tuesday evening. The performers, to the number of twenty-five, were mostly volunteers from Kittery (Foreside) and Portsmouth. A number of sacred choruses were rendered in a very able manner. Songs, duets and quartets were performed by two ladies, and Messrs. W. P. Carter, J. C. and G. M. Goodrich, and J. H. Head. The attendance was good, and the proceeds we understand go to repair the church. At the close of the performance, the singers were hospitably entertained with a bountiful collation at the house of Mr. Gerrish, and a happy interchange of sentiment and song wound up the exercises of the evening—long to be remembered by the participants. H.

☞ On Tuesday evening, the Young Men's Wide-Awake Club of this city celebrated the Republican victory in Maine by illuminating their room on Congress street, and by firing a salute of thirty-three guns.

CODFISH VERSUS SALMON.—In New England codfish are plenty and salmon comparatively scarce and dear. In California, however, codfish are scarce while salmon are plenty, the former being quoted in San Francisco at 12 and latter the at 10 cts. per pound.—Gloucester Telegraph.

The Boston Courier gives the vote of a party from Boston, who went to Gloucester, all but two of whom were for Bell and Everett, and adds to the paragraph, "Straws show which way the wind blows!" Perhaps, under the circumstances there was no need of such an allusion to mint juleps!—Lynn News.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Sept. 11.—A straight Douglas electoral ticket is announced, including Vaux for elector at large, and 11 others on the Reading ticket. John Cessna is the other elector at large.

BANGOR, Me., Sept. 11.—A call has been issued for a Breckinridge State Convention, to meet in Bangor Oct. 2, to nominate electors.

The Wide Awake uniforms—rubber cape and glazed caps—will be very convenient for the republicans after election, as the rainy season will set in about that time on the Salt River.—Bath Times.

All prosperous men can give good counsel, and they like to do it; it costs them nothing. It is an easy matter, when one's stomach is full, to declaim against feasting.

ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 11.—It is understood that there is a letter here from Mr. Douglas, declaring his intention to denounce any fusion, made at the sacrifice of true Democratic principles, with men who favor secession and disunion. It is thought that Mr. Douglas will, in his speech in New York to-morrow, denounce such policy and recommend the State Committee to reject all overtures.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 11.—It is believed here that the report brought by the Osceola, that Walker's force has been reduced to 25 men, is incorrect. He was at Linas on the 26th with 76 men, well provided with arms, &c.

It is believed that Walker will march to Nicaragua. A vessel with provisions, clothing, &c., from Ruatan, was expected at the main land soon.

ARREST OF A FUGITIVE.—James L. Shaw was arrested at Clifton, Staten Island, on Saturday, as a fugitive from Marblehead, Mass., where he stands charged with swindling Mrs. Susan Evans out of $350, and with having seduced, under promise of marriage, her daughter. He was arrested on a requisition from the Governor of Massachusetts.—N. Y. Commercial Advertiser.

LYMAN'S
Improved Patent Metallic Soles.

PATENTED JUNE 7, 1859.

The nature of this invention consists of a metallic sole for boots and shoes, which has been tested and operates admirably. No dampness penetrates through to the inside sole. This is the only device that will operate well between two soles, and is made so thin as not to interfere with the most delicately finished work. The necessity of such a device to fully accomplish the much desired object, and the direful effects arising from damp feet, are too well understood to require any comment.

It is obvious to every one that sole leather is porous, absorbing water, and that the soles of boots and shoes are often damp when they appear dry, causing cold feet, chills, neuralgia, rheumatism, consumption, &c.

Physicians of eminence have pronounced this Metallic Sole an invaluable discovery, and state that, if generally used, it will cause an immense saving of human life.

The right to manufacture and sell the above Improved Metallic Sole for the County of Rockingham has been purchased by the subscriber.

Boot and shoe manufacturers and dealers in Rockingham County furnished with the soles, with right to use, at No. 24 Market Street, Portsmouth, N. H. J. C. CARR.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents.

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, Under the act of 1837.

76 STATE, OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse." CHAS. MASON, Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office." EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents.

BOSTON, February 5, 1858.

"Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART.

From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on TWICE rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

Mrs. Jefferson Davis presents her compliments to Messrs. Grover & Baker, and takes pleasure in saying that she has used one of their box Sewing Machines for two years, and finds it still in good order—makes a beautiful stitch, and does easily any kind of work.

[From J. G. Harris, Governor of Tennessee.]

My wife has had one of Grover & Baker's Family Sewing Machines for some time, and I am satisfied it is one of the best labor-saving machines that has been invented. I take pleasure in recommending it to the public.

My wife has been using one of your Sewing Machines for the last three months, and pronounces it faultless. She can sew more on it in one day, than twelve of the old hand-sewing machines that has been invented. I take pleasure in recommending it to the public.

The Remedies are carefully prepared under the direct supervision of Dr. HUMPHREYS, in order to meet that great and long realized want of the public, namely, remedies for all the more common and simple ailments of life.

A moment's reflection will show that a vast majority of diseases from which we suffer and die, were, at their commencement, simple and trifling. A mere cold, a slight disorder of the skin, the eye, or a headache, or heartburn, at first easily cured and subdued, in time becomes a consumption, a fever, a dangerous dysentery, croup or other disease, which all the powers of medicine fail to arrest.

Herein these remedies supply a great public want. Being on hand always, so you know at once what to take—pleasant, so as to cause no repugnance—safe, and hence occasioning no risk, while the curative effects are prompt and certain. They are taken, and at once the spell is broken and the danger allayed.

Experience has amply confirmed the use of these remedies in families and private practice, as being THE BEST IN USE, THE MOST SIMPLE AND CONVENIENT, THE MOST PROMPT AND RELIABLE.

Thousands are and have been using them for some five years past, in every section of the country, with almost invariable success. All speak in the highest terms of their simplicity and certainty, and scarcely hundreds of agents the uniform testimony is, that they give good satisfaction to their customers.

It Stimulates, Exhilarates, Invigorates, but will not Intoxicate or Stupefy.

As a Medicine, it is quick and effectual, curing the most aggravated cases of Dyspepsia, Kidney Complaints, and all other derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, in a speedy manner.

It will instantly revive the most melancholy and drooping spirits, and restore the weak, nervous and sickly to health, strength and vigor.

Persons who, from the injudicious use of liquors, have become dejected, and their nervous systems shattered, constitutions broken down and subject to that horrible curse to humanity, the Delirium Tremens, will, almost immediately, feel the happy and invigorating efficacy of Dr. Ham's Invigorating Spirit.

What it will do!

DOSE.—1 wine glass full as often as necessary.

One dose will remove all Bad Spirits.

One dose will remove Heartburn.

Three doses will cure Indigestion.

One dose will give you a good appetite.

One dose will stop the distressing pains of Dyspepsia.

One dose will remove the distressing and disagreeable effects of Wind on Flatulency, and as soon as the Stomach receives the Invigorating Spirit, the distressing load and all painful feelings will be removed.

One dose will remove the most distressing pains of Colic, either in the stomach or bowels.

A few doses will remove all obstructions in the Kidney, Bladder or Urinary Organs.

Persons who are seriously afflicted with any Kidney Complaints, are assured speedy relief by using one bottle, and a radical cure by the use of one or two bottles.

NIGHTLY DISSIPATION.

Persons who, from dissipating too much over night, suffer the evil effects of poisonous liquors, in violent headaches, sickness at stomach weakness, giddiness &c., will find one dose will remove all bad feelings.

Ladies of weak and sickly constitutions, should take the Invigorating Spirit three times a day; it will make them strong, healthy, and happy, remove all obstructions and irregularities from the menstrual organs, and restore the bloom of health and beauty to the careworn face.

During pregnancy it will be found an invaluable medicine to remove disagreeable sensations at the stomach.

All the proprietor asks, is a trial, and to induce this, he has put up the INVIGORATING SPIRIT in pint bottles, at 50 cents, qts $1.

CLIPPER PLOWS

Are manufactured only by the subscribers, the inventors, who offer them to the agricultural interest after they have been

THOROUGHLY TESTED

by experienced Plowmen, who pronounce them

The Best in the Market!

These Plows embrace NINE DIFFERENT SIZES, the largest of which is much in advance of anything in the United States, as regards size, and, like the other sizes of this celebrated Plow, is drawn easily by a team much smaller than is absolutely requisite to draw a Plow of less size, of any other make than the Clipper.

We also assure our farming friends that as we have hitherto endeavored to make our Plows superior to all others in those points which especially interest Plowmen, we are still endeavoring by unceasing attentions, to improve—if this be possible—upon our former successes, although those who are best acquainted in these matters say, "It cannot be done."

Notwithstanding the immense advantages which these Plows possess over all others, we offer them at THE SAME PRICES as are charged for common grades, satisfied that their great superiority will induce so large a sale, that our aggregate profits will make our business sufficiently remunerative.

CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE

PILLS IRON

An aperient and Stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States, and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Innoxious in all maladies in which it has been tried—it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

IN DEBILITY, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, EMACIATIONS, CONSTIPATION, DIARRHŒA, DYSPEPSIA, DYSENTERY, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, SALT RHEUM, MISMENSTRUATION, WHITES, CHLOROSIS, RHEUMATISM, INTERMITTENT FEVERS, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, &c.

In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of acute disease or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids confined to bed and often so far, become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if raised from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguinous exhaustion, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which no physician has no name.

In NERVOUS AFFECTIONS of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary; for, unlike the old oxide, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and over-heating; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is that latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency, which forms them.

In DYSPEPSIA, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most obstinate cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In unchecked DIARRHŒA, even when advanced to DYSENTERY, confirmed, unremitting, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent hectic, which generally indicate INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well-known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In RHEUMATISM, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In INTERMITTENT FEVERS, it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has ever been discovered, in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects—Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills; price 25 cents per box; for sale by Druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to PRINCE ALBERT'S FARM.—London, June 24, 1860.—As I have been somewhat of an agriculturist, I hope my remarks on Prince Albert's farm will not be devoid of interest. It is situated near Windsor Castle, about twenty miles S. W. of the city, occupies 1000 acres, 100 of which are never plowed, and is wooded and sown with orchard grass, top-dressed every four years with liquid manure. The arable land is subsoiled every two or three years with four enormously large Scotch horses driven tandem; rotation of crops much the same as ours, without the Indian corn. Crush barley and oats in a mill, driven by steam; keeps eighty short-horn and Alderney cows; cow stalls made of iron; iron trough always full of water in each stall, with waste pipe to gutter behind them, and thence to manure shed, from which it is pumped into carts, similar to ours for watering streets, and sprinkled over the grass.

Keep none but Suffolk and Berkshire pigs; prefers former on account of their taking on fat; as one of the swineherds said, "a dale of fat a dale quicker." The pig-pens are of stone, and paved with stone, being lower in the centre, from which a pipe conducts the liquid manure to keep. In the garden saw peach, apricot and plum trees trained espalier; pine-apples, strawberries and grapes in all stages of growth; latter finer than in countries to which they are indigenous and ripe all the year round. Melons will not grow in the open air, but they have fine ones in frames. Her Majesty must certainly fare sumptuously every day. There are forty men to attend to the garden alone.

Mr. Tait, the gentlemanly manager of the farm, gave me every information desired. I also went to see the Queen's stables, at Buckingham Palace,—they would make more comfortable dwellings than two-thirds of the people of London live in.—English farriers have found out that the upper part of the stall ought to be the lowest by two inches at least. There are in these stables one hundred and 60 horses.—Her Majesty is partial to greys, and may frequently be seen driving two in hand, in Windsor Park. The Princess Alice drives four ponies, and is said to be an excellent horsewoman. I saw the eight cream-colored horses that draw Her Majesty at the time of opening or dissolving Parliament. Their harness is red morocco, gold mounted, and cost $20,000, and the State carriage cost $85,000 ninety years ago.—Corr. Philadelphia Ledger.

This favorite resort for the man of leisure and the invalid is now open. Since last year many alterations and additions have been made, increasing the size—the delicious coolness of the ocean breeze, its invigorating and appetizing power—the loveliness of the scenery—the glory of its sunsets—the cleanliness of its walks—its freeness from dust, mud, and all other annoyances of the kind—it may truly be said to possess advantages and attractions which no other watering place in New England can attain. The equability of the temperature is a natural advantage over the coast or the mountains, which invalids can fully appreciate.

Read the following:—
Oak Grove, S. C., June 24, 1859.
Prof. O. J. Wood:—Dear—Your Hair Restorative is rapidly gaining popularity in this community. I have had occasion to lay prejudice aside, and give your Hair Restorative a perfect test.—
During the year 1854, I was so unfortunate as to be thrown from my saddle against a rock near the roadside, from which my head received a most terrible blow; causing a great deal of irritation, which communicates to the brain and external surface of the head, from the effects of which my hair was entirely destroyed. From the time I first discovered its dropping, however, up to the time of its total disappearance, I employed everything I could think of, being a professional man myself, and as I thought, understanding the nature of the disease, but was finally defeated in every prescription advanced.
These and no other circumstances induced me to resort to your worthy "Hair Restorative," which I have every reason to believe, produced a very happy result: two months after the first application, I had as fine a head of hair as I ever had, and I ever saw, for which I certainly owe you my sincere thanks. Rest assured, dear sir, I shall recommend your Hair Restorative, and moreover, I shall use my influence, which I flatter myself to say, is not a little.
You can publish this if you think proper.
Yours, very respectfully,
M. J. WRIGHT, M. D.
Jeffersonian Office, Phillipi, Va., Dec. 12, 1859.
Professor O. J. Wood:—Dear Sir: I feel it my duty as well as my pleasure, to state to you the following circumstance, which you can use as you think proper. A gentleman of this place, (a lawyer,) has been bald ever since his early youth; so much so, that he was compelled to wear a wig. He was induced to try a bottle of your "Hair Restorative," which he liked very much; and after using some two or three bottles the hair grew out quite luxuriantly, and he now has a handsome head of hair. The gentleman's name is Bradford, and as he is very well known in our adjoining counties, many persons can testify to the truth of this statement: I give this to you at the request of Mr. Bradford. You can sell a great deal of your Hair Restorative in this and the adjoining counties if you have the proper agents. Yours, &c.,
THOMPSON SURGHNOR.
Dr. Wood—Dear Sir—Permit me to express the obligations I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color; about the time of my arrival in the United States it was rapidly becoming gray, but upon the application of your Hair Restorative it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative as a very wonderful invention, quite efficacious as well as agreeable. S. THALBERG.
The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

MOTHERS
It must be obvious not only to you, but to every attentive and intelligent person, that the first diseases of infants arise chiefly from a disordered condition of their bowels, and in this connection, we present to your notice, for the alleviation and cure of these diseases, a remedy known as
Dr. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL,
Prepared from a formula used by Dr. Eaton with remarkable success during several years' practice. We know it to be a most reliable and efficacious remedy for infantile complaints, and one trial alone will convince you of its superiority over every other preparation of the kind. It is particularly recommended
☞ FOR CHILDREN TEETHING,
And at this period of infantile life, when your anxious hearts are pained by witnessing the sufferings of your little ones, it will be found invaluable in Relieving the Gums, Reducing Inflammation and Relieving all Pain. FOR DISEASES ATTENDING TEETHING, such as Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Griping in the Bowels, Acidity of the Stomach, Wind, Colic, and Cold in the Head, we confidently offer this as a certain relief and cure in every case when given in time. It will invariably regulate the stomach and bowels, and its importance in this respect can hardly be estimated.
IN CONVULSIONS,
From which more infants are said to die than from any other disease, the little sufferer is relieved instantaneously, as if by magic; and in this dread complaint alone, its intrinsic value is such that it has been recommended from one family to another, until the name of DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL, has become "familiar as a household word." We now ask your attention to a subject of vital interest to yourself, as well as to your suffering child. DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL contains
NO MORPHINE OR OPIATE,
Of any kind, or of whatever nature, a fact which we are fully warranted in stating cannot be said of any other preparation for infantile diseases, at this time before the public. We find that throughout the country, Mothers are becoming convinced of this truth, and of the sad and blighting consequences which are certain to result from the use of narcotics disguised in the form of quieting remedies; their continued administration being invariably followed by stupefaction and constipation of the bowels, ending oftentimes in convulsions. Hence in DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL differs from every other remedy. It
DOES NOT CONSTIPATE
The Bowels, neither does it set by deadening the sensibilities of your children, but naturally, thro' its rare medicinal qualities, by removing the pain and cause of disease. We earnestly recommend you, therefore, to lose no time in procuring a bottle, that you may have at hand a remedy which will never fail to relieve your child in time of need. It is perfectly harmless, and cannot injure the most delicate infant.
Take none but DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL. This you can rely upon. Price 25 cts. per bottle.
Prepared only by CHURCH & DUPONT, No. 409 Broadway, New York.
And sold by them, and all respectable Druggists.
Sold in Portsmouth by PRESTON, THACHER, HUTCHINGS and KIMBALL. o 1y

DROLL EXTRACTS

FROM THE NEWSPAPERS, ABOUT MAINE ELECTION.

James Brooks, in his paper, the New York Express, Sept. 8, writes thus:

To the President of the United States:—Maine votes for abolitionism, Monday next, the 10th, and you are responsible for it.—The same Northern revolution that rescued Rhode Island, and almost rescued Connecticut, was rescuing the ship-building, freighting, manufacturing, trading State of Maine, and you have put a stop to it. The hosts of your office-holders, that line, for hundreds of miles, Maine's indented sea-coast, and the hosts of postmasters that dot every village in the interior, trembling in fear of removal from you, have not, with few exceptions, dared to speak or act with any efficiency, even in a mere State election! Hence a heroic army of rank and file, going to battle without their customary Generals, will be routed by the well drilled enemy. Upon you, is all the responsibility. One word from you, and we all could have merrily sung—

"Morn breaketh in the East," &c., &c.

The Portland Argus of Sept. 8, two days before election, said:

Our opponents now consider the election gone, and they are trying to buy up votes enough to save them.

The Argus of the day after election says:

The election is over; we have met the enemy and they are not ours. * * The picture is not a particularly agreeable one for contemplation. * * Democrats console themselves with the reflection they are not so badly beaten as in 1856, and that although they did not defeat the enemy, they "scared him awfully."

The Portland Advertiser of Monday morning, election day, said:

We shall, in our opinion, elect Mr. Washburn by about twelve thousand majority; we should be less surprised to see it run up to fifteen thousand than down to ten thousand. The Legislature will be Republican, and uncomfortably stormy, numerically. We shall carry every member of Congress, and by majorities varying from respectable to overwhelming. Our County officers will be elected with a greater unanimity, and a larger majority than usual.

The Advertiser of Tuesday morning says, after footing up the returns:—

The same ratio of gain will give Washburn over 17,000 majority.

We think we but express the universal sentiment of our friends here, when we say The Wide Awake Organizations have saved this City.

There is no doubt but that the majority of the Board of Aldermen expect to stuff the voting lists with bogus names sufficient to carry the city; in Ward 7 there were more than 100 names not checked, while the whole Republican vote has been thrown. But for the determined position taken by the Wide Awakes as to illegal voting, these fraudulent votes would have been thrown.

The Boston Post of Sept. 10, said:—

The result of the contest now will undoubtedly give an indication of what the vote will be in November, but will hardly be a test, for the supporters of Breckinridge will generally vote for Smart. The zealous Douglas men claim that Maine is going for him, high and dry, in November; but then he cannot get by thousands the vote that Smart will receive to-day.

The people of Maine, irrespective of party, owe it to themselves to overthrow the present State rule, and we hope they will do it to-day.

The Post of the 11th, says:—

The result of the election in Maine will be found under the Telegraph head.

The Bath Times of Monday said:—

Creditable reports say that Fessenden has used $4,000 to secure his election in the 3d District, but he will find it has gone like the state funds, never to return. He will be a badly used-up man before Monday night.

Mr. Fessenden, however, did not happen to be used up very badly at that time, but was elected to Congress.

The Bath Times of Wednesday says:—

Since Monday night we have changed our mind in relation to politics, and adopted the sane conclusion that "doubtful things are very uncertain."

The Portland Argus of Sept. 12 says:—

We have had to contend with sly and desperate treachery on the part of men who claim to be Democrats, and who owe pretty much all they are to that Democratic party which they would now rather slaughter than see triumphant with Douglas for its standard bearer. * * * The result of Monday's work will be taken, as on the whole a declaration that Maine is for inaugurating the "irrepressible conflict."

The Argus of Sept. 7 said:—

The only way to clean out the Augean stables at Augusta is to elect Col. Smart; and the people mean to do it.

The Journal is losing its wits. It is so frightened at the fallen and still sinking condition of its party, &c.

The fact is the Lincoln party is doomed and wise men are fleeing from it.

The Concord, N. H. Patriot of Sept. 12, says:—

The election in Maine for State officers and members of Congress took place on Monday, and appears to have resulted in a complete black republican victory. Washburne, (black,) is elected Governor by 15,000 majority or more; the black republican majority last year was 12,000. Both branches of the legislature are also black. It is probable that the blacks have elected all the members of Congress, as before.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 12.—The rosin oil factory on the new shell road was burned yesterday. Loss $150,0000; uninsured.

LETTER FROM SOUTH AMERICA.

Mr. D. G. Waldron, who is business director of the Alleghanians, (vocalists,) an American company who have met with great success throughout Chili and Peru, gives an interesting account of their visit to the "guano" islands.

CHINCHA ISLANDS, Aug. 13, 1860.

Having been solicited to visit these islands, situated southwest and about twenty-four hour's sail from the port of Callao, we concluded to avail ourselves of the opportunity and spend a week among the American and English fleet, which now numbers one hundred and twenty ships, each waiting its turn to load with guano, the valuable treasure of which the Peruvian government holds possession. In order to give you a brief account of our trip, I copy from my note-book.

August 6th. — On board the English steamer "Bolivia."—At 6 o'clock A. M. made sight of the islands, and could faintly discern the great fleet of shipping which lay moored around them. Was on shore at 7 9 o'clock, and made all necessary arrangements to give our concerts. Was very happily surprised to meet two old school-mates, Capt. Simes of the ship "Emily Faraham," and Mr. Shillaber (a relative of Mrs. Partington) first officer of the ship "Morning Glory."

We talked of old school-boy days, from "Tattle Point" to "Gravelly Ridge," for two hours, and I assure you I really felt myself almost at "home again" in their company.—At 2 P. M. went on board the "Prima Donna," of which Capt. Pray of Portsmouth is master. Could not resist the temptation to enjoy a real down east dinner—something which is seldom obtained by travellers on the coast of Peru.

Aug. 9th.—Met Capt. Kennard, also officers Nowell, Coburn, and other Portsmouth friends. Held a "Clam Shell Corner" convention at the hotel. In the evening our company entertained an immense concourse of people here—the concert being the first ever given here.

Aug. 10th.—To-day we visited the different localities where the laborers are employed in excavating and loading the guano into cars, which convey it to the edge of the rocky precipice; from the cars it is emptied into a "shoot," (a large canvas tube) thro' which it runs down one or two hundred feet into the small boats or lighters, by which it is conveyed to the ships, which lay at some little distance from the shore.

It is a matter of great wonder to me how such an immense mass of this peculiar earth (guano) ever had its origin, and how it became deposited on the craggy rocks; its depth in many places being about two hundred and twenty-five feet! They are shipping, at the present time, about three thousand tons daily. It sells in Europe and the United States for about sixty-five dollars per ton, yielding to the Peruvian government an almost fabulous revenue.

The society at the Chinchas is very pleasant. Quite a number of English and American families are located here. A church, or Seaman's Bethel, is about being constructed.

The following, by permission, I copy from the Secretary's books:

At a meeting on board the ship Prima Donna, Capt. Pray, held June 21st, 1860, to take into consideration the establishing of a Bethel at the Chincha Islands, the following gentlemen were chosen to receive subscriptions, namely: Captains Pitman, Rich, Moore and Williams.

The following were also chosen Trustees: Mr. Naylor, director Pacific S. N. Co.; Dr. Trevitt, U. S. Consul at Callao; Mr. Geo. Petrie, agent Pacific S. N. Co. at Callao; and Rev. I. A. Swaney, Seaman's Chaplain at Callao.

On motion, it was resolved that the Bethel is to be free to the seaman of all nations; to be placed under the government of the American Seamen's Friend Society at New York; that the subscriptions be solicited among the shipping now lying here, and continued among those arriving till the object be obtained; that the above society be solicited to appoint a chaplain under their management; that the Trustees be requested to obtain permission from the government of Peru, and acquaint the said society with the same.

Should any cause prevent the execution of this plan, the money collected is to be transmitted by the Trustees to the American Seamen's Friend Society at New York, for the benefit of seamen of all nations, and the Bethel funds raised for the aforesaid purpose shall be under the management of said society.

Up to this present time, over two thousand dollars has been subscribed, and undoubtedly before many weeks their little Bethel will be completed.

I shall write you again when we arrive at Guayaquil, Ecquador.

NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—The steamship North Star, which arrived from Aspinwall to-day, brought 200 passengers and $790,000 in specie.

U. S. frigate Sabine and storeship Falmouth were at Aspinwall on the 4th.

The bark Weather Gauge was seized this morning on suspicion of being a slaver.

☞ On Saturday nineteen persons were fined, in Augusta, Ga., $50 and $100 each, and some of them committed, for selling liquor to negroes. Twenty cases were recorded for trial on Monday.

GREAT CROP OF GOVERNORS.

In Massachusetts, as our readers know, the Republicans nominated Mr. Andrew for Governor, some time ago. On Wednesday of this week, the Douglas Democrats nominated Mr. Beach, who has often been a candidate before; the Breckinridge Democrats nominated Mr. Butler; and the Bell and Everett party nominated Mr. Lawrence, who had determined to decline, but who magnanimously accepted, after four or five men had declined, and as he himself said, after hearing the news from Maine.

This great batch of Governors in embryo puts Uncle Toby in mind of an occurrence among the farmers in this neighborhood about thirty years ago, when a worthy old landholder was planting a large piece of ground with potatoes. He had a fair piece, well ploughed and properly manured; and he was putting in twice or three times as many potatoes or cuttings as usual into each hill. Another farmer happened to come by, and as he looked over the wall the old gentleman asked him if he didn't think he would get the premium next fall on potatoes!

"I don't know how that will be," said the other, "but you'd be sure to get the premium now, if they gave it on the seed."

The seedlings of Governors planted in Massachusetts on Wednesday, were as abundant as the old gentleman's potatoes; and they will doubtless command premiums now, but must be at a great discount after election.

The three anti-Republican parties also nominated three straight-out State tickets, no one of which has any reasonable prospect of being elected.

In 1859, Banks had 58,000; Butler 35,000; Briggs 14,000. This year the majority of Andrew will probably be much larger than Banks had.

HARVARD COLLEGE.—The Boston Advertiser announces another noble benefaction to Cambridge University, or rather to the needy but meritorious young men of the country, through that institution. A gentleman of wealth, and of large scientific and professional acquirements, has established sixteen scholarships at Harvard, with an income each of two hundred and fifty dollars annually. These scholarships are to be bestowed, year by year, on young men of limited means, who give promise by their conduct and devotion to their studies of future usefulness and distinction. It gives us unalloyed pleasure to record such munificent gifts for bringing the highest education the land affords still more within the reach of poor but talented youth. The more widely a liberal intellectual culture can be diffused in all the ranks of society, the better will it be for our nation and the world; and every such endowment as the above is a gift to the country at large.—There are now thirty-two scholarships at Harvard open to undergraduates.

THE DOUGLAS BARBECUE.—New York, Sept. 12.—There were 20,000 persons present at the Douglas Barbecue to-day in Jones' wood. Douglas and Johnson were enthusiastically cheered.

Mr. Douglas said in reply to a question, that he was in favor of a cordial union with every Union man who was true to the Constitution, with every man in favor of enforcing the laws of the United States in all contingencies. If Mr. Breckinridge was in favor of enforcing the laws against secesionists, disunionists and abolitionists in all contingencies, then he (Douglas) was with him. Believing the Union to be in danger he would make any personal sacrifice to save it. If the withdrawal of his (Douglas) name would defeat Mr. Lincoln, he would at this moment withdraw it, if his his withdrawal would ensure the election of some man true to the Constitution, and enforce the laws. He appealed to all Union men to rally with one common Electoral ticket, and beat the abolitionists, but conjured them to make no fusion, no bargain, no compromise with any candidate who would not pledge himself to sustain the Constitution and the Union, and to sustain the laws under all circumstances.

This looks more like confusion than like fusion. It looks like elbowing Mr. Breckinridge and his friends out of the party.

HEAVY RAILROAD EMBEZZLEMENT.—The Baltimore Republican of Saturday reports the following particulars of the extraordinary case of embezzlement by railroad conductors, which has been alluded to:

A rumor has been in circulation for some days past that one of the leading railroad companies of Pennsylvania, said to be the Pennsylvania Central, has been robbed of $170,000. That rumor has now assumed a definite shape, and the substance of the affair may be briefly told as follows:—A ticket seller of the company, stationed at an important point, in collusion with seventeen conductors, had for a long time been in the practice of re-selling tickets which the conductors did not punch or cancel, but returned to him perfect, thus enabling him to sell the same ticket several times in succession—the conductors only reporting to the general ticket agent such number of tickets as they deemed it prudent to return. The exact length of time that this simple but ingenious system of robbery had been going on it is impossible to ascertain—long enough, however, to enable the conductors to appropriate to themselves an average of $10,000 each. A considerable portion of the aggregate had been invested in various kinds of properties and securities, and of this the company has fortunately been able to secure a considerable amount.

THE FAIR.—The most complete arrangements are made to secure one of the most attractive and successful exhibitions ever had in Portsmouth. The Field at the City Farm is a most eligible site, and the spacious grounds are fenced in and nearly completed to receive the stock and the large tent which is to contain the vegetables, fruit, flowers, fancy articles, &c. There is ample forage and water near at hand for stock. The Tent will be beautifully decorated, and brilliantly lighted in the evening, for a grand Promenade Concert. The Portsmouth Car for the Town Team will be one of the most unique and elegant affairs of the sort ever seen. There is to be a grand symbolic Arch erected near the entrance of the grounds, which in design and arrangement will be a rare sight.

☞ The "Lieut. Wilson" of which our types made mention as visiting the Isles of Shoals forty odd years ago, with Mr. Burroughs, was Lt. S. Edmiston Watson, well remembered here as Col. Watson, of the U. S. Marine Corps.

☞ Preparations are being made, public and private, for the accommodation and entertainment of one of the largest gatherings of people ever seen in Portsmouth,—at the Fair next week. The Horse Guards will be here with full ranks; accompanied by Hall's celebrated full Band of Boston, sixteen performers, mounted on white horses. Half-fare trains are to run on the Eastern and Concord Roads.

POLICE COURT.

THURSDAY, Sept. 13.

Before Justice Odell—Samuel P. Willey was adjudged to be a common drunkard, and sent to the House of Correction for 30 days; costs $4.30.

☞ The Promenade Concert at the Tent, on the Fair grounds, on Wednesday evening next, will be one of the most attractive entertainments ever given here. The Tent will be finely decorated and well lighted; and the Portsmouth Cornet Band, and Hall's Band of Boston, will furnish the music which will of course be excellent. The grand Arch near the Tent will also be illuminated with transparencies, &c.; and nothing spared to render the occasion pleasant to eye and ear. We understand there will also be arches erected, and other decorations, by citizens, in different parts of the city.

☞ On account of repairs on the Temple, Rev. Moses How will preach at the Hanover Street Chapel next Sunday.

☞ Rev. T. H. Miller will preach at Rye, (Chesley's Hall) next Sunday afternoon at four o'clock: and at Nottingham Square, Sunday Sept. 23.

BLOOD-LETTING.—Samuel Floyd, of Exeter, an intemperate man, about six o'clock Tuesday afternoon, with a knife madly tapped both his arms, with the expressed purpose of suicide. He bled profusely, and was taken into the office of Dr. Perry, (in front of whose residence the act was committed) who stopped the hemorrhage, and then Floyd was taken by the police to jail. The loss of blood did not appear to weaken him much, as on the way he violently resisted the officers, who were compelled to hand-cuff him.—Ballot.

WHERE IS THE "CLIPPER?"—Green posters on the fences and street corners in Exeter having announced that the steamer Clipper, capable of accommodating three hundred persons, would make a trip on Tuesday to Portsmouth, the Navy Yard and Fort Constitution, several persons were on the lookout for such a rare craft in our waters. But up to the time of the present writing (Tuesday afternoon) she has not made her appearance. Where is she?—Ballot.

THE CLEVELAND CELEBRATION, on Monday was attended by the largest popular gathering ever known in Northern Ohio, and the public exercises at the inauguration of the Statue to Commodore Perry were conducted upon a grand scale. Two children of the hero of Lake Erie were present, namely: his only daughter, now the wife of the Rev. Dr. Vinton of New York, and Mr. O. H. Perry of Massachusetts. The presence of large numbers of military and Free Masons added much to the interest of the occasion. The oration by the Hon. George Bancroft, was brief, but was laden with eloquent thought.

☞ Jose Solano Alvear has absconded from Havana with a million and a half of dollars belonging to the Credits Espanol of Madrid.

2 DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.

NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—Steamship Asia, from Liverpool Sept. 1, via Queenstown 2d, arrived at noon to-day.

Naples was tranquil. Garibaldi had quitted Calabria. His destination is not known. It is reported that he had entered Monteleone.

The weather had been more favorable for crops. Breadstuffs had a declining tendency.

☞ The Democratic State Convention met at Concord on Thursday. Ichabod G. Jordan was President, Zenas Clement one of the Vice-Presidents, and John E. Rider one of the Secretaries.

☞ The annual meeting of the Boston and Maine Railroad took place in Exeter, on Wednesday. The meeting was a very tame and spiritless one, inasmuch as the present board of directors having managed the affairs of the corporation so well that a four per cent. dividend is declared every six months, there was no opposition to their re-election. Francis Cogswell, Esq., the President, presided, and the vote for directors resulted in the choice, without a show of opposition, of the old board, as follows:—

Francis Cogswell, Andover, Mass.; James H. Duncan, Haverhill, Mass.; Geo. W. Kittredge, Newmarket, N. H.; Daniel M. Christie, Dover, N. H.; Peter T. Homer, Boston, Mass.; Israel M. Spelman, Cambridge, Mass.; Henry Saltonstall, Boston, Mass.

THE GRAND TRUNK ROAD.—A dispatch from Toronto to the New York Times says the Grand Trunk Railway Directors have informed the Provincial Government that they can run that road no longer unless they receive additional aid from the country. The goverment have answered they have already helped them twice, and that while they would be happy to aid them, they dare not do it on account of the opposition.

☞ See advertisement of Mr. Perham's cheap excursion to Augusta, and the Maine Horse Show.

☞ A marriage was solemnized in Lynn, recently, between a man of fifty and a girl of sixteen years.

Humphreys' Homeopathic Specifics

CURE PROMPTLY and safely all the more common diseases and ailments to which families are subject. In all acute diseases, such as fevers, inflammations, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Rheumatism, Croup, and such eruptive diseases as Scarlet Fever, Measles, and Erysipelas, the advantage of giving the proper remedies promptly is obvious, and in all such cases the specifics act like a charm. The entire disease is often arrested at once, and in all cases the violence of the attack is moderated, the disease shortened, and rendered less dangerous.

Coughs and Colds, which are of such frequent occurrence, and which so often lay the foundation of diseased lungs, Bronchitis and Consumption, may all be at once cured by the Fever and Cough Pills.

In all chronic diseases, such as Dyspepsia, Constipation, Weak Stomach, Liver Complaint, Piles Female Debility and Irregularities, old Headaches, Sore or Weak Eyes, Catarrh, Salt Rheum and other old eruptions, the case has specifics whose proper application will afford a cure in al most every instance. Often the cure of a single chronic difficulty, such as Dyspepsia, Piles or Catarrh, Headache or Female Weakness, has more than paid for the case ten times over.

THE INFANTILE CORDIAL.—We notice that our druggists have received a supply of this article, and also of the world-renowned Dr. Eaton's Infantile Cordial, which every mother should have. It is said to contain no paregoric or opiate of any kind whatever, and of course must be invaluable for all infantile complaints. It is also said that it will allay all pain, and soften the gums in process of teething, and at the same time regulate the bowels. Let all mothers and nurses, who have endured anxious days and sleepless nights, procure a supply and be at once relieved.

My daughter has been troubled with the Scrofulous Humor, causing swelling of the neck, for a number of years, and by the use of four bottles of Dr. S. Swett's Panacea, the swelling has been entirely removed, and her health is good.

LYMAN'S

Improved Patent Metallic Soles.

PATENTED JUNE 7, 1859.

The nature of this invention consists of a metal lic sole for Boots and Shoes, which has been tested and operates admirably. No dampness penetrates through to the inside sole. This is the only device that will operate well between two soles, and is made so thin as not to interfere with the most delicately finished work. The necessity of such a device to fully accomplish the much desired object, and the direful effects arising from damp feet, are too well understood to require any comment.

It is obvious to every one that sole leather is porous, absorbing water, and that the soles of boots and shoes are often damp when they appear dry, causing cold feet, chills, neuralgia, rheumatism, consumption, &c.

Physicians of eminence have pronounced this Metallic Sole an invaluable discovery, and state that, if generally used, it will cause an immense saving of human life.

The right to manufacture and sell the above Improved Metallic Sole for the County of Rockingham has been purchased by the subscriber.

Boot and shoe manufacturers and dealers in Rockingham County furnished with the soles, with right to use, at No. 24 Market Street, Portsmouth, N. H. J. C. CARR.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents.

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, Under the act of 1837.

76 STATE, OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers in writing for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent in the United States, for One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and written decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse." CHAS. MASON, Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of giving their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office." EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents.

BOSTON, February 8, 1858.

"Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, feeling they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART.

From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on twelve rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in HIS FAVOR, by the Commissioner of Patents.

A FEW CERTIFICATES OF THE GREAT SUCCESS —of the— Grover & Baker's Sewing Machines.

[From the wife of the Hon. Jefferson Davis.]

Mrs. Jefferson Davis presents her compliments to Messrs. Grover & Baker, and takes pleasure in saying that she has used one of their box Sewing Machines for two years, and finds it still in good order—makes a beautiful stitch, and does easily any kind of work.

[From J. G. Harris, Governor of Tennessee.]

My wife has had one of Grover & Baker's Family Sewing Machines for some time, and I am satisfied it is one of the best labor-saving machines that has been invented. I take pleasure in recommending it to the public.

[From the Rev. Jonathan Cross, Agent American Tract Society.]

My wife has been using one of your Sewing Machines for the third month, and pronounces it faultless. She can sew more on it in one day, than in ten the old way, and without fatigue. The work is beautiful and durable. She says she would not exchange it for any other one. It is certainly one of the grandest inventions ever made for the relief of woman-kind, and I would recommend every family to get one as soon as possible.

Baltimore, July 14, 1859.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859

Having tested the merits of the various popular Sewing Machines, in the manufacture of our Corsets and Bagians, we unhesitatingly recommend the Grover & Baker, as far superior to all others. ALLEN & FAIRE.

PORTSMOUTH, July 16, 1859.

If you wish to purchase a machine that will do work handsomely and strongly, and will not be liable to get out of repair, call on Mr. Whittemore in Daniel street, see the operation of Grover & Baker's machine, and then place one in your family. They will never consent to part with it, after they understand its operation.

CHARLES W. BREWSTER.

"Zion's Herald," Nov. 19th, 1859, says,—"We would recommend to families and to those about to organize a homestead, to be sure and have a Family Bible, and also one of Grover & Baker's SEWING MACHINES."

A new article for making a VERY RICH SAUCE. Just received and for sale at
No. 12 Market Street, by
JOHN STAVERS.

The Remedies are carefully prepared under the direct supervision and inspection of Prof. HUMPHREY, in order to meet that great and long realized want of the public, namely, remedies for all the more common and simple ailments of life.

A moment's reflection will show that a vast majority of diseases from which we suffer and die, were, at their commencement, simple and trifling. A mere cold, a slight diarrhœa, a pain in the side, or a headache, if neglected, or improperly cured and subdued, in time becomes a consumption, a fever, a dangerous dysentery, Croup or other disease, which all the powers of medicine fail to arrest.

Herein these remedies supply a great public want. Being on hand, simple, so you know at once what to take—planned, so as to cause no repugnance—safe, and harmless occasioning no risk, while the curative effects are positive and certain, they are taken, and at once the spell is broken and the danger allayed.

Experience has amply confirmed the worth of these remedies for families and private persons, as being THE BEST IN USE, THE MOST SIMPLE AND CONVENIENT, THE MOST RELIABLE, AND CERTAIN.

Thousands are and have been using them for some five years past, in every section of the country, with almost invariable success. All speak in the highest terms of their simplicity and certainty, and among our hundreds of agents the uniform testimonial is, that they give good satisfaction to their customers.

Dyspepsia Remedy

DR. DARIUS HAM'S
AROMATIC INVIGORATING SPIRIT.

This medicine has been used by the public for six years, with increasing favor. It is recommended to cure Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Heartburn, Colic Pains, Wind in the Stomach, or Pains in the Bowels, Headache, Drowsiness, Kidney Complaints, Low Spirits, Delirium Tremens, Intemperance. It Stimulates, Exhilarates, Invigorates, but will not Intoxicate or Stupefy.

As a Medicine, it is quick and effectual, curing the most aggravated cases of Dyspepsia, Kidney Complaints, and all other derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, in a speedy manner.

It will instantly revive the most melancholy and drooping spirits, and restore the weak, nervous and sickly to health, strength and vigor.

Persons who, from the injudicious use of liquors, have become dejected, and their nervous system shattered, enervated, and broken down, and subject to that horrible curse to humanity, the Delirium Tremens, will, almost immediately, feel the happy and invigorating efficacy of Dr. Ham's Invigorating Spirit.

What it will do!

DOSE.—1 wine glass full as often as necessary.

One dose will relieve all Bad Spirits.

One dose will cure Heartburn.

Three doses will cure Indigestion.

One dose will give you a good appetite.

One dose will stop the distressing pains of Dyspepsia.

One dose will remove the distressing and disagreeable effects of Wind or Flatulence, and as soon as the Stomach receives the Invigorating Spirit, the distressing load and all painful feelings will be removed.

One dose will remove the most distressing pains of Colic, either in the stomach or bowels.

A few doses will cure the most obstinate cases in the Kidney, Bladder or Urinary Organs.

Persons who are seriously afflicted with any Kidney complaint, will be assured speedy relief by a dose or two, and a radical cure by the use of one or two bottles.

NIGHTLY DISSIPATION.

Persons who, from dissipating too much over night, and feel the evil effects of poisonous liquors, in violent headaches, sickness at stomach weakness, giddiness &c., will find one dose will remove all bad feelings.

Ladies of weak and sickly constitutions, should take the Invigorating Spirit three times a day; it will make them strong, healthy, and happy, remove all obstructions and irregularities from the menstrual organs, and restore the bloom of health and beauty to the careworn face.

During pregnancy it will be found an invaluable medicine to remove disagreeable sensations at the stomach.

All the proprietor asks, is a trial, and to induce this, he has put up the INVIGORATING SPIRIT in pint bottles, at 50 cents, qts $1.

CLIPPER PLOWS

Are manufactured only by the subscribers, the inventors, who offer them to the agricultural interest after they have been

THOROUGHLY TESTED

by experienced Plowmen, who pronounce them

The Best in the Market!

These Plows embrace NINE DIFFERENT SIZES, the largest of which is much in advance of anything in the United States, as regards size, and, like the other sizes of this celebrated Plow, is drawn easily by a team much smaller than is absolutely requisite to draw a Plow of less size, of any other make than the Clipper.

We also assure our Farming friends that as we have hitherto endeavored to make our Plows superior to all others in those points which especially interest Plowmen, we are still endeavoring by unceasing exertion, to improve—if this be possible—upon our former successes, although those who are best acquainted in these matters say, "It cannot be done."

Notwithstanding the immense advantages which these Plows possess over all others, we offer them at THE SAME PRICES as are charged for common grades, satisfied that their great superiority will induce so large a sale, that our aggregate profits will make our business sufficiently remunerative.

D. MOTT'S
CHALYBEATE
RESTORATIVE
PILLS of IRON

An aperient and Stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the Leading Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Innoxious in all maladies in which it has been tried—it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

IN DEBILITY, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, EMACIATIONS, COMPLAINTS OF FEMALES, CHORREA, DYSPEPSIA, DYSENTERY, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, SCROFULOUS TUBERCULATIONS, RICKETS, MISMENSTRUATION, WHITES, CHLOROSIS, RHEUMATISM, INTERMITTENT FEVERS, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, &c.

In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of acute disease or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy in chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very original instances of this kind are in store. Pallid cheeks of female sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to life and exertion for which the physician has no name.

In NERVOUS AFFECTIONS of all kinds and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old oxides, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and over-heating; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispelling the local tendency which forms them.

In DYSPEPSIA, Innumerable are its cures; a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In unchecked DIARRHŒA, even when advanced to DYSENTERY, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently mortal, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent fever, which generally indicate INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, this neglected iron has proved far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well-known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In RHEUMATISM, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In INTERMITTENT FEVERS it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has ever been discovered, in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects.—Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for sports and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by Druggists and Country Merchants, or sent free to any address on receipt of price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to

R. B. LOCKE & CO., General Agents.

PAINTING.—The following dissertation on the art of coloring the features is from Harper's Weekly, and contains some hints that are worthy of attention:—

A good many female faces of the present epoch are popularly believed to be painted. It is unmistakable. The rigid color tells its own tale—and immediately its object is defeated, for what avails the whitening of the sepulchre? Patches are not a droller fashion than hoops, and paint is the most effective fashion of all—until as above. But paint is like perfume. As a person addicted to the use of the latter grows more and more hardened, so that instead of diffusing an aroma he drenches himself until a sweet stench exhales from his person, so one who paints her cheeks gradually loses the delicacy of her eye, and at length plasters her face with rouge. As it is better to be odorless than to smell of musk, so is it to be deadly pale than to show an unchanging cheek. Rouge may be only a fashion, like the coiffure of the hair and the cut of the dress—but it is sure to beget suspicion.—Every man feels that a woman who is hypocritical in her cheek, which is visible, may be more dangerously double in the heart, which is invisible.

The most successful people are those who have but one object and pursue it with persistence. "The great art," says Goethe, "is to judiciously limit and isolate one's self."

A life of full and constant employment is the only safe and happy one.

It must be obvious not only to you, but to every attentive and intelligent person, that the first diseases of infants arise chiefly from a disordered condition of their bowels, and in this connection, we present to your notice, for the alleviation and cure of these diseases, a remedy known as

Dr. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL,

Prepared from a formula used by Dr. Eaton with remarkable success during several years' practice. We know it to be a most reliable and efficacious remedy for infantile complaints, and one trial alone will convince you of its superiority over every other preparation of the kind. It is particularly recommended

FOR CHILDREN TEETHING,

And at this period of infantile life, when your anxious hearts are pained by witnessing the sufferings of your little ones, it will be found invaluable in Preventing the Convulsions, Reducing Inflammation and Relieving all Pain. FOR DISEASES ATTENDING TEETHING, such as Diarrhea, Dysentery, Griping in the Bowels, Acidity of the Stomach, Wind, Colic, and Cold in the Head, we confidently offer this as a certain relief and cure in every case when given in time. It will invariably regulate the stomach and bowels, and its importance in this respect can hardly be estimated.

IN CONVULSIONS,

From which more infants are said to die than from any other disease, the little sufferer is relieved instantaneously, as if by magic; and in this dread complaint alone, its intrinsic value is such that it has been commended from one family to another, until the name of DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL has become familiar as a household word. We now ask your attention to a subject of vital interest to yourself, as well as to your suffering child. DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL contains

NO MORPHINE OR OPIATE,

Of any kind, or of whatever nature, a fact which we are fully warranted in stating cannot be said of any other preparation for infantile diseases, at this time before the public. We find that throughout the country, Mothers are becoming convinced of this truth, and of the sad and blighting consequences which are certain to result from the use of narcotics disguised in the form of quieting remedies; their continued administration being invariably followed by stupefaction and constipation of the bowels, ending oftentimes in convulsions. Here is DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL differs from every other remedy. It

DOES NOT CONSTIPATE

The Bowels, neither does it act by deadening the sensibilities of your children, but naturally, thro' its mild medicinal qualities, by removing all pain and cause of disease. We earnestly recommend you, therefore, to lose no time in procuring a bottle, that you may have at hand a remedy which will never fail to relieve your child in time of need. It is perfectly harmless, and cannot injure the most delicate infant.

Take none but DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL. This you can rely upon. Price 25 cts. per bottle.

APPLEDORE HOUSE,
ISLES OF SHOALS.
This favorite resort for the man of leisure and the invalid is now open. Since last year many alterations and additions have been made, increasing its capacity. Billiard and Bowling Saloons are provided, and every measure taken to secure the comfort and amusement of its guests. An abundance of sweet cream and milk is supplied from healthy cows kept on the Island. The table is faultless. The facilities for fishing have been increased by the addition of new boats and experienced skippers.
When to all these advantages are added the purity of the air—the delicious coolness of the ocean breeze, its invigorating and appetizing power—the loveliness of the scenery—the glory of its sunsets—the cleanliness of its walks—its freeness from dust, mud, and all other annoyances of the kind—it may truly be said to possess advantages and attractions which no other watering place in New England can attain. The capability of the temperature is a natural advantage over the coast or the mountains, which invalids can fully appreciate.
A daily Packet, the SIBYL, Capt. Preble, runs direct to Appledore from Portsmouth, leaving Fire Wharf on the arrival of the morning train from Boston, and returns in the afternoon. The Sibyl has every accommodation for the comfort of passengers which a Packet requires.

THE ONLY PREPARATION
Having Proof so Strong and Direct
as to
Expel the Doubts of All.
For Statesmen, Judges, Editors, Physicians of the oldest schools as well as new, give it their unqualified sanction, and recommend it for all cases of eruptions, and diseases of the scalp and brain; but all woo have used it, unite in testifying that it will preserve the hair from being gray, and from falling to any age, as well as restore.—Read the following:—
Oak Grove, S. C., June 24, 1859.
Prof. O. J. Wood:—Dear:—Your Hair Restorative is rapidly gaining popularity in this community. I have had occasion to lay prejudice aside, and give your Hair Restorative a perfect test:—
During the year 1854, I was so unfortunate as to be thrown from my sulky against a rock near the roadside, from which my head received a most terrible blow; causing a great deal of irritation, which communicated to the brain and external surface of the head, from the effects of which my hair was entirely destroyed. From the time I first discovered its dropping, however, up to the time of its total disappearance, I employed everything I could think of, being a professional man myself, and as I thought, understanding the nature of the disease, but was finally defeated in every prescription advanced.
These and no other circumstances induced me to resort to your worthy "Hair Restorative," which I have every reason to believe, produced a very happy result: two months after the first application, I had as beautiful a head of young hair as I ever saw, for which I certainly owe you my sincere thanks. Rest assured, dear sir, I shall use my influence, which I feel is great, moreover, I shall use my influence, which I flatter myself to say, is not a little.
You can publish this if you think proper.
Yours, very respectfully,
M. J. WRIGHT, M. D.
Jeffersonian Office, Phillips, Me., Dec. 12, 1859.
Professor O. J. Wood—Dear Sir: I feel it my duty as well as my pleasure, to state to you the following circumstance, which you can use as you think proper. A gentleman of this place, is anyway from 60 to 70 years of age, when he was youth; so much so, that he was compelled to wear a wig. He was induced to use a bottle of your "Hair Restorative," which he liked very much; and after using some two or three bottles its hair grew out quite luxuriantly, and he now has a handsome head of hair. The gentleman's name is Bradford, and as he is very well known in our adjoining counties, many persons can testify to the truth of this statement; I give this to you at the request of Mr. Bradford. You can sell a great deal of your Hair Restorative in this and the adjoining counties if you have the proper agents. Yours, &c.,
THOMPSON SURGHNOR.
Dr. Wood—Dear Sir—Permit me to express the obligations I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color; about the time of my arrival in the United States it was rapidly becoming gray, but upon the application of your Hair Restorative it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative as a very wonderful invention, quite efficacious as well as agreeable. S. THALBERG.
The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 15, 1860.

MR. CUSHING'S SPEECH.

In Hon. Caleb Cushing's speech before the Breckinridge meeting in Boston, he speaks thus:

THE WARFARE IN THE PARTY.

It irks me to add my voice to the dissonant din of partizan orators, and the confused clamor of hostile factions with which the air and earth are now tormented. It irks me still more to attempt to reason, discuss, argue, convince, persuade, when those of my countrymen, on whose minds it would be desirable to act, the sincere friends of the Constitution and the Union, are perversely playing at cross purposes—groping about in the dark without intelligent aim—nay, fighting together in blind rage, too passionately eager to stop to inquire who is friend and who is foe.

THE PROSPECT.

But I declare I do not see how or where, in all the Northern States, Mr. Bell or Mr. Douglas is to obtain a single electoral vote, or how it ever was possible, at any time, that either of them should have obtained a single Northern electoral vote, save and except by the aid and the help of the friends of Mr. Breckinridge.

THE REASON FOR HIS PREFERENCE.

I support him as the only true expression of the Constitutional party opinions either of the Democratic party or of the country; as the only true nominee of the Democratic States; and as the only true representative of the Democratic electors of the Democratic States. But I support him, also, and above all, because, in my opinion, the support of him is the only means of defeating the Republican party, counteracting its unconstitutional aims and projects, and in averting disaster from the Union.

THE LAST CHANCE.

I say, with absolute confidence, there is no other path of safety but this. The candidature of Mr. Douglas serves but to divide the Democratic party! he cannot be elected. The candidature of Mr. Bell serves but the purpose of dividing the South; he cannot be elected. Mr. Breckinridge, and he alone, can, if properly supported, carry the South; and in that case there is good cause to exert ourselves, with fair prospects of success, to obtain for him the additional thirty-two votes in Pennsylvania, New Jersey, California and Oregon, if not in New York, and so to make him President.

HE BEGS DOUGLAS TO WITHDRAW.

Nay, do not these considerations appeal to that candidate himself to withdraw from the field?

THE GREAT DANGER.

And I re-assert confidently, if Mr. Lincoln is elected, the Republicans will have to burst up at once, or to attack the domestic rights of the States.

THE TERRIBLE CONSEQUENCES.

What, then, will people of the Southern States, attacked in their constitutional rights, their domestic peace, their property and their persons, do? What will they do? Will they passively submit to be the conquered subjects of New England? No! I do not hope or fear, believe or doubt, what they will do—I know; they will defend themselves to the uttermost, first with constitutional means, and then, if necessary, with extra constitutional means.

Mr. Cushing's attempt to alarm the freemen of Massachusetts will probably not change a single vote. The remembrance of his "Man on Horseback" is too vivid, and the fact that the Ghost did not appear, is too apparent.

FROM SYRIA.—We have intelligence from Syria as late as the 16th of August.—It is of a very interesting tenor. The Jaffa outrage has been settled as follows: The Turkish government give the widow of the murdered man £300, and the four persons now in prison at Jaffa to be sent to Constantinople and condemned to imprisonment for life, and should there be found evidence to convict them of the murder, that they be executed, and that the fifth man be still sought after.

Some 4000 refugees had arrived from Damascus, principally women and children, looking wretchedly. Troops had been sent to Hasbeiya, to bring all the Christians from that region, as the Druses are murdering the Christians with impunity.

The French mail steamer arrived morning of the 16th, with 450 French troops. Two other steamers were also in port with about 2000 troops. The Duch Admiral arrived the same morning in a frigate.

DEATH IN MIDST OF LIFE.—This is a title of a sermon delivered at the funeral of John H. Cutter, July 11, 1860, by Rev. P. B. Day, pastor of the Congregational church in Hollis. Published by request. The text is in Psalms 102:24—"O my God, take me not away in the midst of my days." The object of the discourse is to present some reasons "why a man in the meridian of life is unwilling to die." It is well-written and impressive.

MRS. JUDSON'S LIFE.—The Life and Letters of Mrs. Emily C. Judson, by A. C. Kendrick, D. D., is being published by Sheldon & Co., in New York, in one elegant volume, with a highly finished and accurate likeness of Mrs. Judson. Besides being a book of surpassing interest, it should be known that the profits of the copyright will be wholly devoted to completing the education of the children of Dr. Judson.

FROM CALIFORNIA.

ST. JOSEPH, MO., Sept. 13.—The Pony Express, with San Francisco dates of the 1st, has arrived.

The steamer Golden Age sailed for New York on the 1st, with 222 passengers and $1,288,757 in specie, including $1,197,657 for New York.

Ship Champion cleared for New York with 24,000 sacks of wheat and other domestic products, to the amount of $64,000.

There is a vigorous opposition to Senator Gwin's re-election. Many Democratic conventions exact pledges from legislative candidates to oppose him.

Valuable veins had been discovered in Delnorte county.

Oregon dates of the 28th had been received.

The Democratic State Committee had met and divided almost equally.

The Douglas men are to hold their State Convention on the 17th, and the Breckinriege men on the 18th.

There is great excitement here in consequence of extraordinary mineral discoveries in the neighborhood of Rock Creek and Kettle River. Large numbers of people are going there.

The schr. Ortolan, which left San Francisco last spring, on a gold prospecting expedition, by way of Behring's Straits, has returned and reports no gold found, but says the ground is brilliant with mica, which accounts for the marvellous reports, and which caused the expedition.

Japan dates of the 22d had arrived.

The steamer Candamarrah had arrived home.

The commander of Candamarrah made a highly colored report to the government of the manner in which he and the crew were treated at San Francisco.

The Pabute Indians decide peace and promise to be quiet for a year, to give time to have the cause of the troubles explained at Washington. This probably ends the danger to the Pony Express and overland emigration.

THE KALAMAZOO TRACK A FULL MILE. Since Flora Temple made a mile in the wondrous time of 2:19 3-4, there has been some doubt as to whether the Kalamazoo track, the scene of that performance, is a full mile. Wilkes' Spirit publishes the affidavit of the surveyor as to the actual measurement. He says that he has measured it, and found by actual chaining, on a line three feet from the rail on the sides, and four feet from the rail on the ends, that the said track proved to be one mile two feet and eight inches in length. This sets the matter at rest, and the mile stands to the credit of Flora in the unparalleled time of 2:19 3-4.

☞ The loss of the steamer Lady Elgin has called forth many comments from the press in all parts of the country. The insufficiency of the steamer in the number of boats and life preservers is universally condemned. The catastrophe goes to show that water tight compartments are indispensable to safety on board passenger steamers. The death of Herbert Ingram, a member of the British Parliament, will be mourned in England and America, as he was widely known as one of the most liberal and enterprising publishers of the age. He represented Old Boston in the House of Commons, and was the founder and proprietor of that excellent paper, the Illustrated London News.

BANKING AND TANNING COMBINED.—It may not be generally known that the Branch of the Union Bank in this city is extensively engaged in the tanning business, having a tan yard for that purpose in Chattanooga. A dealer in this city shipped a large lot of hides for the bank of Tanooga yesterday.—Memphis Appeal, May 30.

We have often heard of Banks that skinned people, but never before heard of one that tanned the hide after it was taken off.

SOMETHING LIKE JUSTICE. — Three men went into the store of James Blackford, Tuesday forenoon, quiet, sober and peaceable. Blackford, by his own admission, sold them four drinks apiece and got them drunk, or allowed them to get so, just as you please to word it. Then he went for a police officer and had them arrested for drunkenness. At the Police Court this morning he testified against them and they were each fined a dollar and costs, making $3.47 for each to pay. But Blackford found that he had only just begun business. Judge Gilmer struck out from each bill the 40 cents which Blackford might claim as a witness fee, issued a bench warrant, bro't him up for selling liquor, and fined him $20 and costs—the whole being $22.47—which he paid.—Hartford Press.

AN INDIAN TRADER.—A sagacious attempt at trading is mentioned by a correspondent of the Gloucester Telegraph, who writes from Prince Edward's Island. He says:—

"There are plenty of Indians encamped in the neighborhood and their visits to the fleet are productive of no little amusement sometimes. An old squaw, the other day, went along side a fishing vessel in her canoe and offered to sell a 'porcupine box' for twenty-five cents. The crew said they had no money, but she said if they would buy it, 'she would take a barrel of flour and a small piece of pork!' This modest demand did not result in a trade."

☞ The corner stone of an iron cathedral was laid lately in Victoria, Vancouver's Island. The religious services were conducted by the Bishop, and the corner stone laid by the Governor of the Island, after which addresses were made by the Governor and Bishop.

THE BEST LEGACY.—No man can leave a better legacy to the world than a well-educated family.

A SINGULAR DIVORCE CASE.—In the Supreme Court, Boston, Judge Shaw granted Mary L. Aimstead a divorce from John P. Aimstead, for desertion. The parties are colored, and were married in Boston in 1844. The husband was a fugitive slave, and in 1851, fearing that he would be reclaimed by his master, he fled to Canada.—The wife wrote the master, asking at what sum he valued the runaway. The reply was, that when at hand he was worth $1000, but being in the bush, he would take $500 for him. The wife, by great exertions raised the sum, and having purchased his freedom went to Canada, and brought him back to Boston. Soon after he shipped as steward on a vessel bound to Australia. At Melbourne he deserted the vessel, and as from time to time the wife has been unable to obtain tidings from him, he rests under the imputation of having deserted her also.

☞ The Democratic newspapers speculate, says the N. Y. Post, in the most lugubrious way, on their present political prospects. One of them says that the elections in Vermont and Maine have crushed all hope of success in New England; that the enthusiastic meetings at the West show that Lincoln will carry all before him from Ohio to Minnesota, and that New York, Pennsylvania and New Jersey are alone left as a battle-ground for the party. But success in New York, it seems, is only practicable on the ground that all the factions unite in a hearty assault upon the victorious camp of the Republicans.

DINING ON THE RAIL.—When sleeping cars were introduced on all our great railroad lines, railroad presidents and directors fancied that Yankee invention had done its utmost to provide for the comfort of the travelling public. The managers of the through route between Philadelphia and Harrisburg, Pa., however, have made arrangements to dine their patrons on the train. A portion of the baggage car on the through express has been fitted up as a refreshment car, where pies, cakes, sandwiches, and fruit can be procured by the hungry, at fair prices. The arrangement was perfected last Monday.

☞ It has been officially reported by the Superior of French missionaries in the Lebanon, that the victims to Mohammedan fanaticism exceeds 15,000 persons, and that at Damascus alone more than 8,000 Christians were put to death. The very last mail from Europe brought intelligence that 30,000 Christian women had met with a worse fate than death, and had been publicly sold at twenty-five piasters each.

YOUNG LADY SAVED BY A ROPE.—At a fire in the "Eastern Hotel," in Broad street, Portland, Friday morning last, the daughter of one of the proprietors, Mr. Levi Martin, lowered herself down by a rope thrown up to her by a fireman. The smoke in the house was so thick she could escape by no other means than by help from the outside. She had nerves and courage, and was saved.

LAW AND JUSTICE.—In the Superior Court, Boston, before Judge Morton, a case was argued in a suit upon a bond for the recovery of a small claim. The defendant was a member of the bar—of the Suffolk Bar—and it appearey that he himself drafted the bond, and made it so legally imperfect that he had the assurance to defend the suit under it, claiming that the instrument was of no value. Upon this revelation the Judge remarked that he considered such conduct as almost meriting contempt of the Court. The defending counsel stated that there were certain circumstances in the case which he thought justified him in his course. The Judge replied that he could scarcely conceive of any circumstances in which counsel could come into Court and claim benefit from his own errors. And thus the matter dropped without further public explanation. As it has long been a theoretic aspiration that law and justice should harmonize, we note this incident simply to show the progress making towards a "consummation devoutly to be wished."—Transcript.

☞ The Gardiner Journal in speaking of Col. Perrin's speech in Augusta, a few days since, says:

He defended the institution of slavery, saying among other things, that the Almighty intended the black man as a servant for the white,—a sentiment that was openly approved, so far as we know, by only one person in the audience, and he was very drunk!

☞ A valuable horse dropped down dead in Portland, just after he had eaten his dinner, as his driver was putting him to his work.

NEW CRANBERRIES. — The Hyannis Messenger learns that fifty barrels of cranberries were shipped at Harwich last week for a market in New Orleans, commanding the round sum of $12 per barrel.

☞ The milkmen of Philadelphia are stopped from blowing their accustomed horns on Sunday morning, by the revival of an old law of 1822.

☞ A Western letter says that Carl Shurz will probably be the successor of Mr. Durkee in the U. S. Senate, whose term expires in 1861.

ITALY.—The accounts from Venice are gloomy. The population had diminished more than one-half, and a general stagnation prevailed.

A correspondent of the London News transmits intelligence of a terrific storm in Italy, accompanied by the destruction of buildings and a large loss of life:—

On Tuesday last, the 21st, Turin and the neighborhood were visited by a thunder and hail storm, the fury of which was so terrific and its ravages so great that no man living in this part of Italy remembers anything like it. Every rood of ground in this district has been made as if struck by a frost in January, and all the trees are stripped of leaves and fruit. Birds killed by the hail have been picked up by thousands. Small animals, such as turkeys, hares, and cats, have been found lying dead. Four days after the storm—that is to-day—blocks of ice are still seen in spots having a northernly aspect. Several houses had their roofs carried off, and the very walls of buildings were injured by this cannonade of ice. The loss, very great everywhere, has been the greatest among the vineyards; the vines, it is thought, will hardly be able to bear fruit next year. Near Ferrara the violence of the tempest was still greater, for there houses were leveled to the ground and a church was demolished. The priests at the altor, with eighty persons besides, were killed. The same fate befel many animals.

Humphreys' Homeopathic Specifics

CURE PROMPTLY and safely all the more common diseases and ailments to which families are subject. In all acute diseases, such as fevers, inflammations, Diarrhoea, Dysentery, Rheumatism, Croup, and such eruptive diseases as Scarlet Fever, Measles, and Erysipelas, the advantage of giving the proper remedies promptly is obvious, and in all such cases the specifics act like a charm. The entire disease is often arrested at once, and in all cases the violence of the attack is moderated, the disease shortened, and rendered less dangerous.
Coughs and Colds, which are of such frequent occurrence, and which so often lay the foundation of diseased lungs, Bronchitis and Consumption, may all be at once cured by the Fever and Cough Pills.
In all chronic diseases, such as Dyspepsia, Constipation, Weak Stomach, Liver Complaint, Piles, Female Debility and Irregularities, old Headaches, Sore or Weak Eyes, Catarrh, Salt Rheum and other old eruptions, the case has specifics whose proper application will afford a cure in almost every instance. Often the cure of a single chronic difficulty, such as Dyspepsia, Piles or Catarrh, Headache or Female Weakness, has more than paid for the case ten times over.

☞ Our amiable friend of the Exeter Ballot says, respecting the Rockingham Fair to be held at Portsmouth next week:

Much discontent has prevailed among the people of the County, at the selection, by the officers of the society, of the extreme corner point for the exhibition.

Now we don't believe a word of this "much discontent," for so far as we have learned, from first to last, the members of the society generally have desired the Fair to be held at Portsmouth.

As to the "assurance" of the never-jealous editor of the Ballot, "that the people of Portsmouth did not desire the exhibition among them,"—we care nothing about that statement, and are willing to leave the matter to the test of what our people do for the Fair.

But our impartial cotemporary has another statement, which we pronounce unqualifedly false, viz:

"That the Fair has been fairly forced upon the people of Portsmouth by a member of the board of trustees who resides there."

Now when a man makes statements he don't know to be true, it seems not much better than if he knew them to be untrue. The facts are, that the Trustee referred to never asked for the Fair to be held at Portsmouth, but when inquired of officially, stated what the citizens would do to have it held here—and the question appeared to be, in the Board, between holding it in Portsmouth or not at all. The result will show who is mistaken in this matter, and who has told the truth—and we appeal to the record.

☞ In the Board of Aldermen, Thursday evening, an order passed for the appointment of 10 special police to be detailed for service at the Fair Grounds during the exhibition.

A petition from the Hackmen of the city, for a monopoly of the business of carrying passengers to the Fair Grounds, on Wednesday and Thursday next, was laid on the table.

B. B. Swazey and John A. Hammond were appointed Assistant Engineers in the Fire Department.

☞ The Lincoln and Hamlin flag at the head of Market street was taken in to save it from the storm; and when a man went on the top of the stores to hoist it, on Friday morning, his dog followed him up.—While there, the dog probably saw a canine friend on Market Square; and actually leaped off from the roof of a four-story building, alighting safely on the awning below, at least 25 feet. The dog and the awning are both as good as new.

THE HORSE GUARDS.—The Third Company, located in the eastern section of the State, and to have an Armory in Portsmouth, has secured nearly full ranks; but owing to a portion of the members not having procured uniforms as yet, the Company will not be separately organized or elect officers in time for the parade at the Fair. The ten or a dozen uniformed members resident in Portsmouth, have been most efficiently drilled by Capt. Fuller of the regimental staff, each afternoon of the past week; and men and horses make good proficiency, and will no doubt handsomely pass muster with all the troop.

☞ In reply to numerous inquiries as to the particular time of the Horse Guards' Parade at the Fair, we will just say—that the advertisements state that the exact programme of exercises will be announced from time to time, from the stand on the Field. The troop will come (probably in a special train) on Wednesday, and remain in the city till Thursday afternoon.

☞ The Douglas Democrats of New Hampshire, at their Convention in Concord, nominated the following gentlemen as Electors of President and Vice President of the U. S.:

Henry P. Rolfe, Concord, from the Rockingham District.

George W. Stevens, Laconia, Strafford District.

Thomas W. Gilmore, Newport, Cheshire and Sullivan District.

John G. Sinclair, Bethlehem, Grafton and Coos District.

Ira A. Eastman, Manchester, Hillsborough District.

IMPORTANT POST OFFICE DECISION.—Attorney General Black has decided that the post-office department has the power to withhold letters addressed to fictitious persons or firms, when such names have been assumed as a part of a system to cheat and defraud the public. The fraudulent intent, however, must be very clear. It is a very common practice for sharpers to use the postal service to carry on their operations more widely, and reach persons otherwise beyond their scope, and to operate altogether under fictitious names; and a case of this kind at Baltimore, in regard to which the department desired legal advice, was the occasion of the Attorney General's decision.

ST. JOSEPHS, Sept. 13.—There was a slight fire, last night, in the Catholic Orphan Asylum on Eighty-Ninth street. During the alarm, the frightened children, (a hundred in number,) rushed into the hall, and one of them fell forty feet to the lower floor, and was killed.

REPUBLICAN DEMONSTRATION.—New York, Sept. 14.—Pelatiah Perit presided at the Republican meeting last night. Speeches were made by James O. Putnam, late American Senator, Carl Schurz, and Wm. E. Dodge, President of the recent Bell and Everett meeting. The Wide-Awake procession numbered 10,000 torch-bearers.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—Vera Cruz dispatches state that Oaxaca is in possession of the Liberals. Cordova, Jalapa and Orizaba had been abandoned by the Reactionists, and the Liberals were raising troops to attack Puebla.

☞ The San Antonio (Texas) Herald of the 7th says Capt. Sturg's command fought a bloody battle with the Camanches, Kiowas and Cheyennes, six miles above Fort Kearney, killing 29. American loss trifling.

☞ The Secretary of the Navy has appointed a Board to consider the expediency of altering sailing vessels to steam vessels.

THE CENSUS.—The population of Cleveland, Ohio, is ascertained to be 43,550, against 23,409 in 1850. The Herald having complained that the census was not correctly taken, the marshal offers his fees as a reward if the names of twenty-five omitted persons can be found. He accounts for the small population by the fact that he found 600 unoccupied dwelling houses. The people of Mansfield, Ohio, feeling aggrieved at the United States census, the city council ordered an enumeration to be taken, which made out the population 100 less than the marshal had made it! The census marshal has found a married woman in Albany twelve years of age.

REWARD FOR GOOD WORKS.—Florence Nightingale, in her sickness and retirement, is cheered by a continuous stream of blessings that takes its fountain head from her merciful sojourn in the Crimea.

LYMAN'S

Improved Patent Metallic Soles.

PATENTED JUNE 7, 1859.

The nature of this invention consists of a metallic sole for Boots and Shoes, which has been tested and operates admirably. No dampness penetrates through to the inside sole. This is the only device that will operate well between two soles, and is made so thin as not to interfere with the most delicately finished work. The necessity of such a device to fully accomplish the much desired object, and the direful effects arising from damp feet, are too well understood to require any comment.

It is obvious to every one that sole leather is porous, absorbing water, and that the soles of boots and shoes are often damp when they appear dry, causing cold feet, chills, neuralgia, rheumatism, consumption, &c.

Physicians of eminence have pronounced this Metallic Sole an invaluable discovery, and state that, if generally used, it will cause an immense saving of human life.

The right to manufacture and sell the above Improved Metallic Sole for the County of Rockingham has been purchased by the subscriber.

Boot and shoe manufacturers and dealers in Rockingham County furnished with the soles, with right to use, at No. 24 Market Street, Portsmouth, N. H. J. C. CARR.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents.

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, D. C. Under the act of 1857.

76 STATE, OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers connected with the Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through its inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse." CHAS. MASON, Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office." EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents.

BOSTON, February 8, 1858.

"Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and the one now pending, such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him on procuring their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART.

From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on TWICE rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in HIS FAVOR, by the Commissioner of Patents.

A FEW CERTIFICATES OF THE GREAT SUCCESS
—of the—

Grover & Baker's Sewing Machines.

[From the wife of the Hon. Jefferson Davis.]

Mrs. Jefferson Davis presents her compliments to Messrs. Grover & Baker, and takes pleasure in saying that she has used one of their low Sewing Machines for two years, and finds it still in good order—makes a beautiful stitch, and does easily any kind of work.

[From J. G. Harris, Governor of Tennessee.]

My wife has had one of Grover & Baker's Family Sewing Machines for some time, and I am satisfied it is one of the best labor-saving machines that have been invented. I take pleasure in recommending it to the public.

[From the Rev. Jonathan Cross, Agent American Tract Society.]

My wife has been using one of your Sewing Machines for the last three months, and pronounces it faultless. She can sew more on it in one day, than in ten the old way, and without fatigue. The work is beautiful and durable.—She says she would not exchange it for any other one. It is certainly one of the grandest inventions ever made for the relief of women-kind, and I would recommend every family to get one as soon as possible.

Baltimore, July 14, 1859.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859.

Having tested the merits of the various popular Sewing Machines, in the manufacture of our Capes and Raglans, we unhesitatingly recommend the Grover & Baker, as far superior to all others. ALLEN & PAINE.

PORTSMOUTH, July 16, 1859.

If you wish to purchase a machine that will do work handsomely and strongly, and will not be liable to get out of repair, call on Mr. Whitemore in Daniel street, see the operation of Grover & Baker's machine, and then place one in your family. They will never cause you to part with it, after they understand its operation.

CHARLES W. BREWSTER.

"Zion's Herald," Nov. 10th, 1859, says,—"We would recommend to families and to those about to organize a household, to procure and have a Family Bible, and also one of Grover & Baker's SEWING MACHINES."

JOHN STAVERS.

THE Remedies are carefully prepared under the direct supervision and inspection of Prof. HUMPHREYS, in order to meet that great and long realized want of the public, namely, remedies for all the more common and simple ailments of life.

A moment's reflection will show that a vast majority of diseases from which we suffer and die, were, at their commencement, slight and trifling. A mere cold, a slight diarrhea, a pain in the side, or a headache, or hoarseness, at first easily cured and subdued, in the handsomest manner, become, a dangerous dysentery, Croup or other disease, which all the powers of medicine fail to arrest.

Herein these remedies supply a great public want. Being on hand, simple, so you know at once what to take—pleasant, so as to cause no repugnance—safe, and free from nauseous risk, while the curative effects are positive and certain, they are taken, and at once the spell is broken and the danger allayed.

Experience has amply demonstrated the use of these remedies for families and private persons, as being THE BEST IN USE, THE MOST SIMPLE AND CONVENIENT, THE MOST RELIABLE AND CERTAIN.

Thousands are and have been using them for some five years past, in every section of the country, with most favorable success. All speak in the highest terms of their simplicity and efficacy, and among our hundreds of agents the uniform testimony is, that they give good satisfaction to their users.

Dyspepsia Remedy

DR. DARIUS HAM'S AROMATIC INVIGORATING SPIRIT.

This medicine has been used by the public for six years, with increasing favor. It is recommended to cure Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Sick Headache, Pain, Wind in the Stomach, or Pains in the Bowels, Headache, Drowsiness, Kidney Complaints, Low Spirits, Delirium Tremens, Intemperance. It Stimulates, Exhilarates, Invigorates, but will not Intoxicate or Stupefy.

As a Medicine, it is quick and effectual, curing the most aggravated cases of Dyspepsia, Kidney Complaints, and all other derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, in a speedy manner.

It will instantly revive the most melancholy and drooping spirits, and restore the weak, nervous and sickly to health, strength and vigor.

Persons who, from the injudicious use of liquors, have become dejected, and their nervous systems shattered, constitutions broken down, and subject to that horrible curse to humanity, the Delirium Tremens, will, almost immediately, feel the happy and invigorating efficacy of Dr. Ham's Invigorating Spirit.

What it will do!

DOSE.—1 wine glass full as often as necessary.
One dose will remove all Bad Spirits.
One dose will cure Nervous Headache.
Three doses will cure Indigestion.
One dose will give you a good appetite.
One dose will stop the distressing pains of Dyspepsia.

One dose will remove the distressing and disagreeable effects of Wind or Flatulence, and as soon as the Stomach receives the Invigorating Spirit, the distressing load and all painful feelings will be removed.

One dose will remove the most distressing pains of Colic, either in the stomach or bowels.

A few doses will remove all obstructions in the Kidney, Bladder or Urinary Organs.

Persons who are seriously afflicted with any Kidney Complaints, are assured speedy relief by a dose or two, and a radical cure by the use of one or two bottles.

NIGHTLY DISSIPATION.

Persons who, from dissipating too much over night, and feel the evil effects of indulging in liquors, in violent headaches, sickness at stomach weakness, giddiness &c., will find one dose will remove all bad feelings.

Ladies of weak and sickly constitutions, should take the Invigorating Spirit three times a day; it will make them healthy, and happy, remove all obstructions and irregularities from the menstrual organs, and restore the bloom of health and beauty to the careworn face.

During pregnancy it will be found an invaluable medicine to remove disagreeable sensations at the stomach.

All the proprietor asks, is a trial, and to induce this, he has put up the INVIGORATING SPIRIT in pint bottles, at 50 cents, qts $1.

CLIPPER PLOWS

Are manufactured only by the subscribers, the inventors, who offer them to the agricultural interest after they have been

THOROUGHLY TESTED

by experienced Plowmen, who pronounce them

The Best in the Market!

These Plows embrace NINE DIFFERENT SIZES, the largest of which is much in advance of anything in the United States, as regards size, and, like the other sizes of this celebrated Plow, is drawn easily by a team much smaller than is absolutely requisite to draw a Plow of less size, of any other make than the Clipper.

We also assure our Farming friends that as we have hitherto endeavored to make our Plows superior to all others in those points which especially interest Plowmen, we are still endeavoring by unceasing exertions, to improve—if this be possible—upon our former successes, although those who are best acquainted in these matters say, "It cannot be done."

Notwithstanding the immense advantages which these Plows possess over all others, we offer them at THE SAME PRICES as are charged for common grades, satisfied that their great superiority will induce so large a sale, that our aggregate profits will make our business sufficiently remunerative.

D. MOTT'S
CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE
PILLS & IRON

An aperient and Stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen, sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that this preparation of Iron can be compared with its Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions to which it is necessary in almost every conceivable case. Innoxious in all maladies in which it has been tried—it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

IN DEBILITY, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, EMACIATIONS, CONSTIPATION, DIARRHŒA, DYSPEPSIA, DYSENTERY, INCONTINENT CONSUMPTION, SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, SALT RHEUM, MISMENSTRUATION, WHITES, CHLOROSIS, RHEUMATISM, INTERMITTENT FEVERS, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, &c.

In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of acute disease or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy, or of chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and that complication of nervous whites, which depends upon want of air and exercise for which the physician has no name.

In NERVOUS AFFECTIONS of all kinds, and for reasons similar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old oxides, it is vigorously conic, without being exciting and over heating; and, as it is regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency, which forms them.

In DYSPEPSIA, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Pills has relieved Pains that have suffered for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In unchecked DIARRHŒA, even when advanced to DYSENTERY, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and resultant hectic, which generally follow INCONTINENT CONSUMPTION, this remedy has allayed the alarm of the patient, physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well-known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy, and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In RHEUMATISM, both chronic and inflammatory—in the former case, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In INTERMITTENT FEVERS it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has ever been discovered, in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects.—Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition to active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 10 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by Druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to

R. B. LOCKE & CO., General Agents.

Morning Chronicle.

If we spend the time, the nervous energy and mental fire, in doing the duties of life, which we often spend in dreading them, we and the world would be stronger and better. All the severe tasks of life only grow more and more formidable as we look at them from a distance, while we grow weaker all the while, and less disposed to grapple with them. We should inspire, with an honest, brave heart, what are our duties here and now; and with what of mental energy we can summon at the moment, we should go forward to perform them. In the very act of attemping to do them, we shall gain strength to do them.—Not before, but at the time, the needed strength will come. Not while we dread, but while we do the work of life, the Master helps us.
